The Bank of Montreal declared a dividend of 6 per cent. at a meeting yesterday.

CONVOLUTIONAL.—Rev. Mr. Baker, of Fergus, will preach in the First Congregational Church to-morrow morning and evening.

POLICE.—Isabella Long was in for a recumital of her old offences—drunkenness, and went back to the County Jail for 21 days.

MEETING.—There will be an important meeting of the Y.M.C.A. on Monday. Members are particularly desired to attend.

POLICE COURT, Friday.—A case of family jars was wound up by a fine of $10 and costs, which made the old man mad. A wages dispute was settled between the parties.

ENTERTAINMENT.—To-day a special train leaves WATERLOO, N.Y., carrying guests invited to the great opening day goods display of Buckley, Meyers & Co., at Utica. This is liveliness in business.

THE CHURCH.—The Ven. Archdeacon Parnell will preach at St. James' Church on Sunday morning, and the Rev. H. Wilson in the evening. The Rev. Mr. McDonald, of Elora, is expected to preach at Chalmers' Church.

FOUND DROWNED.—The body of an unknown young woman was found by E. Phelan, Palmator, on the shore of the False Docks. It was in a good state of preservation, although there was a gash on the forehead.

ORNAIMENTATION.—The Grand Jury expressed it in their presentment, and the Judge mentioned it in his reply thereto—that before the next Court of Assize, the grounds surrounding the Court House should be suitably enclosed and ornamented. Let it be done.

RE-UNION.—The Rev. Mr. Wilson reports that the confirmation candidates of St. George's Cathedral since 1866 will meet him, in accordance with the annual custom, at the Bible class room on Monday evening. This meeting is in view of the approaching confirmation.

LOOKED UP.—The jury in the Sharbot murder case were locked up all night in the Court House. Very comfortable quarters were provided, however, so that those who are playing such an important part in the administration of justice, suffered nothing by being shut up from contact with the outer world.

CONFIRMATION.—The Lord Bishop of Ontario will administer the rite of confirmation at St. George's Cathedral on Sunday, the 29th (to-morrow week). In the afternoon he will hold a similar service at West Church, Cataraqui. In the week following he will be present at the Diocesan Committee meetings here.

DECEASED.—The Judge and Grand Jury of the Court of Assize hold that the people of the county should thank their good stars in submitting the Daikin Bill to a vote of the people, and thus passing a prohibitory liquor measure. Then the question arises, if it had come to do this, what must be thought of those who have been busy arranging a case for the setting aside of this verdict? We should like the same authority to give this sense its right and legitimate title.

CANTONING.—Grip's last cartoon is a severe one at G. W. Smith for his late article in the Fortnightly Review on Canada, in which he held that the inevitable destiny of Canada was annexation to the United States. G. W. Smith is represented as the "Three Tallies of Touley street," whose opinions were palmed off as those of the whole Dominion. What the editors said was the utterance of "We, the people of Canada." A side sketch shows Hon. Geo. Brown and T. C. Pattee (Mist) cutting the Professor to pieces for treating "on our own."

HOLD AGAIN.—As young men with sympathizing hearts we are pained to hear that a young man of our acquaintance, who was the victim of unrequited love not long since, has been sold again. He had asked this deceitful creature to be his wife, and she had promised, but she had occasion to change her mind afterwards. At any rate the eventful evening arriving and her hero, in special livery, set out for the church. There he waited long and patiently, and finally he was persuaded to return "home," "filled by love." We sympathize with the young man in this the second victimhood of the blind.

WIND WAITS.

—And now the average lunatic getteth his hair cut close to the skull.

—Port Hope is becoming notorious for scandal.

—A new Commission of the Peace is out for Dundas County.

—Another Saturday spoiled for business.

—Very poor market to-day. It was a case of take five days' rest or nothing.

—Addington cheese factories are at work.

—The maple sugar crop in Prince Edward has been far above the average.

—Clean your premises! is about as good a piece of advice as we can give.

—There is just about rain enough now to make us really grateful.

—The famous Agnes Wallace Villa, Burlington Opera Company is nearing Kingston.

—A Prince Edward hotel-keeper boasts of eight armours in one day for selling liquor contrary to law.

—One dollar and a half per bag is the Kingston price for Early Rose potatoes, below Belleville one-third.

—Chicago charts for Kingston: Schrs Hartford and Sloan, wheat at 7 1/2; Schrs Montauk, corn at 6 1/4.

—The printers "tick" in another column in a combination of plain brass rule, bent by hand.

—Yesterday morning the storm drum was ordered up and the storm came early enough last night, disappointing everybody.

—Mr. Jas. Fahy of the Spec. is the editor of the Stratford Herald. It is like the Spectator, Tory. Singular coincidence, Samoutha would say.

—F. G. Withdows, the converted monk, lectured in the M. E. Church, Dundas, last evening, and he lectures at Anaster to-night.

—The Kingston General Hospital showed over twenty illegitimate births last year. Something ought to be done, if nothing more than to stop the statistics.

—There were two verdicts of damages for seduction, of $600 and $300 rendered at the Coburg assizes just closed. These suits are quite en regle at Orygton now-a-days.

—The lecture of Rev. Mr. Grayby last evening was well attended for such uninviting weather. It was a repetition of the entertaining lecture delivered at Montreal, and already reported by us.

—Our religious contemporary remarks that "our Saviour's injunction to His disciples, recorded in Matthew, 10 chap., 9 verse, appears to have become obsolete." Yes, the brass is now carried in most of the faces, indeed.

ST. GEORGE'S DAY.—Monday is the anniversary of St. George's Day, and the public already know that the event will be celebrated in Kingston in a becoming manner. At 10.30 o'clock the members of St. George's Society will meet in St. George's Hall, and proceed thence to the Cathedral, where service will be conducted by Rev. Messrs. Prime and Bousfield, the Society's Chaplains, and Rev. R. V. Rogers will preach a special sermon. In the evening the "brethren" will dine together at the British American. Mr. Oldham, assisted by the Cathedral choir, has kindly consented to conduct the musical part of the service.

A CHURCH SONG.—Here is a near-at-home tune, furnished by the Brockville Recorder's new Byrne "correspondent." There is so much earnestness about every report emanating from that quarter on the long-standing church difficulty that we give the latest one for what it is worth.

VENOR'S PREDICTION.—H. G. Y., after the 17th, for the further prospects, predicts old rains, sleet and perhaps a flurry of snow, lasting for several days; but added that these would not interfere with the "hot summer-like weather" predicted last November for the month of May. Birds will now assuredly come immediately after this backward and wet spell, and will be accompanied by unusually warm weather for the season. May will, on the whole, be more like a June month, just as April up to the 17th was more like May.

THE GRANGER.—The number of new farmers, grangers, formed in Ontario, has increased to 569. Among the latest are:—

678. Newboro—G. Knowlton, M., Newboro; D. K. Preston, S., Newboro.

683. Balsam Grove—Horns Botsford M., Farmersville; Thos. Moulton, S., Farmersville.

A meeting of the farmers in the vicinity of Cataraqui was held in the Town Hall and a Grange lodge was organized, with Mr. Clyde at its head. Messrs. Daly and Harris of Newburgh addressed the meeting.

PHOTOGRAPHIC NEWS.—Mr. James E. Munson, the author of Munson's revised system of photography, publishes a semi-monthly magazine entitled the Photographic News, printed in short-hand, with key. All short-hand writers know the value of these publications, which contain hints and suggestions, the value of which are to them only apparent and by them fully appreciated. This magazine is comparatively new, and bids fair to hold a prominent place in the field of contemporary literature. Printed in New York.

CHEESE MANUFACTURE.—A new cheese factory is now erecting at Brewers' Mills by Mr. Archibald McCallum. We hope that Mr. McCallum will be successful in his undertaking for being as enterprising, as this neighbourhood required a factory to make it convenient for the patrons to send their milk. This factory is built in a very convenient place, close to the public road, on a farm owned by Mr. Dillon, and there is no doubt but Mr. McCallum will receive a large quantity of milk this season at his factory.

BE EXPLICIT.

Among the replies to an advertisement of a marine committee, was the following:—"Gentlemen, I noticed your advertisement for an organist and music teacher, either lady or gentleman. Having been both for several years, I offer you my services. 'Tis nearly as good as that section of Col. Wansley's report; on the conduct of the 15th Battalion during the strike, in which it was stated that only one of the men refused to turn out, but 'that Sergt. McCormick, who had a dying hour at home and he begged to be excused, which was granted by the Captain.' A critic in an American paper was patently in a state of bewilderment in endeavouring to reason out the first-verse of an original poem sent to him:—"You kissed me at the rate last night, and mother heard the snore; She says I'm naughty to do so, So please to tell me why the secret? Come out like a man—why hide his name? Was it a fishing smack your mother heard? If so, you should say, 'Mother heard the smack,' not heard it. You can't hear a smack, that is you can't unless you attend a school meeting, and get a 'smack' in the jaw. You can hear that, and feel it too. What, did the smack have for ergo—colloidal? In what language is it when your mother heard you to hear the smack? If she knew it, was naughty why did she listen? Her mother is evidently not over keen. Take what lack, the smack or the ergo? Or both? Where do you want them, or it, taken to? Why don't you make your mother take it back? Perhaps, you want us to do it. Dear friend, we never take back anything, unless somebody comes around with a shot-gun and makes us. Have you a shot-gun?"

FINISHING OF THE TRIAL.

The Evidence—The Summing Up—The Verdict.

We append the evidence taken on the resumption of the trial after recess yesterday, also the addresses which followed on the opening of the Court this morning, and the verdict.

At 1.30 o'clock the trial was resumed. Mary Garratt was called. She testified to the entrance of the prisoners into her father's house on the evening of the 18th, and to the fact of their application for supper, which they ate, excepting Dougherty and P. Smith, who refused to eat and sat down to supper with the two Smiths and Foy. She did not know who happened while the supper was going on, she being outside the house. After tea she heard a noise, and she went to see what was the matter. She saw P. Smith and Dougherty in the room, and she saw Dougherty pay for the supper. Foy tendered 12 cents per meal and she wanted 15 cents. They were disputing about this when she heard a noise and ran to the door, and she saw the father and mother in the midst of the disputants. She was pushed back. Her mother shortly afterwards called out that her father was killed. When a statement at that time was made she was in the room, and she saw Dougherty and P. Smith in the room, and she saw Dougherty pay for the supper. Foy tendered 12 cents per meal and she wanted 15 cents. They were disputing about this when she heard a noise and ran to the door, and she saw the father and mother in the midst of the disputants. She was pushed back. Her mother shortly afterwards called out that her father was killed. When a statement at that time was made she was in the room, and she saw Dougherty and P.
