A Flying Column is to be Equipped With Specially Designed Guns-The Borrs are Said to be Eunning short of & mmunition-trrest of Those Who scrively Display sympathy With the Boers.

London, Dec. 20 -The volunteering enthusiasm continues everywhere. It is remarkably strong in Scotland. A colonel in Edinburgh says he could lead a thousand men out of that city in a week. Among the prominent volunteers are the earl of Dudley and lord Arthur Grosvenor, son of duke of Westminster. The year manry are to wear neutral tint cloth shoot ing jackete, not necessarily uniform, felt hate, breeches and gaiters. All must be good riders and marksmen.

The lord mayor of London, Alfred New ton, is raising and equipping a force of a thousand volunteers among the city corps. The large city firms are contributing the necessary assistance. Col. Sir Charles Howard Vincent, commander of the Queen's Westmineter volunteers, has also offered to raise a regiment of a thousand picked marksmen

There are being prepared at the Woolwich areenal, for shipment on December 21st, eight five inch guns, on specially designed carriages. These guns are adapted for the use of a flying column, in view of fecility of attack, pureuit and retreat. They are of long range, and fire fifty pound shrappel or lyddite shells, or common shells. The areenal is also fur niebing eighteen more five inch howitzers The war office definitely denies the re

The Standard hines editorially this morning that if Portugal continues to al low supplies of war material and foreign volunteers to reach the Transvaal through Delagoa Bay, England will have something to say in the matter.

Rudyard Kipling is actively promoting the enrolment of Sussex volunteers. Commenting on the superiority in range of the Boer artillery at Coleneo, the Timesays it hopes it will convince the British military authorities "that there are guos in existence capable of being carried about, and making excellent practice at a range which our field artillery cannot command It is not too much to say that our war office is not the only one in Europe that ignores this important fact."

Short Of Ammunition DURBAN, Natal, Dec. 15. - (delayed) Mr.

Moss, proprietor of the Transvaal Critic, expelled from the Transvaal the government, has arrived here. says that the Boers are running short of ammunit on for their Cruzot guns. The government is manufacturing shells for the captured British ar illery.

Are Quite Disloyal. QUEENSTOWN, Cape Colony, Dec. 15, (delayed)-Natives are looting extensively in colony is practically without any government. A town guard has been formed at Cala, the members supplying their own arms and ammunition. The railway between Sterketroom and ludwe has been badly damaged by the Boera.

STERRSTROOM, Cape Colony, Dec. 15, (delayed) -In consequence of the British reverse at Stormberg the whole country to the north of this place is in a state of rebellion. The natives there and in Basutoland are losing confidence in the British.
