TOO WEAK TO WORK.

A Collingwood, Ont., painter tells how Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills strengthened his heart, invigorated his nerves, and restored his health.

Weak heart and weak nerves mean weak body. No one can be strong and vigorous with the heart and nerves disordered or diseased. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pillsnotonly overcome all danger due to irregularity of the heart ing the nerves and enriching the blood

Mr. Geo. Gray, well-known painter, corner of Napier and Simwood, Ont, says "For fifteen years past I have been afflicted with very weak nerves and heart trouble. I never could obtain sufficient sleep and felt as tired when I got up in the morning as when I went to bed. In addition to this M suffered much from palpitation of the heart and shortness of breath. My blood was thin and watery and I soon lost flesh and became debilitated. It was a great task for me to walk any distance or follow my usual occupation. "In March last I got a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and they did me so much good that I bought another box. The great change for the better they have worked on the is wonderful My nervous system is now as strong as ever, my blood has been enriched and my heart beats strong and natural.
