It is remoured that the Hon. Jos. Cauchon, at the close of the session, will be named as Commissioner for the sattle ment of the Alaska boundary. In this event the names of Messrs. A. Woods or Dr. Rinfret are mentioned as the probable candidates for Quebec Centre, in the Liberal interest, and Sir Narcisse Belleau or Councillor Brosseau in the Conservative interest,; and in case of. Dr. Rinfret being a candidate, Mr. F. Langlier will come forward for the Local House on the Liberal side.

The crowd which densely packed the Cobourg Court House this morning, in low. the expectation of hearing the trial of the case of Senator Simpson against Wilkin son, the West Durham News man, was doomed to disappointment. At the opening of the Court and the calling of the case, Mr. Armour, counsel for do fendant, put in an affidavit to the effect that the Hon. Finance Minister, who was declared to be a material witness in the case, had been subposnaed to attend, but had declined to do so, owing to the press of public business at the Capital. Mr. Armour's application for a postponement of the case on account of Hon. Mr. Cartwright's absence, was resisted Mr. M. C. Cameron, counsel for Mr. Simpson. The Court, however, granted the request, and the case was deferred till the next assizes.

A SUMMERSAULT.

We regret to see that some of our Conservative exchanges have vaulted clean over on the North West amnesty question. But one short year ago, journals. whose loyalty could not possibly be doubted or forgotten because loudly and conatantly trumpeted by themselves, were stoutly opposed to the extension of the amnesty to O'Donoghue. They opposed him, not only on the score that he was a domestic rebel like Riel and Lepine, but that, when these rascals had thought upon and repented of their own murderou" folly, and were fervently grasping the willing hand of Governor Archibald in token of their recovered allegiance-this O'Donoghue was leading a band of would-be cut-throats into the country with the avowed design of renewing all the trouble and annexing the Proirie Province to the States. Now, however, our contemporaries, following the relesting example of Mesars. Bowell, Whi te, Kirkpatrick, and other super-loy alists of the Opposition, are willing to bury this particular hatchet in the grave of the dead past, and take this doublebarreled rebel and Fenian to their forgiving embraces. How completely hollow, by the way, is the cry that it is because of the nationality of this man that he can get neither justice nor mercy from the Canadian Government. To be convinced of its atter falsity, it is only necessary to remember that a more unfortunate Frenchman mixed up in the same escapade, was decreed a banishment of twenty years, and that men like Messrs. Blake, Power and Ryan, who may aurely be trusted to vindicate the righ a of Irishmen in Canada, as well as to be familiar with the facts of the case, opposed by vote and argument the extension of the amnesty to this Fenian conspirator. Secret Service Debate.

Commons.-Mr. Laurier moved th reference of the case of Mr. Currier M.P., involving an alleged violation the independence of Parliament by par ticipation in a contract or agreement with the Government for supplies of lumber, to the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

The motion was carried without debate Sir John Macdonald then moved "That Mr. Speaker do issue his warrant to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery to make out a new writ for the electing of a member to serve in this present Parliamenf for the electoral district of the county of Lincoln in the place of James Norris, who since his election for the said electoral district has entered into s contract for the public service." He went on to quote at some length from the return recently brought down in reference to the alleged contract.

Mr. Mackenzie pointed out that th mover of the resolution had not been fair enough to follow the example set him is the previous motion to refer the case of Mr. Norris with the other to the Committee of Privileges and Elections.
