FRIDAY EVENING, JULY 2 THE WEST POINT OF CANADA. A BRILLIANT CLOSING - SUCCESSFUL TERM - A BRIGHT GRADUATING CLASS - OFFICIAL APPROVAL.

On Wednesday the Royal Military College held its annual closing exercises, and sent forth its first graduates with considerable pride. The demonstration made testified such a red letter day in its history.

The College was thrown open to the public at 11 a.m., and many visitors inspected the buildings. Some of the rooms were much disordered, owing to the preparations for the closing ball and the conclusion of class work, together with the packing up of the cadets preparatory to their final or holiday fitting.

To entertain early visitors the gymnastic classes conducted a series of exercises in the gymnasium under Sergeant Morgan, who is a splendid athlete as well as a good instructor. The second exercise was followed by boxing exhibitions of Cadets Skinner and Hubbell; a bayonet match between Dennison and Greenwood; then vaulting the horse, performances on the parallel bars and the rings, by a large class followed, eliciting frequent applause.

The medals generously presented by the late and present Governors General of Canada for 1880, to be awarded to the Cadets who are respectively first, second and third in general proficiency, as determined from the date of their joining the College to the date of their graduation, have been won by: Gold medal, Sergt.-Major A. P. Perry; silver medal, Sergt.-Major J. McPherson; bronze medal, Sergt.-Major J. Spelman. These honors were won by four years' steady and close competition, needing no comment.
