GRAY'S SYRUP OF RED SPRUCE GUM

FOR

Coughs, Colds, Loss of Voice, Hoarseness, Bronchial and Throat Affections.

The Gum which exudes from the Red Spruce tree is, without doubt, the most valuable native Gum for Medicinal purposes.

It is remarkable power in relieving certain severe forms of Bronchitis, and its almost specific effect in curing obstinate hacking Coughs, is now well known to the public at at large. In this Syrup (carefully prepared at low temperature), containing a large quantity of the finest picked Gum in complete solution, all the Tonic Expectorant, Balsamic and Anti-Spasmodic effects of the Red Spruce Gum are fully preserved. For sale at all Drug Stores. Price 25 cents per bottle.

WOODS IN WINTER.

When winter winds their piercing chill,
And through the hawthorn blows the gale,
With solemn feet I tread the hill
That overbrows the lonely vale.

O'er the bare upland and away
Through the long reach of desert woods,
The embracing sunbeams chastely play
And gladden these deep solitudes.

Where, twisted round the barren oak,
The summer vine its beauty clung,
And summer winds the stillness broke,
The crystal icicle is hung.

Where, from their frozen urns, mute springs
Pour out river's gradual tide,
Shrilly the skater's iron rings,
And voices fill the woodland side.

Alas! how changed from that fair scene,
When birds sang out their merry lay,
And winds were soft, and woods were green,
And the song ceased not with the day.

But still wild music is abroad,
Pale, desert woods! within your crowd;
And gathering winds, in hoarse accord,
Amid the vocal reeds pipe loud.

Chill airs and wintry winds! my ear
Has grown familiar with your song;
I hear it in the opening year—
I listen, and it cheers me long.

SPICE BOX.

—Wisconsin cheese of the Samson kind is plentiful.

Krupp employ 15,000 men in cannon making.

—History is easily committed to memory; it repeats itself.

—Umbrellas this season have unusually fine handles.

—Since the Centennial, mosaic jewellers have risen in favor.

Democratic specie in New Orleans is in the shape of Nicholls.

—It was only a little May party that went down into Maryland.

—A sequel to the 'Song of a Shirt'—The 'Tale of a Coat,'

—There is a health life—about four hour's steady practice with a snow-shovel.

—Bennett belongs to several clubs. A good use for them would be to lay on his back.

—Washington was the only President unanimously chosen by the electors.

—An Indianapolis couple celebrated their golden wedding by procuring a divorce.

—Sleep can be courted by laying a jug of hot water at your feet on retiring.

—The Bishop of Manchester, England, does not approve of dancing. And that's good authority.

—They are no longer called "pretty waiter girls." They're "lady conversationalists," if you please.

—Another fifteen months will not, probably, witness the deaths of three such millionaires as Astor, Stewart and Vanderbilt.

—John Bright's son is praised as a brillant young man; but his style appears to be one of vituperation and commonplace.

—To Indianapolis belongs the honor of having invented a fine-tooth comb which can also be used of a stove handle and a tack hammer.

—A Milwaukee reporter, writing up his first hop, describes one of the belles of the evening as a graceful and bewitching little toad.

—A New Jersey woman is so cleanly that she uses two rolling pins, one for the pie crust and the other for her husband's head.

—Correspondents can go with the Russian army when it marches, but the Czar's instructions are: 'Stick to the truth or go to Siberia."

— Suspicious-looking drop-letters should not be taken from the post-office during the next two weeks. This is the season books are balanced.

—There is much less of obtaining money under false pretence than formerly, probably owing to the difficulty of obtaining money under any pretence.

—Now is the time to test your faith in religion—he who can sit down on a side-walk three times running, get up and walk off, humming hymns or quoting Scripture, such a man is a Christain.

THE BROAD SHOULDERED LISTON.—Chas. Liston, of London, was one of the most eminent Surgeons of modern times. Pulmonary consumption was hereditary in his constitution, but when the first symtoms showed themselves, did he shut himself up in his office? No, he knew, from his vast experience, that such a course meant speedy death, but he bought a boat, and every morning rowed for an hour on the Thames, and this exercise, in connection with WINGATE'S PULMONIC TROCHES, carried him to a ripe old age, with unimpaired vigor, and he was always known as, "the Broad Shouldered Liston," Yet after his death an examination showed a long deap scar in his left lung, where the foul disease first broke out, and was effectually cured.

MANHOOD RESTORED.

Victims of youthful imprudence, who have tried in vain every known remedy, will learn of a simple prescription, FREE, for the speedy cure of nervous debility, premature decay, lost manhood, and all disorders brought on by excesses. A CARD.—To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a receipe that will cure you FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D., Bible House, New York City.

Hide Bound Horses.—A horse is said to be hide-bound when his skin will not slip under the pressure of the hand, but strikes as if it was glued, which condition is always dependent on a deranged state of the stomach and digestive organs—by correcting which, and giving to them a healthy tone and condition the disease or complaint will disappear. Experience has preved that the means best adapted to this end is "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy." It has been used in numerous cases with complete success, generally effecting a cure in a few days. It is the best condition medicine known, and may be given with perfect safety at all times and does not require that the horse be kept from work. Remember the name and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package. Sold by all medicine dealers.
