It was the music of liberty. When these heavenly hosts sang their Gloria in Excelsis the whole world was resting under galling yokes of oppression. Slavery was universal. Taskmasters were everywhere severe to those in servitude. Greece, Rome, and Palestine heard daily the groans of those in Speaker on bondage. The world was in chains. But the song of the angels rang the death knell of bondage. The babe was God's emancipation. His distinctive mission was to set at liberty the captives and proclaim deliverance to the bruised and crushed sons of toil. Unour holy christianity, fetters fall off everywhere, until now in this morning of our new century there are few nations to be found that hold serfs. Glorious freedom!
