and others. Tickets 25 cents. Tea served from 7 to 8 o'clock.

TOUR ORGANIZER.—The Hamilton Times says: Doubtless it would be pleasant for the 3rd to hear of a joint meeting like one at Kingston on last Monday night, where a gang of the Tory ignoble ruffians—the residuum of John A.'s hams shrieked for ten minutes in concert to prevent Sir Richard Cartwright from being heard. But we do things differently in Hamilton.

FREE CHRISTMAS TREE.—Owen & Charlton, King street, East, have two large Xmas trees well loaded down with presents, for everybody free of charge.
They are well worth seeing. The room in which they are exhibited over the store is gaily decorated with evergreens, mistletoe, oil paintings, chromes, etc.
They have a fine stock of goods for holiday presents at very low prices.

The scholars of the above school had a very pleasant time last night. The attendance was large and old and young seemed bent on enjoying themselves.

The Christmas tree was well illuminated and fully laden with presents, one for each scholar. The exercises opened by singing an appropriate piece, after which five minute addresses were made by Messrs. G. W. Andrews, W. S. Gloddon, and the pastor. Then came the distribution of prizes, followed with packages of candy and apples. A little before ten o'clock the happy company broke up, all evidently well pleased with the entertainment.

Police Court.

Ann Marlow was accused of stealing prayer books from St. Mary's Cathedral. On several occasions books up, it was agreed to give up skating on the ice, but the thief had purloined to P. Lamoreaux, and he in return had laid information against her which led to her arrest and commitment for trial.

The prisoner is an old offender having already served a term of three months in gaol for plundering a house on Brock street.

Willie Wade, a mere lad, who left his home in Toronto and has been aimlessly wandering about the country was arrested at the request of a prominent citizen acting on information received from the prisoner's mother. The boy will likely be sent to his friends in the Quebec city.

of the Kingston Hospital have pleasure in acknowledging the sum of $25 from an unknown friend, per Messrs. Kirkpatrick & Rogers.

MEMPHIS, DECEMBER.
Notes of Memphis. Early December 1880.

At nine today the inhabitants of those who desire to serve the city as such. Frontenac Park at the top of the slope places, for but one Ward at a time. In a contest, the considerable number of voters and new registrants in places the gift of the people. According to the record of the voter does not follow the nomination on the same day, but a week later. The following is to-day's return for the Public School Board.

Caledonia Ward.—Mr. M. W. Irwin, had no opposition. He was supported by his friends for such a manifestation of his popularity.

St. Lawrence Ward.—Messrs. H. C.
Price, J. W. Stevens, and Mr. S. C.
McKee were nominated but only the two named in the field. Mr. Mills called at this office to say that he was not seeking election and that he wished the electors to understand this to be his position.
He was not a mounting party to the

Frontenac Ward.—Mr. T. C. Weston was nominated in districts and did not appear to have any opposition. A few days later Mr. G. C. Karp was announced as the returning officer not being present at the time. We hope the circumstances will not be so difficult. We fear that some persons do not understand the meaning of the new law.

Victoria Ward.—Mr. J. N. Kirkpatrick was elected by acclamation. The Ward is to be complicated upon its own representative and the Board upon its admission.

St. Paul's Ward.—Mr. W. T. Campbell
admission.

St. Paul's Ward.—Mr. W. H. Sullivan, Victoria Ward.—Mr. W. Flynn, Sydenham Ward.—Mr. F. M. Mc-Dowell.

Garden Island—Messrs. Charles Wilkinson and W. Merton were elected by acclamation.
