ST. GEORGE'S CHURCH, TRENTON. Dr. Henderson reported respecting the sale of certain land in connection with St. George's Church, Trenton, stating that the land was held in trust by the Synod, and that its sale could not be effected unless application was made therefor in different shape.

CHRIST CHURCH, BELLEVILLE. Canon Preston presented the report of he Committee on the petition of certain Belleville gentlemen, who asked for sale of certain land in connection with Christ Church of that place, they being held responsible for $750, when they deeded the church property to the Synod, The Committee recommend a sale of land for the sake of having a lane opened adjoin ing the church, the proceeds to be applied to church repairs; also the exchange of a small piece of land; but the sale of the surplus land, other than that Committee could not recommend.

Mr. J. H. Simpson, Belleville, advocated the sale on the ground that the gentlemen who became responsible for the debt in the first place did not apprehend that they would be made to pay it; that certain land was not used and it should be sold and the debt liquidated.

Dr. Jones asked if it was not intended o build a parsonage upon the piece land which it was asked should be sold Mr. Simpson said it was, but such a thing was not now probable.

reports : The crops lif the portion of the country to be seen during a drive to Kingaton are looking well, except on clay be wished for. A bad piece of grain, with the exception elluded to above, and others (rare) where the ravages of the cut worm are apparent, is a very uncommon tion respecting the Bishop Strachan Me-morial Church, Cornwall, to be left over light crop. Most of the meadows are little better than good pasturage. In fact some fields evidently devoted to a hay crop have in despair been turned over to thanks to Rev. Mr. Stannage for his of-
