Mr. Wm. Stewart, Manager of th Kin pston & Montreal Forwarding Com pany, has returned to the city for the winter It is probable that in the spring he will remove to Montreal for permanent residence.

OHTUARY.-Mrs. Annis, of Gordon street, died last evening after a painful illness of nearly two months. A wide spread sympathy is felt for her husband and family to-day in the loss of one good an i loving.

A GHASTLY RELIC.—The latest reli of the lost crew of the "Belle Sheridan" found is a portion of face and jaw, with the teeth remaining in it, which was picked up on the beach at Weller's Bay. The fragment was forwarded to Toronto, and is now in the pessession of Mis. McSherry.

CUSTOMS REGULATIONS. - The Customs uthorities at Cape Vincent have re ceived positive orders to be strict in their examinations of all buggage, bun illes, and even suspicious persons arriv ing there from Outario. Several persons have been searched. All skiffs and boats from Wolfe Island have to report at the Custom House.

MISS CHASE, -On Mon lay evening Misa Lillian Chase, the reader, will ap pear in the Opera House. She is de scribed as having a voice such as few possess. She has many charming quali ties as an elocutionist, and is equally proficient in humorous and dramatic pieces. Her facial expression is very offective. The readings will be given under the auspices of the Mechanics' Institute.

STEAM BARGE BURNED. - On Thursday the steam barge "Rover," laden with 130 tons of hay, shipped by Mr. S. Going of Wolfe Island, for Cape Vincent, took fire while running down the river, and was beached at Knapp's Point, where she was burned to the water's edge. The fire originated near the boiler and spread quickly. The boat belonged to Mr. R. Davis, of Wolfe Island, and was valued at about $600. Neither boat nor cargo were insured.

LOOKED DOWN THE BARREL. - Informa tion has been received respecting the death of a young lad named Orange Storms, now of Landsdowne but formerly a resident of Bodford. A few days ago he went squirrel hunting. Finding | drum. some game he took aim, but the gun did not go off. He put it on the ground and looked down the barrel. As he did so the piece went off, the contents entering the boy's head above the eye. He lived but a few hours. The shot penetrated the brain.

CITY SPORT .- The early setting in of winter has driven the game into the city. The other day we chronicled the shooting of an eagle in the neighborhood of the Market Square. This morning an owl was seen resting on the flag-pole at Mr. Wm. Pipe's, Princess street, and Mr. T. F. Meagher brought it neatly down. It was found to be one of the Virginia species, and to be a fine bird measuring five feet from tip to tip of wings. It is thought that the large birds are starving, and are seeking the parrows in town for food.

A DEMENTED INDIVIDUAL. - Jno.O'Donnell has been spending the last year in guol. A few days ago he was released and began begging. He was assisted in this vicarious profession by a withered arm, which he continually exposed This morning he was again committed for six months. As he left the dock he with a sarcastic leer, said, "Gildersleeve, if I ever have money enough to get powder I'll fix you." He could say no more as he was instantly hustled into the hallway. O'Donnell has evidently become demented. He claims to be a patriarch. He is a fit subject for the Asylum.

LECTURE AND CONCERT .- On Monday evening Mr. J. B. Watson lectures in the City Hall on "Society Unmasked, the event being made doubly attractive by the promised concert which takes place subsequently. Of the lecturer the London Advertiser had this to say "The lecture of Mr. Watson was something on 'Daniel O'Connell,' superior to the usual mode of entertainments offered from the platform. It was true painting of a famous man's fascinating a style of oratory that only express the wish of the publi when we invite Mr. Watson soon to visit

ALMA MATER SOCIETY. Election of Officers Students' Enthusinsm -Evening Serendes.

Convocation Hall in Queen's Univer sity was filled last evening with an agi tated crowd. The occasion reminde one of the scenes enacted, when voting for Parliament done openly. Nearly every student in Arts, Medicine and Divinity was present. Order was effected as the President D. McIntyre, took the chair. During the evening Principal Grant addressed the Society on matters affecting its well-being. It appeared, among other things that the gymnasium had been started with Mr. Hugh J. Mac donald as instructor. It is at present rather scantily equipped, but means were suggested which will in a short time supply the deficiency. The report of the Secretary showed the Society to be a prosperous condition, with every likeli hood of increased usefulness in the future. The Treasurer's statement exhibited the finances on a satisfactory

The election of officers was the next item. The President was unanimously re-elected. A warm contest took place for the Vice Presidencies. The vote stood as follows: W. J. Gibson, (Med.) 122; B.N. Davis, (Arts) 94; H.H.T. Shib ley, (Arta) 65.

J. R. Lavell, B.A., Brockville; Wilbur Daly, B.A., Napanee; and W. Briden B.A., Picton, had each been nominated for Non-Resident Vice-President. The first named swept the boards. The result was: John R. Lavell, Brockville, 64 Wilbur Daly, Napance, 46; W. Briden.

The position of Critic was assigned to Mr. D. McTavish, and that of Secretary to Mr. H. B. Rathbun, without opposi-

For the position of Treasurer, Messrs. A. A. Pratt and J. A. Grant were nominated. The Medicos voted solidly for Pratt, while the Arts went in a body for Grant. While the votes were being recorded great enthusiasm prevailed Cheers resounded through the building when it was declared that each had an equal number of votes, 69. The President gave the casting vote in favor of Grant. This would not have been required had one Arta student been permitted to record his vote. In the excitement which prevailed he was not heard to state for whom he voted.

Meeting Last Evening-Appointment

Last evening a special meeting of the bool Trustees was held in their rooms, Wilkinson's Block. There were present: The Chairman, Mr. J. Wilson, and Messrs. Woods, Waldron, Anglin. Tanky Bones Allen, Horsey verdeling

A communication was read from Mr I. H. McGuirl, in regard to the progress of the night school, conducted by him. The classes (in reading, writing, arithmetic and book keeping) were opened on the 8th uit. with an attend ance of 10, and on the 2nd just, had increased to 72 - Fyled. SCHOOL PROPERTY.

MINS TANDY'S CHANGE. The wisdom of the change of Miss Tandy from Louise School to Queen Street School was questioned by Mr. Pense, who thought removal, so far as she was concerned, should not be made unless it was of the nature of a promotion, especial y as the young lady had done a service. which was entitled to consideration The fact was brought out by Mr. Horsey that after the holidays she will be placed in charge of a department in Staragni School, that her location in Quoen Street School will be but a temporary expedient. The change was really a promotion. Under these circumstances the appointment was prononneed satisfactory.

VARIOUS MOTIONS. Mr. Horsey had only signed the re port to enable it to be presented. He was not favourable to it in some respects. He desired to see Mr. Campbell placed where he had before served so well, in Gordon Street School, in place of Queen Street School, and that Miss Davidson should be placed in Queen Street School, and Mr. McGuirl in Frontenac School. He also wished to see Miss Cunningham placed so as to receive an additional $25, of which she was deserving by reason of long service. had the privilege of discussing the A motion to have her take the position given to Miss Spankie in Queen

A READJUSTMENT. On motion of Mr. Horsey Miss David on was appointed third assistant of Queen Street School, Mr. Campbell be m; seat to that near the Depot. The suggestion to sent Mr. Campbell back to the Gordon Street School, where he had done so well, was not adopted. It was stated, on behalf of Mr. McGuirl, that he was taking a course of special studies in Queen's College, of which he could not take alvantage if sent to Frontenac School.

Mr. Horsey's motion was carried. CENERAL INCREASE ADVOCATED. Mr. Waldron advocated a general increase of salaries, and especially greater equality in the payment of male and fem de teachers. If both performed the

Wood was reported to be unpunci tual and to be "merely keeping school, not teaching it," as one-tersely put it of which fact the record of the school was convincing evidence; and so it was concluded to remove him back to the position of assistant in the Model School, and to be only engaged for six months, while the Principalship of Catarag School was awarded to Mr. Isaac Wood. The changes thus made add but little

A very successful and pleasant gather ing took place in the basement of the M. E. Church last evening. The attendance exceeded the expectations of the most sanguine. The refreshments were served, which consisted of cakes $300 $400 and coffee, after which the programme was entered upon. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Young, occupied the chair and the audience was favoured with an anthem the title of which was "Praise ye the Lord." The music of the evening was rendered by the Atkins Bros., Mr. and Mrs. S. Brown and Mrs. H. F. Jones, Miss Frankie Lake and Mr. F. Sharp presiding at the organ. The bare mention of the above names is a guarantee that their part of the programme was well sustained. Addresses, short and appropriate, were delivered by Rays. C. A. Cook and T. W. Jolliffe. Readings were given by Mr. Isaac Wood and Mr. D. McArdle, of the Model School, Dr. McCammon, Mr. T. Driver, of the Cus toms Department, and Mrs. (Rev. Young. The readings were all good and listened to with great attention and pleasure. The entire labor and expense of providing this very enjoyable social were undertaken by Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, and certainly the warmest thanks evening of rare enjoyment. We are SELLING CHEAP
