[From the Canada Gagette.]

egislative Council Chambo , and that House being presbi Chimseterwilliathe follow of the Legislatic fate of the 'mountain daisy,' created by a

Such is the fate of artiess Maid.

by love's simplicity betray'd.

Sweet flow ret of the rural shade!

Till she, like thue, all soll'd is laid

On life's round ocean luckless starr'd!

Till billows rage, and gales blow hard.

Such fate to suffering worth is giv'n

By human pride or cumning driv'n

That fate is thine-to distant date;

Stern Ruin's plonghsbare drives, clate,

Never was there a poet's heart more keenly sensitive to human sympathies, had the happy gift of transferring to the love and friendship than Robert Burns. H

Reen-shivering shot thy aerves along,

I taught thee how to pour in song.

I saw the pulse's maddening play.

Misled by fancy a mateor ray.

But yet the light that led astray,

And you, ye twinkling barnies bright,

Oh. Handerson ! the man, the brother.

And art thou gone, and gone for ever !

Like thee, where shall we find another,

Go to your sculptured tombs, ye great,

In a' the tinsel trash o' state,

the world. Lord Byron said:

But by thy honest turf I'M wait,

And weep the ac best fellow's fate.

reply is, great mets are seldom given

The work of each immortal bard appears.

The single wonder of a thousand years,

And hast thou cross of that nakaowa river.

For through your orbs he's ta'en his flight.

Wild, soud thee pleasure's devious way,

The adored name

By passion driven;

My Matthew moura

Ne er to retura.

Lite's dreary bound !

The world around ?

E'er laid in ear h!"

Till crushed beneath the furrow's weigh

Who long with wants and wors has striv'

Till, wrenched of every stay but Heaven

Such is the fate of simple Bard

Unskilful he to note the card

Low i the dust,

To mis'ry's brink,

Full on thy bloom.

Shall be thy doom.

tientlemen of the Legis-Canada having resolved that a Government should be selectour Gracious Queen by an ader house to exercise her preinding on the Executive with Her Majesty's | subjects of his song, his own deep feelings will be built before you, and I sad or gay. In that fudierous but beautifu that you will recognize a se- that comic but terrible productio -- Tam by Her Majesty at your own O'Shanter-what a burst of uproarious joy at you will duly acknowledge and hibarity are in those two linesampliance with the address- Kings may by blest, but Tam was glorious, conrecives caused to be pre- O'er all the ills of life victorious! much satisfaction to state | Few among the greatest poets have desa for the settlement of the cribett, in youth, the power of the master

lerate outlay beyond the | comprehensive and pangent, as Burns,

Hadson's Bay Company, and bewail the death of Capt. Henderson, ally abundant harvest she will of a sound and rigid econoliture within the limits re-

I'm was to think upon you den.

L'artie your sake.

of Canadians, it may teached to be telerant | Allan, Esc., and that he and good will to others which he commenced

may admire the smoothness of Old present rate, it will be unflaished this day prevent mistakes he had obtained

I thetic cord in the human heart. (Applause.) | The scrutiny proceeds so slowly that at Spenser, the sweet but keen and trenchant I twelvemonth. And though so far it has been | which was then read to the House, Furse of Dryden, the deep philosophy and retains a handsome majority. When the other studied rhythm of Pope, the Evangelic lave begins to play, and Mr. Amsden's votes of Young, the fierce passion of Byron, the become the subject of inquire Mr. Harcourt's sublimity of Milton; but in Burns, it is not I majority will be largely increased. Amsden't ture, and nature only, that creates the charm | bad votes may be counted wholesale; and there -guns from nature allitter in his verse, like will be a sweep amongst them which will rather morning's de y drops on the crimson-tinted | surprise the creditions gentlemen of the minisflowers.' (Applause.) How beautiful alike | tertal press. [Globe. are the moral reflections and poesy on the

SECRETARY'S OFFICE. Toronto, 29th January, 1859. His Excellency the Governor General has been pleased to reinstate George H. Gordon, Esquire, in the commission of the Peace for the County of Hastings. His Excellency the Governor General has I vilores and Elections; 2nd. Expiring pointments, viz : Henry John Philpot, Esquire, Physician and Surgeon, Associate Commer, for the County of Norfolk. John Lewis, Esquire, to be a Surveyor and Warehousekeeper in Her Majesty's records.-Carried.

Costoms, in the place and stead of Isidore Mallen, Esquire, deceased. John Jordan, Esquire, to be an Assistant Surveyor and Chief Landing Waiter and Searcher in Her Majesty's Customs.

TUESDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 1, 1859 LETTERS AND TELEGRAMS.

Ev'n thou who mourn'st the Daisy's fate. P. S. & Co., Boston; PROVINCIAL PARLIAMENT

> LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL. (Reported for the Globe.) SATURDAY, Jan. 29, 1859. The twelve newly elected members were sworn and took their seats, viz :--A. Campbell, Geo, Crawford, Baptiste Guevremont, George Alexander, F. X. Armand, P. M. Archambault, John McDonald, David Christie, Alex. Kierouski.

eral the House was called to onler by the accept both challenges. Speaker, and prayers were said by the speech, the reading of which was dispensed

Mr. Vankoughnet had no objection it such was the desire of the House. Mr. De Blaquiere would be glad if the consideration of the speech were proceed with on Monday next. There was

Mr. Vankoughnet said it was the du Ity, sung their praises while they lived, and of the Government to be prepared to proceed their elegies when they died. With what I with the business on every occasion, and feeling on the part of the House, the Government would feel itself bound to yield After some further conversation. Vankoughnet's resolution was amended by the insertion of the word 'Tuesday,' which was accepted. Col. Prince submitted a petition of the heirs of Lieut. Dewar, ciaiming tain wild lands, which be very strongly pressed on the attention of the House and

The Standing Committee for the sessi having been strack, the House adjourned House of Assembly.

ment was opened on Saturday afternoon. With the exception of about 40, all the members were in their seats. The follow- | mean, I am not so positive about 'Scots | leyn, Buby, Beauhien, Bell, Bellingham, iny Jo, John; yet as the above writers as- | Speaker, whose bronzed face shines under Benjamin, Biggar, Brown, Bureau, Burton. sert that the music of 'Hey, tuttie, taitie' his wig like a pumpkin in a snow storm. Malcolm Cameron, Carling, Caron, Cayley. mon, Clark, Connor, Daly, Dionne, Dorion. when marching his gallant troops to the goes ahead. Dorland, Drummond, Dufresne, Dunkin, | field of Bannockbarn, I presume they have | Honorable Gentlemen and Gentlemen. Ferguson, Ferres, Finlayson, Foley, For-tier, Foster, Fournier, Galt, Gill, Gould, reference to the subject of Burns' more at. Munro, Notman, Onimet, Panet, Play- | taken, one of which verses I quote: fair, Rose, R. W. Scott, Sherwood, Sicotte, Smart, Sidney Smith, H. Smith, (Speaker) Hogan was in Mr. Waltbridge's place a f

The Speaker took the chair shortly after three o'clock, immediately upon which the Black Rod combined the circular Usher of the Black Rod combined the attendance of the House in the Inspector General of the Backhand-

THE NEW MEMBERS TAKE THEIR SEATS. his sweet sougs. In doing this, we shall Drummond. Mr. Dunkin and Mr. Webb I Caron, Esq., the member for Maskino, was brought in by Mr. Loranger and Mr.

Atty, General Cartier brought in a. Bi to be Justices in this Province.

THE BEAT OF GOVERNMENT. Mr. Alley a Lid upon the table copies of desnatches and other documents councited with, DEBATE ON THE SPEECH. Atty. Gen. Cartier moved that the Speech of

Monday next, - Carried. VETER AND PROCEEDINGS. Atty. Gen. Cartier moved that the votes and proceedings of the House be printed for of members, and that no one but such d as Mr. Speaker shall appoint shall presume been pleased to make the lo lowing ap- | bal Rallway, Canals, and Telegraph the House, and to send for persons, papers, and Arty. Gen. Carti r gave notice that he would on Monday move the appointment of a Select Committee to prepare lists of members for the Standing Committees, The House then, at five minutes before four. adjourned until three o'clock on Monday.

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY. Monday, Jan. 31: On motion of Mr. Chapais, the House adjourns until to-morrow, the resolutions reply to the Speech from the Throne not being in readmess. To the Gallant Braw John Highlancm n: DEAR AND LOVING SIR,-

When in your genial society the other night, you sneered at my assertion, that the poet Burns, like Shakspeare, was not so very original in his conceptions, and rather beautified than invented his immortal lays, giving as instances his two famous songs-- John Anderson, my Jo, John," and . Scots what hae with Wallace bled,' as being paraphrased from compositions of earlier writers. You then defied me to the sufficient rage and elaborate their thunder, proof, and dared me to its publication. I | we have been favoured with a hasty perusal

Mr. Vankoughnet moved, - That this f drawing-room. The metre is alike, and many of the original words and sentiments are retained. I remember meeting with a threatening clouds of the political firmamen according to custom, allow a day to inter- copy of this old song, at the time Miss intercept the currents, we may expect such tevens, of Covent Garden Theatre, made "We are a' noddin, npl, nid, emasculated, so popular to London ears. And, the first 'John Anderson, my Jo. consecrated to friendship. None can point in losing a day. The country could got John' was not purely original; for it is natter of fact, that during the progress o he Reformation in Scotland, the people, idicule of many of the beautiful Catholi rymns, parodied them and sung them as profane ballads, and of these John Anderson, my Jo, John,' Kind Robin lo'es me instances. So much for the originality of

-John Anderson, my Jo, John,' It is very true, that " Scots who hae with Wallace bled,' was composed by Burns, me stormy night, while wandering among the wilds of Glen Reu in Calloway, but the words are paraphrased from the old and ceautiful ballad, 'Hey, tuttie, taitie;' at ienst, so say John Turnbull and Patrick Buchan, who in 1841 edited an edition of beavy ordnance do their noisy office and 'If r. now the day dallies,

Now the Word of God rings. Qwhitk is king of kings, Now Christ's flock sings,

The night is near gone.

[For the Burnsu Wmg.]

seatlet, Yellow, and one-third Green

Cull in the waiter,' said the Vice.

Chair, what for you?' Vice, what for you?

The same. What for you Messre. Twins-After being greatly lavigorated by re and I'll scrutch yours,' and Erin Go Bragh'

But, by the bye, said one of the discerning ing their favorite motto?

'To hades with the Scotch,' said another-What do we care about them." But, dear Brother, you should not be so unsafe from the encroachment of the enemy.— ents before them! Great is the good that following observations:—
Let every Broth r keep a sharp look out, for they are doing for their country—and great—
1. The address of last session to the The Banker and his supporters are determined | or it will be when they are leaving it ! The | Queen was the act of both Houses of the Leon carrying out the promised Municipal R - 'upper ten-dom!' What is it? What is gislature, not of one. forms. However, there is no use in us tor- the animal fed on? Is it on menting ours lves before the time. - Call in ) another round of the same. Arrangements were then made for a grand | or is il on set-to, and they commenced to sing 'Cheer up my boys, be prepared It being an hour and sixty five minutes pas profession time, we bade them adieu.

No. 40.

THE PROVINCIAL SPOUTING APPAR-ATUS .- No. I.

At about half an hour after the appointed time to-day, for unlike royalty, vice-royalty is never punctual, a little waste of powder ordnance, and an unnatural expenditure wind from the band of the R. C. Ritles, will announce the arrival of Sir Edward Head at the Legislative Council to open the Parliamentary session of 1859. In order to expedite the business of the country and to enable the members of the Opposition to forge of the speech. We may state that His Ex- strong westerly gales, with high and rough cellency has generously consented to lay the important ceremony till the Speaker has succeeded in adjusting all the locks of valued at $2,000,000. All the his wig and given the last polish to the buckles of his official sutorials. The Montreal Telegraph Company have made electric ommunication between the Parliame the Government Houses, and unles

· Sir Edmund is in a horry ; has just done smoking and wants to go --Mr. Smith has just discovered some whitening on the knees of his inexpressi

· Sir Edmund will only wait three minute "Mr. Smith implores his Excellent old his horses or get the coachman to d for him-one of the curls of his wig been tied in a knot by some miscreant P. S .- Brown has confessed the crime.

Sir Edmund will take a few more whiffs; but Mr. Smith must be ready in | Member of Parliament for the City of Mon-Only two minutes more. His queue in a horrist state; the barber has agreed to have it ready in a minute or two.'

· Sir Edmund is just going." 'Hold on, Sir E., the Speaker is caug on a nail and his robe is torn. Sir Edmund is only waiting to have b cocked hat brushed." . The Sergeant-at-arms has lost the mace

-wait a little. Sir Edmund too cute to believe this, goe off with Retallack and Irvine, and the The second session of the present Parlia- | Scottish Songs. Not having seen 'Hey, the band play up, and in marches his Ex-

tuttie, taitie, or knowing what the words cellency. The loval Commons are sent for and ing were present :-- Messrs. Aikins, Al- | wha hae' as I am about 'John Anderson, | brain at their neels in the shape of Mr. His Excellency unwinds his legs, puts Aux. Gen. Cartier, Cauchon, Chapais, Ci- was played by the band of Robert Bruce, his sword out of the way of his dignity and

It is with regret that I summons you Gowan, Harcourt, Harwood, Heath, Hebert, glarious composition. That the metre is again together; for I feel sure you will lowing proceedings took place in the Legis-Hogan, Holmes, Howland, Johin, habelle, the same is evinced by that from which make, if possible greater fools of yourselves lative Assembly of Canada;my hat). Still the forms of the constitution | again into Committee of Supply being read. | future Government of the other North American

Ministry of Mr. Secotte, and on the two Wednesday evening last, for the election of General. England expects every man to is limit is evidence that he honored man axi feared could be many of the members and present and search of the confidence that he honored man axi feared could be many of the members and present and search of the confidence that he honored man axi feared by many of the members and present and search of the confidence that he honored man axi feared by the Sergeant and search of the confidence that he honored man axi feared by the Sergeant and search of the confidence that he honored man axi feared by the Sergeant and search of the confidence that he honored man axi feared by the Sergeant and search of the confidence that he honored man axi feared to be confidence that he honored man axi feared by the Sergeant and search of the confidence that he honored man axi feared to be completed. The aboriginal ladians are seene, at the following verses could searcely have a stack of the confidence that he honored man axi feared to the confidence that he confiden

never had a father that he is aware of, one Brown, member for the City of Toronto. the citte of Toronto? Is Adolphus | 5. The annexed extract from one of the Cheathegallows, Esq., whose mother, rest public papers contains an account of the he an ornament to our Canadian aristocracy? sembly by the Attorney General for Cana- creatures from death by starvation, which Is Timothy Sneak, Esq., who came from da West. This report may be considered stares them in the face? Are the lord-knows-where, a leader of the fa- as authentic. shion? Are the Shanghighs looked upon | 6. Mr. Brown has undertaken to form a nesses of their dying agonies, or will we as the 'upper ten,' and the Workhards Government, and he is to wait on me on be up and doing, to stem the tide of starvaclassed among the 'plebians?' Will it Mosslay, for the purpose of submitting the tion and death that has almost reached make no difference in the case, that the names of those whom he would propose in portals of our inhabitations? Now or never former are a drivelling lot of impertment associate with himself. idiots, while the latter possess all the quali- 7. Until some address or some Legisla- | sickening cry, too late, too late, may fall ties which are necessary to adorn the most live action is taken in consequence of the with reproachful accents upon our ears refined society. Are the MacSnobbs to be | proceedings of the 28th, it is impossible to from the dying lips of hundreds of our fellooked upon as of gentle blood, and the say what is the precise meaning of the vote low-creatures. God truly hath laid his O'Pinches to be looked down upon as un- | of the Assembly. It may signify that they | chastening rod upon us, but he it is also whe aristocra'ie? By what right are the Mac-I think Her Most Gracious Majesty has been in the abundance of his tender a Snobbs to be set over the O'Pinches ?- | advised to select the wrong place for the open up a way of deliverance. Where did the MacSnobbs come from ?- | Seat of Government, or it may signify that must strain his every faculty, and with the Who was their father, or their great, great, the Assembly, contrary to the express votes | Almighty, who can bless and crown his efthe great grandfather? Pshaw !- a tailor, a of the two last sessions, would prefer to forts with success, there is yet abundance carter of dung, a rogue, a rapparee, a re- continue the system of transferring the Seat surrectionist, a hangman? any or all of of Government from one place to another. ones. What will the Scotch say about borrow- these, perhaps. Is it because the Skinffints | 8. If the former of the fee go into action, with a determination equal who left their country for their country's the right one, then I presume some other to the task before us. It is difficult to a av good, by some fortunate speculations, the place will be suggested as preferable to Ot- what plan of operation would be the best to honesty of which is a tender point in their tawa-that is to say, the Parliament having follow out; but, if we are unsuccessful in family history, managed to amass wealth in | referred the decision to the Queen, will itself accuring private or Governmental aid atpast we have done word is by the magic a few years that they are to be dubbed by a say what that decision ought to be. At home, there is still another door open; and art of the said motto. We created Chiefs at respectable Press, as brilliant luminaries in any rate, until a cine is obtained to the pre- the writer of these lines knows right well. lucrative business | the firmament of supper ten-dom? Chaque | cise wishes of the Assembly by definite, that if an appeal were made to his country is taken out of our hands now. Ab, Mac' a son gout! Some people were born to be action on their part, and until their ulti- men. Scotland, for ever pre-eminent had so business to allow such a wicked innova- the toadies of toadies of the new Government every good work and benevolent act, would t on on our her ditary rights. However, there | vile loafers, the worshippers of a dirty crew | shall have been expressed, any advice or not lail to extend the requeste relieff, a is no use in crying over spilt milk. The motte of a lf-important, ignorant upstarts. The recommendation from me would be prema- save hundreds of her unfortunate Highland I is still of great service to our Fraternity, for apper tendon! Great is the upper ten- | ture and uscless.

bugar and spice.

And all that's nice,'

Rate and snails. And puppy dog talls? ants of the small shopkeepers who burrow- the section welf must be repealed before ed in the slime of muddy Little York!- | could coase to be binding, or before Rem whed is the aristocracy of Toronto! Its mone walls be lad out elsewhere. members can trace their family back to 111. As regards myself, I desire to ex-Adam! The beauty of their palaces might press my unleigned regret for having. excite the envy of kings! The retinue of my desputch of March 28, 1807, No. their servants would make a prince stare. | recommended that her Majesty should be The magnificence of their equipage would advised to accept the reference in question. cause a Nabob to wonder! The namber. In paliation of so grave an error in judybreed, and symmetry of their horses would ment, I can only urge that it might have cause a Caliph to tear his beauty? Their seemed ungracious to refuse a spontaneous jewels eclipse the splendour of the richest reference of this kind, and that it appears oriental courts! Their revenue would ran- to me impossible to conceive any jorin som a thousand kings! They always have winch a Legislature could bind its succees-$8 in each to pay for a pair of ready-made sors more solemnly, or commit itself in its route! Trot them out, good Mr. Lewler .- | was done by the Parliament of Canada with

Arrival of the 'Arago.' New York, January 28 .- The steamship Arago arrived this morning, bringing Lonthen dates of the 19th She encountered from that taken by the major ty of head seas, during nearly the whole passage

The ship Champion of Boston, from Calatta for this city, went ashore vesterda a fog on the west bank lower bay. The United States brig Dolphin Boston, arrived at Buenos Aryes on Dec. 5th. The only Joke of the Poker.

EXPECTED MARRIAGE IN HIGH LIFE .-On dit, that the Hon, George Brown, Inspector General, and Member of Parliament for the city of Toronto, is about to visit Ireland for the purpose of leading to the Hymeneal Altar Miss Dorothea Honora McGee, | No. 55, only daughter of the late Thaddens O Flaherty McGee, Esq., of Ballyknockmadercer County Kerry, Ireland, and sister of celebrated Thomas D'Arcy McGree, Esq.,

Supper Death .- Martin Zimmer- their enclosures, giving a detailed account of the structed to neknowledge the receipt of the man, brother of the late Samuel Zimmer- political events which recently occurred dur papers from the authorities of New Zealand man, Esq., died very suddenly, in Hamil- | ing the S. ss.o. of the Canadan Parliament, and to convey the thanks of this House for ton, on Friday night last. He was in his | ending with the appointment of a new Admin- | the same usual health on the day previous, and up to | i tration composed of Messrs. Galt. Sherwood, I within a few minutes of his decease.

Letters and Telegrams Received G. O. et G. W. et T. C., Toronto, remittauces; I. H. C., Three Mile Bay;

C. C. L., Toronto ; W. B. L., Toronto. IMPORTANT DESPATCHES. The Governor General to the Co.

niul Secretary. GOVERNMENT HOUSE, Toronto, C. W., Jan. 31, 1858.

Srg. On Friday, the 16th July, the an Address be presented to His Excellency by its principles we can keep the Br. thren dom of Toronto, and great were their par- 9. I cannot, however, forbear offering the

11. The Act 20 Vic., c. 17, s. 2, expressly provides that a sum of £225,000 shall be expended at such places as the Queen may select for the Seat of Government. That chuice had been made, the section in question has, I apprehend, operated, and as it The aristocracy! Ha, ha! The descend- contains ac provision for a change of place,

Great is the aristocracy of To- corporate capacity more conclusively, than Trot them out! The 'upper ten-dom!' Ha, reference to the Seat of Government, more ha! The less aristocratic! He, he, especially because their Address was coupled with the legislative provision in the 20

Vic., c. 17, referred to above. 10. It would now seem, however, that my view of the binding character of the action of a Legislature differs essentia gislative Assembly of Canada. My presen duty will be to carry out the Government of the Province in such a manner as may best lead to the ultimate settlement of the culty, without deranging the administra-

11. So soon as I am able to afford furth nformation on the deliberate Parliament, and the course which they sue, I am ready to act in all ordinary ness cordially and frankly with the new Ministry, as I have done with their prede-

I have, &c., EDMUND HEAD he Right Hon. Sir E. B. LYTTON, Burt.,

THE REPLY.

1 DOWNING STREET

and other gentlemen. You are well aware that Her Majesty's advis. rs. have no wish to interfere in nov way in the domestic affairs of the great Province under your Government, and therefore while they have read with an interest, proportioned to ! gravity of the subject, the documents thus c municated to them, they abstain from expressing any opinion on their general contests. With regard, however, to yournown conduc

ment which obtain in this country as well as railroads in cortain cases : also one in Canada; nor have they any reason to doubt | the same gentleman from the Oilbway te soundness of your judgment in applying t one principles, although this is not a point which they are qualified to decide. They are bound, however, not to pass over one subject without remark. The question of the federation of the Colonies is one in which the L gielature of that Province, will be re-

Mr. Dorion moved in amendment, that of that Empre.

In regiewing the history of the session of the to him respecting the election for the city of have led to so usexpected a decision. But the

E. B. LYTTON.

PARMERS READ!

We could anomerate instances where, eve of hape. It will not do to stand, and apeak, and look aghast at each other. We must countrymen from famishing in the wilds of Canada .- Kincardine Commonwealth, Jan

PROVINCIAL PARLIAMENT. LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

Monday, January 31, 1859. In our report of Saturday's proceedings in the Legislative Council, the name of Geo. V. Allan was omitted from among the new Legislative Councillors then sworn in. For the rule of the House' in Mr. Vankoughnet's remarks on the proposed delay of the consideration of His Excellency's speech, read the wish of the House."

The Speaker took the chair at three o'-A. J. Duchesnay took the oaths and his

Mr. De Blaquiere gave notice that on Thursday next he would move for a return of the names of the several persons employed in the undermentioned offices, the dates their several appointments, and the arrount of annual salary paid to each :

Executive Council, Provincial Secretary's Office, Provincial Registrar, Receiver General. inspector General. Crowir Lands Department,

Board of Works. Also for a return of the amount of revenue received from the Crown Lands for the last five years, distinguishing how much has spective amounts from Upper and Lower Canada; Also for a return of the name the persons employed as Collector of Customs, landingwaiters, or others in charge of the revenue of Curtoms, with the date of their respective appointments, the nount of salary paid to each annually, and he amount of revenue collected in each cality for the years 1856, 1857, and 1858. Mr. DeBlaquiere presented a petition from the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Toronto, praying for certain amendmen in the law passed last Session, respecting assessments for improvements, so as to enable the City Council to levy a local rate One or two other petitions of minor impor tance were presented. STATISTICS OF NEW ZEALAND, &C. The Speaker laid before the House cer tain statistics of the Island of New Zealand forwarded by the authorities of that colo Also, the report of the Librarian on the state of the Library. Also, a return from the Law Clerk of the expiring laws this year. On motion of Mr. DeBlaquiere, it was re solved that the Clerk of the House

Several notices of motions were then given and the House adjourned till to-morrow.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY. Jan. 31, 1859.

The Speaker took the chair at three o'-PRESENTING PETITIONS.

by Mr. Malcoim Cameron from certain habita ts of the County of Bruce . prayir that an act may be passed to extend aid v nia, praying that the House may not er

. PARLIAMENTARY LIBRARY The Speaker said he had the honor to er in the matter of the Commission referr