It will be a piece of good fortune for the militia of Canada should Sir Alexander Campbell be permanently placed at the head of the Department of Militia and Defence. The proposed changes of staffs and the stand taken on behalf of the Mi litary Academy here in his speech on Wednesday, show a liberal and determined aystem.

On Tuesday the Kingston Field Bat tery performed their annual target practice, which took place on the farm of Mr. George Mooers, Front Road, township of Pittaburg, about seven miles from the so was her cargo. city, the weather being most favourable for shooting. We give the number of points made, which is said to be as good as that obtained by any volunteer corps in Canada. Each man had to fire five rounds within a certain time, seven minutes and thirty seconds being allowed fer loading, siming and delivering each shot. The longest time occupied by any batteryman was seven minutes and five seconds, while Lieut P. G. Wilmot did some splendid shooting in the shortest time, namely, three minutes and forty seconds. The score is as follows: Gr. W. McLaughlin Sergt J. McLean 40 Capt. H. Wilmst 39 Second Lieut, P. Wilmet.

The Battery completed its annual drill yesterday, but it did not break camp and return home until this morning.

Personal Items.

The Ven. Dr. Parnell, Archdescon of Kingston, was very cordially received on Sunday last in his new parish. The curate has returned here to undertake the work of the Clerical Secretaryship of the Diosee. A curate to Kemptville will soon be appointed. Sir Alex. Campbell returned to Ottawa yesterday afternoon. He was the gnest of the county member, Mr. G. A Kirkpatrick. Sir Alexander is deservedly liked in Kingston. Mr. Leavitt, Brockville Recorder, and Mr. Wood, Cape Vincent Eagle, spent yesterday in the city.

Grape Culture.

Mr. Gallaher, of the firm of Gallaher & Gauthier, grape cultivators at Beacons field, Quebec, has visited Kingston to open with Mr. Radford, senior, an agency for their justly celebrated wines. The vineyards of this firm are sixteen miles from Montreal, and cover ninety acres, forty of which were planted this spring. One hundred thousand vine Square Kingston. cuttings are ready to fill orders coming from Manitobs, and even France. Besides cultivating twenty varieties grape, the firm have a farm devoted small fruits. The enterprise displayed by the proprietors, in engaging largely in the manufacture of native wine and in the cultivation and sale of vines, is deserv. ing of the recognition received from the Quebec Government in the way of a bonus granted them.
