up and invigorated by one box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve W. Fisher's. Pills completely removed all these distressing symptoms. I have not suffered since taking them, and now sleep well and feel strong and vigorous."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cure worn out nerve tissues, or watery blood.

TO BE LET. MOUSE IN VAUGHN TERRACE, HEAT ed by furnace. Apply at No. 6, o. at Whig Office.

King St.

THE HANDSOME STORE LATELY OC cupied by the H. D. Bibby Co., and formerly the Whig office. Apply to Alterations to suit tenant. Apply to A. B. CUNNINGHAM.

newly papered and painted; extension kitchen; good yard with trees Apply to STEACY & STEACY.

GROUND FLOOR PHOTO STUDIO: good light and first-class show window on Princess street; also rooms suitable for offices or residence over head. Apply to Box P., this office.

38 Clarence street.

DR. FOWLER, Brock street.

POR SHORT OR LONG TERM, FURnished or unfurnished, "Roselawn." grounds. Terms reasonable. Apply 79 Charence St.

MONEY AND BUSINESS.

wma'l wuma, at low rates of interest. Post Office.

ars in suns from one thousand to iars apply at SUDWIN'S INSURANCE EMPORIUM Over Express Office. Market Square.

Liverpool & London & Globe Fire Insurance Company.

il the stockholders. STRANGE & STRANGE, Agents.

ARCHITECTURE.

M. STOREY, ARCHITECT. opened an architect's office

POWER & SON, ARCHITECTS, MER chants Bank Building, corner Brock and Wellington Streets. 'Phone 212

ARTHUR ELLIS, ARCHITECT. corner of Queen and Montreal Sta

Try a Bottle of

SILLS' DRUG STORE,

260 Princess St. We Give Trading Stamps.

BORN.

MARRIED.

Every Organ of the Body Toned WHAT OUR CORRESPONDENTS HAVE TO TELL US.

> The Tidings From Various Points In Eastern Ontario-What Peo- Krupp, wife of the pastor of the Methi-Are Saying.

senson. J. Shortall is engaged as teach: n.ll of faith in God and of love successful season on the water. John Webb has gone to Elgin, where he in-Mr. F. W. Meyers, King St. E., Berlin, | tends working in the mine. M. Webb "I suffered for five years has left for Smith's Falls, where he has with palpitation, shortness of breath, secured a position in the foundry. H. sceplessness and pain in the heart, but | Our and family spent Sunday at Mrs.

Chicken Thieves Busy.

Burrickye, Dec. 3.-A large congregation assembled at the Bedford Metho- Maxwell and children have gone to Colo- Storey's stable man went to the stable ER. dist church on Wednesday to hear the rado to reside. Miss Jennie Alexander, funeral service of the late Abraham Smith's Falls, visiting her sister, Mrs. Thompson. Deceased was an old and Samuel Baker, has returned home. Mrs. the cheese factory has closed and Mr. pleasant time. Mustard and family have returned to their home in Elgin. Several farmers have had stolen some of their choice manufacturies, to-let or for sale turkeys, chickens and ducks. Miss Apply to J. S. R. McCANN, 33 Slavin, Sydenham is visiting at Inc.

Melcombe Matters.

returned to Brockville. Miss M. O' Martin, who passed away on Sunday POP FLAT, HOBART BUILDING, COR- Hain, South Lake, is visiting her sis- Dec. 2nd. About three weeks ago he ner of Princess and Bagot streets | ter. Mrs. M. Lappan. Miss Annie Mc | was brought home in a very low condi-Donald, visiting relatives in Brockville, tion; since then little hope was enterhas returned. Deer Lick cheese factory tained for his recovery. Typhoid fever HOUSE NO. 200 WILLIAM STREET, closed down on Thursday after a very was the cause of death. The sympathy successful senson. Cupid has been play- of the neighborhood is extended to the ing his artful tricks again. This time b reaved family. On Tuesday the Engl the groom is Christopher Williams, a lish church will hold their annual ba-THREE-STOREY BRICK HOUSE presperous young farmer of this place, rear. There is every prespect for modern conveniences, situated 240 and the bride one of Warburton's fair hockey club here this winter. The suit ladies. Miss Effic Moulton. The cere- for damages brought by George Amey R. Crawford, foot of Queen street | meny, which made the happy couple against Peter Quigley and H. W. Mc one, took place at Lansdowne on Wed- Nally, was dismissed with costs, at the

Returned To Cleveland.

Collins Bay, Dec. 3.—Mr. Rourke, THAT BRICK DWELLING, No. 894 keeper of the lighthouse of the Bro- painting and decerating the English street, formerly occupied by thers, was drowned while crossing over for session. Apply to J. B McIVEP tound. The boats belonging to Mr. Leslie are laid up here for the winter. A ten meeting was held in the Preshy pany will lease the store on Prin- terian church on Thursday evening. Mr. cess St., in Opera House block, ar and Mrs. Nugent spent Friday with ranging the rooms on two flats their daughter, Mrs. McAuley, Railton. son's effice. Edw. H. Britton, Sec- Miss Edna Asselstine spent Sunday with Miss Myrtle Clement. Miss Kate Houston, Montreal, is spending a few OR IN PART. A weeks at William Bell's. Mrs. J. Cle-King and ment spent a few days with her son, Ontario Street, well adopted for a William Clement. Miss Mand Marsh wholesale husiness or hotel purposer has returned home to Cleveland after good yard and stabling. Apply to spending two weeks with her parents.

Holleford Heraldings. Holleford, Dec. 4.-J. T. Babcock killd two remarkable hogs, weighing in all rowsmith, is visiting friends here. Miss | er having resigned. Rev. J. C. Cornell gation. It is the people's money which | dents will give a concert in the town on city and farm property. Loans O'Rielly's, this place. George Collins. Wednesday evening prayer-meeting. It realize this are aldermen Craig and Mc been visiting his parents. Miss Grace granted on city and county deben tures. Apply to S. C. McGlLi. Watertown, is slowly recovering. J. E. of grace should be so neglected by all laborers received 81 per day of ten hours time with relatives in Napance and vi vestment Society. Office opposite the Freeman has sold his place to A. Perro; except a faithful few, who are found at for their work, and the general opinion | cinity. Miss M. Sproule is visiting he will move to another locality. Mrs. the church every Wednesday evening, of citizens then was that the city was friends, in Newburgh. It is expected ten thousand dollars. For particu ing a few weeks in Kingston. Daniel on Sunday, after his prolonged absence, men made a demand for $1.25 per day

House Took Fire. erable damage to clothing and a sewing denham. Miss Sarah Knight and Miss 'not give value for this money. Now, machine. Mrs. Hughes had her hands Edna Smyth are visiting friends in these men are going to dictate who will a playing to immense audiences. Available Assets, $60,656,420. In ad-badly burned while putting out the Kingston. Sherman Caverley is renewing for security the unitmited liability of flames. Misses Wenny and Davern spent old acquaintances in Picton. Visitors: Saturday and Sunday at Forest's Mills, Albert Dowsley, South Lake, at Jack-FARM AND CITY PROPERTY in the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Willet Ar. son Dowsley's. B. Wartman, Michigan; renewing old or giving new business get | mold, former residents of this place. with his brother, Hiram Wartman; Mrs. Miss Lillian Gould and lady friend, of John Horning, Glenvale, at William Tweed, were visiting friends here re Horning's: Maj. Shepherd, Queenston, turned, after spending a few days in Harrowsmith, at H. E. Johnston's. this vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. Alexander ever Forbes were visiting their daughter, Creenwood & Gillen's. Wellington Mrs. E. Lloyd, Northbrook. Mrs. Rob for selling a loaf of bread of greater the corporation laborers union. t Cranston, Napanec, has returned, atter visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. (i. A. Williams, and other friends.

Charleston Notes.

ill for some time, has recovered. eva Johnson is ill. J. Fester went to Toledo, yesterday, to visit his son John, who is ill. J. Hudson gave an easter supper on Friday evening, which was very much enjoyed. Our cheese factory has closed after a very successful season. We are sorry to lose our teacher, Stearne Grey, who intends going to Kingston to study for a high school teacher, but we hope that our loss will be his gain. His place will be filled by his brother, Clarence Grey, Mr. and Mrs. C. Slack and son, Lindsay, visited friends at Toledo, recently Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Foster have moved from Guaranteed to cure all throat and some cattle, which Mr. Slack had sold to Mr. Yates. Miss B. Ford has gone to Athens to spend the winter.

> Black River Bridge Briefs. Black River Bridge. Dec. 3.-It is aljost impossible to get through to Pic-of Williams Muck on Sumber. -

Two Deaths Recorded.

ple Are Doing and What They dist church here, has passed away to duct d at the house by Rev. D. A. Mc. Falls, and myself. On Wednesday, Sept. | our mayor is rotten and it would the vicinity in their hour of bereave found him away from home and course. The tax payers of this city should, respected resident. He was a member of Weir is visiting friends in Kemptville. the Orange lodge and of the A.O.U.W. The ladies' aid of the Presbyterian The remains were placed in the West- church met at the residence of E. Alexport vault. After a successful season ander on Saturday evening and spent Westport, Dec. 3.—Miss Walsh has gone to her home in Buffalo, N.Y. Miss Maggie O'Hara, Philadelphia, nurse-intraining, is visiting her brother, James O'Hara. John McCue, Kingston, is renewing acquaintances in town. With re-Melecembe, Dec. 3.-W. McTaggart has gret we chronicle the death of Thomas court held in Napanee last week. Next Friday is poultry fair day in Westport. G. F. Reynolds and staff have left for Portland, where he has the contract of church. W. W. Russell has returned has visited our friends and with deep regret we announce the sad demise of Mrs. T. Topping, sr. She had been ill about two months, during which time she bore with great patience her sufferings. Her charity to the poor and her kindness to all won for her the name of an exemplary Catholic. She leaves four sons and two daughters, who attended her in her last illness.

A Good Teacher Resigns. Friday evening at Elginburg, Miss Efcently. B. Thompson, Tweed, has re Ont., at J. Knight's: Harry Guess, ton I build Mack, Picton, was the guest J. N. TAGGART WRITES ABOUT AN ACTION

> Horse-A Mistake Made and an Hotel Man Asked Pay For im. What is the matter? It sv His Trouble.

Westport, Dec. 3 .- (To the Editor) Permit me to briefly state the facts in son and daughter, have the sympathy of lives in that town. On arrival there I respected citizen, R. S. Dobbes, and led the horse out, giving him to my brother, saving that it was my horse. As the horse closely resembled mine in every respect, reither he . nor Storey saw a mistake, although horse remained in Storey's stable the other horse in my brother's stable. from Thursday morning until Friday evening. Then I drove the horse home, never supposing for an instant that I had other than my own animal, the greater part of the journey being made in the night. The next morning on go- | Steps," announces that football is uning to the stables. I noticed that the Christlike. Mr. Shekkon has made horse seemed strange. I soon found they several announcements of what is un had given me the wrong horse. I at Christlike. If he keeps on, people nav once made arrangements to drive back be asking him to write a hible. to Smith's Falls, but before getting started received a telephone message from Storey to meet him at Westport. London Globe. manding pay for his trouble. This I re- tribution to our stories concerning ver fused on the ground that he was respon- zers. At a certain cathedral one sible for the mistake, hence the suit re- these functionaries received a visit from ferred to so frequently in the press of a verger in the neighboring sec, and the last few days. The judge after hear proudly showed him over the historic ing the evidence stated that he was building. Coming to the Lady Chapel perfectly satisfied that it was a mistake I've said: "Ere, we are Mating all through, yet he gave nudgment to What, welaimed the other; plaintiff on the ground that Storey was | Matins; as've got Limbeum in ours. not responsible for the acts of his clerk and should get pay for his trouble. This judgment is beyond doubt without pre. Hamilton Herald. cedent. Yours truly, J. M. TAGGART.

night, had practically acceded to the de- | the end. mand of the corporation laborers' union in regard to not allowing the man Moon citizens to whom I have spoken, that this matter should have been left entirely in the hands of the city engineer, Kepler, Dec. 3.-Farmers are taking who seems to be a very competent man 1 of our young people attended advantage of the splendid sleighing to and one who would stand no nonsense At Home" given by the pupils of Syd haul their produce to market. The at- of this kind. Things are coming to a enhant high school, which was also tendance at the public school is increas- very bad state when a respectable citi- grand success. Mr. McLaren, Queen ing. The trustees have engaged Miss zen and a taxpayer is refused work by college, preached in the Presbyterian Duisy Caldwell, Sydenham, as teacher the city because he refuses to become a church last Sabbath and is highly spok 1.188 pounds. Mrs. G. Redmond. Har for 1900, the present teacher H. Hunt- member of any particular labor organi- en of. A large number of Queen's stu-Lizzie Elderbeck, daughter of George El- preached the second of his series of ser- is being spent on our streets and this hall on Friday evening in aid of the derbeck, is visiting her grandfather. Mr. | mons, on the apostle's creed, to a large work should not be given exclusively to | Presbyterian church funds. It Black Kittison, at Long Lake. Mrs. Clark, | congregation on Sunday evening. We any particular body of men. The situa- | Westport, was here last week on a busi-Harrowsmith, has returned home after are sorry to note how little interest is tion is really serious, but the only men ness trip. Dr. Lockhart lost a valuable spending a couple of weeks at J. J. being taken by church members in the on the board of works, who appear to horse last Sabbath. Roy McLean has is always among them that polite con-H. Babcock is quite poorly. Miss Ethel rain or shine. Many were pleased to not getting more than a fair return in that Rev. Mr. Cram will preach in the Newton has returned home after spend | see the pleasant face of Kenneth Orser, work for its money. This year these Presbyterian church next Sabbath. Shay, Harrowsmith, spent Sunday here. | Several from this neighborhood intend of nine hours and the city council actaking part in the school concert on ceded to the demand although every man around the council board must Kuladar, Dec. 4.-Peter Hughes' house | fie Townsend is spending a few days have known that the class of men emtook fire a few days ago, doing consid- with her friend, Miss Lillie Guess, Sv. ployed as a rule on the streets could work and who will not. Where is this cell-known nobleman recently offered his going to end, and what effect is it go. | 525 to play at a reception, but he rethe men? We have at present I think, two ments are broked for the young star city's work, but their usefulness will be | inent. The lov's parents are quite poor they will employ, or whom dismiss, ich. without each individual case coming be-A baker at Ottawa, Kas., was fined fore the city council and a committee of The question of protecting the We-present on the pay roll. of Smith's Falls About a crafty candidates went against this I poor man Moon, and in favor of the orer in our school for the coming year. Christ. A short funeral service was con- bert Storey, hotel-keeper of Smith's he case, then the system of electing our former teacher having resigned, duct'd at the house by Rev. D. A. Me- Falls, and myself. On Wednesday, Sept. Many intend to dispose of their poultry Kenzie, after which the remains were 19th, in company with a friend I drove anch better in fact to adopt the sysat the poultry fair. Lyndhurst, on Fri conveyed by train to Casselman, where to Smith's Falls, intending to leave my em suggested in the columns of one of day. James Smith has returned after a she was buried. Rev. Mr. Knapp, the horse in custody of my brother, who are local papers some days ago, by our

S. Burns, an old and respected quently took my horse to Storey's ho. I think, at one call a mass meeting of resident, died on Monday morning aged tel, left him in charge of his clerk, and litizens and unite on good men for on board till he and his grandmother seventy-three years. He was one of the went on to Ottawa by train. I remain- our council, Men who will not sell their first settlers in this vicinity. In re- ed there until Friday, when I returned opinions for votes. I would like to hear | he said, to buy him a hat to replace one ligion he was a Roman Catholic. Every to Smith's Falls, I was informed by my through your valued column the ep that had been blown everboard, and till one found in him a good neighbor and brother that he had gone to Storey's inions of other citizens on this matter, she returned go on board the Werra he friend. The mourning ones have the hotel on the day after the horse was which to my mind is one of very great sympathy of the neighborhood. Mrs. left there, and asked for my horse moment. Yours respectfully, TAXPAY-

SPIRIT OF THE PRESS.

For Instance.

Hamilton Spectator. Politeness mays, for instance, there is that Hamilton barber who has sent to prison because he cut an Hits Ottawa Hard.

did and I changed animals, he de ... J.W.H." sends us an amusing con

Talks Down to Us.

Young man, there is still room at the top. Crowd up, but do it honestly Kingston, Dec. 5.—(To the Editor):

I was more than surprised at learning lives, will bring you to the house of re brough your paper last evening that You will never get there so long as through your paper last evening that fuge by the time old age comes. Begin | were happily filled. A tremendous cheer | ket Square. the board of works committee of the life by saving the first $2,000, and you frang from decks and pier, and the Werra 10 city council at a meeting held Monday will get to the top if you preserve to released, went on her way. - Youth's O. G. Johnson, Florist Companion.

A Successful Tea-Meeting. to work any longer for the city. It is | Harrowsmith, Dec. 4 .- The tea-meet my opinion, and the opinion of all good ing held in the Methodist church last ednesday evening was a success in every way. The proceeds amounted to I alout $73. On Thursday evening sever

Kubelik, the Boy Violinist. Fame and fortune came almost in lay to Kubelik, the wonderful iolinist, in England. Three months ago be was unknown outside of a small cocrie of musical enthusiasts, and now h ing to have on the authority of the city fused unless he was given twice that engineer and foreman of streets over um. Already over a thousand engage good officials in this department of the In America and on the European cor largely wasted if they cannot say whom | wit he is in a fair way to make the and canal against attack from lawles Our aldernen should beware of what I characters is occupying the attention of they are doing. The higher rate of wag- the dominion authorities.

MA WOULD COME.

And The Ship Had to Wait For To Eat. edge of the Boy-An Angry

He had bolted for the pier when the warning whistle sounded for visitors to go ashore and obstinately refused to get | were reunited. She had gone "up town."

Minutes were passing into the half hour. and the captain, becoming impatient, and his grandmother should be put fort." ashore. It was found, however, that they were "first class" passengers and that their baggage was extensive, and as undesirable complications might fellow if it was recalled, and new advances were made to the affectionately obstinate come back. He knew she would, and till , be saw her the Werra was not for him. So the Werra waited. The captain. from the quarter deck, viewed the lad with grim perplexity. The passengers, who crowded the rail, eagerly and inupon him with sympathetic approval and the crew grinned at the humor of a situation in which their autocratic commander was powerless before the loving determination of a small boy. Meanwhile the grandmother had re-

MR. BANNISTER'S BEARD.

It Consed a Stoppage of Pleasant | | | | | Neighborly Relations.

The Bannisters and the Ridgeleys are or were, what might almost be called bosom friends. Mrs. Bannister's girl has I years these two excellent families have This may be due to the fact that the altowed. any jealousy whatever.

Theirs has been an ideal friendship Still it is only a friendship, after all. There straint which keeps people on their best behavior. It is not as if they were mem | Kingston - ranch 141 th for a - 1

bers of one family. And so it came to pass when Mr. Ban- gages, Loans effected, etc., etc. nister had his beard removed that Mrs Ridgeley was careful not to tell him what she really thought of his appearance. She assured him that he looked young with a smooth face, but at home she declared that he was "a perfect fright."

have it cut off. He surely must have bac a beard before they were married or she ould never have fallen in love with him Really he looks like a scarecrow. never knew that a beard could make so much difference in a man's appearance. One evening two or three weeks later the Bannisters were sitting on the Ridge. leys' porch. They had talked about the weather and the war and other things when little Percival auddenly exclaimed "Oh, mamma, Mr. Bannister's letting them grow again! Did you notice it He doesn't look like a fright or a scare crow any more, does he?"

Aboard Without the Knowl. The pain, nausea and disafter every meal can all be permanently removed by Burdock Blood Bitters.

It tones up and restores the tiently waiting to boist it clear of the stomach to normal condition so causing discomfort.

mid. 'Why don't you try B.B.B.' I did so, using two bottles, which made such a gave orders that the baggage of the boy thing I like without it causing me discom-

FLOWERS AT CHRISTMAS

Are the most appreciated of all the turned and had entered the vessel unseen year. You cannot possibly select any by the boy and unrecognized by the oth gift more beautiful or appropriate the ers. She missed him, and in her eager search approached the gangplank and gazed toward the pier. The two saw each other instantiv, and the grandmother, ignorant of the boy's reasons for leaving the vessel and fearing she knew not what, knelt and extended her arms to live plants, Ferns, Palms and choice cur ward him in a dumb entreaty that was | flowers, we will have for Christmas, but needless, for a joyously exultant, "Oh, don't forget to order your cut flowers

th meervatory 'Pon e 235 - Un 8 18

Clarence Street, Kingston. Bannisters have no children. Mrs. Ban-nister can hear Mrs. Ridgeley praise ber balance. little Dorothy and repeat the smart say | All kinds of Insurance effected at cw ings of her little Percival without feeling | rent rates. Only First-Class Companies represent-

Canadian Agents: The Standard Bank of Canada (Our Bankers).

N. B .- Investments procured More

No one ever had to collect their mous W. MURRAY, Jr.,

Augklanser, Market Square All the latest styles

in Millinery at prices stripped of extrava-MISSES. HANNAY & HAROLD News McLeon's Frug to e

ISSUER MARRIAGE LICENSES. Mrs. Ridgeley's girl hasn't borrowed a DIL thing out of the Bapuister kitchen since DISTRICT AGENT OF THE SUR

OUR GIFT SCHEME

Our GIFT SALE means a Cup and Saucer of Japanese, Chinese or German, design and ha dsomely decorated, given away with every purchase of a pound of tea.

The Sale begins the morning of Dec 19th and will lat just hree Day matter what priced Tea you purchase a Cup and aucer goes with it Judge these Gifts for yourself--They are exhibited in our window

STRO(ID) BROS.

109 Princess Street, Kingston