Brockville, is perhaps the handsomest structure of the kind in the Province and when this is said we mean to do n injustice to the many fine buildings both within and without the Diocese of On tario, known for their attractions in chitecture and coatly finish. It will remembered that when Rev. Canon Mu loch removed to Brockville, the town was divided for English Church purposes, Canon Mulock took the pastoral charge of the only shurch in the place at the time, and the Rev. E. P. Crawford, of Hawkesbury, was transferred to the west end, and the erection of Trinity is one the results of his zealous labors. The church may be looked upon monument of Rev. Mr. Crawford's popularity and perseverance, and testimonial of the liberality and gener osity of a liberal and generous people. It was so crowded that standing room even could not be obtained, and many were obliged to turn away, unable to gain admission. The Bishop of Ontario was present, and confirmed some 40 candidates, and afterwards delivered an excellent and eloquent address to the confirmation class and congregation. His Lordship was assisted in the service by Rev. E. P. Crawford, Rev. Mr. Jones of Edwardsburg, and Rev. Mr. Ford, Brockville.

A pretty and comfortable manse, yellow brick, has been erected in connection with Trinity Church, and here the Incumber resides, admired and beloved by his nu merous parishioners.

Sabbath Temperance Meeting.

Rev. Mr. McKay conducted the meet ing and occupied the chair. After the opening services he made a few appro priate remarks of encouragement, and then introduced Mr. Odlum, of Coburg, who is here in the interests of the United Temperance Order, and will speak through the County and also in the city. The very small representation of members of that Association, to hear their representative, was not very creditable to them, and might be taken as an indication that they are not very warm in the cause of temperance. He gave a very earnest address on the necessity of watchfulness and prayer, to be guard against the insidious approaches gave a short address on the finished work of intemperance, which were very slow In their movements at first, quietly creating an appetite for strong drink until an ascendancy was gained and the will was brought under control of the vice. which nothing but God's mercy in Christ could ever overcome, Intemperance was one of the great opposing elements of religion and morality, and did more to retard its progress than all the other vices of society. Wilson, of Garden River, Algoma Dio this expenditure a valuable condition cese, preached, taking for his text St. John viii. chap., 54th verse honour myself my honour is nothing. It was a beautiful sermon on humility well illustrated and pointedly applied to the congregation. After the sermon he gave a description of the Home for the education of the Indian children Shingwauk, to which the children of James' have been contributing for number of years. The Home was built four years ago by subscriptions to the amount of $4,000. The building was in use but six days when it was burned down and became a total loss. Mr. Wilson at once cabled the circumstance to England, and without a single an insolent gesture, and to wear white effort on his part $12,000 were raised and a new stone Home erected. It is now found necessary to separate the boys and girls. The old Home is to be used for the boys only, and a new wing is being added for the girls. Next season other additions and improvements will be made. Mr. Wilson is not here collecting, but merely to tell of what is being done and of the success of the Home. He is accompanied by two Shingwank boys, who are very intelligent, and whom the Sunday School children take a great interest. In the evening Rev.
