CITY AND VICINITY. ACCIDENT.—Mr. Samuel Parker, a workman in the Ontario Foundry, made a misstep without work, and sprained his leg.

PHOENIX.—Moderate to fresh winds, mostly from the south and east; fair, warm weather, with probably rain to-morrow.

A VALUABLE BOOK.—Mr. J. Woolen is presenting for the orders of citizens a valuable work, the Home Hand Book of Hygiene and Medicine.

OFFENDING SOLDIERS.—Last evening two soldiers were arrested by the city police while attempting to force an entrance into a house on Queen street, and connected to the barracks under guard.

PRICE OF HAY.—Most of the burley grown in this section of the country has been sold at from 55 to 60c per bushel.

THE TELEGRAPH OFFICES.—Yesterday there was a great rush of business at the Dominion and Montreal telegraph offices, indeed the operators were busy until an early hour this morning.

THE LARCENY CASE.—Yesterday Capt. Saunders' assistants were before the Post Hope police court charged with the larceny of a black coat, a black felt hat, a silk handkerchief and $17 in money.

TOWNSHIP SCENE.—It is said that the McSherry family, who composed the crew of the schr. "Bello Sheridan," wrecked off Concom, perished under lamentable circumstances.

MUD FEVER.—A great many horses in this city are suffering from what is known as mud fever.

TREASON TO SHOOT.—Yesterday while two shepherds, employed by K. & M. Forwarding Co., were at work, one named Sullivan threw a scow full of grain upon the other.

INSPECTION OF FIRE APPARATUS.—Yesterday afternoon the Mayor, Ald. Snow, (chairman), and Ald. Anglin, Fes, McMahon, members of the Fire, Water, and Gas Committee, made an inspection of the engines, hose-carts, hook and ladder truck and fixtures.

THE STRANDED BARGE.—Yesterday afternoon pumps were set to work on the barge "Minnie," ashore near Point Frederick, but their operations were futile.

CANADIAN MISSIONS. Mr. Mr. Roy's Personal Experiences in the Province of Quebec.

Last evening Rev. J. J. Roy, of Montreal, addressed a meeting in St. James' School House in the interest of the Sabrevois mission, with which he is prominently identified.

Rev. Mr. Kirkpatrick occupied the chair, and spoke encouragingly of the evangelistic work which they had met to hear discussed—a work which should consist in civil and religious freedom.

Rev. Mr. Dobbis, recently returned from a visit to the old land, was cordially received when called upon to express his opinion upon the work of the Sabrevois mission.
