"Hugh Wynne.," 75c. "Tommy and Grizel," by J. M.

Sorrows of Satan," 75c.

David Lyall, 25c.

To The Electors of Kingston : were partly saved.

THOMAS DONNELLY.

COMMERCIAL.

going to press. LIVERPUUL MARKETS.

tong cots, heavy, 43; 94; 11g d, 46s od; short | Mullin will continue double trading of the different sessions of parliament. News to the people.

traight Holler, $3.50 to $3.00; Extra, night to visit her brother, * War Esgie..... 10 erchants Bank of Hallfax. If

Velvets for Blouses

24 in. Black and Colored Velvets, brilliant finish, fast pile, especially adapted for Waist,

Dresses, Capes, etc., a very superior quality.

At $1 00 yarr, English Cheviot Suiting, heavy

At 90c., Camel's Hair Suitings, in the leading

At $1.00 yard, Scme Very Special Offerings in weight; Colors, Black and Navy, warranted fast dye;

fall shades, Browns, Greens, Greys, etc., 54 inches

French Poplin Crepons, brilliant finish, neat de-

22 inches, all Silk Satin Merv, Splendid Wear-

24 inches, Heavy Black Satin. brilliant finish, for 20 inches, All Silk Tuffeta, firm, crisp quality, ing quality for Waists and Trimmings, worth 98: for Waists and Tritamings. Only 75c., worth $1 yard.

Low prices, 33c., 40c., 48c, 57c., 60c., 70c.

Regular value 70c for 50c. All the leading and Trimmings.

fall shades.

Suitings.

54 inches wide.

Some Very Special

Three Extra Values

In Black Silks.

equal to regular 75c., for foc. yard.

5 O'clocks.

D'oyles,

R. WALDRON.

Side Scarfs.

Linen Squares.

Down Cushions

And Cosies.

Tray Cloths,

Soc yard.

CITY HALL.

Disturb the Meeting.

His Position-Drunken Tories

ON PAGE FIVE.

Reporters on Their Rounds.

On Tuesday fire wiped out Williscraft's | ed with an attentive audience of electors. | A young man, under the influence

AFTER AN EXPERIENCE cial in the Orange hall last night. There Britton, Q.C., M.P., as the liberal can turber that he would be removed if he the tens published against the speaker Trustee and of five years as | was a large attendance. | didate, and D. M. McIntyre, as the con- continued to interrupt any of the speak. | in their campaign sheet. The only offer an Alderman, I feel I have | Mrs. McKelvey and her sister, Mrs. | servative candidate, were read. The re- ers.

such a grasp of Civic af McLaughlin, Kingston, are visiting turning officer then declared that the Mr. Britton referred to the News' body was by Hon. Mr. Harty. (Cheers.) Mrs. J. F. McEwen, Belleville. Children's Suits, manufactured from Lions. rehable tweeds. Price $1.50, 82, 82.50 B. M. Britton was received with appoint when he stated that Dr. Glad ed to the workingmen. The workingmen from Hay Bay where they were duck At this instant the conservative can when opened by members of the first (Applause.) The workingmen did not hunting for a few days. They had fair didate ascended the platform and was false. "No emergency depend upon either of the candidates. ache in five minutes. In boxes 10c. and "to give an account of my stewardship, dience applauded loudly. "Those re- minister of militia, whose son was at

The philosophic tolicemen suggests fully to the city. The tories had pre tions which are so highly rated." (Ap. | Sir Wilfrid's one idea was to build up a that merchants put additional insurance | dicted that the liberal government would plause). on their windows when "Bob" stats not last six months." He lives out his convictions.

cuts, heavy, 41 6d; theese, white, 63 tid; col stamps for the balance of the week "at The sessions were unduly prolonged by Then came a cruck at Mr. McIntyre, Cook and Fulford pain for their seats in the little grocery 'round the corner,' debates reiterated by a few members, The News had criticised John Wright for the senate, did Peter McLaren and William and Division streets.

Frein-Wheat, No 2, Manitoba Hard, see to meeting to night will complete arrangemisguided individual. 10 57c; Ontment, 9) to $1.00; Corp. on his return from South Africa.

is troubling you." to Het Butter, Townships, 190 to both the old party organizations. For West Toronto, Andrew McFarren is an the officers in Kingston. There was not independent candidate.

The building at Woodstock college officers in West Huron or Brockville ased before the establishment of McMasthe university as a theological school, after four years of splendid work on the said that he and Mr. Britton were again but lately used as a storehouse, was part of the government (cheers). There on the same platform, and before al-

James Morrow, Clear Springs, Man., iness. The government tackled the in- tirely different play. Mr. Britton comes publishes documents stating that $1,000 consistent tariff, after gathering inform- before the people with a heavy burden was offered him to run as a conservative ation. One hundred and forty-four items upon his shoulders after his four years Candidate against Mr. Richardson in in it were reduced. They have given us service in parliament. The liberal parpreferential trade with Great Britain. liament have furnished us with two

Rev. J. A. Sinclair, a returned Preslecturing through Ontario, was thrown able to resume his tour for some days.

(0)(0)

it was now producing a revenue. The | ballot. Are these charges true, or are Crow's Nest Pass railway, was built to they make then proceeded to examine assist in getting men into the mines of Mr. McIntyre then proceeded to examine them.

No election fraud ever occurred among ore to the outside world. There was no I stories told by Hugh John. He read corruption in the contract. The Yukon | planks from the liberal platform, question had thrust itself upon the claring that they had been only used to government. The bargain for the con- get in on. This was the case, read Mr. struction of the railway leading there- McIntyre, where progress had been as to was a wise one. The senate vetoed the I great in three years as it has been in bill, but the government managed the the preceding eighteen years. territory without a railway. Now the At this juncture, the returning of-rence canals. Kingston was consid- as his agent. ered a place where nieney should spent for this purpose. (Applause.) ever did before (applause). The minister | electors began to wonder if he had an from the head office at Toronto. of labor took charge of the strike Valieyfield and settled it. In the surpluses. The old government always took credit for good times; so why is prosperity prevailing in Canada prevail-not the argument good now? This year we have a surplus of over $8,000,000 (applause). This is in spite of the unusual expenditure caused by the contingents, Paris exposition, canal construction, etc. There has been great increase an imports from England and exports to England. The difference in exports from 1893 to 1896 and those from 1897 to 1900 was £103,255,000." Turning to local issues, Mr. Britton said the government had recognized the need of harbor improvements and drill shed. If this was good, why did trouble in erecting the drill shed. The representation in the house. government last session voted money The scene changed and the brator read means system, order, and order is for an hospital and gymnasium in con- a long abstract concerning corruption in Heaven's first law.' Every good housenection with the R.M.C. Mr. Britton ad- West Elgin. Scene two, of this act, keeper believes that. What would you vocated the establishment of a perman, was a reading from Hansard. Scene think of a woman who said, "Ill have ent militia camp (cheers). The post-of-, three was a reading of the conclusion of my washing done on Saturday, non on fice building had outlived its usefulness Mr. Britton's speech in the house, de- Wednesday, make my beds in the mid-

could understand him, except the tory Mr. Cook's charges against the senate methods be observed. Mrs. Davis addcandidate. The audience shouted, 'Put | were true or not. him out, put him out!"

papers, continued the speaker, one ap- ed. papers, continued the speaker, one appears, continued the speaker, one appears to Protestants in Ontario and When men like G. T. Fulford, who proper amount of red tape is necessary bec. The liberal government was fight- given the appointment, you can draw her of parliamentary procedure would be a benefit to the Lusiness meetings vatives are appealing to the prejudices Pense passed over? He would have or of all the circles. into the federal field with Henry Corby, Cation in journalistic work, the best distiller. Then we have this forged edi- | work in which to master public affairs, tion of the Globe, a fitting climax to and has been an energetic public man." perintendent of the Montreal water tory deception. Fair men, do you ap- Sir Wilfrid hesitated in sending the works, died this morning of typhoid prove of that? The government has first Canadian contingent, seeking re- fever. He was appointed to the posinever broken its promises. The liberal fuge behind constitutional law. Continu- tion in May last, succeeding L. J. Laparty had never promised free trade, ing, the speaker played on the patriotic forest, who was disfussed by the city The protective principles in the tariff feelings of the audience. The emergency council. were eliminated, leaving it a tariff for rations were next attacked, wild charges revenue only. Sir Charles had said this being hurled against the government. Rev. Mr. Lanceley, will accept the call policy of the liberals would kill the He believed the food was intended to to Port Hope and he goes to one iron trade. Every industry in Kings. benefit Mr. Devlin. Mr. Britton was a the best charges in the Bay of Quinte ton, except the locomotive works, had champion of this transaction. His poli- conference. The change is three-cornered increased their capacity and number of tical activity was mostly shown in and lets Rev. Dr. Philp safely into Syemployees. The iron trade was never speaking in favor of indefencible men denham street church here. more brisk. Hamilton is booming. Syd- | sures.

Then again they say the liberals have sition as gity solicitor. If elected been extravagant in their expenditure. did not Thrend to live by politics, but to morrow in his place. Now, expenditure must depend on cir by the practice of his profession. feumstances, and must increase as the merchant did not shut up his country is expanding. The government when elected: why should be resign. Sir has increased the expenditure because of William Meredith was for years city sothe great development of the dominion, heiter and sitting member for London. and will continue to do so if we are to The drill hall matter next occupied the be a progressive nation. The question, speaker's attention, M. Sullivan after all, is not what the government question to ask, but the uproar cired for being slow in sending a con- Mr. McIntyre invited those present to tingent to South Africa. But in Eng. the iron workers' assembly in the city sustained. It is a good thing for Can-; cerning the registration. It showed desada, that she has had such a man as perate straits. The speaker was sure Regarding the locomotive works, Mr. ling the conservative candidate appealed Britton-D. M. McIntyre States I than he had. If the liberal government The nomination for the candidates for be sustained, (and there is no doubt F. NISBET, in Ottawa.

The Ontario W.C.T.U. opened at hall from twelve o'clock, noon, to 2 p.m. works be re-opened, it will get as much work from the government as it can the federal house took place in the city but what it will), and the locomotive Mr. Britton then closed the meeting the chair. The hall was fairly well-till [possibly take, (Applause).

block in Smith's Falls. The contents Major King read the statute applying to liquor, in the front seat, had been inter. if he can. (Cheers.) the elections. | rupting Mr. Britton with silly questions, The Portsmouth True Blues held a so Nomination papers, nominating B. M. and the returning officer warned the dis- againsy Mr. McIntyre, what was that to made for the locomotive works by any-meeting was open for further nomina. statements, night after night, about the In regard to the drill hall, Mr. Brittan emergency rations. He made a telling said he done all he could; he had talk-St Grand Union, 122 Princess street. place as he rose to place his position win's assertion about emergency rations ought to favor-him as much as Mr. Mc-K. Cameron and party have returned before the electors. ... being in the shape of mould and hav Intyre, for he had done more for them. given a friendly ovation. rations were sent with the first con- Mr. Britton defended the emergency ra-Miller's Headache Powders cure head. "I come before you," said Mr. Britton, and the au- tion; saying that Dr. Borden, 25c. at wade's drug store. I have endeavored to do my duty faith- tions were the English emergency ra- the front, was not guilty of negligence.

The speaker then referred to the work a sample of the statements given by the He is a statesman; Sir Charles an oppowho filled page after page of Hansard, canvassing on behalf of the liberals, Miss Marlowe, Watertown, N. Y., sis- Mr. Britton had been on important com- while they had overlooked the fact that mittees and had never shirked a vote Mr. McIntyre, also actity official, was 13 70 to 53 81; Patent spring, $4.50 to | Garden Island, arrived in the city last | (loud applause). He had never given a | taking liberal money, and then fighting vote or taken part in any subject for against liberal interests. Mr. Britton which he could not give a good reason. said he had no opinion to offer on the "What about dog biscuits?" asked a conduct of Mr. McIntyre, for he didn' care. But he wanted to see fair play "I'll come to that dater on. That's it; He closed his excellent address by asking it's not the great issues of the day, but the electors to continue their confidence fiction-little, unimportant points-that in the liberal government, and elect him > a particle of ground proven against the McIntyre Speaks And Reads. Mr. McIntyre was applauded by a few (applause). They were there to-day fenthusiasts as he arose to speak. He were minor mistakes made in every bus- most the same audience, but in an en-Argument has been used that it is no literatures—that of their long opposition good. Canada could not reasonably ask and that of their four years of power. England to tax her bread stuffs to help Those two literatures are entirely an tagonistic. In the former they advocated Turning to the post-office department curtailment of expenditure, and de-Mr. Britton said they had given im- nounced protection; in their term of ofperial penny postage, and made the fice they defended big expenditures, and revenue almost balance with the expen- a high tariff. In opposition they advoc-Instead of the Intercolonial ated electoral purity; in office, disclosures railway being a debt-increasing power, have been made of the sanctity of the Yukon is yielding a surplus of $650, eer declared the poll closed, and an-

at opinion. This had been said to be the An interesting discussion followed last growing time. If so, there must have which Dr. Bertha Dymond, Mrs. Brookbeen a sowing time. Who did the sow er, Mrs. McNaughton, Mrs. Scales and ing? The conservatives, of course. The Mrs. Sullivan took part, after which ed all over the world.

among his books and quoted some more from other men's words, notably those of John Charlton, stating that Providence was responsible for the prosperity. There had been transactions by which friends of the government had profited profits had been made out of the Crow's Nest Pass railway contract by two directors of the Globe.

Mr. McIntyre referred next to electoral corruptions. There had been exposures, opting parliamentary law in the meethe said, such as had never before occur ings. Some of the ladies objected to not the conservatives do it (hear hear)? red in a British country. The "ma red tape. "Why, bless your hearts," The speaker was sorry there had been | chine' had robbed the people of their | said Mrs. Davis, "it's the most com-and he advocated a new building. There claring there was no use in pursuing an die of the night, and have my meals HAINES was no doubt but that this would be lenguiry into the West Elgin and Brock- whenever I feel like it?" The amount ville elections.

"No matter, no matter!" exclaimed that brought the matter home, and the other to Roman Catholics in Que have no interest in public affairs, are and that a clear conception of the manof the people. Hugh John had abandon- | namented the senate. (Cheers and cries ed his provincial prohibition and come of 'hear, hear!') He has had an eduney, C.B., will soon be as much to Can- Mr. McIntyre next read from the Whig, court at Verona to morrow, and has de-(McIntyre) should have resigned his po-spends, but what return is got for the too great to enable his voice to be

, all the great statesmen are anxious lie, which appeared in the Whig, saving young men who had registered. In cles-

Mr. Britton's Reply.

with a brief address. It was easy to insinuate against cabinet ministers, but of let him name one wrong they have done If there was one lie (?) published great nationality on this continent. sitionist, who panders to everybody. others appointed by a conservative government? Conservatives called Cook a Yankee lumberman, etc., when he was a reformer; now that he has issued a letter condemning the grits, the tories put their arms around him and hug him. (Cheers, and laughter). The same was true of John Charlton. The government will spend money to develop the country, if it is needed and desirable. (Cheers). They object to expenditure on Curran bridges and McGreevy steals. "I thank you for the cordial reception you have given me and am willing to place my cause in your hands," said

THE KING'S DAUGHTERS.

Mr. Britton, as he resumed his seat

The meeting concluded with cheers for amid long and enthusiastic applause.

the queen and the candidates.

The Subjects Considered at This Morning's Session.

This morning's session was opened with devotional exercises by Rev. G. . Starr. After roll call and minutes of the previous meeting, Miss McMorine. convenor of the credential committee, reported that fifty-seven delegates had registered at the convention, and that 117 votes were represented.

Mrs. J. M. Farrell sang a solo, accompanied by R. R. F. Harvey. City. union reports were read by Mrs. Biggar, Ottawa, Mrs. Brooker, Stratford, Miss! Fraser, Kingston, and Mrs. Scott (of To-British Columbia and in transporting line into these questions, and repeat Helen Fraser's report was particularly ronto. For Kingston city union Miss concise and to the point. It was the onone that called forth comment from the chairwoman, who said "that report is as clear and business-like as Kingston

Miss Grace Nichol's very excellent paper on "Eusiness Methods in Convention," deserves a reading, not only from every member of the Order, but from nounced that Mr. Britton had declared every member of every woman's, club. The government had dredged harbors David Murray bis agent and that D. Miss Nichol proved herself thoroughly on the lakes and improved the St. Law- M. McIntyre had chosen Francis King conversant with the rules of parliamentary procedure; those who wish to learn be The tory candidate then resumed his the etiquette of conventions and business speech, quoting from John Charlton meetings should not fail to read her pa-This government has taken hold of and other sources, and using every per which will appear in full in the the harbor question as no government one's opinion but his own, until the printed report of this convention, issued

Miss Brown moved a vote of thanks to Miss Nichol for her very helpful paper, I Hereupon Mr. McIntyre runmaged Six ladies arose, Dr. Dymond, as first on the floor, had the pleasure of seconding the motion. Carried.

cussion. Miss Strange, Mrs- Yates, Miss Henry, Miss Macpherson and Mrs. Me Lennan expressed other sides of question. The house was divided on that

Mrs. Davis entered then and continued the question of the advisability of adfertable thing in the world, it simply of business done in an hour will its mul-A drumken man interfered, but no one Mr. McIntyre did not know whether tiplied ten fold if proper parliamentary ed a number of amusing illustrations The Montreal Star had issued two Mr. Britton, and the audience applaud when the meeting adjourned at 12.45, it was with the general opinion that

> Death Of An Official. Montreal, Oct. 31. L. J. Marien

Judge Price has to attend division puted J. L. Whiting, Q.C., to represent the county bench at the consecration At the last meeting of Cobourg town council the estimates were brought down.

Noise is not what wins. The conser-J. B. McKay takes part in the Caledomian society concert in Montreal five years of plenty. Buckle to it. C. E. Bartlett, Napanee, coal dealer,

Dress

Cioods. 'U

In the matter of DRESS GOODS VALUI it has always been our claim that you can get t best values from us. The crowds that line of Dress Goods counters daily is evidence enough that our claim is valid.

New English Homespuns,

In a large variety of shade suitable for Fall and Win Costumes,

49c, 69c, 75

New English Camel's Hair Suitings,

New shades and mixtures,

99c and $1.25

This is a speci

New Military Red Cloths,

make and is fully 25c yard below its r gular value. Just 50 yards received as all we can get to sell at

French Flannels, for Waists. Navy Blue, Cadet Grey, Cardinal, Mil atary Reds, Light Blue, Pink, and other

Laidlaw's

THE ECONOMY, COMFORT AND APPEARAN

Appearance of Shoe

in which specially or Patent

SAME SHOE with Roster Tree inserted.

NO TREE is used. derived from using this Shoe "Tree" will be readily ack The matter of fines came up for dis- ledged after a glance at cuts. Unquestionably, boo shoes regularly treed over this form will wear much 1 than if allowed to curl up, shrink and open the sole, be which, if treed, they retain their original shape, th causing comfort and a dressy appearance to the wearer

For This Week's Sa A carload of Bed room Setts and

Beds to be run off at cost this week. A Beautiful Brass and Iron Bed a nice woven Wire Spring, and a p Sea Gress and Wool Mattress, for Handsome Bed-room Setts, with Mirrors, in Golden Oak Finish, a duced price for this week. There

JAS. REID'S

Cr. KOHR MEDICINE CO., P.O. DRAWER B 2341, MONTREAL

