AWFUL SKIN HUMOR CURED BY CUTICURA

A MOTHER'S SWORN STATEMENT

My little daughter May's head and face broke out in one solid mass of bleeding sores, and one of her cars was so affected, that the doctor thought that it would slough off. Her suffering was intense, getting no rest at all unless under the influence of epiates. The physician tried every known remedy, but instead of getting better, they seemed to get worse all the time. Distracted with her condition, I was advised to try Curiouna REME-DIES. Indministered Currouna RESOLVENT inwardly, I bathed her with Currouna Boar, and used Curiouna (cintment) freely. Refore the Arat week I noticed that the tittle sufferer was beginning to yet relief. In less than two months my little darling was entirely cured and well, she got as fat as a little pig, and no marks whatever are to be seen from the effects Mrs. JAS. Mr. Thurston spent April 1st there waiting for mail, and realizing that it was Easter season he deeply lamented the absence of Easter bonnets and feathers, for women were nowhere to be seen.

While at Dunvegan he addressed a letter in which he proclaimed the Edmonton route as a farce, so far as the l'ukon is concerned. It is a route that has been cursed to the skies, although it leads to one or two gold districts. If he wished to create a hotter place than earth, he would send people out to track the Peace river. Travel along there is slow and difficult, it taking the party fourteen days to go from So John to Hudson Hope, a distance of fitry miles. The bardships mot with were simply indescribable. So far only one hundred men have gone above St. John, while bundreds have turned back. Johnston's party pushed forward to the Finlay river, where light washings of gold are to be had. They did not delay there but continued on until Fort Graham, forty miles north of the Finlay river, was reached on July lat. Ou their way they met inspector Moody's party, in which were Mesers. Latterty and Tobin, graduates of the Royal military coilege. At Fore Graham a division occurred in the party, Johnston, the leader, proving a failure, and other members being too lasy to work amicably. Thurston, MacFarlane, Wark branched out divided. 'ney do not expect to reach the Pelley river his year, but will continue the march next year. Mr. Thurston does not intend to return to civilization until the fall of 1899, and although he says he has forgotten all about gold, he will search the northern regions for what there is in them. The party have provisions to last them until December. Mr. Thurston sent home several photographs taken during their jour ney north.

the progress of christianity in Japan has lately come to the notice of your correspondent. Your readers will remember a time ago by Miss Edith Washington, M. L.A., describing her trip into Japan and her first impressions of things Japanese. Miss Washington is stationed at Kofu, about 100 miles inland from Tokio, and is one of three who comprise the total foreign

We all wore black skirts and light waiste, Miss Proston a white, Miss Robertson a white and black eilk lace and I blue silk with cream lace collarette. The invitation told us that as this was only a little country village in the mountains they could not give us anything good to eat, so we must not dress up very much. When we got there at seven o'clock we were taken upstairs to a room where the other guests were already seated on the floor, the count in the place of honor by himself but seated Ponies will play for a purse of $30, the carelessly, with his feet at one side as we It goes farthest. were shown to places of honor above all the heads of departments and next to the count.
