WHY SPAIN IS FICKLE.

Public Opinion Molded by Gay Senioritas.

CAFE CHANTANT IN SEVILLE.

The Spaniards took grave offense long ago when a book of travels was entitled "The Land of the Cigarette," but "The Land of the Cigarette" would be even more appropriate than that which proved so offensive. There is no country on earth, not even Turkey, where cigarette smoking is so generally practiced.

Blending teas is an art, and perfuming teas is an art. But the expert is not born who can imitate the wholesome flavor and rich body which are drawn from the honest natural bouquet of Monsoon Indo-Ceylon Tea. It is one of those pure teas which lose none of their virtues in the drawing when cooled and warmed over again. It stands every test. TRY Monsoon

IT'S IN THE BOND.

A shoe man cannot put a No. 7 1/2 B shoe on an 8 C foot without hurting the foot, the shoe, the dealer's trade and the maker's repute—if the shoes are stamped with their name and price.

Neither can the shoe man fit six shapes of feet with one shape of shoes with like results—but some dealers are shortsighted.

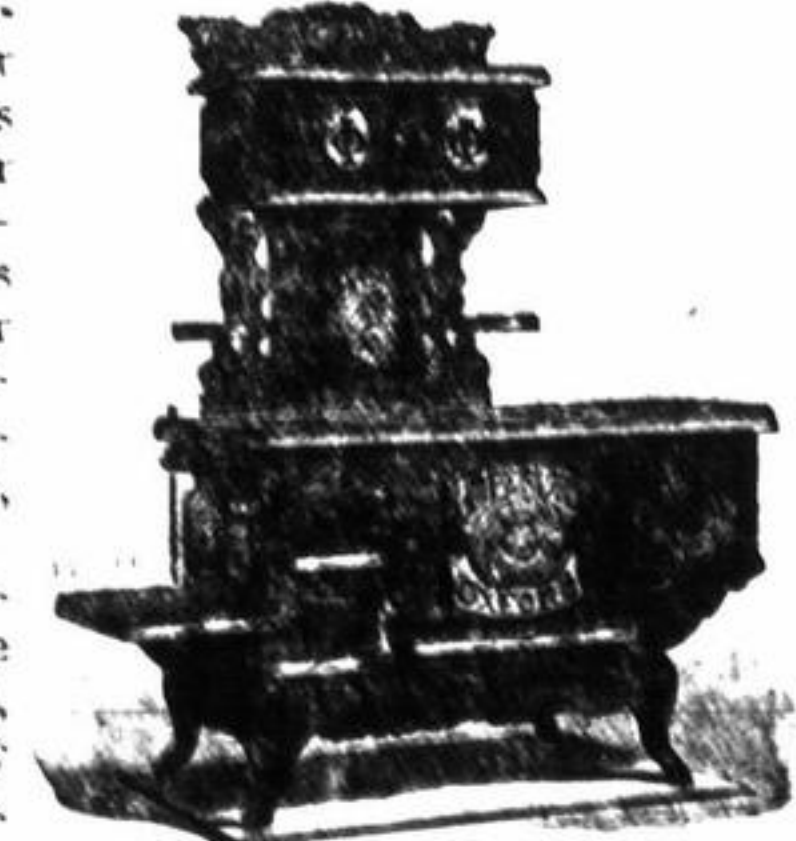

So the owners of the "Slater Shoe" stores, in their sole control contract with the makers, had to bind themselves to carry in stock enough shoes to represent all the fourteen shapes, eleven sizes, five widths and twelve leathers of "The Slater Shoe."

New goods coming in every day. Stamped on the soles: $3.00, $4.00 and $5.00.
