> ONE RESULT. -- We cannot say what effect the disorderly meeting of last even ing may have upon the feelings of the community, but one of its other effects has been the breaking of about fourteen benches in the City Hall. As those who did the injury cannot be taxed very well, we may put the less down as part of the expense of passing the Dunkin Actone of the unnecessary expenses.

MATRIMONIAL. - We are happy to be able to offer our congratulations following the marriage of Mr. William John Gibson, B.A., of the Township of Kingston to Miss Isabel Robinson, of Kingston The event has called forth expressions the kindest wishes for the welfare and happiness of the wedded couple. The occasion was not only marked by the enertainment of a large number of guests at Mr. Robinson's house, but the father of the bride also gave his employees supper at the Chop House.
