

Wingston & Pembroke & Canadian Pacific Railways.

Toronto:

3rd, 5th and 6th, $5.40. Return limit, Sept. 9th.

To Harrowsmith. Sept 5th and 6th, 50c. Return limit, Sept. 7th.

Harvest Excursions Canadian Northwest. Sept. 3rd and 17th.

Tickets good for 60 days. For Labor Day.

Single Fare. Aug. 31st and Sept. 2nd. Return limit, Sept. 3rd. Fail particulars at K. & P. and C. P. R. B. W. FOLGER, P. CONWAY,

Asst. Gen. Pass. Agt. THE BAY OF QUINTE RAILWAY NEW SHORT LINE FOR

points. Train leaves City Hall R. Telegraph Office, Clarence St.

BUFFALO and RETURY.

· By All Trains Any Day 8 day tickets, 15 day tickets, Tourist ticket, Good until Nov. 1st, $11.25 er than September 9th, 1901.

Round trip tickets will be sold from King- I should find Mr. Bartlett here!" ston as follows:

Sept. 2nd and 4th, August 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, 31st, Sept. 1st, 3rd, 5th and 6th, $5.40. Return tickets through to Ruffalo at $2.00 more than excursion fares to Toronto. All tickets good to return until Sept 9th. 1, 2, 3 and 4.

North-west, Sept. 17th. Return hmit 60 J. P. HANLEY, Agent. City Passenger Depot.

$35 and $37.50, according to steamer. bilities of the situation." Again his both pastor and people of all care and Arrangements have been made with lated in passing five subjects: matri-Third-Class, $25 and $26, according to boyish laugh rang out and the others anxiety for the services of the cay, in the Folgers and the R. W. & O. cultation, not having attended colstaamer., FROM BOSTON, Via Queenstown.

London, Londonderry, Bei- woman's. Midship saloons, electric light, spacious promenade decks. For further information apply to

J. P. Hanley, J. P. Gildersleeve,]. D. TORRANCE & OO., Gen. Agts.,

L. O. & B of Q. Sbt. Co., Limited. Pan-American, Buffalo. $5.00 Return, Good for 30 Days. $3.70 Return, Good for 3 Days. had met Kitty's, and he forgot every Strs. North King and Caspian Commencing June 22nd will leave Kingston daily, except Monday, at 5 p.m. for Charlotte N.Y., (port of Rochester) and Buf-1,000 Island Ramble.

Steamer leaves daily, except Monday, at 10:05 a.m., calling at Gananoque. Bay Of Quinte Route. Steamer leaves Kingston week days at 3 p.m. for Picton and intermediate Bay Quinte porta. Steamer leaves for Picton, Deseronto and Belleville at 5 p.m. daily, except Mondays. Right reserved to change time with or $6,95. Good for

The Favorite Route to Pan-American Exposition.

Toronto-Montreal Line. daily, except Monday, for Thousand Islands, and Saguenay. Going west at 4:30 p.m., daily, except Monday, for Rochester and Toronto. Hamilton, Bay of Quinte and Montreal Line. TRI-WEEKLY SERVICE. Steamers leave going east at 4:45 p.m., from his arm.

Wednesday, Friday and Sunday, Going west at 11:30 p.m., Tuesday, Thursday and Sa-

From Montreal: First cabin $50 and upwards raturn $95 | Joe Barelett inspired everybody and works. This big railway company will Second cabin $35 to $40. London, $1.50 cheered and encouraged the despair guarantee the Kingston works forty Positively infallible in troubles peculiar to the war Monthly remedy. Never disappoint flarm back and was the last to be recoverback and was the last to be

"She'll be hard to tether, Kitty will, thunder, appeared in camp yit, said Joe Part Bartlett was buried beneath it. ignorant feller like me?"

and, knocking the ashes from it, alled they might shut out the memory his mind was not upon his task.

"Can't even speak grammar as Fill. ort to, he mutter il with disgust. But It was hopeless from the first. to they ain't nothing I would't do for ing a grammar book."

impossibility. If his love became hope- unconscious face. ful he reviled himself and blushed at his temerity.

most important man in the place. 'No, the man ain't arrived vit, lod help Joe Bartlett."

That evening, as was his habit, Joe their pipes, and Kitty happened to be hidden upon his breast. Carter's daughter. Kitty never sus "He was so good," she sobbed. "He ted his love. Joe knew that she died for your sake and mine. tween September 3rd and 17th. Limit three fond of him as of her father.

$9.10. A stranger stood on the threshold, a sure he never loved anyone." the garb of a city-bred man. "Is this Mr. Carter's place?" he l

That's my name, young feller. Will $3.85. toil-hardened hand to the stranger. tendent's son, I guess. He wrote me you were coming up for a spell, but Tildn't 'low we'd see you till the next NOTE-Tickets not good on trains Nos. stage. I am glad to see you, sir," he said heartily.

A certain indifference or indolence which seemed habitual vanished from the young man's face and manner. He held out his hand frankly. "Thank you. I have come to rusti-cate. I have a had reputation at home. It arises from a slight difference Mail Steamship, Liverpool Service between the governor and myself. I plied on Sunday by Rev. Alexander Aingston's big fair. FROM PORTLAND. am conscientiously opposed to work." Lennox, of Bethel church, in the morn. The K. & F. railway company has Sept. 7th He squared his shoulders and laugh. ing and in the evening by the Rev. E. arranged ope-fare rates on all days Sept. 14th. ed. "I am supposed to take father's Russell, of Union street Paptist except the 12th, excursion, day, when ... Sept. 28th place here, but I have perfect confi church. Both preached excellent and very low rates will prevail rates ... Oct. 5th. dence in you, Mr. Bartlett, and I helpful sermons and their helpful low that no one can afford to stay at These steamers de not carry pas shall take it as a favor if you will words were all the more appreciated in home. Similar conditions prevail $50 and upward; Second Saloon, forget to remind me of the responsition that they voluntarily came to relieve the Bay of Quinte railway.

laughed in sympathy. New England Sept. 11th a dandy. His linen was as immacu- many. Oct. 9th late as it would have been in the city. Saloon, $60 and upward; Second Saloon, and the hand from which a diamond Saloon, soo and upward. Third-Class, $28 to flashed was as white and shapely as a

> "We must be good friends, Bartlett," he continued, "for I want you to let me down casy on the labor problem. Dad wants to make life treadmill for me." broad smile from his hearers greeted this statement. "I hope you know what work is, young feller," said Carter, his smile, ending in an audible chuckle.

Clay Ames never knew what reply he made. His eyes for the first time with the wild-rose face.

In less than, a week everybody camp knew that the superintendent's son was in love with Kitty Carter. Half the men in the camp were his rivals, but they all liked the young boss, who had made himself one them from the first night of his arrival. Kitty's ways were maddening. If her wilful heart favored any one, even her handsome city lover, she discreetly kept the knowledge to herself.

J. P. Gildersleeve, Ticket Agenta. and was on his way to the mine. gure speeding toward him. He knew Buffedo and at once that something was wrong. Return. vin She was breathless, her lips were Niagara Falts. blanched and her eyes wild with ter-

> "Kitty, what is it? anything wrong] at the mines?" he asked anxiously.

knife-stab. He whitened. "Is Clay anything to you, Kitty?" 1 moaned Kitty. "My heart will break their night's outing.

while others filled their places; how shaft. kept always at the head, never rest-- August 10th ing for a moment. To tell all this been would make a story of itself.

ing crowd that gathered about the engines each year for five years hours of hard work, the last dividing out in reasonable time. J. P. Hanley, Agent, City Passenger De to enter it was Joe Bartlett, who lett, meditatively. "As fer me, I ain't For a second or two the crowd was | Lune, of the Canadian scouts, who got the show of a chance. How in awed into silence by the awfulness of was with "that" Howard in South thunder can I expect a damty Ittle the tragedy, and then a cry of hor- Airica, speaking to a press represen-August 27th, 28th, 29th, 30th, 31st, Sept. girl like Kitty to care for a rough, ror burst from a hundred throats. tative to day, said he thought the Women screamed and men grew white lighting would last another year. He He took the pipe from his mouth and covered up their eyes as if thus it carefully; but it was evident that the brave face that but a moment be-

> Kitty-Lord love her -even to study- ically than the miners of Clear Creek Joe was modest. He had no selies reach their comrade. Rough men teem whatever, and undervalued his most of them were, but they cried merits. That so remarkable a creature like babies when at last Joe's crushas Kitty should ever love him was to ed body was lifted from under the de be considered only in the light of an bris and the light of day fell upon hi

> They carried him to his own cab and laid him upon the bed. The brav-Yet Joe was foreman of the new est man in Clear Creek camp had givmine at Clear Creek camp and the en his life for his comrades, and the entire camp was in mourning.

Mognlight flooded the cabin where Joe lay. The smile which had illuminated his face in the last moment of was at Amos Carter's cabin. There his life still rested upon it. Two peo-Tweed, Name Teacher and all were two reasons why he liked to ple-a man and a girl-stood beside spend an evening with Carter-he en him. The young man's arm was joyed swapping yarns with him over about the girl's waist, her face was > did not return it, and he was not a "Yes, dear," said Ames gently. "He valise containing jewellery at Arnman to wear his heart on his sleeve. was the best and bravest man I have prior a few days ago. A. Sanders, o EXPOSITION | man to wear his heart on his sleeve. was the best and bravest man I have foronto, commercial traveller, it any one had asked her about her ever known." His arm tightened foronto, commercial traveller, it opinion of Joe, she would have con- about her slender waist. "I am down a valise at the railway station not have a sweetheart.' plains, which he was telling for the pered Kitty, laying her tear-wet yard ritted. Vendette offered it to a twentieth time, there was a loud rap cheek against her lover's face. 'But local pawnshop, and tried to sell $6.85. It wentieth time, there was a loud rap cheek against her lover's lace. Some gold chains. The pawn shop on the door. Carter went to open it. Joe did not care for women—I am some gold chains. The pawn shop in the door. lence had kissed the dead man's lips. -Elizabeth Vore in San Francisco Ex-

Unclaimed Child Dead.

A little over a month ago, a girl, who gave her name as Arniel, left an eight-months old baby on the doorstep of Mrs. Fraser's residence, Collinwood street, saying she would call morning in Cataraqui cemetery.

First Baptist Church.

The pulpit of this church was supthis time of the pastor's sore trial, company to run an excursion legiste a day for five years.

A Fine Exhibition.

has loaned W. S. Ellis, for this week, writes that at least 800 people will died on Saturday. On Monday, the the collections of drawings, both in patronize the fair. encil and color, that Mr. Newlands had in Ottawa illustrating a paper on platform attractions, has secured Artute each day and evening until four monologue sketches, etc., will also Tandy sang "Abide With Me." o'clock on Friday.

Season Has Lasted Longer. Nearly every boat to Clayton from down river resorts is filled with peo erous requests, are making arrange ple homeward bound. The season has ments for a resting room: on the lasted longer than usual, and this grounds for women and children. year many hotel guests and cottagers large markee will likely be erected for will remain during the month of Sep- I this purpose, and in it tired or untember. Clayton is one of the resorts well children and their attendants where people from the Pan-American can rest. exposition, returning by water to their homes, stop over for a few were compelled to fall back, weeks ago, this steamyacht broke her

Saw Seventy-one Icebergs. dener for the late Rev. J. A. Allen, King, turnstile; Alexander Sharp, at Rideau street, left on Saturday at "Alwinton Place," returned yes- tendants gate; W. Saunders, grand visit friends at Hamilton and Guelph, Joe Bartlett had just left the office terday from a trip to the old counstand; A. E. Smythe, A. McMahon and afterwards to attend the P try. In coming through the straits of and R. Rose, the open stands. through the ice fields.

LADIES, THREE DOZEN FREE. yond, and one by one lifted the half yesterday from California after dead men to those awaiting outside to yesterday from California after

FROM A TRAVELLER.

Heliographed From Renfrew to Ottawa-Forty-five Miles is the Longest Distance Covered in This Country.

was one of the first to find 'Gut' Howard's body and he says Howard's hand was near his revolver, as it he had been killed in the act of drawing

The heliograph corps, in connection with the timerds, yesterday heliographed from Kingsmere to Rentrew, a distance of forty-live miles. This corps has been doing good work, and their members have been beliograph here on a visit. ing for some time. The test between | W. W. King left on Monday for | most ambitious effort, but the signal was only out one degree and from the l'an-American. the two parties were soon in communication. Quite lengthy messages were sent between the two points and Messrs. J. W. Watson and r. Dunlevie were at Renfrew, and Serge. J. A. Watson and J. McCharles in Ottawa. The heliograph' corps has prepared maps of the district about Ottawa, and their intelligence department is feature of the corps. It is claimed that forty-five miles is the longest distance any heliographing has been done

Peter Vendette, of Ottawa, has been arrested, charged with stealing fessed frankly that she was almost as glad," he said, huskily, "that he did at Araprior, and when he looked for it again it had disappeared. It was In the midst of a story of the "It would have killed her," whis- found next morning in the station keeper, suspecting they were stolen, And they never knew; for eternal si- called the police, and Vendette was arrested. Seventeen of the chains have been recovered, and the police believe they have the man who

EXCURSION RATES

Very Cheap.

for the child in a couple of days. The Grand Trunk railway has ar-She was never seen again. For some ranged for special rates on Sept. time the child has been ill of an in- Joh, 10th, 11th and 13th, between fantile disease and vesterday died. Fort Hope and Cornwall, with one Mrs. Fraser appealed to alderman lare for the round trip. On the 12th, Dunlop to have the city bury the excursion day on the railways, even child; and he made the necessary ar still lower rates will be in force. The rangements. Interment took place this judges and exhibitors will be issued round trip tickets at single fare from she 5th to 13th, valid till the 17th. Over the C.P.R. line similar rates have been secured for visitors to cursion will start early, so as to teachers will hereafter be employed. master in Kingston public schools, Gridley, general agent at Watertown, Mrs. W. H. Menkins, Montreal street,

D. P. Brannigan, who is booking the interment. be an attraction here. This completes one of the best list of platform at tractions offered at any fair

The directors, in response to num-

Fair Officials.

following appointments have Howard Tiffany succeeds Mr. Ellicott been made :

Harry J. Houghton, formerly gar- gate; H. Spence, R. Robinson, W. visiting her brother, Jacob Sharman,

A Driving Party. Guards—George Adsitt, A. E. Walk ronto exhibition on Monday.

er, C. H. Clark, P. Whalen, M. Fow- On Saturday last Peter Hunter, of On Friday evening a number of ler, James Beich, John Wood and the Daily News staff, celebrated games and dancing. Maloney brothers James Featherstone, Credit-on-Forks, deau street, and were entertained. furnished the music. The party broke on cattle, sheep and pigs; George Nic. up at four o'clock, reaching the city of, on poultry; W. J. Frankin, and be present at the launching of the "Everything, all the world to me," about six o'clock, well pleased with Wm. Craig, on agricultural products; Prof. Hart, on dairy products; wood on September 12th. The ship W. G. Kidd, on fine arts; Miss Wilson, | building company pay all the expenses Toronto, on ladies' work and wool- of their guests, and serve a luncheon

> Minn., Arena, was kidnapped, taken sant. Engines For C.P.R.
>
> Vour engines for the C.P.R. have commenced at the locomotive This big railway company will some miles into the discovered a new cure for consumption, is a Kingstonian, for consumption, is a Kingstonian, some of J. W. Fralick, late proprietor the result of a publication reflecting to the Windsor hotel. He is about the result of a publication reflecting to the Windsor hotel. He is about the result of a publication reflecting to the Windsor hotel.

If you are not already using MONSOON Tea, we would ask you toget a packet from your grocer. It is the most delicious of all teas.

INDO-CEYLON TEA

Movements of The People - What They Are Saying and Doing. Dr. Herb Murray, Owen Smand, is PERSONAL MENTION.

W. J. Chapman has returned home Miss Jean Alderdice, Toronto, visiting friends in the city. Mrs. K. Martin, Queer, street, is the guest of friends at Ogdensburg. Stanley Craig, Picton, spent Sunday I with his parents, King street west. W. Hobart Dyde and wife have left 1 for Hamilton and Buffalo on a visit, I Miss Edith Chapman has returned ! home after visiting relatives in Utica,

Henry Lemaine, Almonte, is the guest of Charles Lyons, Colborne

Samuel Stephenson, Belleville, is in 1 tne city spending a few days, with reafternoon, and caught nothing - not even a minnow. Mrs. and Miss Swales, Gore street, have gone to the Toronto and Pan-American expositions. J. T. Sutherland is spending a few | days at the Toronto and the l'an-

American expositions. Miss Florence Richards, dangerously ill for some time, has recovered, and is again able to be out. William Hipson, Division street, left Sunday, on North King, to visit the Pan-American and Rochester. Mrs. E. J. Aikens and son, Dunnville, Ont., are the guests Mrs. R. J. Elliott, Clergy street. Sympathy is extended to Mr. and To the Big Kingston Fair Will Be Mrs. T. D. Minnes, whose infant daughter died suddenly on Sunday. The condition of W. P. Bell is considered critical, It is not expected that he will survive his present ill-

> Johnston street, summering at Share bot Lake, returned to the city yester-1. Houghton, guard in the Kingston t.

peritentiary, returned yesterday from England, where he spent some hoh days visiting friends. The four-year-old daughter of Mrs. Brown, of No. 150 Mentreal street, was buried to-day, death heirg due to an infantite disease. Lieut. Col. Hudon will command the field artillery brigade at the military review in Queliec on the occasion of the duke of Yorkes visit. Charles Chapman is to be congratu-

He was unmistakably a good deal of May their helpful words be blessed to from Watertown, and other points E. B. Burley, Inverary, has been along the line, to Kingston, at re- appointed a manual training teacher duced rates, on Wednesday. The ex- for the Macdonald schools. Canadian give the visitors all day here. C. C. The two-months-old child of Mr. and

> Rev. Mr. Macgillivray, of Chalmers "Art Schools." It comes from Tona. eno, the scrpentine wonder, or India church, occupied his pulpit on Sunwanda, N.Y., public schools and will be rubber man, to give exhibitions. Miss day, after an absence of six weeks, on exhibition at the collegiate insti- Sadie Hart, song and dance artist, At the evening service, Miss Bentrice street, has left the city to join her daughter, Miss Myrtle Winter, who is a successful primary teacher in one or the graded schools in Victoria, B.C. James L. Carey, Kingston's strong man, returned to New York to-day after a few days' visit here. He rapidly rising to the head of Lis profession at the American metropolis. John Stansbury has been appointed, wharfinger and shore steward of the Thousand Island steamboat company, and is again back at the ferry office.

as ticket taker. Ticket takers-W. McCammon, main Miss Edith Sharman, Montreal, American exposition. J. P. Hanley, Co., Freight Agents. Looking up he saw Kitty's flying fi Belle Isle, on the homeward passage. Caretakers— J. McCambridge, hor- A merry little outing party, combe counted as many as seventy-one ticultural hall; S. Woods, J. Hamer, Losed of John Draper and daughter, ice bergs in a single day. The vessel George Wilson, R. W. Gowan and S. Mary F., Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Craig had good luck in making her way Lambert, the palace; H. Turpin, poul and Miss Ethel Hay, all of Glenburnie, left for the Pan-American and To-> twentieth anniversary of his marriage A sob choked voice and the agony dence of Mrs. Whalan, Inverary, where Judges-W. J. Gibson, Gananoque; and to mark the occasion a number of in her face went to Joe's heart like a a very pleasant time was spent in E. P. Andris, Port Hope, on horses; friends assembled at his home, Ri-union's motto: "Justice, Benevo- aged seventy. He began life in news-

Beware mitations

soles, $3.00, $3.50; rubber heels, Uppers sewn with silk, soles with pure linen.

Men's and women's $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00 per pair. See that they are stamped "Sovereign Shoe."

SOLD BY A. ABERNETHY.

Yes, we sell Saws, Hammers, Chisels and all kinds of Tools, and of the right quality to insure excellent returns for the workman's exertion.

Another thing, Do are willing to lose something to get the cash for these now.

the result of a publication remeding of the windsor and upon a prominent politician.

The international barbers had on Queen's university. He has practiced of the windsor and thirty-five years old, a graduate of the windsor and thirty-five years old, a graduate of the windsor and thirty-five years old, a graduate of the windsor and thirty-five years old, a graduate of the windsor and thirty-five years old, a graduate of the windsor and thirty-five years old, a graduate of thirty-five years old, a graduate old thirty-five years old years ol the union was here to stay. The bull the last thirtien years. He lives at dogs in the rigs were there to declare as the banner said, "What We Have as the banner said, "What We Have We'll Hold." The second banner had died in Toronto on Saturday, was

They are Cheaper now than they will be again. We also have a fine lot for the table.