

THE STORY.

ELECTORS OF FRONTENAC:

Vote for Rogers, all his life in the county and on the farm.

Vote for Rogers, who lives in the county and has proved himself a faithful representative.

parliament has been satisfactory

well as an employer.

spoke against railway bonuses, through the entire line and get over for which Calvin never did.

take the duty off binder twine, which Calvin never did.

Vote for Rogers, a practical and successful farmers community.

to all bonuses. Vote for Rogers, who was listen- trouble them. No score was made ed to and complimented by the this half. the farmers.

tenance of Government House, ville. The teams were : which Calvin never did.

the opposition only once. House, where he voted 59 times. er. Barry, Christie, Burns, McDonald, With Buller, Bobs, French, Kitch'ner, their duty each will do. Calvin only gave 18 votes, and Whitney, Mariotte, wings.

and voted against combines, Frenchie Guay, formerly of Kingston. To this our fair Dominion, the call to arms did come, which Calvin never did.

Vote for Rogers, who is pledged in favor of regulating the Standard oil and all other combines and monopolies. Calvin has given no such pledge.

Vote for Rogers, who seconded motion for government controlling passenger and freight rates, which son, of Queen's, accidentally presented farming interests, which Calvin up, made a touch without any opposionly did once.

voted for lower rate of interest, the second half, were quite successful in administration of the post office, Queen's halves started to punt at the which Calvin never did.

reduction of expenditure, which The ball was quite close to McGill's the Argonauts. Calvin never did.

age in the bargain.

giving over $500,000 as a so-call- sive runs brought the ball to McGill's Sold by E. C. Mitchell -57. of which would go into the deal- dribbled over McGill's goal line, but Annual Boston And New England The bishop of Kingston was announced the right party. Nearly 100-full-page eners' pockets.

nothing against either party, and dribbled the ball over Queen's goal line, tickets good returning to leave Boston, by dean Smith and archdeacon Evans; ings. Sells at sight; presses running whose only command to his hire- Weatherhead rouging. McGill 7, Queen's Springfield, Palmer, Worcester or South evening prayer said by Rev. G. L. day and night so great is the sale. lings is "Pound Rogers."

bination Fixtures at cost. Also Gas After that McGill were in danger, of western homes, have caused a great deal and strong consolation were for the ser coran Building, opposite United States of, The Tigers winning the toss chose Richardson; scrimenage, Paul, Carr Har humanity. The telescope afforded Vote for Rogers, who voted and | bridge didn't do a thing but dodge | E. Armour, Toronto.

37 Brock St.

when half-time was called. Vote for Rogers, a producer who i In the second half the lack of practice for the O.R.F.U. championship, unless knows the wants of the farming was very perceptible. They had not been Vote for Rogers, who spoke and the other. There were numerous muffs on lower railroad rates, on both sides, each team leaving good which Calvin never Did. opportunities to score. Were it thought Vote for Rogers, who is opposed necessary the home boys would no doubt have played a livelier team game, but the extent of the score did not seem to press for his efforts on behalf of The Tigers scrimmage did good work while the wings of each team were about Vote for Rogers, who moved and their back division. The team was short voted against paying for the main- Tobin. McDowall, Varney and McCon-

Granites-McDonald, back: Sherwood. Vote for Rogers, who has supported many good measures from both parties. Calvin voted with the opposition only once.

Hamilton, Elliott, half-backs; Goudereau, quarter; Milo, Lumb, Moore, scrimmage; Branscombe, J. Elliott, Young, Dehaney, the opposition only once. Vote for Rogers, who neither Tracey, half-backs; Burke, quarter; Cook. Australia with New Zealand, Tasmania, India too, Tigers-Newport, back; Jeffs, Dumolin, sions of the House only half the W. Nickle: goal judges. Dr. Abbott and A .W. Richardson, N. Crothers; To Britain's foes around them, we're Soldiers of our Queen. And Canada had stalmart sons at hand to draw upon. was spare man for the Tigers.

McGill, 11; Queen's, 1. treal on Saturday afternoon. The score Our brave boys went, with one intent, to fight for Britain's McGill with a touch. He kicked from Good-bye we bade Strathcona's Horse and Field Artillery. Vote for Rogers, who time and left foot, and the ball flew straight Our Prairie Rangers from the west and gallant Infantry, again spoke and voted in the along the line. McGill wings, following Vote for Rogers, who voted for against their opponents, and they made To fight for Empire's unity and die for Empire's Queen. oil and binder twine, which Calvin portunities of kicking for ronges offered The praise of our Canadians doth o'er the world now ring, their usual dashing for ronges offered The praise of our Canadians doth o'er the world now ring, their usual dashing for ronges offered The praise of our Canadians doth o'er the world now ring, their usual dashing for ronges offered The praise of our Canadians doth o'er the world now ring, their usual dashing for ronges offered The praise of our Canadians doth o'er the world now ring, their usual dashing for ronges offered The praise of our Canadians doth o'er the world now ring, their usual dashing for ronges offered The praise of our Canadians doth o'er the world now ring, their usual dashing for ronges offered The praise of our Canadians doth o'er the world now ring, the praise of our Canadians doth o'er the world now ring. themselves, but Queen's halves seemed Of how they fought at Paardeberg, Staderton and Mafeking, m, unable to kick to any advantage. Vote for Rogers, who spoke and McGill, during the first part of Vote for Rogers, who voted for learned the methods when they played preferential trade with the Mother Queen's in Kingston two weeks ago. For Empire and Victoria, Dei Gratia our Queen. Country, which Calvin never did. and put them to good use. Had Queen's changed their tactics, and played a kick-Vote for Rogers, who voted for ing game from the start, McGill would and Empire in South Africa. cheaper postal rates and better have been demoralized, as was seen when close of the game. McGill were about the union see fit to award the prize worn out at the close, while Queen's Vote for Rogers, who voted for were playing a strong, aggressive game.

voted for free agricultural implements, and who voted in defence of the careless inspection of westor the careless inspection or west-ern cattle, which led Great Britain to schedule our Canadian cattle.

five vard line. Then McGill by bucking the line advanced towards Queen's line.

In Montreal Britain true to his professions in daily walk and that crush and din the line advanced towards Queen's line.

College two. of the careless inspection of west- five yard line. Then McGill by bucking ville, sixty-one; Montreal, nothing. Vote for Rogers, who did pro-test against railway bonuses; vote hurled over for a touch. Molson kicked One Short Puff Clears The Head. was yet wise and considerate of others;

railway passes and drew his mile- reached Queen's five yard line, but most stubborn cases in a marvellously pecially his spiritual home, will his Young, on a brilliant dash, broke the short time. If you've had catarrh a greatest interest, centre, and here he McNee returned to centre. On the Excursion, Wednesday, Nov. 21. and after the succeeding scrimmage Albany. Superb train service was choral; the lessons were read by 50 golden roses in the cloth bind

Wood being losers, and had Queen's balves of sickness in our ranks, and it is to vants of the Lord. His servants bear Treasury, Washington, D.C. Heating Stoves. Intending purchasers been able to kick as far as the McGill. the excellent virtues of Eastern Balm His marks or brands, just as men of old J. W. Oldfin, as it did. But Queen's Ricks, were too Capt. F. C. Harper, Sergt. Major Coop ed that he belonged to his Master, that Glendower, Nov. 2.—J. Moorehous short, and the McGill back division er, Sergt. Major Winds. Sergt. Booth. He numed him. Beaten with stripes and preached to a large audience in Friends were able to get the bull out from be- privates Alfred Brown, James Mallaloc, wounded with stones, he hore that Mas- church, Sunday evening, J. hind their goal fully half a dozen times | Charles Powell, " George T. Kerr, A. | ter's marks to his dying day and glori- has finished threshing in ten yard line. Walkem and Clarke sey: Ottawa every Tuesday and Friday from Saviour he dead, He could have no 273 Princess Once Weatherhead Licked over McGill's E. C. alitchell.

A Patriotic Song, Music by Charles A. E. Harriss, Author

Britannia, Excelsior. Old Albion o'er the sea,

Confederated Canada, is ever true to thee.

No sons than her's are braver,

Per-chance the Lion slumber'd

With Union Jack high waving

Canadian Français loyal,

Who left for Afric's soil

Queen.

And unknown dangers braving,

I'm proud of them, Lord Roberts cried,

Dedicated to Canada's brave sons who fought and bled for the Queen

OTTAWA, Octuber, 1900.

given Ontario one highly esteemed and dounding to God's glory.

Heroically they fought and died.

But roused her whelps have thunder'd

And died they would to save her.

Victoria Regina. Victoria our Queen.

of Torquil, Words by John Woodruff.

one, although the McGill 4 points; Queen's 3; Varsity I. ston, and canon Baker and rural dean and death was not able to hold him we Should Queen's defeat 'Varsity next Brown, visitors. The dean and Rev. G. 100 would be dead. He conquered death their touch-down by an individual play Saturday and 'Varsity defeat McGill, on L. Starr were present. Archdeccon in dying, and because He lives we live on the part of cadet Sherwood and El. Nov. 17th, Queen's will be the cham Evans preached from I Corinthians, 14. and can have sympathy and made their pions. These results are looked upon as 33. He portrayed the wonderful system needs. We can have no weakness H of law, order and harmony which go Queen's-Full back, Simpson; halves, erns nature, the seasons regularly doing excellent, there being no wind to speak Charke, Weatherhead, Walkem; squarter, their work and meeting the wants of to kick up the field and Hamilton kick. ris, Shereff; wings, Devitt, Hill, Ether great study of nivriads of worlds, show Led off for the Granites, The ball was ington, Britton, Young, Macdonald, imy the infinite power of a great creator. Argonauts Defeat Rough Riders. and authority in hely things was uni-Vote for Rogers, who voted for After about fifteen minutes' play the Argenauts vistory over the Rough versally recognized. If the God of nature reducing the duty on refined sugar, Tigers got the ball again down the field Riders on Saturday was a big surprise. so marvellously provides for our needs, and power. All we have no matter how so marvellously provides for our needs, and power. All we have no matter how so marvellously provides for our needs, and power. All we have no matter how so marvellously provides for our needs, and power. All we have no matter how so marvellously provides for our needs, and power. All we have no matter how so marvellously provides for our needs, and power in the control of the ball again down the field like the bal which carvin never did.

[and there was a scrimmage within a At half-time the Rough Riders led by the God of all grace most surely, and it seems to come is His, because Vote for Rogers, who voted to the Granite's line. McDonald tried hard to get it out when it In the second half Argonauts made a those to be chosen for high office. The was passed back to him, but before he touch, and were one point ahead. The new hishop of Kingston was the preach spirit towards our fellows; legald kick he was carried over the line game finished five to four. Rough Rid er's friend and associate for thirty as honestly towards our God, to do His for a safety-touch, score, Granites, six; ers played a running and passing game, years and it was a high privilege and Tigers, two. The score remained thus while the Argonauts depended mostly on personal happiness to occupy the pulpit kicking. The two reams are new tied for the first time after his elevation.

Church Paragraphs. For a new Presbyterian church at Balderson's, $3,000 has been subscribed. In Lanark presbytery the "New England Fair ' is the latest form of church

Lansdowne elders have asked six ministers to preach twice on trial for the vacant pulpit E. Duncan, of Cannington, to the Queen street Methodist roll on Sunday, in profession of faith. The Westminster devotes five pages to presentation to Dr. John Watson, Kingston, and gives a fine, large por

Rev. Godfrey Shore preached at the last evening for the first time in ten ELECTORS OF FRONTENAC. weeks. He has fully recovered from his

In Bethel Congregational church last brought up in the county. young people to love and cherish their Vote for Calvin, whose course in I lifteen per cent increase in students this leader can soon fill the place.

THE ONE WHO WONT BE THERE had to jest sit down upon the curb- listened to in the house. Montreal met a Waterloo in Brockville beloved-parted with regretfully, even And so they're comin' home again. crucified and to point to him as the I guess I'll not go to town to see the another county.

Conversation; loyal to his convictions, he There'll be enough to welcome them-A-marchin' bravely to the time that's Does your head ache? Have you pains fruitful in good works, he gave freely Again McGill forced the play into over your eyes? Is the breath offensive? time and means. He will know every And the boys Il hever notice-not a one Vote against Calvin, who used line and gained thirty yards. Queen's week it's a sure cure. If it's of fifty was sure to receive warm and loving Work of art has just been issued at an Vote against Calvin, who favors awakened, and Weatherhead on two success years' standing it's just as effective; 50c. support. His old diocese looked for an outlay of over $100,000, for which the try, also a good splicitor; good pay to | road rates to all alike. I dral was crowded on floor and gallery, covers and bindings; over 200 gold-Vote against Calvin, who says and after the succeeding scrimmage. Via New York Central and Poston & The doors had to be closed at last. The on lilies in the Morocco bindings; near This was the score at half time.

Queen's territory, principally through their halves kicking into touch. The ball Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder will cure be dear to him, yet in the cathedral, estimate a going to be there!

The first fifteen minutes of the second half the play was principally in Queen's territory. Caldwell returned Weatherhead's kick, and play was at Queen's twenty-five yard line, John-ston kicken and play was at Queen's twenty-five yard line, John-ston kicken and play was at Queen's twenty-five yard line, John-ston kicken and play was at Queen's twenty-five yard line, John-ston kicken and play was at Queen's play was at Queen's twenty-five yard line, John-ston kicken and play was at Queen's play was at Queen's play was at Queen's twenty-five yard line, John-ston kicken and play was at Queen's play was at Queen's play was at Queen's play was at Queen's twenty-five yard line, John-ston kicken and play was at Queen's play was at Queen's twenty-five yard line, John-ston kicken and play was at Queen's play was play was at Queen's play was play was play was at Queen's twenty-five yard line, John-ston kicken and play was at Queen's play was play line, and the latter kicked across his line, and Currin had an cusy thing in to the proprietor or gastern and no matter how the church wander and look ter postal facilities for the farmer. MISSES. HANNAY & HAROLD, tion to manage our business and look ter postal facilities for the farmer. MISSES. HANNAY & HAROLD, the condition of the condition o in fully testify to the excellent cures made service. They were christened as the after our large correspondence, which THE UNDERSIGNED WILL DIST ASE dropping on the ball. Molson failed to by Fastern Balm, The many sudden children of God, were confirmed as His changes we experienced since leaving our changes are consistent to the changes of the changes we experienced since leaving our changes are changes as a change of the changes of the changes are changes as a change of the changes of

The Gurney-Tilden Co., Limited, Hamilton

HOT WATER OR STEAM.

SUILDING, LARGE OR SMALL, WITH

The Largest Radiator Manufacturers under the British Flag.

TORONTO

Vote for Calvin, a man born and night C. J. Trangott, Y.M.C.A. physical Vote for Calvin, who resides in director, sang in good voice "O Jesus, the county and has been well

Vote for Calvin, a large employer of labor in the county.

Vote for Calvin because he is opposed to railway bonuses. Vote for Calvin, who advocates the duty off sugar. I don't think I'll go into town to see | Vote for Calvin and cheaper | 1 the boys come back; | binder twine.

> Vote for Calvin, the successfu manager of a large county bu Vote for Calvin, a large

Vote for Calvin and lower rail- | $

Vote for Calvin who will advo-Vote for Calvin, who will be tion of the government house, but voted a large sum for its main-Vote for Calvin and against in this county, but opposed one in Vote for Calvin, who will support good measures from either

Vote for Calvin, who is no trim-combines. Vote for Calvin and against the Standard oil monopoly. Vote for Calvin and equal rail- laws and garden att

Vote for Calvin and free agricul-Vote for Calvin and a Canadian eduction in expenditure.

BOUGATIONAL

HEAT OF OURSE ST

individually.

always been true to his principles. Apply to W. J. THREINGTON

Vote for Calvin, a man who has the spring, and on v