TO-DAY'S POLICE COURT.

Six Lads Charged With Disorderly Conduct -All Dismissed.

At the police court this morning James Watte, aged fourteen; Albert Stansbury, tourteen; Joseph Young, fourteen; Robert Young, nine; Walter Conley, fourteen; and Joseph Feeney, fourteen; were charged with disorderly conduct in having played cards on the steps of St. Paul's church. Feeney and James Watte pleaded not guilty; they were only spectators. The other four acknowledged their guilt. Thomas Feeney appeared for his son, say. ing the lad had been sent off to school and was thought to have gene there. The mothers of the other lade were present and offered various excuses for the conduct of their cone. Two of the lade are employed. The magietrate gave them a sound lecture, warning them to behave in the future, for if they came before him again they would be severely dealt with. John Marcey was charged with break. ing the city ordinances by breaking-in and training a horse in the city park. Ho pleaded not guilty. Caretaker Philips was present and said Marcey was not the man wanted. The guilty man drives for a local veterinary surgeon.

First Division Court, September sittings of the first division court were held to day with Judge Wilki son presiding. The docket was the smallest presented in some months. These cases were disposed of :

Elevatora Somewhat Cseful. Grocers and butchers in the lower part of the city take exception to the statement made by a retail merchant, branding the elevatore as of little value to the mer chants of the city. The marine trade to them this year has greatly exceeded that of many years, and was ahead of all anticipations. Very few of the boats which touched here le's without procuring more or less ir visions. In view of such statement, the value of the elevators to the city cannot be questioned. Both the M T. company's and Richardsons' elevators are kept busy while there is any grain moving. During the last two days the former elevator received 41K1, (KK) bushe's of grain from the lake, which represented ten boate. The majority of there took on provisions for the next trip.
