HOW THE WAR GETS ALONG. Days, weeks, months, years even, have swept by, and yet the carnage rages in the South; as yet no end to hostilities. But to what does all this bloodshed tend, the interested observer will ask? It tends to the disgrace of the North, and possibly the triumph of their antagonists. The will of God is with the South, the sympathy o' the world as well, and all things tend towards the recognition of the Southern Confederacy by the Federals. CITY COUNCIL.

Last night, the Council for 1863 he their first regular meeting.

Present-His Worship the Mayor, Aldermen Allen, Baker, Brown, Cunningham, Davidson, Dillon, Kinghorn, Meagher, Macarow, McCammon, McKay, Robinson, Shaw, and Snook; and Councilmen Allen, Brophy. Brown, Conley, Flynn, Livingston, McCamnon, McKelvey, Newland, Smith, Sullivan,

The Arbitrators' award between the Waer Works Company and the city was read and accepted, on motion of Alderman Allen, seconded by Dr. Yates.

Several petitions relative to taxes were Revision.

Petition of Andrew Davidson, to lay down building materials on Queen Street, was brought up and granted.

Petition of Charles Ward, referring to an assessment levied upon him for property outside of the city limits was brought up, alleging that he was assessed for property lying both inside and outside of the city. On motion, the petition was referred to the Committee composing the Court of Re-
