

ESTABLISHED 1814.

THE BRITISH WHIG

Is published by E. J. BAKER, Price every Number, at the Office, Brock Street, Kingston, Canada, or Two Dollars a Year, Cash.

The Whig is printed on one side only, and includes every Sunday morning at One Dollar and a Half a year, if paid in advance; otherwise Two Dollars.

A Premium of Six Dollars is charged at all Subscriptions and 15 cents for further contributions. Those under Six Dollars and a half a year, for three months, and twenty cents for contributions. Other Advertisements are charged at the rate of 10 cents per line for each column, and 10 cents per line respectively.

Notices in editorial columns, the object of which is to promote class, society, popularity or private interests, are not admitted, unless the author is willing to pay the expenses of publication, and the payment is readily effected. For notices of births, marriages and deaths a small charge of fifty cents is made. A small amount is also made for obituaries. Special contracts made in writing, may be paid at the time of contract.

Letter Press Printing in all its Branches, is done by the Whig, for Remington's specimens of work to judge or select from.
