A Fall Reguter Sized Box of Doau's Kutney Pilis.

We have made special arrangements so that every reader of this paper, be he rich or poor, who is afflicted with such diseases and disorders as lackache, lame or weak back, Bright's disease, betes, dropsy, puffiness under the yes swelling of the feet and ankles, smart ing or irritation in passing water, fre-Kidney Pills sent free by mail if they or's studio. She paid closer attention it." have never used the pills before. It is to the pencil mark and observed that it only because we have perfect confidence passed through the treasury building this remedy will do you good that we tee these pills to benefit you, even after

When sending for the ralls be sure and mention this paper, write your name and address plainly and enclose 2c. stamp for postage. The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

TO BE LET. BRICK HOUSE, NO. 7 WELLINGTON street. Presently occupied by G. S

Oldrieve. Apply within. HOUSE IN VAUHN TERRACE, NO. 5. Possession at once if wantedf Apply at No. 6, or at Whig office.

NO. 178 BARRIE STREET, A FIRST CUNNINGHAM. Apply to MILLS & HOUSE NO. 200 WILLIAM STREET.

sion kitchen; good yard with trees. STEACY & STEACY. TOP FLAT, HOBART BUILDING, COR-

R. CUNNINGHAM. TWO FINE OFFICE ROOMS IN EXchange Chambers, lately occurred by

Madam Ireland. GEORGE CLIFF, 95 Clarence street, Kingston. THE HANDSOME STORE LATELY OC

THE BRICK HOUSE, 34 WELLINGTON Ply to WALKEM & WALKEM, Clar-

EDW. J. B. PENSE.

No. 356 JOHNSTON STREET, BRICK dwellings, shops and offices. Mc-CANN'S REAL ESTATE AGENCY. 332 King St.

modern conveniences, situated 240 Johnston street (corner of Barrie, opposite Bishop's Palace). Apply to R. Crawford, foot of Queen street.

THAT BRICK DWELLING, No. 394 Alfred street, formerly occupied by T. S. Clarke; modern improvements heated with furnace; immediate possession. Apply to J. B. McIVER. 38 Clarence street.

THE GRAND OPERA HOUSE COMpany will lease the store to be built on Princess St., adjoining the opera louse entrance, arranging the rooms on two flats above as desired at Power & Son's office. Edw. H

FOR SHORT OR LONG TERM, FURnished or unfurnished, "Roselawn, one mile from the market; handsome 79 Clarence St.

MONEY AND BUSINESS. sma'l sums, at low rates of interest. on city and farm property. Loans granted on city and county debentures. Apply to S. C. McGILL, manager of Frontenac Loan and Inlars in sums from one thousand to ten thousand dollars. For particuiars apply at GODWIN'S INSURANCE EMPORIUM Over Ex, ress Office. Market Square.

LONTHIA. LIVERPOOL & GLOBI

TURE INSURANCE COMPANY. Funds over $52.000,000. In addition which the policy holders have for security the unlimited ability of all the otockholders. sured at lowest possible rates. Before renewing old or giving new business wet rates from STRANGE & STRANGE 'gents. W. J. FAIR, Special Agent King St.

ARCHITECTURE. STOREY, ARCHITECT, HAS pened an architect's office promptly attended to. Satisfaction guaranteed.

L'UWER & SON, ARCHITECTS. MER chants Bank Building, corner Brock and Wellington Streets. 'Phone 212

ARTHUR ELLIS, ARCHITECT. fice-Site of New Drill Hall, near corper of Queen and Montreal Sta for Drill Hall, St. Catharines, Ont. seen at the Department of Public Wor. land Canal, St. Catharines, Ont. with the actual signatures of the tend Department of Public Works, Newspapers inserting this advertisepartment will not be paid for it.

beine of the features of OTTO'S BINDING. your work. con parer and RROCK ST'S, | anspicions,

BY ROBERT BARR

[Copyright, 1900, by Robert Barr.] rheumatism, worn out feeling, or lack placed on the spot where stood the tria. The truth is that I do not know | machine upright I had not noticed exof ambition, may have a box of Doan's | building which contained the profess | the limit of my power, por dare I test | actly where it had pointed, but I knew make an offer of this kind, and guarant the professor, beating the air with his and turned fiercely upon her. hands. "I asked you to bring it to me. Can't you do a simple action like that without spying about?"

Jennie rapidly unfastened the paper rose, and this time Jennie made no pro- her and said: flung the fluttering bits of paper out your palms and grind if to powder." into the air, the strong wind carrying | "You know that is absurd; I cannot them far over the roofs of Vienna do it." Closing the casement, he came back to class, up-to date house. Possession his chair.

"Was-was any one hurt at this explosion?" he asked presently.

"Yes: four men were killed instantnewly papered and painted; extenly; a dozen were seriously injured and glasses, and she saw in his wild eye all are now in hospital."

"Oh, my God-my God!" cried the ening a pupil. ner of Princess and Bagot streets. hands, swaying from side to side in his because every minute particle of it is Alterations to suit tenant. Apply to chair like a man tortured with agony neld together by an enormous force. If low within the last few minutes. "I can tell you nothing," he said.

moistening his parched lips. cupied by the H. D. Bibby Co., and nothing, for I see plainly that you know formerly the Whig office. Apply to everything." "I knew nothing of any explosion until you spoke of it. What have I to do McKerras. Possession at once. Ap-"That is just what I want to know." "It is absurd. I am no conspirator.

but a scientist." dwelling, seven rooms; also other Herr Seigfried. If you are innocent, the hammer would fall to powder like why are you so loath to give me any as. | that gold you showed me, and there sistance in this matter?"

> a scientist-I am a scientist. All I wish | would probably wreck this room and is to be left alone with my studies. I have nothing to do with governments or stand that, do you not?" newspapers or anything belonging to draw that penciled semicircle? Why variation of that force in conjunction are you anxious that I should not see with numbers of that particle. Am you had done so? Why did you destroy | getting beyond your depth?" the map?"

bave arrested you long ago, and that able.'merely because of your own foolish ac-"The map proved nothing," he said some difficulty in finding it."

The director doesn't need to find it. I am here to testify that I saw the map, proved, there rise in all parts of the saw the curved line passing through world other men who say they knew all a musical tinkle on the floor. the treasury and saw you destroy what | about it ten years ago and will prove it, you thought was an incriminating piece | too-at least, far enough to delude a | a low moan the professor struggled to of evidence. It would be much better | gullible world; in the second place, beif you would deal as frankly with me | cause I am a humane man I hesitate as I have done with you. Then I shall to spread broadcast a knowledge that give you the best advice I can-if my | would enable any fool to blow up the advice will be of any assistance to you."

the world in any case, for, if I leave | Keely of Philadelphia, in the United here without full knowledge, I will States"simply go to the police office and there tell all I know!"

"And if I do speak you will still go Greenwood & Gillen's. Wellington to the director of the police and tell praising, etc., will be neatly and him what you have discovered!" "No: I give you my word that I will

"What guarantee have I of that?" asked the old man suspiciously. "No guarantee at all except my

"Will you promise not to print in your paper what I tell you?" "No: I cannot promise that!"

ter." continued the scientist. "The was as easy to promise that as to eay | difference between us-he appears to had sent you here to play the spy on | All my experiments lately have been plosion you speak of, yet I was certain | force within the the compass, say, actions have been childish."

The old man in his excitement had mile. risen from his chair, and was now pacing up and down the room, running his i ited part of Switzerland and there confingers distractedly through his long. | tinned my experiments. I blew up at | white hair and talking more to himself | will rocks and bowlders on the moun

I than to his auditor. Jennie had edged her chair nearer to a mile to half a mile. I examined the the door and had made no protest | results of the disintegration, and who Strong, Try him with some of against his rising, fearing to interrupt you came in and showed me the gol his flow of talk and again arouse his recognized at once that some one had my life. What I discover I give free | thought that perhaps you had come ly to the world, but I will not be robbed | from Keely. I am now convinced that of my reputation as a scientist. I want | the explosion you speak of in the treasmy name to go down to posterity mry was caused by myself. This maamong those of the great discoverers. | chine, which you so recklessly threaten-You talked just now of going to the | ed to throw out of the window, accipolice and telling them what you knew. | dentally slipped from its support when Foolish creature! You could no more | I was working here some time after have gone to the central police office midnight on the 17th. I placed it imwithout my permission, or against my mediately as you see it now, where it ness dicated. It was an ordinary map of the will, than you could go to the window | throws its rays into midair and is concity of Vienna, and as Jennie took it and whistle back those bits of paper I sequently harmless, but I knew an exdown she noticed that across the scuth- scattered to the winds. Before you plosion must have taken place in Vien-

"Oh, this is a madman!" thought Jennie as she edged still nearer to the | hope that it had not been a serious one, "Don't look at that map!" shrieked | door. The old man paused in his walk "You don't believe me?" he said.

"No. I do not," she answered, the color leaving her cheeks. The aged scientist gave utterance t from the wall and brought it to him a hideous chuckle. He took from one The scientist scrutinized it closely, ad- his numerous shelves a hammer head justing his glasses the better to see, without the handle and for a moment Then he deliberately tore the map into | Jennie thought he was going to attack fragments, numerous and minute. He her, but he merely handed the metal to test, went to the window, opened it. "Break that in two. Place it between

"Why can't you do it?" "That is no reason. Why can't you the enthusiasm of an instructor enlightold man, covering his face with his "I'll tell you why you can't do it, and remorse. At last he lifted a face | uay be heated redhot and beaten into that had grown more pinched and yel- his shape and that, but still the force angs on as tenaciously as the grip of a ant Now, suppose I had some substance, a drop of which, placed on that "You mean that you will tell me piece of iron, would release the force which holds the particles together. What would happen?" "I don't know," replied Jennie.

"Oh, yes, you do!" cried the professor impatiently. "But you are like every other woman-you won't take the trouble to think. What would happen would be this: The force that held the "Then you have nothing to fear, particles together would be released, and would be an explosion, caused by the "It has nothing to do with me. I am sudden release of the power, which extinguish both our lives. You under-"Yes, I think I do."

"Well, here is something you won" Jennie sat tracing a pattern on the understand and probably won't believe dusty floor with the point of her para- when you hear it. There is but one sol. She spoke very quietly: force in this world and but one particle "The penciled line which you drew of matter. There is only one element, on the map of Vienna passed through | which is the basis of everything. All the treasury building; the center of the | the different shapes and conditions of circle was this garret. Why did you | things that we see are caused by a mere

"I am afraid you are, professor." Professor Seigfried sat there looking 'Of course. I know what feeble at her with dropped jaw, but he made | brains the average woman is possessed of. Still, try to keep that in your "If you will excuse my saying so," mind. Now, listen to this: I have dis-Terms reasonable. Apply the girl went on, "you are acting very covered how to disunite that force and childishly. It is evident to me that you | that particle. I can with a touch fling are no criminal, yet if the director of loose upon this earth a giant whose police had been in my place he would | strength is irresistible and immeasur-

"Then why object to making your discovery public?"

"In the first place, because there are vestment Society. Office opposite the at last, haltingly, "and, besides, both still a thousand things and more to be you and the director will now have | learned along this line of investigation. The moment a man announces his dis-"That is further proof of your folly. coveries he is first ridiculed; then, when the truth of what he affirms is universe. Then there is a third rea-"Yes, and publish it to all the son. There is another who, I believe, has discovered how to make this force "It will have to be published to all loosen its grip on the particle-that is "What! You don't mean the Keely motor man?" cried Jennie, laughing. "That arrant humbug! Why, all the papers in the world have exposed his ridiculous pretensions. He has done nothing but spend other people's mon-

"Yes, the newspapers have ridiculed him. Human beings have, since the beginning of the world, stoned their prophets. Nevertheless, he has liberated a force that no gauge made by man can measure. He has been boastful, if you like, and has said that with a teacupful "Still the newspaper doesn't mat- of water he would drive a steamship over the ocean. I have been silent. story would be valueless to you, because | working away with my eye on him, no one would believe it. There is no | and he has been working away with his use in printing a story in a newspaper | eye on me, for each knows what the that will be laughed at, is there? How- other is doing. If either of us discovers. ever, I think you are honest. Otherwise | how to control this force, then that a line of what I tell you, and then I forever. He has not yet been able to do G. | should have known you were lying. It | it; neither have I. There is still another you would not tell the director of po- able to loosen that force in his own lice. I thought at first some scientist | presence; I can only do it at a distance me and learn what I was doing. I as the direction of making modifications sure you I heard nothing about the ex- with this machine, so as to liberate the it had occurred somewhere along that | this room; but the problem has buffled line which I drew on the map. I had | me. The invisible rays which this mahoped it was not serious and begun to | chine sends out and which will penebelieve it was not. The anxiety of the | trate stone, iron, wood or any other last month has nearly driven me in- substance must unite at a focus, an sane, and, as you say quite truly, my I have not been able to bring that focus nearer me than something over half a

"Last summer I went to an uninhal | tain sides, the distances varying from

to fathom for the last ten years.

ern part of the city a semicircular line reached the bottom of the stairs I could no somewhere within the radius of half of the delegates to the city a semicircular line reached the bottom of the stairs I could no somewhere within the radius of half of the delegates to the reached the bottom of the stairs I could no somewhere within the radius of half of the city a semicircular line reached the bottom of the stairs I could no somewhere within the radius of half of the city a semicircular line reached the bottom of the stairs I could no somewhere within the radius of half of the city a semicircular line reached the bottom of the stairs I could no somewhere within the radius of half of the city a semicircular line reached the bottom of the stairs I could no somewhere within the radius of the city as a semicircular line reached the bottom of the stairs I could no somewhere within the radius of the city as a semicircular line reached the bottom of the stairs I could no somewhere within the radius of the city as a semicircular line reached the bottom of the stairs I could no somewhere within the radius of the city as a semicircular line reached the bottom of the stairs I could no somewhere within the radius of the city as a semicircular line reached the bottom of the city as a semicircular line reached the bottom of the city as a semicircular line reached the city as a semicircular line reached the bottom of the city as a semicircular line reached the bottom of the city as a semicircular line reached the c in pencil had been drawn and, exam have laid Vienna in a mass of ruins. a mile. I drew the pencil semicircle dence. In my own short life I have There will be no session of the conven. Visit our warercoms to keep in touch quent risigns in the night, brick dust or | ining it more closely, saw that the statest suggestions, we have that you saw on the map of Vienna, seen several instances where it seemed tion on Thursday morning in order that | with all the latest suggestions, we have that you saw on the map of Vienna, seen several instances where it seemed to not the latest suggestions. other sediment in the urine, neuralgia, tionary part of the consecration service carry them. that Providence intervened for the pro- all may attend the consecration service carry them. along the line I had drawn an explosion not shake my belief that Providence of this diocese. Permission will be se- shades and Poles. We have them all must have occurred and could only knows best." which it seems it was. I waited and down the stairs in some haste. At the Thursday evening. Mrs. Davis and Mrs. survives all competitors and plays waited, hardly daring to leave my attic, outer door she heard the doctor call Dickenson, of New York, and Mrs. Aust essential part in all furnishing. Cur line but hearing no news of any disaster I | down, "I must have your name and adwas torn between the anxiety that | dress, please." would naturally come to any humane | But Jennie did not pause to answer. in England and cannot attend; Mrs. Til- any time, at a nominal price.

> tually made the discovery I thought I had made. You spoke of my actions being childish, but when I realized that I had myself been the cause of the explosion a fear of criminal prosecution came over me. Not that I should object to imprisonment if they would allow me to continue my experiments, but that doubtless they would not do, for the authorities know nothing of science and care less."

In spite of her initial skepticism, Jennie found herself gradually coming | For the Busy Man-The Thought-He glared at her flercely over his to believe in the efficiency of the harmless looking mechanism of glass and tron that she saw on the table before her, and a sensation of horror held her spellbound as she gazed at it. Itsawful possibilities began slowly to develop in her mind, and she asked breathlessly:

turn that machine and point it toward the center of the earth?"

"I told you what would happen. Vi enna would lie in ruins, and possibly most important happenings of the week wright and Mrs. Cartwright at Hazelthe whole Austrian empire and perhaps some adjoining countries would become sationalism is given in crisp, readable. Mrs. Caldwell, of Lanark, is the guest a mass of impalpable dust. It may be form, for the busy man and his family, of her sister Mrs. Archie Strachan. that the world itself would dissolve. I | It is non-sectarian, non-political and risk the experiment."

my name will descend to posterity?" of nation against nation, with different | Bible it is mentioned that :against another-how long do you think the world will last when once such knowledge is abroad in it?"

constructed.

through the ages."

mits a knowledge of that machine to as long as they last :become common property it is his will that the entl of the world shall come."

Jennie gave a startled cry, and with you would have promised not to print | man's name will go down to posterity | Then suddenly he raised it and sent to crashing through the machine. his chair and fell rather than sat down in it. A ghastly pallor overspread his those warlike questions. This offer re. Dr. and Mrs. Walter T. Connell have to anyone this king of buying or face, and the girl in alarm ran again to mains open till 29th December. It is an returned from their wedding trip and apply to W. J. TURKINGTON, mason. the cuphoard, poured out some brandy old established publishing house making have taken up house on Wellington on the premises and offered it to him, then tried to pour | these unique propositions, and you may | street, between Union and West streets, | I it down his throat, but his tightly set | rely on them being carried out to the teeth resisted her efforts. She chafed his letter. rigid hands, and once he opened his eyes and slowly shook bis head. "Try to sip this brandy," she said, seeing his jaws relax.

"It is useless," he murmured with strument, as brittle as the glass. swiftly down stairs to the office of a physician, on the first floor, which she had noticed as she came up. quainted with him, for the professor E. C. Mitchell had few friends, went up the steps three | W. G. Craig & Co. offer Scranton coal door of the attic.

with trembling voice; "but perhaps after all it is for the best.

emply, "that we have hardly reached a and in state of development that would justify | be a reception to destroy life—and the fear that, if amination at an inquest, knowing that important meetings have ever been held ed, and you are invited to visit them nothing had occurred, I had not ac. if she told the truth she would not be here in connection with the order) has any time. believed, while if she attempted to hide | been very ill and it will be impossible | it unexpected personal inconvenience for her to come. might arise from such a course. She ran | It is hoped that the general public | T rapidly to the street corner, hailed a | will avail themselves of the privileges | flacre and drove to a distant part of the of the evening meetings on Oct. 30th city; then she went to a main thorough- | and 31st. fare, took a tram car to the center of the town and another cab to the palace. (To be continued.)

FILLS LONG FELT WANT.

The Person That Wants to Miss Beatrice McGill carried off the Keep Posted-A Great Weekly prize, and in offering congratulations Newspaper-Haven't You Been upon her good luck, it is hoped that Looking For Such an Aid?

son's World-Wide Weekly. It contains the first place there. the news from all over the wide world. | Mrs. Arthur Matheson, of Cedar Ra-All the news that's fit to print, and the pids, is the guest of Rev. C. E. Cart--without the tales of crime and sen- dell' cannot tell what the magnitude of the | contains short and serial stories, readresult might be, for I have not dared to able and bright, for those who like fietion. Eight large pages, fifty-six col-"Oh, this is too frightful to think | un ns every week. Only a dollar for a about!" she cried. "You must destroy the machine, professor, and you must never make another."

What! And give up the hope that "What! And give up the hope that "whole year's subscription, Fifty-two issues. This is just half the regular position as teacher. A number of have you visit our subscription rate and offered to get W.W.W.W., introduced everywhere in as short a time as possible. Try it. You garden to make a learner of the contents of will not regret your investment.

there will be no posterity for your name | named in the list below, if they can find | that he had accepted a position with an | to descend to. With the present hatred out the following facts, where in the insurance company at Manila, and war. 2. Forty-four thousand seven hun- returning to his work in China. Mr. maniacs whom we call jingoes—men dred and sixty men that went to war. preaching the hatred of one people 3. Four score thousand men prepared his final year as a student at the school sions, premature discharge, etc., and for war. 4. An army of four hundred thousand mighty men of valor in battle cess of his college course. However, the or. Dr. L. W. Knapp, 2002 Hull Be machine he had so slowly and painfully |cn days. We think Great Britain did tions young men, Mr. Horsey preferred himself, at home wonderous things in so quickly raising a "bird in the hand." His friends wish ity if it were but benevolently employed. With the coalfields everywhere diminishing, it would supply a motive mense armies of former times are system. force for the universe that would last of. Give chapter and verse. Do not de- English, his triumph, is assured. He lay a moment in sending.

carnestly at the mechanism. In his next and in the order they are received will remain at her father's, Rev. A. W. had previously given to the girl. His bicycle, nineteen gentleman's ten carat vear. arm went up and down as if he were gold tilled open face cases watches, good Brigadier General Arthur Bresler, tions of five dollars each; one gentleman's Bresler left for New York yesterday fashionable tailor made tweed suit, win before returning to Venezuela. dollar make of boots in black or tan lagain for a few days yext month. winner's size; two lady's fine colored suk petticoats; thirty dollars in cash, divided | town on Monday from Cairo, Egypt. into three portions of ten dollars each; Miteen boys nickle watches one hundred Private letters received yesterday from and thirty-five handsome little souvenir Lieut. Col. Drury were written from sets of best quadruple plate dessert Gen. Baden-Powell to that place. Col. MISSES. HANNAY & HAROLD. best quadruple plate table spoons. Nine are at "Warm Baths," a watering place beautiful bound and handsomely illus one hundred miles north of Pretoria, One complete set Coopers novels well the discomforts of the campaign, the What About bound in cloth; one volume beautifully frem are fuxuriating in the hot and bound in morrocco, of Birds of America told springs for which the town of retailed at $50.

If any winner does not want the par- | South Africa. ticular article assigned to him or her. Mrs. McGill is visiting at Montreal. about equal value, they will always be I day in town. accommodated as far as possible. ...The above-list will be divided into | will spend next week at Toronto.

so that even those who come last among | Sound, to receive something in addition to the laceday from Picton, where she was the imper for their trouble if their answers I guest of Mrs. Macphail.

be final upon all matters relating to Mrs. Nash, who has been visiting her this competition, nor will any correst son, Mr. C. R. Nash, Stuart street, for fred and Sixth streets, pondence be entered into regarding it. I three months, left on Thursday for he Address, Wilson's World Wide Weekly, I home at Newfoundland. you don't take the trouble to hunt up | Smith.

A Pallid Face.

A millid and washed out face is made healthy, rowy and heautiful to the eye. by the use of Wade's Iron Tonic Pills. difficulty. "My life was in the in- These pills contain four of the best league have been helidaying since. tonics known, and never fail to cure genernl debility, sleeplesshess, nervous

The medical man, who knew of the not thrive, a dose of Miller's Worm at a time, and Jennie followed him all sizes at $6.50 per top, and Bernice afternoon at half past two. more slowly. He met the girl at the | coal at 86, delivered to any part of the Mrs. Walkem and Mrs. Swift are give tection of his creatures, and even the at the cathedral when archdeacon Mills | Carpets, sudden death of Professor Seigfried does | will be ordained to the office of bishop | Linoleum, cured to invite the delegates to the re- large variety, at lowest prices and She turned quickly away and went ception given for the new bishop on the various grades. Rattan Furniture tin, of Toronto, are among the prom'n- is not excelled in Canada. ent members of the order who are coming for the convention. Mrs. Bottome is | who will do your draping for you

An interesting golf match was played at the Barricfield links on Thursday at | Phone 90 and 91. ternoon. None of the girls had ever previously taken part in a golf match, that being the condition under the entries were made, as the prize was a golf stick to be given by Mrs. Nortonful Reader-The Housewife-Taylor to the winner of such a game.

others and that she will become as excomparatively new and up-to-date pert at golf as her sister Mrs. Bickford, "What would happen if you were to weekly newspaper, that is gaining in who competed with some of the best popularity by leaps and bounds, is Wil- players in Toronto last year and won her success will be followed by many

There was a business meeting of the Gathering Beauties. whist club on Tuesday afternoon, at Mrs. Machee's. Six new names were proposed Miss Daintry Yates left on Tuesday | all times.

tended leaving the next day with his countries full of those unimprisoned i Forty thousand men prepared for cousin, Mr. Herbert Horsey, who was men. 5. And eight hundred of mines, and promised to make a suc- stores the organs to strength knowledge is abroad in it?"

array.

The professor looked longingly at the There were great armies in those old financial prospects, and, like all ambi-order that every weak man may such a large army, and particularly in him every success in his undertaking. and his consin sail together from Van-"Professor Seigfried," exclaimed The publishers will give to those an couver next week, and will proceed Jennie earnestly, "when the Lord per- swering correctly, the following articler. lirectly to China, after which Mr. Bur- as long as they last :- ton Horsey will go to Honolulu for a One hundred and twenty dollars in month and then to his headquarters at Three Doors West of Old Opera cash divided into six equal portions of Manila.

twenty dollars each to the senders of Owing to the political state of affairs The professor said nothing, but stood | the first six correct solutions to all the in China Mrs. Herbert Horsey did not with deeply wrinkled brow, gazing five questions. To the senders of the secompany her husband this time, and hand was the hammer head which he | thereafter, each a lady's or gentleman's | Cooke's, until Mr. Horsey returns next estimating its weight. Then suddenly, | timekeepers; one lady's fashionable tailor | Venezuela, who has been visiting his without a word of warning, he raised | made tweed suit, made to winner's men | brother, the Spanish consul at Detroit, it and sent it crashing through the ma- sure, up to date in all particulars; twen- spent two days in town this week as chine, whose splintering glass fell with ty dollars in cash divided into four portune guest of Lieut. Col. Fages. Gen. ner's measure; three pair men's best hvc and Mrs. Bresler may visit Kingston. Mr. A. K. Kirkpatrick arrived spoons of Toronto. Thirty half dozen Pretoria, the Colonel having accompanied "Warm Baths" has become famous in but would prefer something else of Mrs. Parker, of Picton, spent Thurs-Miss Macnee and Miss Alice Macnee three portions - First Series, Middle | Miss Amy Ferguson left on Thursday Series, and Final or Consolation Series, | to visit Mrs. E. H. Horsey, at Owen

these multitude of gifts, are almost sure | Miss Katie Marsh returned on Wed-Mrs. Wilkison, of Napance, was in The decision of the proprietors will town on Wednesday.

Toronto, Canada, The paper is surely | Miss Minnie Smith, of Montreal, is worth the dollar subscription, even if the guest of her sister, drs. Buston ; but in large eno

> Miss Macliment, of Quebec, is the guest of Mrs. Montizambert. iting Judge and Mrs. O'Reilly.

The members & the Soldiers' Wives' at I again. A pretty little room in the Dorscientist, but was not personally ac- Powders occasionally will cure. Sold by be sewing for the "A" battery hosp Draping-We have experienced drapers.

man in my position—who did not wish She had no wish to undergo cross ex- ey, of London, Ont. (without whom no Our Suite of Rooms have been extend

UNDERTAKING, etc.

"Professor Seigfried, when once this machine becomes known to the world pete for the cash and other articles prised last Monday when they heard ket Square."

Mr. Burton Horsey's friends were sur- Plants kept at THE FLORATUM, Machine becomes known to the world pete for the cash and other articles prised last Monday when they heard ket Square.

DENTIST,

House Block. Plates $6.00 Painless Extraction 25c. Nitrus Oxide Gas. Hours: 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Phone 256.

OUR FALL AND WINTER OPENING OF FINE

Thursday, Sept. 27th.

Fixtures?

Do you want them of plain and fer fancy and elaborate- designs Both kinds to choose from: ty for easy selection. The m Ringston's Electrician, 79 Princess St.

FINE PROPERTY FOR SALE.

bec, is the Dog Collars Dog Collars

STRACHAN'S.