The Free Press describes a scene in th House on Saturday afternoon just prior to the prorogation. As the Usher of the Black Rod summoned the House to the Bar of the Senate the report of the Committee on Privileges and Elections, declaring that Mr. Speaker had unwittingly violated the law, but declaring such practices improper and the seat vacant, was laid on the table. The Clerk laid the paper in his desk and locked it, whereupon Messrs. Bowell and Mitchell, with cries of "Break the d-d thing open," demanded and afterwards secured the key and the report.
