in Kingston,) was in the orchestra, dis- lowner of mills in the neighbourhood. ial Celebration had not been removed, the Buxter. One of his schoolfellows, Mr. | er section stood by the gallant knight. The Hall, filled as it then was, had a very exhi- | Henry Smith, is at present Speaker of the | these proceedings were unaccompanied limiting appearance-two hundred couple Legislative Assembly; and another, Mr. any feeling of rivalry between Mr. Macfrom the scantiness of attendance at the As- in the other branch of the Legislature for is proper to say that this rivalry, if it realsemblies, a stranger would think that the several years. Young Macdonald advanc- ly existed, never produced anything Kingstonese were not a dancing people; ed in his studies with a celerity that dis- the shape of an open reptore. The o but judging from last night, he would great- and classics he showed an aptitude far bed was settled in September, 1.54, when, ly change his opinion. All were for dance youd the average of pupils, and gave early the resignation of the Hincks' Cabinet, Six ing, the young and the old, the gay and the promise of the distinction he was to win in Allan M'Nab was called upon, in conju grave, the profune and the devout, but the | the great buttle of life. His memory was, | tion with Mr. Morin, to form a coalitie. fliculty was to obtain room. Still, they Whatever he read he remembered; and for or Canada West, which post he has, with ed with a becoming diligence, and | years after he had read a book he could turn | an interregnum of a few days, ever since the morning star had paled its light, at once to the page where a particular pas- continued to hold. In the spring of 1856 all had dancing to their hearst' content. - sage occurred. The habit of general or Sir Allan M'Nab, harassed by the gout and miscellaneous reading he never relinquish- unable to attend to his parliamentary duties. At eleven o'clock, the Supper Room, ed; and even when First Minister in a resigned the premiership. The whole

(Inte Shaw's wareroom,) was thrown open, country where the Premier is obliged to Cabinet resigned along, with him, and continued open for several hours .- | renderhimself peculiarly accessible -- when, Col. Tache, reformed the Govern Here were seen the taste, liberality and during all the business hours of the day, chiefly out of the old material. The ques-Ball, being one for charitable purposes, the he still found time for a considerable leadership of the Commons House of As-Stewards left the furnishing of the many amount of general reading. This was per- sembly, and it was settled by the new Pretables to the kindness of the ladius, and formed in bed after one or two o'elock in | wier in favor of Mr. Macdonald. amply and richly was the trust respended the morning. to. The tables actually groaned under the the study of the law, under the late George I not long in coming. In the middle of Noto excel her co-provider. Every delicacy fice he had studied law, having died in the called upon to form a new Government. of the season was spread in profusion; and preceding year, our youthful barrister suc- | Having accomplished this task, he advised an attentive eye might observe that ample | ceeded to his business, and soon found him - | a discolution of Parliament, and the con provision was made to cover the tables, self in the possession of a good and, for a try was in the midst of a general election the poor of Kingston must have been great | at Toronto, in 1849, he stated that he 'was | per Canada. Towards the close of last Jushow the real comfort and prosperity of the | Lie, he had been heard to say that no office | liament, of Ottawa as the permane Brish Catholic population of Kingston, than | in the gift of the Government had attached of Government for United Canada, the Great Supper provided by the Catholic to it a salary sufficient to prove any temptathe Great Supper provided by the Catholic to it a salary sufficient to prove any temptation to him. After some years, Mr. (now an intervening Cabinet, which lasted but the lasted but the slightest to it a salary sufficient to prove any temptation to him. After some years, Mr. (now an intervening Cabinet, which lasted but the slightest to it a salary sufficient to prove any temptation to him. After some years, Mr. (now an intervening Cabinet, which lasted but the slightest to it a salary sufficient to prove any temptation to him. After some years, Mr. (now an intervening Cabinet, which lasted but the slightest to it a salary sufficient to prove any temptation to him. After some years, Mr. (now an intervening Cabinet, which lasted but the slightest to it as a salary sufficient to prove any temptation to him. After some years, Mr. (now an intervening Cabinet, which lasted but the slightest to it as a salary sufficient to prove any temptation to him. After some years, Mr. (now an intervening Cabinet, which lasted but the slightest to prove any temptation to him.

vate table of about twenty gentlemen, the has ever since continued to fill. The Trust wit and ridicule being among the weapons lative Assembly. Mr. Ross is represented for Ireland, and can scarcely prevail upon health of the Chairman of the Committee, and Loan Company, which has been so suc- which he wields with great dexterity. He to be a man of ability, high moral worth, ourselves to awake and look upon our presented to treatment, and can scarcely prevail up as also was that of Mr. Recor- I legal adviser. der McDonell.

spirit (it never did cease until the pro- scribe him as a warm and true friend. His ponent. When roused, he is an insted and omme was danced through,) and kept up | social qualities-his wit and his inexhaus- | energetic. As a debater, he has no equal. till nearly five o'clock in the morning, the | tible fund of anecdote-made him the soul | in the House, room gradually thinning about three o'-Towards the end, there was no The political principles of our future most important liberal thing went off with gentleness and plea- of the then ruling party in the province. cluding the abolition of the feudal system can easily be secured, if his friends will antry. The arrangements in the ladies' wright, who long represented in Parliament larisation of the Legislative Assembly, and that the Richard and was lost to the party at the last general controom were perfect, and not an article ton, there was a strong political sympathy, lature elective, while reserving the rights, election, only through the personal influ-Irish Charity Ball and Supper of 1859 was | donald's first public act as a politician was | members. All these measures, in the popular in the county, and had very cona great success, with one solitary draw- to Parliament of his friend, the late Mr. previously opposed; but when the voice a man of whom any constituency might be back, regret that it only comes once a year. | Cartwright, President of the Commercial of the country had unmistakeably on- proud. His personal honor is unimper

To the Editor of the British Whig. signedly garbled report of a few remarks to be crowded with the political friends of given to the seigniors out of Upper Canada made by me at the meeting of the Board of | her son, In 1844 Mr. Macdonald was elect- | funds. lews takes the ground of Free Trade and | arising out of the difficulty which had oc- | both boys, only one ken this way of defending its principles, | curred between Sir Charles Metcalfe, the | Mrs. Macdonald, who had for It is true that I did avow the prin- try, of which Mr. Lafontaine and Mr. Bald- | middle of the last f Protection for Home Industry, and | win were the chiefs. The Ministry had re- | the political prospects of her I some cases which came into my mind signed on a dispute with the Governor- Premier, were hanging in the balance the time, one of which was the fact of a | General, on the subject of patronage. of Canada to the United States for I ly placed their resignation was that the e. The price of the iron ore in | Governor-General, had made appointment

HRWRKIN BRISH WHG.

· VOL. XXVIII.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL FOR CANADA WEST.

KINGSTON, CANADA, FRIDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 4, 1859.

est was held yesterday by Dr. Moore, of any importance were found in possession her husband, somewhere in the vicinity Lahirty or forty police, fully armed, and an friend Ham bonn d'Aitken. None

(From the London Times, Jan. 3.) In connection with these proceed ags th appearance from kicks and bruises, and crary.-The great cause of uneasiness embraced the doctrines of the liberal party still, in some respects, but based nevertheone blow in the region of the ribs is stated | with the government, and the reason why of the time, and vehemently advocated the less, for the most part, upon natural justice. to have been the cause of the woman's | they have carried on their proceedings cause of the Directory in all companies. present at the inquest. The inquest ter- tia with the secret organizations. This ex- and when it was reported at head-quarters things were a little better, as the situation little tricks may unset nated last evening, with a verdict of plains everything; for the terribe fact that that an exciseman had refused to stand guilty of murder rendered against the prise | the militia of Ireland cannot be relied on as | in the National authem | Emser River, diggers drop into their places | -O. W. Holm.s. a defensive force against foreign aggression | was played, and had sent two bruss cannon Mr. Papineau Sustainen. The attempt, may mainly the wildest alarm. The secret taken from a smuggler (which he himse of the Ministerialists in the County of Otta- club arrested in Belfast is connected (it is assisted in capturing) with a complimentary trades. Intoxication seems to be uncom- what you say when you wa, to weaken the independent position affirmed) with the Phanix Clubs of the letter to the French Directory, they directed held by Mr. Papineau, the representative south; and already it has been discovered an inquiry to take place, and he was representative of that county, ended in mortifying failure. | that several sergeants of militia were mem - | manded and told that his business we A meeting, convened by the Warden, was | bers of the secret organization. This start- act and not to think. This somewhat ab held at Aylmer on Thursday last, which ling fact, which the government officials surd rebuke sunk deep into his heart was attended by 'the beauty of Carleton,' have hitherto endeavored to conceal, is thenceforth he despaired of advanceme his brother, the expectant-judge, and other extremely significant. hangers-on of the Government from the city of Ottawa, and other outside places. Mr.

atmost, and his companion, Mr. Friel, folneau's honest and consistent course, and mentary conduct. The proceedings, instead of furnishing Ministerial capital, were cor and the member for Carelton and suite wen oldest man living in the County of Brant his youthful days he was a trader ame

STRANGE IF TRUE.

It is rumore! that Musses, Brown, Dorior

NORTH WELLINGTON .- At a large meet-

THE NORTH RIDING OF WELLINGTON.

The contest in this county is now fairly McDonaid, and other members and and generally respected.

left to ruminate upon their fallen party into an anti-Ministerial trium;

W. F. Powell, strained his eloquence to the agitator and raises a tribute for his suppor type of the last century—the Defenders and the only way to promote the benefit of their appreciated it; and, accordingly, they passcountry was to make her either a demoments of the French empire. A mistirect entire miscalculation of the power of Great Britain, a narrow and provincial arrogance, and a wonderful ignorance, of the resources so far from being diminished by the reces actually to have been increased by perity brings forth the better parts of political regeneration as that broached the Pagenix Society; but, rightly conside

> The return, after so many years inter- | pum, Sexton, S. Stewart, and Wood. fourteres-ofadvorsity. Time was who crosity, was willing to take upon hersell the Hooper, McCoy, Roblin and Warner, ours; and we must adhere to the system | for the County Court Clerk's Office.

THE ARRESTS IN BELFAST. tenday in the Belfast police-court between The latter again pressed upon Mr. Tracy the propriets of holding the managence, the press cannot be lidrany comments on the decision. By the press, to fight their own bathe, as they are mate of the probable exposure of keeping supporting in a very short time. All this, vious, depen what about the threatened appeal? We quite able. If, however, you cannot after in is repair the present year. Whether any appeal is seriously intended | my brief. I may also as well montion, the last Tuesday (20th) March, at 3 p.m.

the spring of 1796, he was attacked with and in the summer was advised to go into the country; he went to a lonely place called the Brow, on the shore of the Solway, Annandale, to try the effect of sea-bathin down the street, was delivered fifth child, were left behind him. County Council.

Wednesday, Jun. 26th. The following communications were r ceived and read, viz. :.

to Prison Libraries. From the Mayor of Coburg, recommendrepeal of 'The Debenture Registration Act.

y of Wentworth. From P. O'Reilly, Esq., Clerk of the origin of wealth and the origin

ON FINANCE, --- ASSESSMENT AND ACCOUNT

Messra. Asselstine, Bartels, Hooper, La-

ON ROADS AND BRIDGES. Messrs. Draper, McGrath, Robinson, Sedore, Spike, N. Stewart, and Taggart. ON EDUCATION. Measrs, Burtels, Davis, Diamond, How ard, Miller and Sexton. ON COUNTY PROPERTY. Messrs. Asseistine, Hooper, Lapum, Ma-dole, McCoy, Robinson and Warner. ON BUILDING COMMITTER. The Warden, Messrs, Asselstine, Davis, A report was adopted allowing the Lesse of Toll Gate No. 1, K. & N. Road, to erect a toll bar near the Railway crossing the | vent travellers avoiding the Gate, and taking | old one, has its expenses, through a diffehe trish cannot be continued, is theirs, not the ice on the Creek, and ordering farniture to be made, and an administration must be who was teaching at a The following Grammar School Trustees | an efficient police must be kept up. | At- | construction of the T were re-appointed, viz.: T. A. Corbett, ready, in fact, we are despatching a batta- tioning among

and Johnson Day, Esq., and the following | bably figure in our Army Estimates for | used in buildin new members were appointed, viz : C. W. Cooper, H. W. Purdy, Elias Price. B. C. Davy, and Joseph Northmore. Thursday, Jan. 27th. A Petition from Isaac Brock and others praying for a grant of money to improve the road in the third Concussion, between Lograble. The inquiry must be private, and, bore and Portland, which was laid over to but the organization of traffic sure to follow body, we understand, presented a shocking GEANTS OF MILITIA IN THE SECRET So- ment of the French revolution, he ardently precedents and customs, -- rude enough friend of theirs a Long was at once placed in jail, with so much secreey, is the fact that they. His onthusiasm carried him to lengths that furers quarrelled, fought and squadered that put copper in the but was taken therefrom last evening to be have discovered the connexion of the mili- his better judgment would have discovered the connexion of the mili- his better judgment would have discovered the connexion of the mili-un was no longer novel; and, now, on the versation for the sake of a much regularity as is seen in ordinary mon, and gambling discouraged. This is a general love of order, and a marked desire for at strong and effective Government, whom you mean to kick Give us protection, say the miners, and eatch him. we will pay for the license willingly.' They want, as a body, to live under the law, are well disposed towards the Governor, and an individual toan, promise a hearty welcome to a judge. the barbarous features, in short, of violent rheumatism. He continued to sink, mining life are now disappearing, and dig- fortune, and father gers are as peaceable, steady-going people in their way, as any other class of working men. For the rest, it is amusing to observe how, under these favourable circumstances. but all was of no avail; on the 18th of July the natural laws of public economy develop therefore, to resort to he returned home a dying man. He lived themselves. The accumulation of wealth making Legislature. and the division of classes occur exactly as | We use the former made in the Old World, except that the process | reason that we reject is infinitely more rapid. A man begins as | turns out the bricks. chief portion of his produce carried off by ploys the first few dollars of his making a journey up the river on his own private may thank my stars for By the use of his writs, or his tablishes a 'c'aim,' and becomes ployer of labor in his turn. If he is less he heards his wages till be can purchase also one of the same import from the Coun- | atenth. A very few yours will probably see even these exceptional communi office furniture, &c., all ling but their daily labor. There will however, be this peculiarity in the case, -that, | went presents either skilful enterprise or sturdy self-denial, and that a worse fortune that the origin of the distinction is a good That the value of a possession like the Fraser River territory should still be con- | The hole in which sidered debutable is a signal instance of the | Could not contain a century ago a colony yielding gold by the A Numanical John. bucketiul would have been set down at | having lost his cause, once as the most precious pearl in the Im- | before three ju ed to institute a regular profit and loss cal- | two but very l culation, and ask whether the thing really | barristers were 'pays.' In our correspondent's opinion, it | 'Well, now,' says does not, and will not for some time to come | when there were a -that is to say it will not be maintained | bench ? without contributions from the mother country in the shape of civil and fmilitary estab- | three. lishments, for which no direct return will *By St. Patrick P replies be forthcoming. A new country like an one and two ciphers. Robert Esson, Allen Caton, F. Macegan, the garrison of British Columbia will pro- stone at our some time to come. Such obligations, it is the teacher's Er eald, are not likely to be satisfied at present | word was new to to out of the Colonial Exchequer, inasmuch as | the class at nex the tax open miners, though willingly paid, | were asked: 44 is sufficient to meet the demands of Liov- | Babel made of ?" erument. We cannot exactly see why wasthe ready answer. this should be. If the miners are as sagncious and as successful as our corresponpay for their own protection out of their own | mires and a abundance, rather than throw the bunden | American "Mr. Ren. - If you yield to my objection prepare and submit, at the next Session of on their poorer follow citizens at home. A horse-taming an against building the inquiry in the good I the Conneil, a full report of the K. & N. colony where everbody is making at least struck us before report of the K. & N. | colony where everbody is making at least struck us before. I his £300 a year might we think, to be soif- | more ways than cates simply less knowledge or less thrift

*A hundred judges! Th

palency. His father, who had been engaged altered position of parties in the new mand of the veterans. Mr. Macdonald, the M'Nab. Pre-eminent among these we The Hall was well filled at ten o'clock. father of the subject of this notice, commenced business at Kingston in connection to be more liberal than the Family Combut dancing had commenced at an earlier with Major Ewen M-Pherson, of the 68th pact, between whom and themselves there. Mr. McMillan's Band, (by far the Light Infantry.) He afterwards became the had never been any cordiality of feeling One section of the Conservative press ug most charming music, and as the The son, John Alexander, received his vocated the deposition of Sir Allan M'Nab adid decorations of the Burns' Centen- education at the District Grammar School of from the leadership of the party and the sub-Kingston, under the thition of Mr. George stitution of Mr. Macdonaid, while the othog at one and the same time, Judging Legislutive Council, after having had a seat hardly safe to assert,—at the same time, it osity of the Kingston ladies. The erage, be waiting for an interview with him, Drummond should be entrusted with weight of the many and varied viands .- | Mackenzie, Esq., of Kingston. In 1834 he | vember, 1857, Col. Tache, tired of the cares Each lady had apparently made it a point | was call d to the bar, at barely 21 years of of office and anxious to retire into private Incretive practice. It is true that, in a large ministerial majority in Lower Canaas were the thousand mouths to be filled, speech made in the British American League | da, and a small opposition majority in Upin the distribution of the over- out prosperous; but this was understood to by, the Legislative Assembly adopted a replus next morning. Nothing could better | be said to round a period or make out a | solution disapproving of the selection by the case. Long before he came into public Queen, on reterence of the Canadian Par

Hon.) Alexander Campbell became his law I two days, Mr. Cartier, formed a new Govwill, it is said, attack the Ministry on other pecuniary inconvenience. It was a fact to | partner. On the dissolution of this partner- | ernment, in which Mr. Macdonald holds be remembered. For good and sufficient sup, in 1850, he contracted a second part- his previous position of Attorney-General grounds.--[Ottawa Union. reasons, there were no wine or spirits ourship-Mr. Archibal! M'Donnell, of for Canada West, without being Premier. on the tables, the well supplied with Greenfield, Gengarry, succeeding to the Mr. Macdonald, since Mr. Hincks was ingof the Reformers of North Wellington, mission to Ribbon societies, to a course on the tables, the well supplied with position lately held by the Hen. Alexander appointed Governer of the Windward Is- held at Fergus, a few days since, Mr. Jus. agrarian crime, to treasonable oaths and se plenty of excellent tea and coffee.— Campbell. In 1839 Mr. Macdonald was lands, has been the ablest debater in the Ross, late Warden of the County, was che- cret conspiracies, is certainly a bitter dis popping of a Champagne cork was oc- appointment to our bright and sangun asignally heard, and at a somewhat pri- of the Midland District, a post which he a heavy calibre, but is light and sprightly, sentation of that constituency in the Legis- money. We had dream of another four i cessful, owes its organisation to his exer- is good at closing up a debate, picking out and unwavering Reformer. His and disappointments—to admit how de-James Harty, Esq., was drunk with great | tions; he sustains towards it the position of the weak points of his adversary's argu- | election may be set down as a certainty. | ments, ridiculing any pretensions that I act with standing the opposition of big Tom I driven to contend, and how ill the race In private life, Mr. Macdonakl conciliat- verge upon the absurd, and pulling to Forguson, Ogle R. Gowan, and their whose destiny we are so interested profi After Supper, dancing was resumed with the respect of all classes and parties. peces, like one playing with a rose, the lambs, which he will have to encounter. by the opportunities of prosperity or the His intimate associates, at this time, de- | weak or inconclusive arguments of an op- | -fGlobe.

| of every social assembly at which he was |. Although starting as a Conservative, his lissue. Mr. James Webster, of Goeln confusion or grumbling; but every- statesman were imbibed under the influence passed by the Canadian Legislature, in- that we can learn, Mr. Webster's see performed in connection with the election | shape in which they were passed, he had | siderable local influence. Mr. Webster is Bank of the Midland District. His own | nounced in their favour, he no longer sought | able. He has always been the roor man I political advancement at first owed some. Ito offer a fruitless and unavailing opposition. I friend. His character as a business I thing to the tact and address of his mother, To the abolition of the feudal tenures he I stands high, and his claims again Sir,-Permit me through the medium of an estimable lady, who is still living, had never been opposed, but only to taking Riding of a local and personal character as journal, to correct the ignorantly or During his first elections, her house used any portion of the compensation to be very great. [Colonist.

Trade on Saturday evening last, which ap- | ed to the Legislative Assembly for Kings- | Mr. Macdonald married Miss Clark, a ared in the columns of the News. If the I ton. It was a period of great excitement, I distant relative, who bore him two children

For the British Whig.