One of The Hardest Lessons For Humanity to Learn. "There is no difference, for all have sinned and come short of the glory of God." From these words Mr. Rodger spoke last night at the young men's christian association hall. In a very clear and forcible way it was shown from God's own word that there is no difference, for all had sinned and came short of His glory. This was one of the hardest truths for men to learn. In God's right all men were bad, as far as the natural man is concerned. The law demands complete fulfilment. "Whosoever shall keep the whole law and yet offend in one point is guilty of all. In prison every man is a criminal. The own account. Boss Platt is not saying ty would be pleased to receive me. An law brings in every man a criminal before

SHOES WORTH BUYING.

We recently received two large consignments of High Grade Shoes from Canada's best manufacturers-J. & T. Bell and J. McPherson & Co. These goods were intended for September delivery, but owing to a big rush of business the manufacturers were unable to keep their contracts. Rather than return the goods we have corresponded with the makers, and as an extra inducement to keep the shipment they have offered us a big cash discount. Now these are all First-Class Fall Goods, and we propose turning them into cash at once. Commencing SATI ROAY NEXT we will offer every pair of this big lot of High Grade Shoes at such prices as will mean a speedy clearance of the lot. If you are interested in Fine Shoes call and see our prices.
