THE LOWELL COTTON FACTORIES. - We are indebted to the Rev. Mr. Wood, minister at annual report. It makes the significant state- forms of the above named diseases. land are in a starving condition, there has been in Lowell, the largest cotton manufacturing city on the continent, even less demand than common for charity. This is accounted for in part, by the fact that a considerable number of female operatives, when the mills closed, returned to their homes in the country, carrying with them the means of subsistence earned and saxed, or leaving behind their earnings deposited in the savings banks. The war, moreover, has given employment to a large number of mile operatives, whose monthly pay, together with the work found in the preparation of clothing for the army, bas of the resident population. LAUNCH .- Among the extraordinary things of this most extraordinary winter, we have to record the fact of the hanch of a vessel. The propeller Colonist, that had been hauled out upon the ways of the Kingston Marine Railway for repairs, was put back into the water yesterday morning, and the propeller West in the afternoon was hauled on in her stead. THE REVENUE. - Three principal items of revenue-Customs, Exercise and Public Works -amounted to $5,383,638. The Customs produced $4,653 848. Excise $172,306, and Public Works $257,484. PREPARING FOR THE STORM. - The New York banks are putting their affairs in order, preparing for anything that may happen. One large bank has invested its entire capital in specie, and others are purchasing property various sorts.
