Buying Event

WILL BE OUR 12TH ANNUAL JULY

REMAN I)AV

-ON-

MONDAY

When Every Remnant In Stock Will Be Offered at

EXACTLY HALIFPRICE

REMNANTS OF

White and Colored.

REMNANTS OF Prints.

Muslins. REMNANTS OF

REMNANTS OF Lawns.

DressGoods REMNANTS OF

Serges, Lustres, Fancy Goods.

Linings of ALL KINDS.

Tweeds.

Sheetings and White Cottons.

HUNDREDS

THE THREE PARTY OF

Gathered From Every Department.

All Sales for CASH ONLY. Sale Commences at 8 O'clock Sharp.

JOHN LAIDLAW&SON and the same of th

LATEST IN

Picture trames.

OAK, GREEN. GILT.

With Brass Corners, at 45c each.

R. Uglow & Co., ? 86 Princess Street

Alegatonian, but has resided at Hopkin to have married Mise Lena Spitz, Baldwin, lay acted cowardly and unmanly in his re- 7:30 o'clock. The challenge was for Second Edition Matter also on Page Five.

When You Go Camping You'll need inexpensive and unbreakable tableware and cutlery. Corbett's hardware is the place to get it.

The Outario bank has dedated $5 to the Kingston fair association to be given as a special prize to the maker whose factory ftakus fires prize for colored cheere as the coming fair. It is distinctly stipulated that the prize must be paid to the cheese

This morning twenty cases of the Oliver, equipment arrived at the local government store from Ottawa. The cases contain 1 000 sets of the equipment, which will be served out to different corps in the district next spring.

Wampole's Kola Wine at McLeod's drug

Tammany realizes to day that all its soon extinguished the flames. work to sarp the Bryan beem Lat come to naught. Croker men will go to the convention, but if beaten will not bolt.

The Franco-American reciprocity treaty is has been rettled and the United States senate will be asked at once to confirm it. Mrs. Jeannette Rosentbal, Chicago, bad a divorce gives her in three days. Her husband was cruel to her. Anderick Deichman, Belleville, Ill., was Governor Pingree says president McKin-ton, are the gueste of Mrs. D. Jamicson,

Mrs. Edmunds and Mrs. R. Griffin, Pic-

PIRES SUDDENLY AT HOME.

te Suffers No Pain at End-He Had Complained in the Morning of Feeling Unwell, But This Had Apparently Passed away—His Family at Home When Death Comes—His Life Had Been a Busy One From the First.

New York, July 22 .-- Robert G. Ingersoll died at his home at Waltson on Hudson, near Dobb's Ferry. a few minutes after noon on Friday. His death was sudden and unexpected and resulted from the heart trouble from which he has been "Now, I was positive that he had fust troubled since 1886. For the last come in, but it is always unwise to conthree days Mr. Ingersoll had not tradict a customer, so I made no remark. been feeling well. He had some 'I want you to put me up some quinine stomach trouble. He had spent a capsules,' he went on, 'and be quick bad night. Although there was a about it, for I have an engagement at 8:30 tightness about the chest which he o'clock.' I loo ked at my watch and told

Mr. Ingersoll spent the morning stairs, and as he was going up he pieces. It was the clumsiest thing I told Mr. Farrell that when he came ever saw, and had any possible motive down he would play a game of bil- been apparent I would have sworn he did turned into his wife's room. After talking for a few minutes Col. Ingersoll crossed the room and sat down in a rocking chair. He leaned his head upon his hand, which, a murder had been committed in a house rested on the back of the chair. Mrs. Ingersoll asked him how he was feel- 8 o'clock the previous evening. I gave it PARAGRAPHS PICKED These were his last words. A second after they were uttered he was dead. There was not ceren a sigh or a groun as death came.

NAPANEE RACES.

Results of the League Baces-Martin Was Taken III.

partial report of the results of the Napanee races will be found on page four in our Napanee correspondence. The rest of the results are as appended: League race-First heat Madden.

Napanee, E. A. Ford, Belleville; C W. Baker, Deseronto; J. F. Martin, Ringston; C. Smith, Trenton; II. Roulton, Picton, Baker unished first, E. A. Ford, second; J. F. Martin, third; H. Boulter, fourth: Madden, tifth; Smith, sixth. Time, 3.20, Second heat-Frank Lee, Napanee; F. A. Ridley, Belleville, Dr. Pulkinghorn, Desercato: N. J. Robinson,

Kingston; D. Fairman, Trenton; Boulter, Picton, Pulkinghorn finished first. Lee, second; Ridley, third; Robinson, fourth: Boulter, fifth; Fail Robinson, fourth; Boulter, fifth, Fairman, sixth. Time, 3.20. Third heat-W. Vanalstine, Napanee; C. Dale, Belleville; M. F. Oliver, Deseronto: Powell, Kingston: W. R. Young, Trenton; Gilbert, Picton, Oliver finished first; Gilbert, second; Powell; third; Dale, fourth: Vanalstine, fifth; Young, sixth. Time. 2.49 2-5.

The man getting first place wins six points, second place, five points and so on down to one point. In the half-mile race, Martin, Kingston, won out in 1.09 4-5, with Baker, Deseronto, second, and E. A. Ford, Belleville, third. The prize for first place was a handsome silver and cut glass toilet set. In the five mile race, open. Martin, of Kingston, secured first place, in 15.13 2-5. E. Johnson, Deseronto. came second, and F. Davidson, Peterboro, third. The prize for first place was a valuable marble clock. The novice race was won by J Pulkinghorn, Deseronto: F. Davidson

Peterboro, second; C. F. Dale, Belleville, third for pacing. In the mile open. J. Pulkinghorn came in first. E. Johnson, second. and E. A. Ford third for pacing Time, 2.33 1-5. Martin was taken ill in this race or outherwise would probably have been a winner. A protest has been entered against Oliver, of Deseronto, claiming that he is a professional Another was entered against Baker, of Descrepto. for the same reason. The racing tunited will consuler the protests when all the papers are placed in their bands.

Removed The Eye. Gananoque Journal.

Some needs aco Albert Cunningham, employed in the Gillies' company's factory, had one of his eyes for." destroyed by a piece of steel striking it. The wound was attended to. and though the sight of the eve was lost it was thought to be healed otherwise. Latterly he has suffered officer was cursed, but still they sat. At move the eve altogether That was done last Wednesday by Drs. Emery and Bird A large piece of steel was found embedded in the back part of the eve bull, with one end project-That had evidently struck the ever at the time of the accident, and passed completely through it. The operation of removing it was successful, and Mr. Cunningham is in comfortable condition

Burglars at Hobesygeon

Lindsay, Ont., July 22. Burglars officer expectating in Barbergageen resterrities and succeeded in retting away with a quantity of cours from Bottum's hardware store, J. T. Robinson, grover, who lifes over his store, was awakened by an exploston, and on investigation found two men in Buttum's hardware store Before an alarm could be given the men made good their escule The outer cour of the sale had been blown open, but the intruders were disturbed before they had time to get at the contents. They secured. honeper, some silvermore and shelf hardware.

Eingaron Foundry on Pire.

Had it not been for the prompt action of assistant engineer Felix lennon, of the water works, the Kingston foundry would to-day have probubly been in ashes. Last night at 6.30 o'cleck he noticed smoke arising from the moulding deportment. It was at an hour when nearly everyone was absent from the building, so he went over to investigate. He found that the place was on fire, and lost no time in telephoning for the brigade. The men responded with alacrity.

Issued a Challenge

This morning Thomas McAuley issued a challenge to the crew of the war canoe of the Kingston yacht club, for a race from the vacht club house, around Cedar island and return. Mr. McAuley will have charge of his steam yacht, and the war fum, money or marbles, and the last named were fixed as the stakes.

PREF ARING AN ALIBI.

The Scheme Was Quite Ingenious, but It Didn't Work.

"One evenis g some years ago," said a New Orleans druggist who had been reminded of a s tory, "I was standing behind the counter, just as I am now, when saw a man slip in very quietly at the side door and s top in the rear of that tall case full of faricy goods. I walked over at once and as ked him what I could do for him, and it was at least half a minute before he replied. 'You don't seem very keen for trade,' he said at length, and he spoke in a curious gasping voice, like a man out of breath. T've been waiting here,' he said, 'for a quarter of an hour.'

did not like, he did not think it him he had 20 minutes to spare. It was then exactly 8:10. 'All right,' he said, swinging a hammock and sitting on him the package a few moments later, and, as he reached for it, he upset a tall At 12:30 o'clock he started up- vase on the counter and broke it all to liards with him. On reaching the it on purpose. But he cursed like a pirate and, after much grumbling, paid the bill, which was $3, and went away, and I never saw him again.

"Next morning I read in the paper that no special thought, but something like a month later I received a visit from a lawyer, who told me that he represented a certain mun who was under suspicion for this very murder and who expected daily to be placed under arrest. 'My client is not guilty,' he continued, 'and at the time ' of the crime was nowhere near the house. As nearly, as he remembers, he was in this store, making some trifling purchase. He recalls it, because he accidentally broke a vase. Do you remember the circumstance?' I did instantly, and of a sudden the whole thing became clear. You see, my attention had been called especially to the hour, and the vase breaking was evidently a ruse to fix the visit in my mind. I looked the lawyer in the eye. 'Your client entered the store at 8:10,' I said, 'and I have reason to believe he was running just before he reached it.' That ended the conversa- ing a jagged hole in the roof. tion. The man was never arrested, but soon after left the city. What was he | conjurer, all next week at O doing that night? Why, preparing his Admission (by cars) free. alibi of course."-New Orleans Times-Democrat.

WAITING FOR THE DAWN.

How Four Poker Hands Were Held All Night In the Dark.

A soldier tells this poker story, which City, Mo., after a week's lock incidentally accentuates the distrust with which poker players regard one another "when friendship ceases" and the faith a man has in the hand he holds:

One night after taps four men gathered in a tent to do away with their pay. killing and exhausting game. It was the night of pay day, and there was no convenient place in which to spend their money except over cards.

The game had gone on with varying fortune here and there. It was after Hungary, gave a banquet last nig midnight. The sentry was a chum and miral Dewey. Dewey will give had been told not to see the light in the banquet to-night on board the Ol tent. At last a jackpot was on the board and had been "sweetened" until it for Tweed, Napanee, Deseronto was very tempting. Every one was in it, local points. Train leaves City H and it was worth before the open about the:10 p.m. R. J. Wilson, O.P. $20. When one of the players opened it, graph office, Clarence street every one staid and drew cards.

The edge had a full house, the next bown last night and is a guest at man four tens, the third man four of M. Sullivan, Rideau street. To queens and the dealer four aces. The morning she and Mrs. Sullivan wi opener threw a dollar into the pot. The on the early boat for Ste. Anne d next man raised, and it was raised and pre. reraised until it was beautiful to see.

At this point there was a scurry of exist in the ten hour law govern footsteps outside. The sentry rushed in, employment of men or surface railr grasped the lantern and dashed it out, New York state. As the law is not jerking and extinguishing it as he did so. preted railroads may work their me As he disappeared he whispered hoarsely: been or more hours.

Instinctively four hands went out in the darkness and spread themselves over the pot while four other hands closely clutched five cards each. "Hold on, fellows," whispered the deal. er. "Every one take his hand off the table and keep it off until the light comes back. We'll just sit here and nurse our cards. My hand's good enough to wait

"So's mine," said the others.

Then they waited. Slowly the night passed, growing chillier and more chill in its going. The sentry was cursed, the tast the first glimpse of gray appeared in the sky, and as soon as it grew light enough the four played their hands and tumbled in for a few minutes' sleep before the bugle called them out again .-Kansas City Star.

A Farm For a Bowl of Punch.

A deed is on record in Goochland county. Va., an abstract of which reads: "William Randolph, for and in consideration of Henry Wetherburn's biggest bowl of arrack punch, to him delivered at and before the sealing and delivery of these presents, the receipt whereof the said William Randolph doth hereby acknowledge, hath granted, &c., unto the said Peter Jefferson and to his heirs and assigns one certain tract or parcel of land, 200 acres, on the north side of the Northanna, in the parish of St. James, in Goochland, 18th May, 173th." This was Captain Peter Jefferson, father of the president, by his marriage Oct. 3, 1739, with Jane Randolph, first cousin of the William Randolph of Tuckahoe, above mentioned. -Chicago Record.

A Wise Girl.

"Girls have to be as wise as serpents nowadays or they'll get left. Do you remember Lulu Thompson?"

"You know she studied in the school of nurses ?"

"Well, she knew her business." "Is she still nursing?" "Not much. She married the first rich patient that came to the hospital."-

Cleveland Plain Dealer.

When He Ought to Think. There are only two occasions when a man ought to think a lot more than he talks-when he goes fishing and when he doesn't go fishing.

It is possible that money will not do everything for a man, but it is a dead certainty there are men who will do everything for money.-St. Louis Star.

As people get older that undefinable feeling of unrest and pain leaves their hearts and locates in the small of their Straight five cont farce have been restored as a service memorial of the ed on all the Datroit, Much, street care, ed on all the Buse. Policemen still shirt nailed up on the burn door as a except during early morning and evening, when workness may use tickets purchased to the place of sight for inserts for seats.

Straight five cont farce have been restored and the Buse. Policemen still shirt nailed up on the burn door as a continuous party morning and evening, warning to other chaps of his profession. He dropped a wallet with $60 in it, and giving libellous matter to a newspaper for the door as a continuous party for seats.

EXTRA

50 doz. Ladies' Linen Handkerchiefs, worth 153. Special lOc.

SPECIAL Boys' Men's Bathing Suits from

IOc.

BUSY REPORT

The Spice of Everyday U People Are Talking Becapes the Attention Are Taking Notes. Welch's Grape Juice at Y

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Davl in the city to day.

Stella Parnell, aged fourt arreed at Anna, Ill., for forge Joseph Kruger shot his so burg, Ill, mistaking him for Steam yacht "C. Here" to ch ties of twenty-five and under week at Davia & Sone'. A dynamite bomb was exp street railway car sheds at Cle Soto Sunetaro, the wonder In the trial races off Newpo yacht Defender was disable romething going wrong with h halyards. Hutch Tablets at McLeod's 10c. and 25c. One thousand meat packers returned to work, the trouble b amicably settled. Governor Richards, of Wyd drawn the attention of the feder ties to the fact that Indians are Soto Sunetaro and extraordina ties from the Antipodes, Ontario next week. Admission (by care) The United States minister to

Miss Minnie Guess arrived fron

THE TREASURE STILL THEN A Farmer's Way of Settling His

With Swindlers. "There are folks who imagine th ery farmer is dead easy to swindle. the broad shouldered agriculturist the lightning rod theory was unde cussion, "but they make a great mi there. Any traveling swindler will ten victims in town to one in the cou The farmer has to get his eye teet. early in the game or lose his acres. T is hardly a day in the year that some is not trying to get the better of him. most of us can see through a stone as quick as any other class. Lord ye, but I'll bet I turn down more ras in a month than any lawyer, doctor merchant does in five years. Do you these knuckles? Well, I bruised th against a fellow's head only four d ago, and it was rather a funny thing. was a well dressed, soft talking strang and he drove up to my place and took out to the barn for a private intervi-I rather expected he wanted to sell me gold brick, but he had a better thi After a good deal of mystery he said:

"'Mr. Thompson, there is a treasure $100,000 in gold on your farm, and you'll give me $1,000 I'll locate the exa

"That trick is as old as the hills." have turned it down 20 different time You see, they always want their $1.00 in advance. Then they tell you not t dig until the moon is full and so have time to get away. When they don't do that way, they have a box planted for you to dig up. There is no key to it, an while the farmer is taking it to town t have it opened the fakir is traveling the other way. They won't wait for their $1,000 out of the box and always have a good reason why. This chap said the $100,000 was stolen from a bank years before, and his conscience wouldn't let him touch the coin. My conscience didn't come into the deal at all, you know.

"I was just getting over a boil on my neck and was still feeling angry, and I determined to give that chap a lesson. He was willing to go with me and point out the field in which the treusure was buried. He led the way across the pasture to the cornfield and said it was somewhere under the ten acres of soil. He was asking me if I could raise the thousand, when I let drive at him. He went end over end and got up and started on a run. There was a barbed wire fence around the lot, with my old dog holding the only gate, and we had fun for about an hour. At least it was fun for me. He had some spunk and was a good runner, but he'll never forget that hour as long as he lives. I had been swindled! on a patent gate, Bohemian outs, a parlor organ, Leghorn chickens and other things, and I made him pay up for all. When I wanted a breathing spell, the old | e The Brooklyn strike of street railway | dog kept him on the run, and I've got his