A CONSCIENTIOUS CLERK.

Who a Texas Grocer Grew Poor Out of His Business.

A Galveston grocer had been observing for several weeks past that a great many of his customers had quit him, and were trading at a rival store over the way.

The conscientious clerk looked at the lady very earnestly, and put on his apron, dusted off the counter whistling "From Greenland's Icy Mountains" as he did so.

"I want to know if you have family prayers regularly, and if your family are well prepared for a blissful hereafter beyond the grave; for if you are not you can't get the sugar, that's all.

A RIVAL TO YANKEE.

The Remarkable Achievements of a New-World Diet.

There is within a mile of Meaford a young woman whose achievements—not undertaken for the sake of notoriety, but for profit—are more astonishing than the "lucky days" under the diet of Dr. Tanner.

The conscientious clerk looked at the lady very earnestly, and put on his apron, dusted off the counter whistling "From Greenland's Icy Mountains" as he did so.
