BROADBRIM'S LETTER.

The Republicans Miss The Promised Land. NO SOLID VOTE WAS CAST. POLITICAL RULES WERE ENTIRELY REVERSED.

Democracy Has Two Homes in New York. A Comparison of the Two—One a Stately Palace, the Other a Bare Room. The Effects of the Late Election to Remain After the Electors Have Returned to the Dust.

Special correspondence. Letter No. 142. New York, Nov. 18. Stunned, dazed, despondent, I sit here, with my neighbors around me, almost unable to think, my newspaper on my knees, trying to figure out the causes that led up to such a tremendous defeat, while the despairing and almost frantic cries of the thousands of Democrats who are scattered all over the city, and in the suburbs, are heard in every street.

The most embarrassing handicap to the cause of Democracy in the late campaign was that at no time could we speak of other party as a solid unit. The Republicans, on the other hand, were a solid unit. They were a solid unit in their support of the candidates, and in their support of the party.

Democracy is found in the minds of the most men as a collection of men, and not as a solid unit. It is found in the minds of the most men as a collection of men, and not as a solid unit. It is found in the minds of the most men as a collection of men, and not as a solid unit.

Love in a Hospital.

That brown-eyed nurse with wavy hair, and voice just like the voice of June, is false to me—she's false I swear! And fickle as the changeable moon.

She lays her velvet hand on me, And smiles and talks so softly sweet, And I make no thrill, and seem to be so pained that I'm not on my feet.

Wish I had a Daniel to interpret the handwriting on the wall for me. There was no "Fidel" in the picture. There was no "Fidel" in the picture. There was no "Fidel" in the picture.

There is nothing more irritable to a cough than coughing. Constant coughing is like scratching a wound; so long as it is done the wound will not heal. When tempted to cough draw a long breath and hold it until it warms and soothes every air cell, and some benefit will soon be received from this process.

GERALDINE'S LETTER.

To many of their friends in Canada, Lord and Lady Aberdeen sent a charming little memento, in the form of a reprint of the diary of the "Sunshine," which Lady Aberdeen wrote as an introduction to Morag's Midsummer Annual.

"77" STOPS A COUGH. DON'T COUGH. There is nothing more irritable to a cough than coughing. Constant coughing is like scratching a wound; so long as it is done the wound will not heal.

THE SLOPING-SHOULDERED MAN.

Usually "Slender" and "Sloping," or "Stooping" and "Sloping," combined. Mail orders should specify which combination. The effect of sloping shoulders is to make the figure seem narrow-chested, and the neck seem unusually long.

This can be overcome by wearing "Sloping-Shouldered" "Fit-reform" suits, in which the shoulders are built up to normal height with genuine hair cloth and padding, care being taken to round them naturally, so the sleeve will not wrinkle where the padding ends, and the real shoulder begins.

One of the subtlest and most uncertain phases that can develop in catarrh is the loss of hearing—and when the ear—the most delicate organ in the human anatomy—is attacked by the disease, there is a time to be wasted in experimenting with various treatments and surgical operations.
