PAYS TO BUY FURS AND JACKETS FROM

We Sell Up-to-Date Goods at Matchless Prices. Here are a Few Hot Sellers for Cold Weather

CLOTH JACKETS.

No. 55-Ladies' Jackets, made of very heavy Melton. A stylish and serviceable Jacket, well worth $6.00. OUR PRICE $4.85.

No. 66-Ladies' Jackets, made of extra heavy Boucle Cloth, double stitched seams, deep storm collar and well lined throughout, worth $7.50. OUR PRICE $6.00.

No. 88 -Ladies' ... lackets, made from heavy Wool Kersey, fronts faced with Silk, Silk Velvet Collar, colors Black and Green; will compare favorably with dry goods tores' $18.50 Jacket. OUR PRICE $11.

Fur Collarettes,

Ladies' Kid Mitte. extra value. 50c and 75c.

*******

Storm Collars and Caperines like the above. carry the largest stock in Kingston, and many of the various combinations cannot be had elsewhere. A Beauty is our Collarette Combination 9t $5.

LADIES' FUR COATS

at popular prices Raccoon, Electric Seal, Astrachan and Wallaby. Prices $15 and up.

Seal and Persian Lamb Jackets we make to order.

FUR RUFFS

and Cluster Scarfs like the above cut in all the fashionable furs ranging in price from Two Dollars to Twenty-Five.

FUR LINED CAPES.

For many years we have lead the trade in FUR LINED CAPES, and are among the largest manufac turers of these goods in Ontario.

The popular length this season is 30 inches, with a very Full Sweep. We make them with Scarlet, Green and Black Coverings, trimmed down the front, with a deep Storm Collar of Fur to match.

Our prices, any color cloth, with serviceable Fur Linings and Trimmings, are $16.50, $20.00, $25 and $38.

We can save you money on FUR LINED CAPES.

JEWISH

"QUID VETAT RIDENTEN DICERE VERUM?"

The Jews not musical? But it appears | Of leaden death-the old guard crush | To me they're even noted for their

"Their cars," you say, thought the Jew Was noted for his nose most, whilst a

Had all but a proboscis, which out Anything noselike upon me or you." Still such has happened mongst Gentiles too.

(Jew overhearing them).

Yes, dews are famous always for their Since the blest days of the immortal i Yea, long before, when Rachel having

That rich ragout for Isaac, Jacob Poor Exau's blessing, which, in vulgar

He slyly hooked by following his nose, And handed down both traits the sequel shows. For as great Samson's strength lay in his hair. So in our noses we the magnet bear. That draws to us the precious ore that flows Into our coffers, hooked from tientile Unblest, unhonored by our lordly This nose throughout from Beershe be to Dan.

No less than through all time and changes, can Its genuine Semitic kinship show

This nose a challenge is to all the world. Why, sire the very paramids display, Clear as it painted only resterday,

Force of environment, nor change of primal cause

And nature, having fashioned such a DOWN HITY. Had keenly felt an aesthetic duty lo thus continue to the end of time An organ so ideally sublime,

No little pretty, pert, retrouse nose, Nor that and wingred as on the Calmuc Nor chastely chiselled like the dainty But a genut, strong, projecting, honest

The bent and largeness of a manty

For the big, mounty now throughout Hence Wellington and (romwell very no fools;

For though but Gentiles, yet, great nessed, they made Not a name only, but a name that Paid in ground grabben guiners—paid, but

Compared to all that felt to Boths. child's lot. For theirs, though big, we lacked the wage bend-The true persistent set that links the With appetite to spur it, till it gains All fruits of earth, and from its hid den veins Indus the rich ore, which means all things in one: For momes is, when to its roots we've Accommunated energy—a store Laid up of work and its results.

It need by used; but just as gases In coal or powder look as though they power of movement, till they prove let free.

Their fearful force of latent energy. So money can on Ocsa Police pile. Or pitch the pyramids into the Nilv. The Jew is, then, the wise man, for he That out of money every good thing

So Rethechild thought-and everge A Jew of Jews, cast in the very mould Of the sly Jacob—beaped up piles And—calmly to weigh matters always | Of vital air to acrate the blood, erisis Jew-like

With this dear Rothschild's interest | Our competition, yea, ourselves ex For nothing can be done until 'tis | The thing so pretty, which they | the hospital. Visitors: Miss Lottle Ask myself frankly, and torthwith I

Inclines to either side . . . But oh! that hail ed; and now

To despot destiny; the fields all soaked | From all the world, what it is but a With Frenchmen's blood, and all the high ways choked With dead and dring; while, with small remorse, They're chased and trampled by the Prussian horse, us | Who, with drawn swords, like demons, them pursue Plying pellmell; for now 'tis 'sauve Into this nigid set, as hard as stone, qui peut."

Of wind and waves, I cross the seas | Withdrawing heat. And so 'tis scalto night.

wings must fly. And buy up shrunken steeks to swell And treat the world just as the world Is beauty absolute and what is not. Almost to bursting, when from shore to shore The shout is heard of triumph, after I | And we stand foremost in the rolls of |

Have turned to my account their vic He did it too, and made himself a

That grows and widens to the present which gold Scents from afar, instinctive as of old, | Spinoze -need I name him-half-div-

And needs but to be followed, as 'tis! Prone to the earth with secular in-Leaving to fools, for whom such ! things were meant,

From Royal David downward to "Old The bubble fame and all such empty things For, like a red flag to a bull unfurled. As the poor poet in his folly sings.

hope and spring. This nose of noses, as though neither Gives us society, friends, clothes and To which the Semite mounts by in And lands and houses, and all earth Could work change here, as the Pleasures and dignities; yea, once for In physic too, with Jenner we com-Lay central always among nature's The whip hand of the world. This 'tis While yet our wealth has, in the put Not having our grand nose he could > white sires Half naked savages of gross desires.

The savage gainst the savage in fair That petty index of a feeble mind. Fought each dependent, in their dead | To nothing in particular, but our A nose that shows, except to tientiles As slain or slaying, on his few for Or who for sea life grubbed then in the sand.

> Or route and fruits sought reads made to hand By cunning Nature . . . . . . But how wide the space That mearks off these from Abram's lerdly race, We the descendants of that princely That mighty sheik, that noble Abra

The friend of God, who with his own trained bands-Domestics all - resented from reval His nephew Lot, and for his gallant Refused all merden, left all speils in Save what he gave to those, who, in this raid Visitings the first kings had given timely aid. But what a continue now ! Introduch that Jewish people, crosshed by fearth? Pelted and peeled, insulted, spat up-... For not believing what they yet could not They flung them into dangeous there Theultred, test ured, murdered, dispusfor real.

Who sought, like Noah's down in rain through the vigor of the blood and brain In spire of all things, always still the Through the grand none we take in

That sends its pulsing entrents And so the vigour of our race mainschool of life

Our Men's

Hats at $1 are wonderful value. See our $1 Hat.

The Abrahamic generosity Washed clean out of our souls, so far Blucher upon them; then no choice Could do it for us, and if we stand

That the perversion of the best - ac By blighting circumstance, is at By Socrates referring to his own times the worst

And if we cater for ourselves alone, 'lis that our nature, forced by you, has grown As 'tis to day, 'tis not inherent vice Yes, it is England's innings! So, in | Of nature does it, but as into ice Mater is forced by the cold outer air cely fair. Such mighty issues hang on speed To charge to us what you have cultur. If his can smell no better; for we've en there what it will, on lightning's And, hardened thus, we think but of No certain standard to assure us ourselves.

> deserves. But in all walks of life it is the With Moltke, Mendelssohn and Bea constield. The septre readily; while in the van Such is the great Semitic nose, Ill thinkers of the world stands out one man.

His treasured works a deep, exhaust less mine. From which men draw to gild, at sec and hand. With his rich ore their works, and so command. (Immerial shade!) attention to their But money rules the world! Money And so to share the honors of the Their beauty lose, since looked upon And tear, and sultan; brings men For how could half nosed tientiles ate right? Thus in war, music, statescraft, thinking, and To all the feeble strugglers of mar. Into a proverb passed, "rich as a Reyond his nose"; for he had not our reach a height.

Who, lacking our good noses, drop by Thus, standing on a pinnacle of pon So keen of scent for gold, but was so But men affect to scorn us, they | The Hebrew is top awarer of the hour. In this respect, that he preferred to Plest then be nowed! Not the stunted things. Who on an equal footing of brute | Of which the port of the Gentiles Deroid of character or bent, inclined

Is bent with purposite specific pain Your grand mistake, and curse no enver best bleas:

This new it is that down it all I know.

We thank you. Mr. Jew. nor shall Mr. abony Of it again, as though a playful freak (b) festing nature: whereas all the With skilful hands she did, in serious to make your nose a paragon of Such as bestecked the face of "holy ! River by the Jew. then, wearing on hix fact

N.381.AV Jon The Jen, rom see, is nice, since alwar white Wherever its a question of a pound. This medidle-come disturber, but de-When nineteen shillings and eleven Find themselves in the purkets of this The well lined pockets of the cumning! Whose its him palm secon classes the odd penny, too Twas thus we tought of old for very And, through beredity, keep up the Though, to be frank, twas never gainst the grain.

Will "Ohi (In" e'en gone so long to the wal. Though with a nose of special size Are in life they who are succeed the His portly person in good broadcloth | Philosophers may tell you what is While Rothschild regully lends kings By Which wind or losed Only if it Which is so marked that fain the Gen. To thrash their foes or subjects Believe it not that, in our place.

Thus have we been taught in the If Rothschild will consent to make the loan. To Paris or to London, as the scale # For our own private good alone to . And so uphold the pillars of their The speaking organ of the stalwart

Yet on one point I with you scarce CAN MO. You say your nose a beauty is, but, . May it not be a question, if 'tis sof

Utility is beauty, as is shown Wretched apology for a human nose, If smelling be its end, urged he on those argued with, mine is a beauty Handsome as his—that stalwart prince of men. Young Alcibiades, whose nose I've l To be in nothing better than my own.

So much is in the seeing. Hagne's

Balbinus thought - so different are ial charm, although to you and So a seems the acme of absurdity. In music, war and statesmanship we Women non bustled, once were hoored, once slim. With each shape beautified by fash ion's whim.

Yet let one of the slim sort but alight 'Mid dancers hooped, oh, err ther, ! what a fright' For change of custom makes a change ! of sight. Long used to the tich glossy black man face. How poor, thought Stanley, our pale Northern race. So our fine noises to the Arran ere

But Societies, though only with a Oi Arvan make judged rightly I sur

So far so good for him' Albeit he Through Athens market place the ! live leng day Wrangling, forever wrangling, to no Challenging with logic keen each to The thought be uttered, and, by act Then, Gentil's, how submission and He made of each a fool and, so, a foe. Buttonholing all he met, this prince of horres. When he should be at home to do the charre l'antippe - temper Bah! Why auch to specif ten thousand tompers were enough. For, blest not with our nose, full half his days. Spent in such tooling by this Socrat-Might have been spent in adding perties to purther. Ind promot to pound, had be our contact passents - a, ca eac. But, having rot our nove, what can Very des Rus releases such to the culmur crave This lordly emblem of his princely [Of men who lack the instinct of this

And hence, while Earls child honerred lixed and in it. [Rolling in mounty, ner could not His death to satisfy the public need. His new twos was at fault. With smell home could He single-red pursue his private But mount keep mixing up incomgrucourse ground with his follows, as

The marrow of our souls is pure self But an old instinct deep in blood and Or something very like it; while they And new that fair play is the rule Their private ends undinchingly pur-Wholly re-ulred to feather their own though 'ring.

preach to you. Hurrah for noses then, strong, clear outlined."

Look Here!

Men's Lined

Kid Gloves,

choice,

only 50c a pair.

of what In prodigality we Jews have got. Tis only envy in the Gentile "cus" Of our great noses make him scoff at

Could we be rich and great, do you Had we been fashioned with a lesser Then look with reverence on this nose, and pray Your's may be blessed with such a nose some day. J. A. ALLEN.

NAPANEE MILLS.

Fever-A China Wedding Napance Mills, Oct. 25, - Parker Boyer, while braking on the Cement company vard engine had the two first fingers of the left hand badly crushed. This company keep their employees i insured, a good thing. Mrs. John i Granger has just re overed from fever; her husband and brother in law are laid up with the same disease. Marshall, the brother, is very low. Ada Carseallen is around again after an attack of fever. Miss Susie Heney. Descriptio, spent Monday and Tues day with Flassic Dunlar, Mrs. Har ver Martin and Mrs. Andrew Ramsay spent Thursday in Kingston, visiting shoes and rubbers of any house in the

Mrs. Martin's brother, who is ill in City.

Ming, Napance, and Miss Minnie Gil pin at Mrs. Morgan's, Miss Alma Reid at Mrs. George Dunlap's; Miss! Minnie Kennedy at her sister's, Mrs. J. McGuire. John O'Brien, jr., Tam Great nature's signpost on the face | worth, has been employed as book keeper in the paper mill.

We Can

Save You

Money

on Fur

Trimmings.

Dudley E. Hill, Napance, has under taken the superintendence of Jude's Sunday school here, in place of Mr. Hopper. Mr. Hill will also help! with the parish work. Although here all, and nearly all changed hands at but a short time he is winning all hearts. The children are delighted with their "new superintendent." On Monday evening, 24th inst., Mr. and Mrs. C. Fox entertained a few of their friends, it being the twentieth anni versary of their marriage, and consequently their china wedding. An ele gant supper was served, after which the guests spent a delightful evening: everyone wishing Mr. and Mrs. Fox his side and received a rather ser-A New Superintendent-Many III With | many years of joy and prosperity. The presents were numerous and beantiful. Henry Harrington has moved to Fred Card's farm. Miss Maggie Rus sell, ill for years, is unable to leave "O be Joytul" was the cause. They her bed; although nearly helpless she does not suffer. Her peculiar illness was caused by a lightning stroke. All imposed. Inspector Burrows reports along the has been patient and uncom plaining. It would be well for the fretful and impatient to visit her; those who do so come away to link better for it.

Abernethy

Hill Kelly FIT-REFORM THIS BIRAND WITH REDAIL PRICE

The People are better Judges of Art than the Artists.

ARISTOTLE.

The people are better judges of clothes than the tailors!

The least part of clothing is the fabric from which it is made, and the cut of it. The most part is its expression, and its fitness to the wearer's taste, as well as its fit to his person.

The least part is all the tailor can provide in the selection of the suit.

The most part is what none but the prospective wearer can choose for himself. A man's clothes are part of his identity, just as are his whiskers, his accent or his

The tailor can only fit the form, but the owner of that form can clothe it, from ready-made "Fit-reform" garments, so as to fit his ideals also.

Half the Custom Tailor's price is enough for us-$10, $12, $15, $18, $20 per suit. Your money back if dissatisfied.

man to man but ab twixt me Nearest Agencies-D. W. DOWNEY, Brockville, THE KENNEDY CO. Limited Montree! NAPANEE CHEESE BOARD.

Many Sold At S 3.4c, —Some Wedding Cakes Preparing.

Napance, Oct. 27. - Another sunless day, and dripping continually, was the record of Yesterday. The chiese board was slimly attended by buyers in the afternoon on account of the moisture. Seven hundred and fifty white and 500 colored October cheese were bounded; 8% cents bid for that figure. The schooner Mary unloaded coal for G. G. Dafoe and the Annie Minnes for C. E. Barriett on Saturday, While the workmen were unloading the schoener Maria scalfold collapsed, throwing Edward Martele and Edward Fields a distance of twenty feet. Fields alighted on his teet and escaped serious in lucy. Not so with Maracle, however; he tell on ions in jury to his hip and back. Chief Adams spied a couple of fellows on Tuesday driving recklessly through the streets. He quickly had them under his protecting arm. Top much hailed from Deseronto, A line of $1.50 and costs, amounting to $1.00. was that in the back townships, where he was this week, the fall of raff last week was the greatest in many years. Detre live Greer. Toronto, is in town again. He comes unannounced, and leaves as unceremoniously. His presence causes no comment now at all; Is selling the cheapest and best boots, in the this town feels almost like claiming him as a resident, he is such a familiar figure on the streets. What his business is, is known only to a

> Clarence Warner and bride, Providence. R. I., are visiting his mother. Mrs. Springs Warner, John street. much in host or other tricerds in town. and receiving congratulations on every side. Happening to drop into A. R. hikler's shop one day this week, no less than there we deling a kes, in the ious stages of completion, were to be seen. three stores cake, handsupport from and decorated, was for a Carrier Bast wealting, the invientions for which are out. Another fourstores cake will grace the table of a Agrainer complete the manner contact and the third will an to tonne at to be - Attable of .

titisted ferr.

The Late E. Gittley, Portland. E. Gildar, Partland, passed peaceinfly away on Sunday morning. The reased had been ill no some time, and merchical and was at no avail. Mr. Gilday was a worth wember of the Bug. lish church and Masonic order. Dur ing his illness he showed implicit contidence in his Heavenly Father. In lite and death he exemplified the beauto and reality of the religion of Jesus Christ. It was a great stall teer him to think of loaving his kind and loving wife, with whom he titteen long rears of blissful we red life, but even this earthly attachment was given up and he calmly waited for Gent's measurager to take him homes His end was peace. He leaves a wife, one sister and four brothers to mourn his lines. His wife and friends have the sympathy of the community. The mercal took place from his late residence on Monday afternoon, thence to the English church, led by the brothers of the Masonie order, Rev. Mr. Grout. Newboro, officiating.

Jan B. McLeod, agent for Laxa Liver

As table waters or a common beverage the "Caledonia Mineral Waters' have merits pertaining solely to themselves. Sold best hotels, clubs and grocers everywhere.

BILLIARD Remember the "XX's POOL BILLIARD mentage Electric mit- POOL BILLIARD ment Cushioses, the POOL Intest improved cush. BILLIARD Pool Tables, new and POOL BILLIARD Second-band, ready for POOL BILLIARD

$25 to $130. THE LARGEST ASSORTMENT IN

THE DOMINSON.