HOPS.

Tuesday's Cooperstown, N. Y. Journal: 'Our local dealers are filling orders for the class of hops remaining in the hands of growers at 10 to 12 cents, according to the quality.'

PLOUGHING WITH DYNAMITE.

A new way of ploughing has been invented, and agriculture will derive advantage from out-in compounds heretofore employed in engineering.

A SCREW.

One man appeared at the fourth floor window during the St. Louis fire, in his shirt, and shouted: 'God deliver me! Lord, for Jesus' sake! A ladder was raised to the place and he came down slowly, his limbs trembling beneath him. At the bottom he raised himself up to his full height. 'Hurrah for St. Louis,' he cried; 'New York isn't dead yet.' Then raising his arms up to the sky, he said in a lower tone: 'Lord, forgive me for every sin that I have ever committed. To think of having your door opened with a fire, and find the whole building on fire, and the men get out! Lord, I thank Thee. I have been in fire before, and in battles and fights, but this beats all! He was too much excited to give any rational account of himself.'

DISMISSING VIEW.

—Sir John Macdonald, through his newspaper, calls for an immediate dissolution of the House. We don't think the dissolution will be granted until Sir John Macdonald's case as a violator of the Independence of Parliament Act is first set and decided upon by the Election Committee. It is possible that then, in so far as he is concerned, the House will be dissolved—that is, he will be placed in the position of being again able to appeal to the Kingston electors for support. In the meantime, it may be said of him that after the case of Messrs. Anglin, Morris and Currier have been sent to the Committee, Sir John is excessively selfish in asking for a general election in order to prevent his own case from going to trial. Hamilton Times.

ONE OF NELSON'S LOVERS.

—This, said Miss Adelaide Nelson to a San Francisco reporter the other day, picking up a letter from a heap of sixty which she had received that morning, 'is from a young gentleman of ten years, who is in love with me. He asks me to excuse him because he is so immature, and yet his passion is so deep. He only desires one thing, that he may see me, and what he does you think that he? To-morrow night, when the play is over, he is to say that he will be at the stage entrance of the theatre. I am to know him by his blue necktie, and the one thing that he has in his hand, that I shall know him by. What do you consider a love and devotion such as that is genuine and worth having?'

CATARRH.

With all its Loathsome Attendants cured by the Constitutional Catarrh Remedy.

The Constitutional Catarrh Remedy is the first article placed before the public that professes to cure Catarrh by building up the Constitution. It strikes at the root of the whole difficulty, and thousands upon thousands of sufferers have been restored by the proprietary, setting forth the marvelous cures, and what is remarkable, curing not only the Catarrh, but the whole system, in the most delicate and delicate cases. Catarrh and its attendant evils, cold in head, hacking cough, ineffectual cold, and pain in the head and loins, discharge, languidness, loss of appetite and general weakness, all leave together when the Constitutional Catarrh Remedy is taken as recommended. Home Testimony in favor of Littlefield's Constitutional Catarrh Remedy. C. J. B. HARRISON, Esq., Brockville, 12th Feb, 1876.

My Dear Sir:—I am fully cured from my own experience, the favorable account of the Constitutional Catarrh Remedy. It has afforded me relief from Catarrh at a cost every time I used it, and then when I could not take proper care of my self in bad weather. Yours respectfully, Brockville, Feb. 1876. E. B. BIRWIE.

I have great pleasure in recommending the Constitutional Catarrh Remedy to any parties who may require a remedy for that disease. I do so from practical experience, having effected a thorough cure on one of my old friends, who has since almost entirely recovered. I can most heartily and sincerely recommend the Constitutional Catarrh Remedy for those complaints it claims to cure.

From personal benefit received, and direct testimonials from Catarrh, Nervous Headache and Neuritis, as well as from personal knowledge of those whose cures thereby have secured almost instantaneous relief, I can most heartily and sincerely recommend the Constitutional Catarrh Remedy for those complaints it claims to cure.
