The Australian Ministry has been de feated at the polls, but they have resolv ed on continuing in office until the New House meets and only to resign in obedience to a vote of non confidence. For this action on the part of the Victoria Government there is a preponderance of precedent, although it is contrary to the course latterly adopted both by Gladstone and Beaconsfield and by the Mackenzie Ministry of this country in 1878.

A motion has been carried in the Beitish House of Commons deprecating the erection of a statue to the late Prince Imperial, as being inconsistent Sir John to bring about such a result with the national character of the edifice and calculated to impair the cordial retion, and the facts of the case will likely lations at present subsisting between prove that the sole object in issuing the England and Republican France. The Canadian cricketers have been compelled by the general failure of their expedition to prematurely cut short their trip, which was originally intended to have lasted some time longer. An occasional gleam of success slightly redeemed and relieved the monotony of failure, but as was generally foreseen and predicted the whole expedition has been a most inglorious one. Carrying coals to New- tal castle were not a circumstance to the folly of taking Canadian cricketers to England, with any expectation of anything but almost uniform defeat.
