REMINDEES.

Amarican Hotel-7:00 p.m. at City Hall-7:30 p.m.

ROARD of Audit at II a.m.

ing at 7.3 p.10. WOMAN'S Prayer Meetting for the success o Dunkin Act in St. Andrew a Hall at 10 a.m.

THE SESSION.

The subjects of legislation during the coming a sation of the Provincial Assem- the profits from which are barely suffi bly are, as we write, still matter for spec- cient to pay five per cent. interest upon ulation, though the House to day assem- | their bonded debt. What the amount of 11 as. It must not be supposed that be private investments in Canadian Rail cause the Globe seeks to bestir the cupid- ways is, no reliable estimate can be madeity of the dwellers in the Provincial Me- but of the one hundred and seventy. tropolis for the expenditure of half a seven millions of capital stock entered as million of deliars for new Assembly paid it is quite safe totput down twentybuiltings, that the leading Reform jour- live millions of dollars as the total banknul declares upon this point the mind of ruptcy of our Canadian Railways. While the Provincial Administration. Nor our credit has this appalling figure against need we believe that because the Globe it, there is wisdom in the criticism advocates the construction of an air-line | those English journals whose contention thore is the least chance of the dispersion of the surplus among the railway pro moters whose ambition and interest it is to make Toronto a Railway centre at the expense of the Province. If there exists to cast aside all thought for the interests | its analysis of the vote, the -of the community at large, in order to trality. It has a adorn and magnify the principal city of lie to a "

is not a decent ripple. When the question total pummelling may lead to such re- lowing therefrom." rail say expenditure will be productive? ry less uncertain at the next general ples of temperance only should not be ed for pop, and another mixture was tem he only sold one occasionally, and ples of temperance only should have the stock answer is such as is current elections. We do not desire to be un-gration has not followed the recent rail taken advantage of it. Necessity almost the greatest curses. It had troubled should be sorry to see the Dunkin Act which had been published in the Picton gration has not followed the recent rail taken advantage of it. Necessity almost the greatest curses. It had troubled passed if it was not going to some good, the country. The compelled that course.

The drawlish Covernment suppressed game of the Church and taken advantage of it. Necessity almost the greatest curses. It had troubled to some good, the greatest curses of the greatest curses. It had troubled to some good, the referred to the manner in which the compelled that course.

The drawlish Covernment suppressed game of the Church and the best were only 10 and last year 16. (Comto the people of Ontario, whereby they whose should be the nominal and personmay profit from the lessons of the past, may profit from the lessons of the past, al victory, was sure to result in a Conserwould be non-successful until the people during the same length of time. there and win for themselves abroad some revalues of their drinking values of the obligations they are bound to fulfil. than Mr. Robinson did last year." Noth- harm, and this will continue until it is following by a noisy commotion, which vil, were amusing. The grapes went sions the military had to use bayonets. the Credit Valley Railway, the leader of whom is credited with saying at the inspect of since an unusually full vote was polled.

Now this is just the thing that is not evident there was one thing he could discuss, that the Legislature relevant to the law and product the sale, but the remperance. They had the privilege of their the law and product the sale, but the remperance. They had the privilege of their the law and product the sale, but the remperance. They had the privilege of their the law and product the sale, but the remperance. They had the privilege of their the law and product the sale, but the leader of the law and product the sale, but the leader of the law and product the sale, but the leader of the law and product the sale, but the leader of the law and product the sale, but the leader of the law and product the sale, but the leader of the law and product the sale, but the leader of the law and product the sale, but the leader of the law and product the sale, but the leader of the law and product the sale, but the leader of the law and product the sale, but the law and product the sale, but the leader of the law and product the sale, but the leader of the law and product the sale, but the law and product the sale sale, but the law and product the sale sale, but the law and product the sale sale coption of his enterprise that he wanted Mr. Britton's Reform friends voted for thing that is sinful, as the license sys- gated a part of its duty to the people mark of the founder of some Highland McKelvey's Reform friends supported gislature of the country was not charged their man just as cordially. In fact, we glan who disdained the goodly contoury cannot see how either candidate could be with the care of men's consciences or cipal of the debt is payable at the end of twenty or thirty years, and in these provision is by the by-law made for the provision is by the by-law made for the condition of the lieuwest of the debt is payable at the end of the Liberal party who have were told that if the liquor traffic was boots had to be of a certain style, &c., but the legislation of modern times was but the legislation of modern time acquisition year by year of a sinking to proceed anything of a sinking to the Eeferm party and good governing to the Eeferm party and g We are unable to mention an ment.

under any railway by-law, but happen to THE ANTI-DUNKIN MEETING. know that some municipalities have in the case of by-laws for other than railway ing a sinking fund; and have year after year imposed a rate merely sufficient for Voting Down the Resoluti paying the interest. What the practica and legal consequences of such conduct Mass MELTING in favour of the Dunkin Bill may be it is impossible to predict, but R. octas Meeting of St. Paul's Literary So- The total municipal debt of Ontario railways is five millions five hundre thousand dollars -a small part of tha ANCIENT ST. JOHN'S LODGE.-Regular Meet | enormous contribution of seventy-eight millions of dollars made by the Domin. ion, Provincial and municipal Governments in aid of railways. Towards the interest on this vast sum not one penny ling. is directly contributed by our Railways,

----THE MAYORALTY VOTE.

that abligation is at this moment fully admixture of politics into the recent plause.) discharged. We have not yet reached the | municipal contest. Our contemporary, point in the development of our Provin- however, has violated the municipal ar- Mr. C. V. Price said he had been taked

the Province. The progress of railway construction in this Province in the Province of the Council, he had construction in this Province in the Province of the Council, he had construction in this Province in the Province of the Council, he had construction in this Province in the Province of the Council, he had construction in this Province in the Province of the Council, he had constituents to the Council, he had lieved some of them (seven-eighths of the Council, he had lieved some of them (seven-eighths of lieved some of them) were great frauds (applause)—as the mittent that the province of the Council, he had lieved some of them to consider the Council, he had lieved some of them (seven-eighths of lieved some of the Council, he had lieve to a craze. Schemes, the wildest that the cause of that gentleman's defeat. give expression to his conclusions—and great as the Dunkin Act. (Renewed the public. He pronounced the Dunkin Act. (Renewed the public. He pronounced the Dunkin figures say that Dr. McCammon was the crase of that gentleman's defeat. ever entered the brains of projectors, ar | Several innocent theories are first adductional, and | very gentleman so nearly overhauled by | ther delay in erecting such a fire proof no somer spoken of, than all the machine and t iniquitous special legislation, are set in ceived more votes than Mr. Britton, and, recognized the evils growing from in- ble and discontent prevails; but he was law can prevails in mo ion. It matters not that the country listly, that Mr. Britton received less temperate habits—it was useless for any also quite satisfied that the Dunkin Act resist illegal infringement. And if he into Council. Had this transpired, how many countries, their to be traversed is a pathless wild, that votes than Mr. McKelvey. Others are man to try or shut his eyes to the Dunkin Act passed because he he. its lumber trade has been prosperously added, however, that are of greater signisery ed for a quarter of a century by the ficance; and that gently draw aside served for a quarter of a century by the ficance, and that gently draw aside enness; but while they cannot but see temperance men, he said, and he sug- nothing which was wrong. (Applause.) accomplished their purpose. It is easy which attended the exhibition of Canacheap activity of rivers running to points the transparent veil which is supposed to these things they should try to work out gested that others might be benefitted by the resolution was put and met to agree with the News that "consider dians at Philadelphia. Since last session to the second resolution was put and met to agree with the News that "consider dians at Philadelphia. Since last session to the second resolution was put and met to agree with the News that "consider dians at Philadelphia. Since last session to the second resolution was put and met to agree with the News that "consider dians at Philadelphia. Since last session to the second resolution was put and met to agree with the News that "consider dians at Philadelphia dians where loss can be manufactured and the conceal Conservative mysteries from pur the most practical remedy possible. The lits application. He had been Chairman the same fate as the first. It was voted ing the opposition brought to bear against the differences between Ontario and Queproduct easily shipped; it matters not blind Reformers. The result, we are temperance men were no doubt honest in bad visited the different hotels. that the railway credit of the country is told, was due "to the fact that some who their purpose, earnest in zeal and disinary and spoke of their respectable character. so low in the money market that railway had voted last year for Mr. Britton terested, beyond the interest they may In Picton, where the Dunkin Act was in stocks are worthless and railway bonds thought they might as well cast their manifest for the welfare of their fellow- operation, he had seen more drunkenare an investment always hazardous, and billots this time for Mr. McKelvey." beings. (Applause.) He was desirous Kingston so dispeputable as to reflect discredit What can this mean but that citizens of that all should know where he stood, for upon the financial character and standing a certain political persuasion "might as he was not one of the milk and water of the country-all this goes for nothing | well" pursue the same policy of Reform | Aldermen who were backward in taking | were you in Picton? with to large a class of people. It is in- disintegration this year as they did last position on the question. He moved disputable that there is not a Railway in year? That policy was in each case to the first resolution, as follows : the Dominion whose accurities are worth encourage leading Reformers and their That in the opinion of this meeting plat, that the stocks of all are unsaleable, respective personal friends to knock their the abolition of the licenses of the city, as tendency, that the tide of immigration which was foretold to follow the railway which was foretold to follow the railway that the screness resulting from the men were lying drunk on the floor, and of intoxicating liquors, increasing rather to a secret, illicit and unsupervised sale men were lying drunk on the floor, and of intoxicating liquors, increasing rather to a secret, illicit and unsupervised sale men to the use of a worse stimulant, and of intoxicating liquors, increasing rather to a secret, illicit and unsupervised sale men to the use of a worse stimulant, and of intoxicating liquors, increasing rather to a secret, illicit and unsupervised sale men to the use of a worse stimulant, and of intoxicating liquors, increasing rather to a secret, illicit and unsupervised sale men to the use of a worse stimulant, and of intoxicating liquors, increasing rather to a secret, illicit and unsupervised sale men to the use of a worse stimulant, and of intoxicating liquors, increasing rather to a secret, illicit and unsupervised sale men to the use of a worse stimulant, and of intoxicating liquors, increasing rather to a secret, illicit and unsupervised sale men to the use of a worse stimulant, and of intoxicating liquors, increasing rather to a secret, illicit and unsupervised sale men to the use of a worse stimulant, and of intoxicating liquors, increasing rather to a secret, illicit and unsupervised sale men to the use of a worse stimulant, and the unsupervised sale men to the use of a worse stimulant, and the unsupervised sale men to the use of a worse stimulant, and the unsupervised sale men to the use of a worse stimulant, and the unsupervised sale men to the use of a worse stimulant, and the unsupervised sale men to the use of a worse stimulant, and the unsupervised sale men to the unsupervised sale men to the unsupervised sale men to the use of a worse stimulant, and the unsupervised sale men to which was foretold to follow the railway that the soreness resulting from the mu-based on this indisputable proposition criminations as would demoralize the enis put-How can you show that further tire party, and make Conservative victo- sidering the question, the broad princi- States as well as Canada. I myself ask- of brandy, while under the license sysamong certificated bankrupts, assump derstood to complain of this policy; the excite the feelings and arouse the symtions in plenty and a minimum of unveri- opportunity was laid open on the one pathy. The present license system was flable facts, garnisaed with "buts" and side, and it would have been a remarka- the result of the deliberation of the wisest desired to speak against the resolution, yet. But he did not advocate drinking; It is not to be wondered at that immi- acumen on the other side not to have read that intoxicating drink was one of platform, rese and remarked that he drink whiskey. He read a statement, niz tion. The elements in his little growing small by degrees and beautifully the Etate had passed down to them bling, and held that the Constitution motion) In Picton he found public game are a municipal bonus, a Govern- less at each succeeding contest, till, at the law in its present form. By that license would permit of similar legislation in the opinion greatly against it (the bill.) ment subsidy, bonds irredeemable in the last election, he squeezed into the law a certain number of licensez was is. Act would not down timpling the author. Many would vote to repeal it. In some ment subsidy, bonds irredeemable in the last election, he squeezed into the law a certain number of licenses was isperpetuity, and a finger in the contract. House by a pitiable margin of 17 sued to tavern-keepers which enabled rities could suppress the shebeens, and pealed and County Councils had refused trom which he may withdraw a retiring votes. The transfer of nine supporters on them to sell up to a quart, and the law sobriety could be enforced. He referred to put it to a vote when asked to do so. allowance. A large lumber traffic is the that occasion would have rung his knell gave the municipal authorities the power to visits he made to the gaol, and the sad The revenue in the city from the license only vision in the future which suffices as M. P. for Kingston. The Local House to see that nothing was done improperly scenes he encountered there—all point system amounted to $15,000, $5,000 of only vision in the future which summers as M. P. for Kingston. The Local House to see that nothing was done improperly ing to the necessity of some restraint bewhich went to the Government. It had ing placed upon the drinking customs. The merchant election had been carried by Reformers in the carrying on of their trade. What ho conceives that a large volume of for two Parliaments-Mr. Robinson's was proposed? They were asked to He explained that the License Inspector they would need no policemen, no gaol, ign rant of the fact that the lumber trade of Canada, great and important as it is. of Canada, great and important as it is, decisive majority of 144. It became shall be no more drunkenness—that man violate the law—that their conduct was be arrived at. Instead of decreasing the violate the law—that their conduct was be arrived at. Sidney station air miles west and important as it is, decisive majority of 144. It became shall be no more drunkenness—that man violate the law—that their conduct was be arrived at. Instead of decreasing the violate the law—that their conduct was be arrived at. Instead of decreasing the violate the law—that their conduct was be arrived at. his always been the most fluctuating taken and important as it is, his always been the most fluctuating taken in the world; the manufacturer who taken in the world; the manufacturer who is a to in the world; the manufacturer who is the world; the world; the manufacturer who is the world; the world; the manufacturer who is the world; the world; the manufacturer who is the world; the world; the world; the manufacturer who is the world; the Loks firward to a steady stream in the of a law of profession, the Reformers and that the trade must go back to where soap factories, as evidences of what must many shebeens, into which the police drawn by four locomotives, on each of a law of profession, the Reformers and that the trade must go back to where demand for his wares from the Utopian were steadily gaining on their opponents, it was years ago—into the hands of the He moved "that the Dunkin Act, being the line of the land of the hands of the He moved that the Dunkin Act, being the line of the land of t demand for his wares from the Utopian were steadily gaining on their opponents, it was years ago—into the hands of the he licensed infis. He noted the absonce the licensed infis. He noted the absonce have been and would be sure to overhaul them at wholesale vendor and the illicit dealer! the best act on the statute book to re of the usual yard accommodation for have a several men with the best act on the statute book to re of the usual yard accommodation for have a several men with the best act on the statute book to re of the usual yard accommodation for have a several men with the best act on the statute book to re of the usual yard accommodation for have a several men with the best act on the statute book to re of the usual yard accommodation for have a several men with the best act on the statute book to re of the usual yard accommodation for have a several men with the best act on the statute book to re of the usual yard accommodation for have a several men with the best act on the statute book to re of the usual yard accommodation for have a several men with the best act on the statute book to re of the usual yard accommodation for have a several men with the best act on the statute book to re of the usual yard accommodation for have a several men with the best act on the statute book to re of the usual yard accommodation for have a several men with the best act on the statute book to re of the usual yard accommodation for have a several men with the best act on the statute book to re of the usual yard accommodation for have a several men with the best act on the statute book to re of the usual yard accommodation for have a several men with the best act on the statute book to re-of the usual yard accommodation for have a several men with the best act on the statute book to re-of the usual yard accommodation for have a several men with the s ist who patriotically invests his few hun- the next Dominion election. Despairing, (Applause.) The experience in the city would lose their weapons freely in case any one attraction. Despairing, (Applause.) died or few thousand dollars to help on therefore, of the success of an open at- was that when they attempted to restrain ing liquor, it will be to the benefit of the town where he made his wealth with- tack on a united party, the strategy of the trade it had a tendency to pass into of the city to adopt it." out a radical, all these are deceived, and these are deceived, disappointed and disgreted.

There is but one of two courses open. Tarre is but one of two courses open feat. Each civic contest, no matter plause.) The practical application of place, in which he said during 1875, from should be taken the same as against the sued a proclamation forbidding all perputation for a common sense appreciation view the News proceeds: "Doubtless Mr. | the public were taught to know that it | The telegram was handed to the chair- fermented wine. His remarks about | ing things grew worse at the station of the difficulties they labor under and McKeltey received more Conservative votes is wrong and injurious and doing much man I who read it again, preceded and winebeing stated to be the work of the de-The extension of existing lines of railway ing could be more "doubtiess" than this stamped entirely out. They had at the spective parties were animated.

They had at the showed the feeling with which the respective parties were animated.

They had at the showed the feeling with which the respective parties were animated. steadily. The connexion of these lines shows that Mr. Britton, from a Conser- visions of the Act, for the punishment succeeded by tremendous cheering. y the extension of the line now stretch- vative standpoint, occupied precisely the of liquor dealers who sold liquor to the railway policy of this part of Canada. binson last year. We are further told: but in Kingston a case had never come resolution which he was about to move vocate the use of alcohol, except for meroute against such routine must be resist | considerable holding back among Mr. It had been looked upon as a dead let misunderstood—he did not appear as the and if not alcohol, they would have some All rival schemes for cutting out ex- Britton's Reform friends, as, had he ob- ter. (Applause.) He was not going to champion of intemperance. No object thing else. (Applause.) isting railway enterprises are to be con- tained a fair support from that class of discuss the right of the Legislature to al- tion could be urged against his resolusi ned to the keeping of the promoters of electors he would have been elected." ter the law and prohibit the sale, but tion, because it did not tend towards in "a boat of his own." This distinctive him and supported him heartily, but Mr. tem had been declared to be. The Le. but the people were to some extent to

THE DUNKINITE FORCES

The only man who cannot be charged such that they outnumbered the anti lawyer. (Applause.) Doctors were dif-Dunkinites, and succeeded in defeating ferent, for some of them give men doses useless. (Applause.) A man was had a population of 15,000. Of these l chair, and on the platform were seated bitual drankards, about 75 per cent. as A man can walk, and breath and eat those who intended to move and second the resolutions and others.

CHAIRMAN'S ADDRESS. Mr. Kirkpatrick said he had been ask- should continue as they are until they Voice-"No, no." who had organized the meeting; and in and to partially interfere in the trade led tain extent, it being a fixed principle of who had organized the meeting; and in to the danger that they might commit a accepting the position, he explained the larger proportion of injury than benefit. the meeting, 'pro' and 'con,' and that his (Applause.) They know that in proportional, because it aims to infringe upon can be gained by an increase of railway facilities tending to reckless competition. which he lightly touched upon; but the It would disorganize the whole revenue question was, will the Dunkin Bill be ef- system, and no Government which did i fectual in diminishing these evils? and could exist a year. When the drinking We refer the public to our remarks of can this object be advanced without in- customs were removed, the evil would be of this Province to promote the prosperi- out the civic canvass, for proof of the He asked an attentiive hearing for the moral influence and force, by moral ty of Toronto at the general expense, sincerity of our intentions to avoid the speakers who would follow him. (Ap- teaching and intellectual uprising. (Ap-

THE ILLICIT TRAFFIC.

what they called pop. (Applause.) ble short-sightedness and lack of party men. From the earliest history they had Rev. Mr. Graffter, who was seated on the he would not recommend any one to in Nonh's Ark, no one objects to, but referred on political grounds, and there sins. All that was required of them in rudely depriving a large and respectathat the boat should be furnished to day fore the attempt to place the onus of Mr. | was to deal with crime and offences | ble class of our citizens of the means to the people of Toronto at the expense of the Provincial pocket is another matthe wedge of dissension which it is sup- was the grand secret of the British Em- tion of drinking, it is a despotic infring-Lot them put their greed and their posed has been fairly entered in the Bo- pire. It knows no sin in the person, but ment on the liberty of the subject." ter. Lot them put their greed and their boat in their own pockets rather.

The only other course open is to resist for a time all further aid and support to rule way enterprises in every quarter. The other way is a time of the Liberal And the Conservative to act on his own that it is more the habit of the Liberal for a time all further aid and support to rule way enterprises in every quarter. The other way is a time of the left of the said a large number of persons was then the liberty of the subject. We want the committal of the Liberal than the Conservative to the belights of the world we way from these people was a scoreive measure, and he disapproved of clergymen taking that the conservative to the liquid traffic of the liquor traffic on the liquid traffic of the liquid traffic on the liquid traffic of the liquid traffic on the liquid traffic wrong it should not be licensed.

right or wrong, but because the demands planse of the country required it. He likened the licensing of liquor selling to the lirity had a right to rule. They were told be reached. Never rob in order to do tury to be compared to Africans ! (Apthat one great reason why the Dunkin right. (Appliause.) In the first place and we were of a progressive century, their duties. He rejoiced to announce the Licensed Victuallers constituted a large and respectable class of the comastic meetings we have ever attended was held in the City Hall. It was called to protest against the passage of the Dun held in the City Hall. It was called to protest against the passage of the Dun

he gave nothing for the money he receiving the protest against the passage of the Dun
he gave nothing for the money he receiving the protest against the passage of the Dun
he gave nothing for the money he receiving the protest against the passage of the Dun
he gave nothing for the money he receiving the protest against the passage of the Dun
he gave nothing for the money he receiving the protest against the passage of the Dun
he gave nothing for the money he receiving the protest against the passage of the Dun
he gave nothing for the money he receiving the protest against the passage of the Dun
he gave nothing for the money he receiving the protest against the passage of the Dun
he gave nothing for the money he receiving the protest against the passage of the Dun
he gave nothing for the money he receiving the protest against the passage of the Dun
he gave nothing for the money he receiving the protest against the passage of the Dun
he gave nothing for the money he receiving the protest against the passage of the Dun
he gave nothing for the money he receiving the protest against the passage of the Dun
he gave nothing for the money he receiving the protest against the passage of the Dun
he gave nothing for the money he receiving the passage of the Dun
he gave nothing for the money he receiving the passage of the Dun
he gave nothing for the money he receiving the passage of the Dun
he gave nothing for the work passage of the Dun
he gave nothing for the statutes had completed their kin Act, but the attendance of tempe- ed there would be little business done. spend large sums of money in their business, and it was unconstitutional that medical profession should advocate liquor rance men and their supporters, was with giving anything for nothing is the they should be deprived of their busi- for medicinal purposes. He was but a ness, and the material used in it rendered | young man yet, but in the United States he had seen a tent with 300 patients the resolutions submitted to the meet. that fix them. (Laughter and applause.) ways under restraint for the good of the with typhoid fever, and yet not one He compared classes and said Kingston city, but there were certain rights which nothing to say against the men in were the people's birthright, and which Mr. G. A. Kirkpatrick occupied the put about one-half per cent. down as ha- oo power can rightly deprive them of general remarks on the effects of intemmoderate drinkers, and 25 per cent. total abstainers. As regards the income he him. So with drinking. He can drink said to balance profits and the losses and what he pleases, when he pleases and voting on Thursday, he retired. but little remained to the good. They where he pleases. ed to take the chair by the gentleman could see their way clearly what to do; Mr. McGuire should say "no" to a cer-

conditions by which he was bound—that His idea was that the legislation should with his neighbour's rights., (Applause.) the question should be fairly discussed by move as the public mind justify it. He declared the Dunkin Act unconstituabolishing the liquor trade in one sweep.

> Dr. Evaus moved, to other channels."

Dr. Skinner(from the audience) - When] Ald. Metcalfe-Last Dominion Day. Ald. Metcalfe-I did not notice half a great deal of trouble and embittered dozen foreigners in the whole place. (Ap- friends. He referred to the fact that beer saw more drunkenness in a given space of | tion with a Picton man lately who said time than I ever saw before, and I have he had sold more liquor now than forbrandy: He had been in Canada In response to the question if any one

A TERTOTAL DISSENTER.

A QUERY AND ANSWER.

OPPOSING THE RESOLUTION.

VESTED BIGHTS REVIEWED?

"That the Dunkin Act is objectionable

The speaker continued that the trade be, being liable to produce an injury in then them. (Applicated) He was aston- Opening of the Legislature, was licensed not so much because it was endeavouring to enforce a good. (Ap. lished to see gentlemen occupying the por Opening of the Legislature.

censing of cabmer; (necessary evils) - many of the fair sex present. It had speakers had referred to seven-eighths of been said they did not like Dunkin, but those whose cause he advocated as had no sympathy with the cry that the their presence controverted the fact.

were wayfarers to a large extent, so that | tion it blows hot and cold in almost a | He regreted to find there i

"That whilst the abolition of licenses

had been dissatisfied. It had caused a the liver and lights out of man it was years and knew men to be drinking while key all that time and they were alive United States, that land of free lovism usages, and their systems of making | Belleville, Jan. 3 .- Early this morn- loss $7,000.

to the points they were destined to attain is a matter to be furthered wisely and conservative strength mainly lies clearly with currant wine. The properties were attimated, any one was hurt. A man named Jac.

The motion, submitted by Mr. Price, enticing to the taste, and how had the devil anything to do with it? The same was then submitted and declared lost, devil anything to do when succeeded by tremendous cheering.

The corporation of these lines are the punishment succeeded by tremendous cheering. fermented, and the wine was made, but warned to turn back. It was this morning, and still furthur remanded the devil had nothing to do with it. (Loud reported that he could not live, until the 9th inst. westward from Ottawa must become same position this year as did Mr. Ro- drunkards against instructions of friends; Mr. E. H. Smythe trusted that the laughter and applause.) He did not ad- but since it is thought he will recover. - A Tribune Washington special says Any opposition to or dictation from To One thing is evident, that there was a up wherein the law had been enforced. THE LOSS TO DEALERS. Mr. G. J. Tandy, in seconding the resolution, announced himself as a tempe- train, and endeavored to disconnect the ing votes necessarily ceases. ed to the fact that if the Dunkin Act distance away from the station, one of loss or depreciation of property, and in pairing force was called upon and repaired Bank of Montreal-183 8 4, 183 1-4, sales 1 at the deficit of $10,000 to the city revenue. | the mishap, the military protecting them He denied that intemperance prevailed to while doing it. Owing to the reported set. Bank of Commerce-Ex Div 122 1 2, a very large extent among the working | thement of the matter, everything is | Ontario Bank-103, 102 1 classes of England, probably not more now quiet. It is expected the troops Bank of Toronto-17514, 1'4 34. than one per cent. He dwelt upon will return to Toronto this evening. City Bank 97 1.2. 91,
Kingston's financial condition, and to the Toronto, Jan. 3.—The greatest satis Montreal Telegraph Co-119 1'2, 119, 914 at fact that in meeting the liabilities, the faction is expressed on all sides at the Dominion Telegraph Co 913-4 asked. Council can illy spare $10,000 revenue. termination of the Grand Trunk strike. National Bank 00, as they had done. (Cheers.) One of the The Speech of the Lieutenant embodying the Judge's recommendations will be submitted -among others a bill extending the Voter's List Act, with modifications to municipal elections, and a Bill giving votes to the sons of farmer in certain cases. Further improvement ters. It is propose I to ask assistance liquor traffic; his opposition was directed wards improving the qualifications of against the traffic itself. After a few teachers. Reports would be laid before them as to the working of the license law perance, on the meeting to-night and the of last session. The Act hat already led perance. A bill would be submitted; embodying further amendments calculat the approval of the Parliament them tasted liquor. (Applause.) He had

Dr. Evans' motion was then put and

"All Things to All Men."

ost by a large majority.

DEAR SIR, -Your contemporary spplies | the Dominion. Should this agreement go tion to the population the drunkenness the liberty of the constitution. He the moral reflection, "a man never loses into effect the criminal lunatics now convote should not be pledged one way or the other. Every one in the audience the other. Every one in the audience the constitution. The time morals were lifted the other the other than the audience the constitution. The time moral reflection, a man need the constitution. The time moral reflection, a man need the constitution. The time moral reflection, a man need the constitution. The time moral reflection, a man need the constitution. The time moral reflection, a man need the constitution. The time moral reflection, a man need the constitution. The time moral reflection, a man need the constitution. The time moral reflection, a man need the constitution. The time moral reflection, a man need the constitution. The time moral reflection, a man need the constitution. The time moral reflection, a man need the constitution. The time moral reflection, a man need the constitution. The time moral reflection, a man need the constitution. The time moral reflection, a man need the constitution. The time moral reflection, a man need the constitution. The time moral reflection, a man need the constitution. The time moral reflection to the constitution. The time moral reflection to the constitution. The time moral reflection to the constitution that the distribution that the distribution that the distribution that the moral reflection to the constitution that the moral reflection that the moral reflect advocates the construction of an air-line of railway from Toronto to Ottawa that of the Act of railway from Toronto to Ottawa that of the adage that "honesty is the seems that still further provision must be of the adage that "honesty is the seems that still further provision must be of the adage that "honesty is the seems that still further provision must be of the adage that "honesty is the seems that still further provision must be of the adage that "honesty is the seems that still further provision must be of the adage that "honesty is the seems that still further provision must be of the adage that "honesty is the seems that still further provision must be of the adage that "honesty is the seems that still further provision must be of the adage that "honesty is the seems that still further provision must be of the adage that "honesty is the seems that still further provision must be of the adage that "honesty is the seems that still further provision must be of the adage that "honesty is the seems that still further provision must be of the adage that "honesty is the seems that still further provision must be of the adage that "honesty is the seems that still further provision must be of the adage that "honesty is the seems that still further provision must be of the adage that "honesty is the seems that still further provision must be of the adage that "honesty is the seems that still further provision must be of the adage that "honesty is the seems that still further provision must be of the adage that "honesty is the seems that still further provision must be of the adage that "honesty is the seems that still further provision must be of the adage that "honesty is the seems that still further provision must be of the adage that "honesty is the seems that still further provision must be of the adage that "honesty is the seems that still further provision must be of the adage that "honesty is the seems that still further provision must be of the adage that "honesty is the seems that still further provisio press the evils of intemperance, some of sholishing the liquor trade in one sweep. I the truth of which was ilthe part of some of the prisoners. On lustrated by the Doctor's election. It is of the insane, if our means of receiving R. & J.GARDINER analysis he came to the conclusion that to be feared, however, that the News is a and caring for these afflicted persons are there had been 150 individual cases, and triffe less consistent than the Doctor, as to keep pace with annual requirements these did not all belong to Kingston but in the matter of Frontenac Ward elec- which unhappily are to be anticipated. any bligation on the part of the people yesterday, and our utterances through flicting other evils upon the community? must be brought about gradually, by that the habitual drunkards numbered to find there is a necessity for increased accommodation that the habitual drunkards numbered re-election of the old members, it de- for the blind and for deaf mutes about one-half per cent. A large number clares Frontenac Ward "has no reason to The propriety of an appropriation for and the only way to prevent these people | the News complained that a "number of | for the instruction of these classes will. from stealing was to put them in gaol. persons combined to defeat Dr. Mc- demand consideration. Notwithstanding Ald. Medcalfe agreed with the previ- According to the Dunkin argument they Cammon on account of his temperance the large sums hitherto applied in aid of the pub- against the Dunkin Bill, and he had an- had been for his life time a testotaller. causes which brought about the agitation tor's success. But the funny feature of commended their attention to these apswered in the affirmative. When the He did not stand up as the champion of lost the business lies in the gusto with which plications. The safety of the records in > not so easy to see the consistency of pat- at Ottawa a Committee of the Government ting on the back as "splendid" the oppo- of Quebec, and an authoritative decision would fail to accomplish the beneficial ef- sition, whose success would have re- as to the award of 1870 was mutually aralso to be "gratified." In view of the award or any settlement of the important said he knew something of the temporary could not possibly be gratified, mination of the provincial boundary by operation of the Act-he had lived except by the admission of a faurth Al- the agreed method of an arbitration the Dr. Skinner-When foreigners were where the Act had been tried, and he derman on the delegation to the City appointment of a new arbitrator on behaif of the province recently became to be relieved from it. Meanwhile a > > s would like to ask the public, through final decision within a few months. He your columns, whether it is the worse of had given directions that the Public or for a druggist to sell female pills pub- them. The estimates for public service licly advertized as not to be taken at a cer- have been propared and will be submit-

THE MILITARY ESCORT.

· FRONTENAC WARD.

A Question in Point,

TWO MEN WOUNDED!

by this deficiency. 'He looked upon the tempted to tamper with the engines. -Mr. Sewell's winter navigation is Dunkin Act as an emanation from the The train, which left Sidney at 10:15 now succeeding.

> The other case: "A man fell when run; the favorite solution of the Presidentia When a team was leaving the depot last | Senate to administer the office ad interim night, the crowd poured a shower of This will be brought about by Democrats stones, coal and frozen snow and mud af- in the Senate debating questions arising ter it, and several shots were fired. A in count until noon on March 4th, when Eall and Winter few of the daring strikers boarded the it is claimed that the operation of count-ready for service, and freight and pas- -- A well known Boston physician has The called for it. He disapproved of said he never stood upon the platform Landsdowne all right at 10:40 and is of __The best authorities declare that an

may be looked for in educational matthe diminishing of the evi's of intemthe Government of the Dominion for the CHEAP DRESS MATERIALS

ed to increase the efficiency of the law. An agreement has been arrived at with purchase of the Rockwood Lunatic Asylum, subject to their approval and In Navy Blue, Seal Brown, Prane and otler in the country were guilty of larceny, complain." On Saturday and yesterday additions to the existing establishments WOMAN'S PRAYER MEETING. ous speakers that the drinking evils were cial resources where it becomes our duty deplorable, and he would support anydays, if he were remains to speak thing tending to diminish them. He Applause.) He reviewed some of the pression of its own pleasure at the Doc- projected railways for fresh grants. He land 1876. TITHE ANNUAL MEETING of the County these conclusions were that the panking the ruination of held that, to be successful, any law must the "anti" Dr. Now, if Dr. Evans num building. While the laborious and protection and other business. Members alcohol was working the ruination of be backed by moral sussion. As long as these two, viz.: Act would not accomplish the object its

> him, Dr. McCammon has every reason to bec received the attention of the Govern- be rewarded. be gratified with the result." But it is ment. Members of the Government met fects anticipated, it may have the adverse versed the "result," at which the News, ranged, such a decision being found to be seemtial to either an acceptance of the Temperance Society. In moving this resolution the Dr. above, the generous desires of your con- matters embraced in it. For the deter- DY the kind permission of the County Councessary, the distinguished judge who was to occupy that position having requested provisional line had been mutually deter-mined upon. At a former session a considerable amount of additional materials for the ascertainment of the ultimate boun-Sin, -I do not care a brass button | daries had been collected. A about the result of the squabble between | ment of the case of Ontario had been pre-thirty, aged sixty eight years. -Railway accident at Copenhagen; nine men killed, and thirty wounded.

Disposing of the Geneva Award WHEELER INTERVIEWED.

Crew of British brig "Louisa" saved FRIENDS OF DUNKIN by SS. "Olympic." -- Fire in Watertown this morning, destroying the tannery of Geo. Parker;

assisted by the Rev. John Gallagher, Mr. V

No more elgeant or acceptable Present can offered to a friend or relative than a Rich Black Silk Dress A Handsome Colr'd Silk Dress A Real Lish Poplin Dres. A Lyons Silk Velvet Mantle.

A choice assortment of the above Goods ofter ing at specially low prices, at

Also-a large assortment of Fashionable Shades, with Trimming, tomater

Honiton Lace Handkerchiefs.

PRINCESS STREET. Dec 16, 1876.

TO-MORROW.

A PRAYER MEETING will be held in the A. St. Andrew's Hall, on THURSDAY

Notice.

I of Frontenac Agricu'tural Society, will 1 . held at the Office of the Secretary Treasurer Clarence Street, on WEDNESDAY, the 17th

T. AST EVENING, at the City Hall or vici-

La nity, A POCKET BOOK AND DIARY, (1876,)

Kingston, Jan' 3rd, 1877

ST. JAMES' CHURCH

D cil, the next Monthly Meeting of this Scon TUESDAY EVENING, Jan. 9th, at 7:30: At this Meeting, A MUSICAL ENTERTAIN-MENT will be provided by leading amat use of Kingston and its vicinity. Tickets of admission 20 cents.

STORMY OR MILD !

the Dunkinites and anti-Dunkinites, but pared. Everything is now ready for the The Crowd of Cash Customers is always to be found fence for a tavern keeper to sell whiskey, Accounts for 1876 shall be laid; before

> 89 PRINCESS STREET 89 The Great Bankrupt Sale

Judge McCully of Nova Scocia Su-preme Court, died last night at nine Special Bargains in all Classes of Goods for the rest of the DRY GOODS.

DURING THE ELECTION: All are cordially invited.

N.B .- No collection.

KING STREET, INTIMATE THAT THEIR NEW STOCK OF

Overcoatings,

Dress and Business Suitings,

(the public) in like manner. Our usual Stock of Broad Cloths

Doeskins and Cashmeres are extra good value this

Parties entrusting us with their orders will nor be disappointed.

this season's manufacture, together with Clothing For Sale, Cheap,

Made Stocks this season.

As we are determined to clear out our Ready

MERCHANT TAILORS.