To Advertisers.

GEO. P. ROWELL & CO'S

SELECT LIST OF LOCAL NEWSPAPERS.

An advertiser who spends upwards of $5,000 a year, and who (probably) does this $1,000 of his best, writes: "Your Select List is the best me better last year THAN ALL THE OTHER ADVERTISING I DID."

IT IS NOT A CO-OPERATIVE LIST.
IT IS NOT A CHEAP LIST.
IT IS AN HONEST LIST.

The Catalogue states exactly what the papers are. When the issue of a paper is printed in FULL FACE TYPE it is in every instance the BEST. When printed in CAPITALS, it is the ONLY paper in the place. The line gives the population of every town and the circulation of every paper.

The rates charged for advertising are barely one fifth the publishers' schedule, the price for single States ranged from $2 to $500. The price for the whole country in the entire list is $4825. The regular subscription prices for the same space and time are $25,500.14. The list includes 1342 newspapers, of which 187 are issued DAILY and 1155 WEEKLY. They are located in 788 different cities and towns, of which 96 are State Capitals, 263 places of over 5,000 population, and 468 County Seats. For copy of list and other information address

SEDAN OF TO-DAY.

Rapid Changes in Ten Years at the Scene of the Fall of Napoleon III.

Sedan itself is fast altering so as scarcely to be recognized by one familiar with it during war time. Its fortifications are undergoing demolition, and Sedan is now in name, as in effect it had been ever since the introduction of rifled artillery, an open town. Vauban's bastions and curtains were very massive, and their wrought stone faces and cemented backings yield reluctantly; but they are gradually effaced, and Sedan is opening its lungs and stretching itself beyond the trammels that were wont to inclose it. Ditches are being filled up and boulevards are being laid out on their site. As one enters from the railway station through the suburb of Torcy, formerly inclosed within the line of circumvallation, he passes straight by side streets lined with fine new buildings. Where the German soldiers used to fish in the stagnant moats for chance pots, cuirasses, and other spoils of war, solid earth has taken the place of water, and long stretches of black woollen clothes are now drying on the space where once were ranged, row upon row, the hundreds of field guns that the vanquished had surrendered to the victors.

The gate from under whose arch-way the bearer of the flag of truce emerged from the distracted city is gone so completely that the very site of it is not to be identified. In the little place beside the bridge over the Meuse, Turenne, in his coat of verdigris, still stands in that uncomfortable attitude on the cannon balls, but the pickaxe of the destroyer is laid at the foundation of the citadel in which the great general was born. There is a new landlord at the Hotel Croix d'Or, a man who nonchalantly tells you the war was before his time here, and he takes no interest in anything concerning it. Either he or his predecessor has mended the shell hole that once yawned in front of the old house, knocking two windows almost into one. You can still trace where the new line has been laid on.

You turn to look for the traces of that other shell hole in the front of the sous-préfecture in which Napoleon dictated to Ducrot the order to cease firing, but that shell hole, too, had been repaired, and the sous-prefecture has been removed to the open side of the Meuse. The streets swarm with French soldiers, but soldiers smart, natty, and consequential in very different case from the broken miserables who, wolfish with hunger, distracted by horror, mad with conflicting passions, thronged its ghastly thoroughfares and littered its blood-stained open spaces on that other September day when De Wimpffen sillenly put his hand to the articles of capitulation.

The Next Congress.

In the present House there are 149 Democrats, 130 Republicans, 7 Democratic and 5 Republican nationals, and 2 Greenbackers pure and simple. Total, 293 members. Our returns up to an early hour this morning do not enable us to give definite details of the next House, but they suffice to show that the Republicans have regained control of the House with a working majority. They will probably have at least 155 members to 138 Democrats.

The present Senate has 42 Democrats, 33 Republicans, and an Independent. Of the Democratic seats falling vacant next 4th of March those of Senators Eaton, of Connecticut; McDonald, of Indiana; Randolph, of New Jersey; Kernan, of New York; Thurman, of Ohio; and Wallace, of Pennsylvania, will be filled this winter with Republicans—6 in all, which will give the Republicans 39 in the new Senate and leave the Democrats but 36.

The Republicans lose one Senator, Mr. Bruce, of Mississippi, but they have hopes of gaining one in Florida, and possibly another in Delaware.

The Republicans are sure, therefore, of a working majority in both branches of Congress from the 4th of next March, and the country may be congratulated on a homogeneous administration—a Congress in harmony with the President, and which will not be tempted, therefore to waste time in constant and sterile squabbles with the Executive. The Democrats will have the comfort of being in a strong minority, where, if they have ability and can agree on a policy, they may be of great use to the country.—N.Y. Herald.

Steam to Shanghae.

This is not the only chronicle of improvements in China tending to show that the Celestial Empire is trying to keep abreast of the time. The Overland China Mail, in commenting upon the late passages of the Glencoe and London Castle from China to England, with new season's teas, informs its readers that the three new steamers building for the Glen Line are expected to attain an average speed of fifteen knots, and will probably accomplish the passage from Woosung in thirty-one days. The last passage of the Glencoe was done in thirty-seven days twenty-two hours, including a detention of twenty-eight hours in the canal, the London Castle taking thirty-nine days eight hours, inclusive of detentions in the passage. Two new steamers for the Glen line, of some 3,000 tons each and 3,000 horse power, are expected to be ready by the end of the year. They are to be named the Glenfanin and Glenavon respectively, and will probably prove the fastest vessels in the Eastern trade. It is said that the third vessel will be an improvement on any of its predecessors, more especially in speed.

Cured of Drinking.

"A young friend of mine was cured of an insatiable thirst for liquor, that had so prostrated his system that he was unable to do any business. He was entirely cured by the use of Hop Bitters. It allayed all that burning thirst; took away the appetite for liquor; made his nerves steady, and he has remained a sober and steady man for more than two years, and has no desire to return to his cups, and I know of a number of others that have been cured of drinking by it."—From a leading R. R. Official, Chicago, Ills.

HEALTH, TONE AND VIGOUR.
Sir Astley Cooper's
VITAL RESTORATIVE, FOR

Strengthening the Nerves and Purifying the Blood.

TRADE MARK: "Elixir Vitæ."

This Preparation is Pronounced by the Most Eminent Members of the Medical Profession to be Unequalled for its Power in Replenishing the Vitality of the Body.

Byrth supplying all the essential constituents and carrying on the processes of nutrition to the highest degree.

IT IS AGREEABLE TO THE PALATE, AND INNOCENT in its action, while obtaining all its extraordinary properties. And, as a specific surpassing all the known therapeutic agents of the day for the speedy and

Permanent Cure of

Nervous prostration, Liver Complaints, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nausea, Sour Risings, and Eggs, Loss of Energy and Appetite, Hypochondria, General Debility, Indigestion, Incapacity for Study or Business, Lassitude, Trembling of the hands and Limbs, Impaired Digestion, Mental and Physical Depression, Consumption in its first stages, Impaired Sight and Memory, Nervous Fancies, Impoverished Blood, Nervous Debility in all its stages, Premature Decline, Shortness of Breath, and all morbid conditions of the system arising from whatever cause.

THE ACTION OF THE VITAL RESTORATIVE IS TWO-FOLD.

on the one hand increasing the principle which constitutes nervous energy, and on the other the most powerful blood and flesh generating agent known—therefore, a marvellous medicine for renovating impaired and broken down constitutions. It quickly improves the function of assimilation to such a degree that, where for years an emaciated, anxious, cadaverous and sexed vital condition has existed, the flesh will rapidly increase in quantity and firmness, and the whole system return to a robust state of health.

The Vital Restorative

acts electrically upon the organization, for instance, it assists nature to generate that kindly electricity which causes a sanguineness in the muscular tissues, nerves, circulation and organic system. It operates on the system without exciting care or thought upon the individual as to the process. It moves the lungs, lives, heart, kidneys stomach and intestines with a harmony, vigour yet nimbleness, unparalleled in medicine.

The Vital Restorative

gives back to the human structure, in a natural form, the phosphoric or animating elements of life which has been wasted and exhausted by imbecilant influence directly on the spinal marrow and nervous system of a man, causing exhaustion, producing diametric manifestations of the brain and muscular system which causes the mind's weakness, and consequently overcomes that full, manly independence which many persons experience in all their actions.

Finally, the Vital Restorative maintains a certain degree of activity in the previously debilitated organs in action, so that erebus all debilitated organs to refresh by their sound state and perform their natural functions. Persons suffering from Nervous Debility or any of the hundred complaints which their unnerving disease gives rise to, will find a perfect cure in the judicious use of this most invaluable remedy.

THIS MEDICINE IS EXTENSIVELY USED IN THE ARMY, and is also in very general use in Hospitals and Public Sanitary Institutions throughout the land, as well as in private practice, and is considered as an invaluable remedy.

Beware of Spurious Imitations.

Ask for "Sir Astley Cooper's VITAL RESTORATIVE." Do not let the Druggist persuade you to take another. The saving of a few cents in larger bottles and less price is put forward.

It is QUALITY the afflicted require, not quantity. Sold by all Chemists, at 2s 9d., 4s. 6d. 7s. 6d. and 22s. per bottle.

PROPRIETORS—HILTON & HARGRAVE, 9 Northumberland Street, Strand, London, England.

CAUTION—See that the words "SIR A. COOPER'S VITAL RESTORATIVE" are blown on each bottle, and that our Trade Mark, "Elixir Vitæ" is on the label, without which it cannot be genuine.

WHOLESALE AGENTS.

Barclay and Son's, London; and all the wholesale houses throughout the world.

This last is one of the many excellent remedies introduced by the late Sir Astley Cooper, and is most effective in its action."

Notice—Sir A. Cooper's Vital Restorative may be had in the form of Pills at 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d., and 9s. per box, sent by post, on receipt of price by the proprietors.
