CITY AND VICINITY

GOLD in New York at 3 o'clock 107

Those wanting CLOTHING call at A. A. LEVEY'S Clothing Emporium, Wellington Street, and be convinced that he sells the Cheapest and best Fitting in the city.

ARRIVED.—The SS. "Moravian" arrived out to-day.

LACROSSE.—All members of the Maple Leaf L. C. C., are requested to attend practice to-morrow morning (Wednesday) at 5:30 as a meeting of importance will be held immediately afterwards.

CHEESE.—The Watertown Dairymen's Board of Trade was very largely attended on Saturday, and all factories of cheese offered were sold at prices ranging from 13½ to 14¼ cents.

REQUIEM MASS.—This morning Rev. Father Corbett sang a requiem mass for the repose of the soul of the late Mr. James O'Reilly. The attendance was very large, indicating the freshness in which deceased's memory is held by the public.

MARINE.—Strs. calling at Swift's: West from Westport, Oswego Belle from Oswego; Spartan from Belleville; Alexander from Belleville, and prop. Champlain from Ogdensburg, the latter after having been generally overhauled.

PROFESSIONAL CHANGE.—Dr. Jarvis is being succeeded by Dr. C. L. Curtis, also a homœpathist and a native of Belleville. He has had a long experience in Canada and the Western States, and possesses an ability which will add appreciably to the professional talent of Kingston.

EXPLANATION.—It is but right to state that Mr. J. McKelvey, the temperance Reformer, who has created such a stir and enthusiasm in Oswego, Syracuse, Rochester and other cities in New York State, is not the municipal reformer of that name now agitating official circles in Kingston.

DENSE SMOKE.—A dense smoke has hung over the city for the past couple of mornings, but where it comes from we are at a loss to know. Bush fires are evidently the cause of it. There is a great conflagration raging in the neighborhood of Ottawa, but it seems hardly possible that the smoke should travel so densely and from such a distance.

CHANGE.—The new time table is in force on the Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg Railroad. It saith for the Cape Vincent branch:

Leave Watertown 7:53 a.m.; arrive at Cape Vincent 9:02 a.m.

Leave Watertown 4:40 p.m.; arrive at Cape Vincent 5:55 p.m.

Accommodation trains leave Watertown at 1:00 p.m. and arrive at Cape Vincent at 3:00 p.m.

MACHINE ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday, the 8th inst., while removing the drag from a position in which it had became fastened, and while having the machine partly raised, the horses started, and Mr. Grass, of Collinsby, had one of the drag's teeth driven into his foot. The accident, though not a dangerous one, will have the effect of confining him to his house, and of incapacitating him for some time.

MILLERS' NATIONAL ASSOCIATION.—The fourth annual convention of the "Millers' National Association" will be held at Buffalo, N.Y., June 13th and 14th. The Board of Trade and millers of Buffalo, and of the Empire State, have extended a pressing invitation to the millers of the United States and Canada, without reference to membership or organizations of any sort, to attend this convention.

THEATRICAL.—To-morrow and Thursday evenings the Agnes Wallace Company fill an engagement of two nights in the City Hall here. The Company includes, it is alleged, some of the finest metropolitan talent, which is but seldom available for travel, and but seldom attached to an organization of this kind. Sam B. Villa and his amiable wife, Agnes Wallace, are stars well known to Kingston audiences, and they never come here but they are warmly welcomed.

NOT A "GENT."—When the assessors have been non-plussed as to the profession or calling of any one, they have been accustomed to dub him a 'gent.' One ratepayer, in appealing against the valuation placed upon his property, writes: "I am styled a gent in the occupation column. Well, if working from daylight to dark constitutes a gentleman, I own I am one, but not in the way indicated by the assessors. My occupation is a gardener."

RED RIBBON CLUB.—The temperance revival sought by the Red Ribbon Reform Club promises to be successful if followed up with the same vigour as that attending its initiation by Mr. Teare. Non political and unattended by any ceremony except a profession of temperance principles, the movement, we hope, will be aided and encouraged until we can boast in Kingston of an Association something like that in Hamilton known by the same name, which has got a membership of 1,200.

SHABBY GENTEEL.—A certain young would-be popular dry goods clerk, a short time since, in one of his early morning rambles, encountered at the door of a house on King street west a well filled milk pitcher, having been placed out to be filled by the milk man in his regular morning call. But, oh! what an agreeable surprise to the young counter-hopper as he greedily partakes of the contents of the pitcher and makes tracks to the upper end of the city, thinking himself free the scrutiny of any such an individual as a "Peeping Tom."

THE BAND.—This afternoon the band of "A" Battery played delightfully in the City Park. The circumstance suggests the enquiry, in what way, if in any way, are the citizens showing their approval of an organization which affords so much public pleasure? We ask the question seriously, because we fear the musicians and the officers of the Battery must feel that the people of Kingston little deserve the many free concerts given all the year around, when the fact seems to be ignored or overlooked, that it costs something to maintain the band.

WIND WAFTS.

—Bush fires are reported from all quarters.

—More shipments of live stock for the United States.

—The street cars have an occasional run off. The horses are not thoroughly trained to the service.

—The "Maud" is still running on the Bay of Quinte route, and is pronounced popular by every person.

—Mortality is more visible in Kingston during the past week than for some time before.

—Two wandering minstrels have arrived. "Oh for a lodge in some vast wilderness."

—Next to a circus a ride on the street cars is a treat for which the girls are hankering. It's so confounded ticklish, you know.

—One swallow doesn't make a spring, but nine grasshoppers out of ten do, just when you think you've got your hands on them.

—The first vessel to arrive at Chicago from Lake Ontario was the barque Arabia, a Canadian craft from this city. She arrived on Tuesday morning.

—Thank goodness house cleaning's over. We can now sit down and write composedly without being interrupted by the girl shaking carpets from the second story window.

—Southern, the actor, skips from Belleville to Montreal. That comes of our beautiful deposit system which no one seems to admire but our beloved City Council.

—A chap went to Barriefield last week to find out who poisoned the sport's dogs over in that direction. But the disguise wasn't complete; the nobby walking cane and the cigar were there and they were identified as readily as if the name were placarded on the crown of his old hat.

Building Contracts.

—The St. James' Parochial School House is to be built. The vestry last evening found the lowest tenders to lie within the estimates, and determined to proceed with the erection, having nearly one half of the amount in hands. The contracts have been awarded to Messrs. John Cunningham for masonry; Francis Smith for carpentering; and Wm. Robinson for painting. The new school hall will be of gothic style, to accord with the church, to which it will be connected by junction with the present vestry. The hall is to afford sitting room for about 300 persons, and will be of great usefulness, not only to the Sunday School but also to the Temperance Society and other branches of the church. It is is to be completed in September. Mr. James Wilson prepared the admirable plans.

—The tenders were received yesterday for the erection of Mr. D. Allison's proposed fine brick residence on the Bay shore in Adolphustown. Messrs. Geo. Newlands & Sons have been awarded the contract for mason work; Francis Smith for carpenter work; Wm. Dunn for plumber work; and Wm. Robinson for painting. Mr. R. Gage is the architect.

—The foundation walls are being built of the new row of residences on Princess Street.

—The Albion Hotel foundation walls have reached street level.

—Mr. D. Gibson is soon to erect a new residence on Princess Street.

—Mr. George Brown has ordered plans for two new shops up on Princess Street.

—About twenty houses are going up on the Ordnance Lands near Gordon Street and Williamaville.

—The new warehouse of Jas. Harty & Co., in connection with their new business stand at the old Harwood House, has been finished.

—The new B.A. Hotel is now raising itself above the sidewalk.

Weather Report.

During the past twenty-four hours in the north west barometer has fallen with cloudy, warm weather, and light rains. In the lake region winds have been light to moderate with clear to fair, very warm weather.

Probabilities for next twenty-four hours for lower lake region light to moderate southerly winds, fair warm weather. For St. Lawrence moderate south westerly to southerly winds and fair warm weather.

DEMISE.—Our obituary column contains the notice of the death of Mr. Michael Lovett, oldest son of an old citizen, Mr. Thomas Lovett. The young gentleman was for the last five years mail clerk on the Prescott & Ottawa Railway, in which position he was widely known and very popular. Mr. Lovitt was a young man of much ability and promise. He enjoyed the confidence and esteem of his superiors in the Department, who had unlimitied faith in his ability and integrity. His parents have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in their affliction. His death is a severe blow to their hopes.

POLICE.—James Thompson, Edward Robinson, John Tool, William Radford and John Kincheler, drunk, $2 or 15 days. Thomas Fanning and John Hadin, drunk and disorderly, were dismissed with a reprimand. Several persons were summoned for neglecting to comply with the dog by-law. Some paid the license, and others promised to do so, and on these conditions the cases were dismissed.

POOR FIDO.—A gentleman, on sending in his notice to the Court of Revision, says: "I appeal against dog assessment. My dog died broken-hearted and in disgust after wearing a medal ten days last year. I intend to petition the Council for a remission, and I think I should sue the Corporation for my pup."

ARRESTED AND RELEASED.—John Devlin was charged by George Gibson, of Olden, with robbery in April, 1874. He was very scarce about there until this spring, but on his return lately was arrested and brought to gaol here. Electing to be tried by jury, he was remanded until the General Sessions, bail being accepted for his appearance in June.

INSURANCE.—The Royal Canadian Insurance Company give notice that the Kingston shareholders may pay the five per cent. call, due to-morrow, to the agent, Mr. Gildersleeve.

BUSH FIRES.

LOSS BY FIRE.—On Saturday, the 12th instant, (about noon) the large frame barn on the foot of Simcoe Island, formerly owned by Mr. William Breden, but of late the property of Mr. Shirley Going, Wolfe Island, was totally destroyed by fire. Fortunately there was nothing in or about the barn at the time, save a quantity of straw left out from threshing last year's crop, which greatly assisted to hasten the buildings' destruction. The fire originated from the act of some persons unnecessarily setting fire to the marsh adjoining the barn, and when fanned by the breeze it spread with lightning-like rapidity until the barn was enveloped in flames. The barn was not insured. The result should be a caution to parties setting fire to marshes at undue seasons of the year, as they should be aware the law makes parties responsible for damage occasioned thereby.

BUSH FIRES.—Serious bush fires are raging in the vicinity of Sharbot Lake. They were started, it is believed, by parties desirous of burning rubbish on their farms, but they have extended, and unless rain falls there is no guessing at present where the conflagration will end. One farmer named Triyan has had his farm and farm buildings destroyed, and Mr. A. Spike has lost his saw mill, entailing a loss of between $5,000 and $6,000, and no insurance.

Installation of Officers.

CATARAQUI CHAPTER.—The officers of Cataraqui Chapter No. 12, R.A.M., were regularly installed last evening by R. Ex. Comp. G. M. Wilkinson, as follows:—

R. Ex. Comp. R. Hendry.....Z.
" " Thos. Gordon. Past Z.
" " Thos. Seale.....H.
" " F. Rowland.....J.
R. " " H. Dumble....Treas.
" " A. Shaw.....S. E.
" " S. Angrove.....S. N.
" " J. H. Birkett.....P. S.
" " W. Parsons.....S. S.
" " J. Munroe.....J. S.
" " E. Law....M. 1st V.
" " A. Dawson. M. 2nd V.
" " G. Leslie...M. 3rd V.
" " E. Ball.....Janitor.

The Companions and a number of invited guests of Ancient Frontenac Chapter afterwards supped at Comp. O'Brien's Anglo-American Hotel, where a first class dinner spread that would have done honor to much more pretentious occasions was laid out and badly disfigured by the hearty assault made upon it. The after proceedings were informal. The First Principal, R.E. Comp. Hendry, from the chair proposed "The Queen and the Craft," a sentiment which always calls forth double symptoms of loyalty. He next, with many expressions of pleasure at the good fellowship subsisting between Royal Arch Masons in Kingston, and of compliment to old No. 1, proposed "Prosperity to Ancient Frontenac Chapter." E. Comp. Woods, Z., responded for the Companions of that Chapter, echoing the fraternal sentiments. In terms of high compliment for his attainments as a Mason and his zealous labors for the craft, Mr. Woods toasted R.E. Companion Hendry, who replied gratefully for the hearty expression of the good will of the Companions. The toast of "The Grand Chapter" brought R. Ex-Comp. Creeggan, G.P.S., to his feet to acknowledge the favor. He bore testimony to the high regard entertained in Grand Chapter for Kingston Companions. "The Retiring Officers" were remembered, and Ex-Comp. Bunt responded for them. Ex-Comp. Gordon, the retiring Z., whose service was most faithful and creditable to him, called for the health of "The Host"—Martin replying amidst his deepest blushes. The concluding toast "Happy to meet, sorry to part," followed by "Auld Lang Syne," came at an early and decidedly respectable hour to end what a flowery Jenkins would call a "delightful symposium."

Appeals.

The appeals against assessment and petitions for amendments to the Assessors' returns, were all put in yesterday, and the appellants are now being served preparatory to the holding of the Court of Revision, which sits on the 28th and following days.

In Cataraqui Ward there are 17 appeals against over-assessment; 1 wrongly assessed; 1 misplaced for personality; 1 name omitted, and 1 dog assessed wrongly.

In Ontario Ward we find 14 entered for over-assessment, 1 wrongly assessed; 1 dog wrongly credited; 1 name omitted.

In Rideau Ward there are 22 over-assessments, 2 clergymen claiming exemption, 1 name omitted, 3 wrongly assessed, and 2 assessed for dogs.

Frontenac Ward has 17 over-assessed, 1 improperly assessed and 1 wrongly assessed.

Sydenham Ward has also 17 over-assessed, 1 name omitted and 1 wrongly assessed.

In St. Lawrence Ward there are fully 27 down for over-assessment, and 1 wrongly assessed.

Victoria Ward ends the list with 16 appeals against over-assessment, 1 name omitted, 1 vacancy, 1 wrongly assessed, and 13 dogs disowned.

Runs-Away.

—On Sunday evening Mr. George Robinson, the carriage builder, and his sister-in-law who was driving with him from Bath, were thrown from their buggy near the Crystal Palace and made insensible by the fall. The horse bolted on account of Mr. Purdy's cow lying in the road and caused the accident. The animal ran into the city as far as Division Street, where Mr. Douglass caught it. Returning with it he found Mr. Robinson just recovering his senses and the lady still unconscious. Mr. Robinson is at his business to-day, but his sister-in-law is quite ill. This accident resulted from a breach of the law, in allowing cows to run at large, and there is an action open for damages.

—Yesterday a horse driven by Mr Robinson, builder, ran away on Patrick Street, and threw him, his daughter and her children. They had a narrow escape.

—In the evening one of the street car horses ran away on Princess Street. The horse broke loose from the car and ran down the sidewalk, the iron whiffletree striking repeatedly against the animal's legs and cutting it badly.

BARQUE ASHORE AT SANDAY.

"By the Orcadia steamer this (Friday, April 22nd) afternoon, intelligence has been received of the wreck at Newark, Sanday, of the Norwegian barque Hannah Parr, 775 tons register, from Hull to Quebec, in ballast. The vessel was seen sailing ashore on Thursday afternoon, about four o'clock, and the crew were all landed in safety. Afterwards, however, a fatal accident occurred, by which two of the crew and a son of Mr. Harvey, of Lopness, were drowned. A boat was sent on board for the purpose of taking on shore the men's clothing, but unfortunately was upset on the return passage, and, as we have said, three lives were lost."

The above we take from the Kirkwell Orcadian, and give it special prominence because one of the Hannah Parr's crew was a Kingston boy, Alex. Sutherland, who was generally supposed to have been lost. Mr. Sutherland has written a letter to his father here, in which he gives the particulars of the wreck and details the suffering he passed through. He speaks of the drowned young Harvey as a fine, handsome young man, the son of one of the wealthiest men on the Orkney Islands. Three or four hours before the wreck Mr. Sutherland says he knew the ship should be lost, because in a lee shore and in blind breakers, and the sea ran mast head high. Realizing this fact the captain agreed to run the vessel ashore, where all could stand an equal chance of being saved, as, the writer says, it was but natural that no one wanted to die when they had a chance of living. The skipper ran the vessel ashore, taking off all sail as he neared land to prevent the vessel striking too heavily. The vessel struck, but there was hardly any stone, but sand in abundance. She struck and ploughed sand and water enough over her bow to swamp many a stronger ship. Subsequently it was, when engaged in removing clothing and valuables from the ship, that the small boat upset and Harvey was drowned. Mr. Sutherland was in the act of clearing away another boat to go to the rescue when the tackling gave way and he went under. He passed below the big ship and became lost to view, but he had the strength and courage to fight his way to the rudder, on which he held until seen by the ship's carpenter, who passed a bow line down, into which Sutherland crawled and was pulled aboard more dead than alive. The shipwrecked crew were sent from Kirkwell to Aberdeen, and from Aberdeen to Edinburg, where the American and Norwegian Consuls provided for them. Mr. Sutherland is now second mate and boatswain of the ship "Sea Crest," of St. John, N.B.

New Books.

BALLOU'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE FOR JUNE.—The June number of Ballou's Magazine is already issued, and will command the attention of the whole reading public, for it is full of nice engravings, the best of stories, the choicest of poetry, and three pages of M. Quad's fun and humorous matter. This is a publication that can be recommended to every family in the country, for the simple reason that there is not a page that can't be read with interest by every man, woman or child. There are no dry articles in the book, and that is why it is such a favorite. Published by Thomas & Talbot, 23 Hawley Street, New York.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE for June opens with an exquisite steel engraving 'Sybil's Swans.' In addition it has a double-size colored fashion plate, about twenty other fashion illustrations, and dozens of patterns for embroidery, netting, &c.,&c. It has also a pattern for a tidy in Java canvas, large size. How so elegant a magazine can be published so cheaply as it is, ($2,00 a year,) is only to be explained by its enormous edition, which the proprietor claims is the largest of any Lady's Book in the world. 'Peterson' has been long celebrated for the superiority of its stories, and the present number fully sustains this reputation. Address Chas. J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

The City of Erzeroum.

The pashalic of Erzeroum is the most important in Asia Minor, including a population of 800,000 people distributed in 1,500 villages and towns. The chief city is Erzeroum, which has a population estimated at 40,000, beside its garrison. Of these 40,000, 30,000 are Turks, 5,000 orthodox Armenians. In 1827 the population was estimated at 80,000. The number of its inhabitants is constantly changing, however, owing to the great numbers of people who arrive and depart with the caravans. Pestilence has often made serious inroads upon the population, and emigration has taken many people away. The city contains 28 khans, 13 public baths, 70 mosques and merjids and churches of the Armenian, Latin and Greek Christians. The new part of the town is partly surrounded by an old castellated wall, but a large part of the place is not walled. A deep ditch was excavated round the suburbs some years ago to keep off the Russians. There are some curious ancient buildings in and around the citadel, and nearly 30 tombs in the form of circular towers, with conical stone roofs, after an early Saracenic style of architecture, dating, some of them, as far back as the twelfth century. The plain about the city, which is 30 or 40 miles long, formerly contained 100 flourishing villages, but emigration has depopulated many of them, which now lie in waste. The chief trades are dyeing and tanning morocco leather. Great numbers of horses and cattle are reared in the plain. Regarded strategically the town is not favorably located. Although at a high elevation it is surrounded on one side by a higher hill, which in the hands of an enemy would render a defence exceedingly difficult. Some of the summits of these hills are continually covered with snow.

THE most excellent attributes to the success of a first-class hotel are courteous treatment, a well-appointed cuisine, and well-furnished rooms. You can find all these at the Colonnade Hotel in Philadelphia.
