stores life and energy to those who are cak and run down, makes the pale cheek rosy, strengthens the heart, creates new nerve thate and makes the blood rich and red. Mr. Alex. Drum mend, 24 Palace St., London, Out. made this statement of his wife's case:

"My wife had been ailing for a long time with weak nerves and impoverished blood, when she commenced taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. "They proved to be the medicine that she needed. making her nervous system strong and giving rich, red color to her blood. She has been in good health since taking this splendid remedy, far better indeed than she had been for years, and I am only too pleased to recommend their e to other sufferers."

SIR WILFRID LAURIER OUTRANKS TUPPER.

Cauadian Almanac Gives List of Canadian Titles-Six prittsh Perroges and Baron

etcles filled by Canadians-Other littes One of the new features of the Canadian almanac for 1900 is a list of all the Canadians who can boast of imperial titles. Most of us will be surprised to learn that the list is so long. To be sure, we have not many hereditary titles in Canada, and this is as it should be, for Milng, Dr. Parkin, Collingwood hereditary honors are 'not 'in har- Schreiber, A. R. C. There are six British peerages filled by Canadians. The Canadian peers are : Susan Agnes, baroness Macdonald of Earnscliffe; Sir George Stephen, baron Mount Stephen: William, baron de Blaquiere: Sir Donald A. Smith, baron Strathcona and Moun Royal: Sir Arthur L. Haliburton. baron Haliburton, and Sir Udolphus Aylmer, baron Aylmer. To these may be added Charles Colmore Grant, baron de Longueuil, whose title is a creation of Louis XIV France, and dates back to 1700. Of baronets we have six: Sir W

G. Johnson, Sir Melville Parker, Sir F. A. Robinson, Sir William Rose Sir Charles J. Stuart and Sir Charle Tupper. These Baronetcies and the peerages above constitute the here- ing: ditary titles held by Canadians. The list of knights is much longer First come "those of the G.C.M.G (Grand Cross, St. Michael and

TRADING STAMPS GIVEN.

Dyspepsia gives one about as pleasant a feeling in the pit of the stomach as that experienced when a facetious friend displays his geniality by digging you violently in the epigastric region with his umbrella. Hutch Tablets, chocolate coated, relieve that awful distress, caused by an imperfect digestion, instantly. They assist and promote the secretion of the gastric juices, facilitate assimilation, and being slightly cathartic, entirely remove from the intestines any objectionable matter which may militate against one's health. No other dyspepsia treatment follows so absolutely nature's dictates. Sealed in glass. Put up conveniently for a gentleman's watch pocket or a lady's chatelaine. Hutch Tablets insure a regularity of treatment not to be attained by liquid medicine. You have them with you always.

Ten Hutch Ten Cents. All druggists, or by mail from The Woodward Medicine Co., Limited, 11 Colborne St., Toronto.
