Charged With Untritog Concealed Wenpuns - He Calls David O'Acefe a Liar-Magistrate Orders His Semovat From the Court Room-A Lively and Exciting

On Monday afternoon another grievance in connection with the Dalan tar and J. Walker, J.P. Walter Keeler laid information against John E. Dolan for carry. ing a revolver during the past month John McIntyre, Q C., conducted the case for the plaintiff, while A. B. Quoningham acted as counsel for defeudants John Patterson was the first witness. He swore that he lived in Sporrington and was acquainted with Dolan. Saw him with a revolver on July 18:55; noticed the shape of it in his pocker. Cross-examined, he said he had not heard any threats since the areault. Was on horseback when he eaw Dolan in the bushes just in the act o putting a revolver in his pocket.

John Anglin was the next witness. Was a resident of Storrington also. Knew Dolan. Saw him have a revolver about July 17th or 18th. He took it out of his pocket. Witness asked him if he had any right to carry it. Defendant said he had permission because he had been threaten ed. Cross examined, witness said there was a good deal of feeling against the Dolane. Would consider that the father's I fe was safe there. Told Loucks about seeing the revolver.

The third witness, Mrs. Irving Card, on being aworn, stated that she lived in Keelerville. Knew the Dolane, Saw young standing at the corner father's house. He fired it twice, act as an insult to her husband. Her children, who were with her, ran and cried, "Will he shoot us?" Next morning young Dolan met witness and said he was sorry that he fired the revolver, and that he meaut no harm. Young Dolan, sworn, said that he saw his father dragged out of bed by marked men on June 21st. Told of the occurening language used toward witness. William Loucks eald he (witness) had better keep out of this or he would get into mouble. Carried revolver afterwards, as he was afraid they would do him bodily injury. Irving Card also eatd that witness or his father would have to get out Thought he was in danger yet, unless be carried firearms. Witness did not see Mrs. Card when she was assaulted.
