FOUNDOUT

A good many ladies have found out that our Cloth Jackets, in addition to being up-to-date in style and finish, are decidedly lower in price and better value than those shown in Dry Goods stores. Our specialties being Furs and Mantles enables us to concentrate our energies on these two lines that, as a rule, we are able to offer a little better article for a little less money than our competitors. No use quoting prices until you see the goods, but we do say that our New Cloth Jackets at $1.35, $6, $8.25 and $7.85 are unsurpassed in this city for style, materials or price.

ATTACK ON SIR WILFRID.

The Supremacy of the English Language Dealt.

The Minister, Montreal, takes exception to Sir Wilfrid Laurier's declaration before the Queen's university of the English language is rapidly taking the place of all the others of the world, and it says: "It required an Anglomaniac to utter such a senseless thing in public. The English language is spreading the world over, it is true, and that is easily explained, the English people being the greatest travellers under the sun, and preferring all things to that of their foggy island, a thing for which they cannot be blamed. It is not the place of the Hindoos. More especially does it not take the place of the French language, which is always the language of diplomacy and the one which is most known among men of letters and cultured minds the world over. Neither will it take the place of German, which is the language of one-third of the American nation. It does not take the place of the Spanish language, which is spoken in the whole of South America. On the whole it does not exist, and will not exist, any dialect to disappear, and Mr. Laurier knows it well."

A Good Man Goes.

London Advertiser.

In losing the Rev. Dr. Coburn, who was regally buried in Brantford, Canadian Presbyterianism and Canadian citizenship lose one of their brightest ornaments. Whether as pastor, preacher, educationist, or moving force of important denominational committees, he was the tireless worker, the cheerful and courageous leader, the man richly endowed with the saving grace of common sense. It is hard to part suddenly with such a one; but it is a matter of comfort to reflect that the good influences set in motion and fostered by John resemble Tennyson's brook, in this, that they go on forever.

Plenty of Mink.

The ducks in Oswego are full of mink. The fur is not valuable at this season of the year, as they are just about taking on the winter coats. In the vicinity of the highhouses there are thousands of them. They live on fish, and many is the nice string of bass that they have caught this season. One evening a man spotted two black bears and placed them in the water on a string. When he went to take them there was nothing remaining but the heads. The mink had devoured them.

WILL NOT BROOK DELAY

Marchand Must Get Out Of Fashoda.

IRISH CHEER MARCHAND.

REDMOND SAYS THEIR SYMPATHIES ARE WITH FRANCE.

The Farnellite Leader At A Home Rule Meeting In Dublin—Russia's Conduct Will Be In Accordance With Her Alliance With France—Trying To Raise Loans In Paris And Berlin—The French Position.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—Government circles here are apparently satisfied that the Fashoda question will not lead to war. At the same time the determination is reiterated not to budge from the position which the British government has taken up, no matter what the outcome may be. It is said on good authority that the British government has already determined not to brook unreasonable delay and that in the event of France declining to evacuate Fashoda the Marchand party will be removed from that place, although it is not expected that it will be necessary to resort to such extremes.

BERLIN, Oct. 22.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Cologne Gazette, in a despatch to that paper on the political situation, says: "Here also interest in the Nile question is rapidly increasing and Russia's conduct in the matter will conform to the expectations formed in connection with her alliance with France."

According to the Gazette correspondent the Russian finance minister, acting in concert with count Mouraviev, minister of foreign affairs, has attempted to raise a large loan in Paris and a similar attempt will be made in Berlin.

PARIS, Oct. 22.—A despatch to the Temps from London asserts that the precise position regarding the Upper Nile question is this: Great Britain having declared her claims on Fashoda, asked France to submit whatever proposals she wished to make. M. Delcasse, the French foreign minister, replied plainly that France demanded an outlet on the Nile, a reservation being made concerning the geographical points to be determined upon. Lord Salisbury is now consulting his colleagues on the subject.

REDMOND CHEERS MARCHAND.

DUBLIN, Oct. 22.—William Redmond, Farnellite member of parliament for East Cork, addressing a home rule meeting here last evening, called for cheers for major Marchand, which were given with great cheerfulness. Mr. Redmond said: "The sympathies of Irishmen are with France."

FRANCE GROWS DEFIANT.

PARIS, Oct. 22.—A remarkable change has come over French opinion on the Fashoda question during the last forty-eight hours. The attitude of the press is more inflated and more defiant. This is partly due to the tone of the British press, but more to the threatening speech of the British chancellor of the exchequer, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, which the Autaric calls "a provocation that is almost a threat of war."

The municipal council of Paris is abused on all sides for exhorting the government to avert war. In government circles the disposition seems to be to resist the British demands. It is reported that the policy of France, as definitely stated to Great Britain, includes the retention of Fashoda. Rumors that the Russian foreign minister, count Mouraviev, has assured M. Delcasse of Russia's support in the controversy, tends to stiffen the backs of the high officials, although these continue to maintain a conciliatory tone and declare that France is prepared to carry amiablely to the utmost limits consistent with her rights and dignity.

PARIS, Oct. 22.—The Temps publishes a despatch from Nantes saying that the 4th battalion of the Infantry regiments, comprising the 21st division with headquarters at Nantes, have completed their war equipment. Each man, it is stated, has received 120 rounds of ammunition and his camp outfit and the officers of all four of the regiments of that division have been supplied with revolver cartridges. The division is now in readiness to march when ordered, and it is believed these troops are intended for coast defence. The defence of St. Nazaire is also being organized.

TO RECEIVE THEM WELL.

QUEBEC, Oct. 22.—The arrival of Canada's new governor-general and lady Minto and their first landing on Canadian soil, which will take place here on the 15th proximo, is nearly as can be judged, is to be made on the occasion of an imposing military demonstration. All of the local corps are to be ordered out. The Hon. Sir John A. Macdonald, the larger under command of major J. H. Hetherington, will be drawn up on the breakwater on the arrival of the steamer to welcome the governor-general and escort him to the citadel.

THREE SCHOOLBOYS KILLED.

BUFFALO, Oct. 22.—Frederick Preiner, William Preiner, and Jean Costaworth were instantly killed today by a passenger train. The boys had run away from school in Cheektowaga and were stealing a ride to Buffalo on a freight train. When the train stopped they jumped off, landing right in front of the passenger train, which was making forty miles an hour. Their bodies were frightfully disfigured.

DISMISSED THE SEAT.

BELLEVILLE, Ont., Oct. 22.—William John Allen has resigned as member of the local legislature for North Hastings. W. J. Moore, M.D., solicitor for Mr. Allen, called on William Cross, solicitor for the petitioner, and informed him that his client had decided to give up the seat. The matter of the costs in the case will, in all probability, be settled between the parties.

IS A WHITE ELEPHANT.

This Is The Opinion of Andrew Carnegie.

NO EXPANSION IS POSSIBLE

IN THE HORNET'S NEST OF EUROPEAN RIVALRY.

Carnegie Is Not So Enthusiastic About Colonial Expansion As Some of His Countrymen—Continued Envois Might Result—A False Step May Have Very Serious Consequences.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—Andrew Carnegie has arrived at his home in this city after his summer's sojourn in Europe. In an interview he said:

"If the United States is going to undertake government of the Philippines and go in for expansion throughout the world, putting her head in the hornet's nest of European rivalry, there can be no prosperous business. We shall be subject to wars and war's alarms."

"Business is the child of security and peace. The entrance of the United States as a new power in the far east will set every one of the present powers to a study of the question from a new standpoint. We shall be compelled to increase our navy."

"We must pay for a large standing army and there is neither rest nor security for us. Before the American people comes now the most serious issue, the issue of independence and secession. A false step now and the future of the republic will, in my opinion, be seriously impaired and its industrial career retarded."

"You do not think that territorial expansion will bring expansion in trade? No, not by any means. The development of one state in the union in peace and security will outweigh all the increase of profits we can get from foreign trade in any of the worthless possessions which we can attempt now to take. The Philippines have a certain trade which cannot be greatly increased; the wants of the people are few; barbarians are no customers; civilized people are the customers of our products."

BRITAIN PREPARING.

Warships' Crews Made Up—Relations Much More Strained.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—The British admiralty has ordered every sea-going warship to have its crew made up to the full complement as ordered in case of mobilization.

PARIS, Oct. 22.—There is no question that the relations between England and France are becoming very much strained. La Temps last night had bitter comments on the British cartoon, which shows France as an organ grinder with a monkey on his barrel organ which is labelled "Fashoda." The Liberte says: "We cannot and will not consent to recall Marchand, which would be purely and simply a humiliation for the French flag which he planted at Fashoda under express orders from his government. If England persists in maintaining her indefensible demand we are ready to run the risks of a refusal as she is to support the consequences of the attitude she has taken."

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 22.—Commenting upon the recent speech of the British chancellor of the exchequer, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, the Novoye Vremya charges the chancellor with making a violent attack upon the French government. A Lutheran missionary and his family at the town of Zuthenberg. The Transvaal government has sent an expedition to punish them. Chief Opepa, with 2,000 followers fully armed, and four cannon supplied by white traders, has attacked the Laager. Heavy fighting is proceeding. The ultimatum of the commanding officer of the Transvaal troops, Gen. Joubert, demanding an unconditional surrender, has been ignored by the attack. He has summoned 3,000 burghers and related to the 5,000 now in the field. The campaign promises to be prolonged.

Gallant Reporter Rescued.

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 22.—While Queen Wilhelmina and her mother were about to take a train yesterday on their return to Abbeville a reporter dressed in a bicycle costume advanced and offered his arm to the queen. He was immediately arrested. It was at first reported that the queen had been assaulted, and great excitement prevailed. But it appeared later that the reporter was subject to derangement. He explains that he merely desired, out of politeness, to escort the queen to the train.

Two By-Laws Carried.

VANCOUVER, B.C., Oct. 22.—Litterlessness and apathy marked the civic voters of Vancouver on Thursday. Three important money by-laws had to be voted on and less than 500 persons went to the polls. The civic ward by-law was carried and also the Oppenheimer by-law. The parks by-law was defeated, the vote in its favor being short by nineteen.

Two More Seats Abandoned.

TORONTO, Oct. 22.—Dr. Willoughby M.P.P., East Northumberland, has declined the seat and the petition dismissed.

There Will Be No Trial in West Horn.

Both the petition and cross petition will be dismissed and Mr. Garrow will resign and a new election occur.

Wife Was Yellow Fever.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 22.—Among the new cases of yellow fever at Baton Rouge is that of Mrs. Foster, wife of governor Foster. The latter refused to leave the state capital when the fever started, believing that it would be ungrateful for a governor to desert, and remained with his wife and six children.

Brunson Once More To Court.

MONTREAL, Oct. 22.—An action has been entered at Sorel against A. A. Brunson, M.P. for Richelieu, charging him with having illegally occupied a seat in parliament after having formally resigned his mandate to the speaker of the house of commons.

HORN GOT OFF.

The Securing Of Money From A Kingston Clergyman

The case against W. R. C. Horn, charged with defrauding Rev. Mr. Short of the sum of $300, was resumed before Judge Price in his chamber this morning, and lasted from eleven o'clock until two this afternoon. The evidence for the defence was taken, the most important being prisoner's. The defendant in denying the conditions under which he worked for the Toronto savings' company, showing great shrewdness. In summing up the evidence, A. B. Cunningham, counsel for defendant, claimed that sufficient evidence had not been given to warrant a conviction. There was a legal doubt as to whether Horn was an agent of the company. No written dismissal had been shown, nor was it proven that he had been dismissed for bad conduct, also the defendant still held his certificate as agent. The Rev. Mr. Short had admitted that Horn had told him that it was not necessary to pay over $100, and his evidence went to show that there had been no intention on Horn's part to defraud. The manager of the company said that Horn had been dismissed last August, but subsequent to that he had been authorized to canvass stock at the parliament buildings in Toronto, and also at Lindsay. This was proof that the company placed confidence in the defendant. When Horn received Rev. Mr. Short's money, he retained his commission and deposited $240 with Mr. Oberdorffer for safe keeping, which was the specific amount due the company. That was not an indication that Horn wished to defraud the company. To be worthy of conviction, it must be shown that there was an intention to defraud when the money was obtained.

J. L. Whiting for the prosecution, held that Horn had worked for the company under special arrangements during the past two years, and after his trip to Lindsay he had been fully dismissed, according to the manager's evidence. When he secured the $300, instead of forwarding the company's share, as an ordinary business man would, he held on to it, saying he intended to make a special trip to Toronto to hand in that amount. In view of his statement that he was authorized to canvass Napanee and other places, the story looked rather shabby.

Judge Price looked upon the case as an ambiguous one. The company when dismissing him as agent should have drawn his papers, and when the manager afterwards sent him out to solicit stock in Toronto and Lindsay, that may have misled Horn. In judging the case the state of Horn's mind must be considered as well as the facts. Evidence showed that he volunteered to take one hundred dollars, which would not likely have been done by a man intent on defraud when $300 were obtainable. The whole difficulty existed through Horn holding the money and going on a spree. If the money had been forwarded to Toronto the company would, no doubt, have issued stock for the amount. So when a doubt existed the defendant must be given the benefit of such. Horn was allowed to go, but was warned not to run himself into such difficulty again.

Ended A Tie.

TORONTO, Oct. 22.—An inter-collegiate match played here this morning between Royal military college, Kingston, and Varsity II resulted in a tie, each team scoring four points.

The ground was soft and slippery and good play could not be expected.

A Game At Brockville.

BRACKVILLE, Ont., Oct. 22.—The junior O. R. F. U. match played here this morning between Varsity III and Brockville II was won by Varsity. Score 2 to 1.

Dr. Ireland Seen.

MONTREAL, Oct. 22.—There is good ground for believing that Dr. Ireland, the missing doctor of Trenton, Ont., is not dead, as was supposed, but that he took one of the outgoing steamers at Father Point for England. A letter received in Montreal states that the missing doctor has been seen at Father Point since the date when he disappeared.
