HOLLOWAY'S PILLS & OINTMENT

The PILLS Purify the Blood, correct all disorders of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys and Bowels, and are invaluable in all complaints incidental to Females.

The OINTMENT is the only reliable remedy for Bad Legs, Old Wounds, Sores and Ulcers, of however long standing. For Bronchitis, Diphtheria, Coughs, Colds, Gout, Rheumatism and all Skin Diseases it has no equal.

BEWARE of NEW YORK COUNTERFEITS.

sold under the name of "Holloway & Co.," by J. F. Henry, Curran & Co., Druggists, and also by the Metropolitan Medicine Company, New York, with an assumed trade mark, thus ——Again one Joseph Haydock of New York, likewise passes off counterfeits of his own make under the name of Holloway & Co., having for a trade mark a Crescent and Serpent, McKesson & Robbins of New York are agents for the same.

These persons, the better to deceive you, unblushingly Caution the Public in the small books of directions affixed to their Medicines, which are really the spurious imitations, to Beware of Counterfeits.

Unscrupulous Dealers obtain them at very low prices and sell them to the public in Canada as my genuine Pills and Ointment.

I most earnestly and respectfully appeal to the Clergy, to Mothers of Families and other ladies, and to the public generally of British North America, that they may be pleased to denounce unsparingly these frauds.

Purchasers should look to the Label on the Pots and Boxes. If the address is not 533, Oxford Street, London, they are the Counterfeits.

Each Pot and Box of the Genuine Medicines bears the British Government Stamp, with the words "HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT," thereon. On the label is the address, 533, Oxford street, London, where alone they are Manufactured.

☞ Parties who may be defrauded by Vendors selling spurious "Holloway's Pills and Ointment," as of my genuine make, shall on communicating the particulars to me, be amply remunerated, and their names never divulged. Signed THOMAS HOLLOWAY.

Daily British Whig

TUESDAY EVEN'G, JAN'Y 23, 1877.

FORGET NOT THE DEAD.

Forget not the dead who have loved, who have left us.
Who bend o'er us now from their bright homes above;
But believe, never doubt, that God who bereft us
Permits them to mingle with friends whom they love.
Repeat their fond words, all their noble deeds cherish.
Speak pleasantly of them who left us in tears;
Other joys may be lost, but their names shall not perish,
While time bears our feet through the valley of years.

Dear friends of our youth can we cease to remember
The last look of love, the low whispered prayer;
O cold be our hearts as the ice of December,
When loves tablets record no remembrance there.
Then forget not the dead, who are evermore nigh us,
Still floating, sometimes, to our dreamhaunted bed;
In the loneliest hour, in the crowd they are by us;
Forget not the dead; O forget not the dead.

Sir Edward Thornton on Constitutions.

Sir Edward Thornton has been obliged to give a lesson to a clique of over-zealous reformers in Washington. They had taken it upon themselves to abolish the office of President and substitute in its place a council, and had written to the English Minister for a detailed statement of the principles of the British government. The reply was as follows: "Gentlemen,—In reply to your latter of yesterday's date I must express my regret that it is out of my power to give you details for which you ask. It must indeed be supposed that my duties here are very light that I could find time to write what would require so much thought and labour. As to the relative merits of the governments of the United States and of Great Britain, the question reminds me of the phrase which I had to copy so often when a boy, that comparisons are odious." Therefore to enter upon the discussion of the question might lead to such a comparison.

A HORROR.—An Ottawa report of the 20th inst., says:—"This morning two men found a quantity of brains and human hair on the side of a water hole, near the bridge over the Hull slides; under the bridge they also found a pool of blood. It is supposed that the man Hutchinson, who suddenly disappeared from Hull several weeks ago, was murdered there. The citizens, on hearing of the affair, turned out in large numbers, and are now engaged in cutting the ice in the slides, and searching for the body. It is supposed Hutchinson was first murdered, and then dropped into the water hole. Three men, named Dogherty Gravis and Kelley, have been arrested on suspicion of having murdered him. The greatest excitement prevails.

A DYING HEAD CENTRE.—It is announced that O'Mahony, the Fenian Head Centre, once famous or notorious—as people choose to consider him—is dying. It is probable that by this time he is dead. The New York Herald, in a notice of the republican chieftain, says that he recruited his forces mainly among the Northern troops during the late war; and praises him as a very accomplished Celtic scholar. It adds, in effect, that he has lived long enough to prove that he was not responsible for the stealings by which the so-called patrotic fund raised for promoting the attack on Canada, was made to disappear, inasmuch as he has ever since been in very straitened circumstances.

TO THE Free & Independent Electors

OF THE

COUNTY OF FRONTENAC.

GENTLEMEN:

HAVING BEEN REQUESTED TO OFFER myself as a candidate at the approaching election for the Local Assembly, I beg to solicit your suffrages therefor in my favour.

From an intimate acquaintance with the requirements of the agricultural community I think I could be of considerable service in promoting your interests in that respect. My whole attention (if elected) shall be solely devoted to the advancement of the County, in conjunction with that of our Province.

As a Liberal Conservative, my political views are already well known to you, and on the day of nomination I hope to present them more fully to your notice.

I enunciate no loud protestations of what I will do, but every farmer is aware that in returning me, he will best advance the future prosperity of the County.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,
Your Obedient Servant,

NERVOUS HEADACHES.—How distressing is this complaint with its constant throbbing, so difficult to cure, as it seems to resist all the ordinary remedies. In such cases WINGATE'S NERVO TONIC PILLS give immediate relief, and in nearly all cases, if the directions are followed will effect a complete cure.

CATARRH

Cannot be cured by Snuffs, Washes, or Local applications. Thousands have been cured some of 40 years standing, by using the CONSTITUTIONAL CATARRH REMEDY. Certificates and treatise on Catarrh mailed to any address on application to T. J. B. HARDING, Brockville, Ont. Sold by all Druggists. Price—$1.00 per bottle.

A CARD.—To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a receipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D., Bible House, New York City.

Is health worth having? If it is protect it—it is a jewel as easily lost as virtue, and in many cases as difficult to recover. In this climate, and more particularly at this season of the year, people are very apt to take cold and suffer from sore throat, coughs, spitting of blood and pulmonary complaints generally, which if not checked immediately lead to serious consequences. The question arises, which is the quickest and most effectual remedy? Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers have been before the public for twenty years, and have always given perfect satisfaction, and invariably effect permanent cures when taken in season. Sold by all druggists and country dealers. Price 25c per box.

Hide Bound Horses.—A horse is said to be hide-bound when his skin will not slip under the pressure of the hand, but sticks as if it was glued, which condition is always dependent on a deranged state of the stomach and digestive organs—by correcting which, and giving to them a healthy tone and condition the disease or complaint will disappear. Experience has proved that the means best adapted to this end is "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy." It has been used in numerous cases with complete success, generally effecting a cure in a few days. It is the best condition medicine known, and may be given with perfect safety at all times and does not require that the horse be kept from work.
