Should Be Reprobated. The petition against the election of Mr. Hartly in Kingston has been dismissed on the request of the petitioners themselves, who threw up their hands after the case had been several days in hearing. A most sweeping bill of charges was laid against Mr. Hartly and his political friends, but not enough testimony could be offered to substantiate any of them, whilst the great bulk of the accusations were manifestly raised for a bluff. This sort of thing deserves to be reprobated by honest politicians. There is in truth enough of actual bribery practiced in Canada to give the people cause to blush for their abuse of political freedom. The facts are shameful enough without raising a hue and cry out of mere sensation. Before this trial the newspapers all over the country published long accounts of the raising of a huge bribery fund in Toronto for use in the Kingston election. Particulars and the names of respectable citizens were published in those reports. The idea seems to prevail that all bluffs are fair in politics. No other conclusion is now open but that the particular of the alleged bribery fund were invented, for when it came to the time to offer the proof, the well-known accused declined to come out into the open. Kingston conservatives have a lesson to learn from this election trial. It appears that Dr. Smythe cannot be run as a parliamentary candidate without wholesale accusations and rumors of the corruption of his opponents following in the wake of every step he takes. Next time there is a election in Kingston the conservatives would do well to keep up a less sensational and dangerous campaign.

His Death Means Death. New York, Oct. 6.—John DeLano, a former county clerk of Brooklyn and a former politician, is dying. Some time since he was afflicted with a tumor on his neck. A growth appeared and later it developed into a carcinoma. About a week ago he had to go to bed, and he has been there ever since suffering from blood poisoning.

This morning James McCammon, livery driver, purchased a pretty bay mare from J. Smith, which he will hold for better or for ill.

BATTLE WITH INDIANS.

Four American Soldiers Killed; Others Wounded.

REDSKINS ON THE WARPATH

GOVERNMENT ASKED TO SEND MORE TROOPS.

The Tribe Rescued And Refused to Give up Indians Who Had Been Arrested For Various Offences—Attacked the Regulars While Escaping—Their Loss is Not Known—A Rumor That General Bacon And His Staff Have Been Massacred.

WALKER, Minn., Oct. 6.—The Bear Island Indians refuse to give up the United States marshal who endeavors to capture them. The troops of the United States will be called into service to assist the marshal. The Indians say they will resist as long as a man lives. It is feared that other branches of the Chippewas will come to their aid and serious trouble appears to be imminent.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 6.—A battle took place yesterday morning between United States regulars under Gen. Bacon, and Bear Island Indians, in which four soldiers were killed and nine wounded. How many Indians were killed is not ascertained. Gen. Bacon had gone to Bear Island to enforce the authority of the United States marshal in that district. The marshal had arrested several Indians for various offences, but the other Indians on the reservation rescued their brethren and would not give them up.

According to a despatch to the Journal from Walker, Minn., Gen. Bacon, with his forces of 100 regulars on small river steamers, reached a point close to Bear Island early on Tuesday and proceeded overland towards the Indian reserve. During a halt and while preparations were being made for dinner the Indians opened fire on the regulars. The Indians were concealed in the bushes and the soldiers at once sought shelter themselves. The firing became general.

A body of Indians, said to number 130 or 200, made a rush towards several deputy marshals who had two prisoners in their possession, but the regulars' heavy fire beat them back. Six Indians were seen to be shot and fired at after volleys from the steamer that had carried the troops. Inspector Tinker, on the tugboat Chief, was shot through the leg and the steerman of the Jennie was shot in the arm. Later the reports say the regulars are entrenched and will make no further move until reinforcements arrive.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 6.—An unconquered soldier has reached here that the regulars and Gen. Bacon have been massacred by the Indians at Leech Lake.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Official despatches received here last night brought to the authorities the sudden realization of an Indian rising of more than ordinary dimensions. The first despatch was as follows:

WALKER, Minn., Oct. 5.—Secretary of the Interior, Washington: The Indians twenty-five miles from here on the mainland of North Bear Island opened fire on the troops under command of Gen. Bacon, without warning 11:30 a.m. I fear the army in the field is not strong enough to subdue the Bear Island Indians. How many are hurt on their side cannot be told. A large force should be sent here at once. It is now war and the government must protect the people. (Signed) Tinker, Inspector.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 6.—A special report has been received from the regulars in regard to their staff correspondent at the scene of the Indian trouble. "Have not heard of your man Denton since the fight began at 11:30 a.m. Last I heard of him he was among the Indians firing with Brill and the Indians firing at them. I fear for his safety as well as for Gen. Bacon and his men. The situation is very grave. There has been a special train ordered here from Brainerd by the county commissioners with arms and ammunition. We have had received information from Washington that troops are on their way here. Everyone is very much excited, yet the situation is such as to warrant it."

WALKER, Minn., Oct. 6.—The Pillagers and other neighboring Indians of the White Earth reservation claim to have many reasons for their outbreak, although they attempt to bring in some of the Indians to the United States court at Duluth in connection with the selling cases. Their grievances go back through many years and there have been legislative and other attempts to settle them and one of the latest being the Nelson law regarding the sale of timber in the Indian lands. However the Indians claimed that the methods of disposing of this land were cumbersome and expensive and that they were the sufferers. In regard to selling cases they were inquired of and they claimed that the deputy marshals left them to find their own way home from Duluth, without having paid them the proper mileage. This is denied by the deputies. The leader in the trouble with the Pillagers is an old warrior, Bag-Ah-Man-Go-Ship, not a chief, who recently returned from court and who was once arrested sought by their deputies. The alleged trouble was being turned into a political matter in Duluth and the other Indians to protest against the way he claimed to have been treated.

The United States marshal insisted that the old man's story is unfounded but they had been stirred to such a pitch that trouble apparently became unavoidable in view of the deeply seated feeling of general ill-will in regard to their timber lands and their lands were being general.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 6.—A telegram received at midnight from Walker, Minn., says a fierce fight between the Indians and troops is still in progress. Marshal O'Connor reports several fatalities among the soldiers but does not give the number. A special train is coming from Brainerd with 100 regulars.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 6.—The loss on either side is not accurately known, but it is believed that the number of soldiers were killed, which doubtless the number of redskins were exterminated.

Major Wilkinson. "Steady men," he called, "keep cool now, keep cool."

Again there came a volley from the Indians. The Krag-Jorgensen of the soldiers answered the challenge just as the redskins made a rush. Half a dozen of them dropped and the rest fell back yelling like fiends.

The order was given to charge. The soldiers ran ducking and dropping like grasshoppers, and chased the reds (said to be) into the woods.

The young lieutenant, Morrison, is a plucky one. He had never been under fire before, but there he stood steady as a rock and cool as an iceberg. The men behaved splendidly. O'Connor was put ashore in a hostile country and he ran four miles over the mountains through brush to reach the Leech Lake agency.

The wounded city marshal of Walker was sent home under a Red Cross flag aboard the Flora. He will recover. Marshal O'Connor and deputy marshal Sheehan behaved with the utmost bravery. The latter, an old man of sixty, but the hero of Fort Ridgely, stood yelling at the men to keep their heads down, while himself standing erect and bare-headed.

WALKER, N.Y., Oct. 6.—The reports which come from the Indian side during the morning state that the American soldiers sent out to quell the disturbers yesterday were led into ambush and massacred. The government is hurrying reinforcements to Bear Island, the scene of the uprising, and more battles are looked for. The details of the battle of yesterday are so meagre that it is not known whether the reported massacre is true or not, but the belief at Walker, Minn., is that the regulars were killed in the vicinity of the uprising are arming themselves and preparing to join the troops in fighting the red men.

BANK ROBBED OF $62,000.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 6.—The Molson's bank in this city has been robbed of a large sum of money, said to be in the neighborhood of $62,000. The bank officials and solicitors are very reticent in regard to the matter, although they do not deny that the bank has been robbed. The details of the affair are kept from the public. T. B. Phipps, manager of the bank, left Tuesday morning for Russell on a shooting trip, and F. McBeth, accountant and acting manager of the bank during Mr. Phipps' absence, was seen by a reporter.

His statements were extremely guarded. "For any enquiries of such a nature," he said, "I must refer you to the bank's solicitors, under whose direction I act during the absence of the manager." The robbery was not discovered until yesterday at noon, so that it can be safely inferred that the safe was not broken into or any evidence left in the building by the robbers. In fact, it is asserted the vault was opened by the regular combination. This adds much to the mystery, as only one man in the bank knows the whole combination, each clerk who uses the vault locking a portion. It is said that the money stolen was in bank notes, and the robbery is believed to have taken place since September 25th.

It is not impossible that arrests will be made before another day goes by. The absence of any official statement is partially accounted for by apparent lack of authority on the part of both acting manager and solicitor to give out any information. They both declare that they have no authority to make any public statement. T. Walford Thomas, Montreal, general manager of Molson's bank, confirms the report of the robbery. He was notified early yesterday morning that $62,000 had been taken. Out of this $25,000 was in un negotiable notes so that $37,000 is the real loss of the bank. Manager Phipps has been communicated with and will be back in the city this evening. Instructions in consequence of the robbery have been issued from the head office of the bank in Montreal to the various branches to keep a man on guard at night over the vault until further notice.

Winnipeg, Man., Oct. 6.—There are no new developments in the Molson's bank robbery yet. Five combination locks and one key lock have to be opened before the treasury compartment can be entered. Each combination is known only to one man and the final door opening is by the combination lock and two men must be present when the door is opened. One of these combinations is supposed to be known only to the manager of the bank and the other to the accountant or in the absence of either by some one designated by the manager. There are probably three or four members of the Molson's bank staff who know the combination of the main portion of the vault.

It is learned that the manager a month ago received a warning from a detective that an attempt would be made to rob the bank. The detective gave the name of one of the persons implicated in the plot. In consequence of the warning two clerks have slept in the bank since September 1st. That the plot had any connection with the robbery of the $62,000 is not believed. The man whose name was given to the manager was in jail at that time and is still there serving a three-month term in the Penitentiary for their own apprehensions. A later report says they were held in $5,000 bail each to appear at the next term of the court. C. H. McKee, Paterburg, on the same charge, was treated in like manner.

Brandon's city council complains that the street railway there does not live up to its contract, and have notified the company that it must do so or forfeit its charter. Alderman Washington declared it was an evasive answer the way the railway treated the council. It is understood other cities had such independent objections.

Robert McKenna, a notorious Toronto thief, was up before magistrate Denison on Tuesday for stealing a cabinet of tobacco from the G. T. R. freight sheds. Constable O'Connell declared positively that he had seen McKenna at the sheds on the day of the robbery. McKenna denied it. While in jail awaiting transportation to the Ontario penitentiary McKenna had been in jail on the day of the robbery, and for many days before and after. McKenna will be released. Mr. Denison said there was no use in committing O'Connell giving evidence before him again.

THE SECOND IN WINNIPEG.

Union Bank Lost $40,000 Temporarily Ten Years Ago.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 6.—The Molson bank robbery is the second large bank robbery that has taken place in Winnipeg. Ten years ago the Union bank of Canada in that city suffered the temporary loss of $40,000 in gold and bills, which were taken from the office by one of the clerks instead of being put back in the safe at the close of the day's business. The clerk, who left the city during the same night, was arrested in Pembina, Dakota, but afterwards released, and the money, which had been left behind, was recovered within a couple of days, being found in a valise in the back seat of a hotel on Main street. The hotel proprietor and another man were arrested as accomplices in the theft, but the case against them failed in the assize court, it being found impossible to trace the money to them in such a way as would imply guilty knowledge. The case attracted widespread interest at the time, and led to a $50,000 suit for damages against the bank by a man named Diamond, who left Winnipeg for St. Paul on the day following the robbery and was arrested on the train at the instance of the bank on suspicion of being concerned in the affair. The case was afterwards settled out of court.

Many Charges Failed. SARNIA, Ont., Oct. 6.—As thickly as the leaves on the trees outside the court house swirled down to the ward yesterday, have fallen the charges in the election petition against H. J. Pettypiece, M.P.P. for East Lambton. Messrs. Nesbitt and Macpherson, without attempting to justify them, abandoned seventeen charges, and after more or less show of trying to prove thirteen others they too were crossed off the list of particulars. Fifty-seven counts went to make up the copious type-written volume of charges. One case has been reserved for judgment, that in which Samuel Dew, Forest, a load of wood when they was out of work and in actual want. Four cases remain to be heard; three have to be concluded.

SARNIA, Ont., Oct. 6.—This morning the personal charges against Mr. Pettypiece were dismissed and all other charges so far. The charge of procuring railway tickets for voters was taken up. The plaintiff asked for an adjournment to obtain distant evidence. An adjournment was allowed until October 15th to allow plaintiff to secure evidence.

A Bad Drowning at Troy. TROY, N.Y., Oct. 6.—Four persons were drowned in the Hudson river by the capsizing of a yacht a few miles north of the city last night. The dead are: N. L. Woodbury, commanders of Troy yacht club; Stephen W. Mallory, book-keeper, state prison of Troy; Miss Nellie Brisbane, a widow of Waterford, Miss Lizzie Savage, also of Waterford.

(It is altogether probable that the Stephen W. Mallory above referred to is the son of A. W. Mallory, Mallorytown. He had been engaged in Troy as a book-keeper for a number of years.)

The Statement Refuted. WINNIPEG, Ont., Oct. 6.—Dr. King, managing director of the Ontario natural gas and oil company, denies the rumor that Toledo is to be supplied with gas from the Essex fields through Detroit. "There is absolutely no truth in the story," said he. "We have in Detroit and Windsor a sufficient market for the gas. To attempt to supply Toledo would ruin the fields. Our company was approached some time ago with reference to sending gas to Toledo, but we declined to enter into the proposition. The capacity of the Essex fields is not sufficient to permit our doing so."

A Young Lad Subdued. VICTORIA, B.C., Oct. 6.—Warren Walker, aged about twenty, has committed suicide in mortification at his arrest on the charge of stealing a shotgun.
