SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—A despatch from Cavite says it is probable that two of the vessels sunk by Dewey's fleet may yet be raised and rendered serviceable.

Ponce, island of Porto Rico, Aug. 2 .-The Porto Ricans of Ponce lined the streets by the hundreds and filled the air with cheering on the arrival of Gen. Garretteon's brigade from Yanco. The arrival of these troops and those on the St. Louis makes the fighting etrength of the Americans now operating near Ponce about 9,000 men, equal to the entire force of Spanish regular troops on the island. Gen. Garretteon's camp is temporarily located on the outskirt of the town. There was some firing last night between Capt. Austin's pickets and the Spaniards in the bush, but no damage was done. It is the general belief that there will be no forward movement of the main body of troops until the other transports arrive.
