stinately and habitually opposed to capi- |. tion was justified by the enforced removal of the subject to Rockwood Lunagreat infirmity. The post mortem examination clearly verified the claim of wild insanity, and though the announcement of this result was made two weeks since, not one of the Tory journals which so eagerly discussed the matter when they had nothing to act apon but idle speculation, has done Mr. Blake the justice or their own sense of fair play the favor of making a retraction of their slanderous, eff sions. It is seldom, however, that circums ances give them the denial so swiftly.
