HOLDEN GIVES HIS STORY.
HIS CONNECTION WITH THE NAPANEE BANK ROBBERY.

He detailed the 'Fair as He Was Connected With It—Was an Interesting Revelation and Was Corroborative of Pare's Evidence in the Mackie Case.

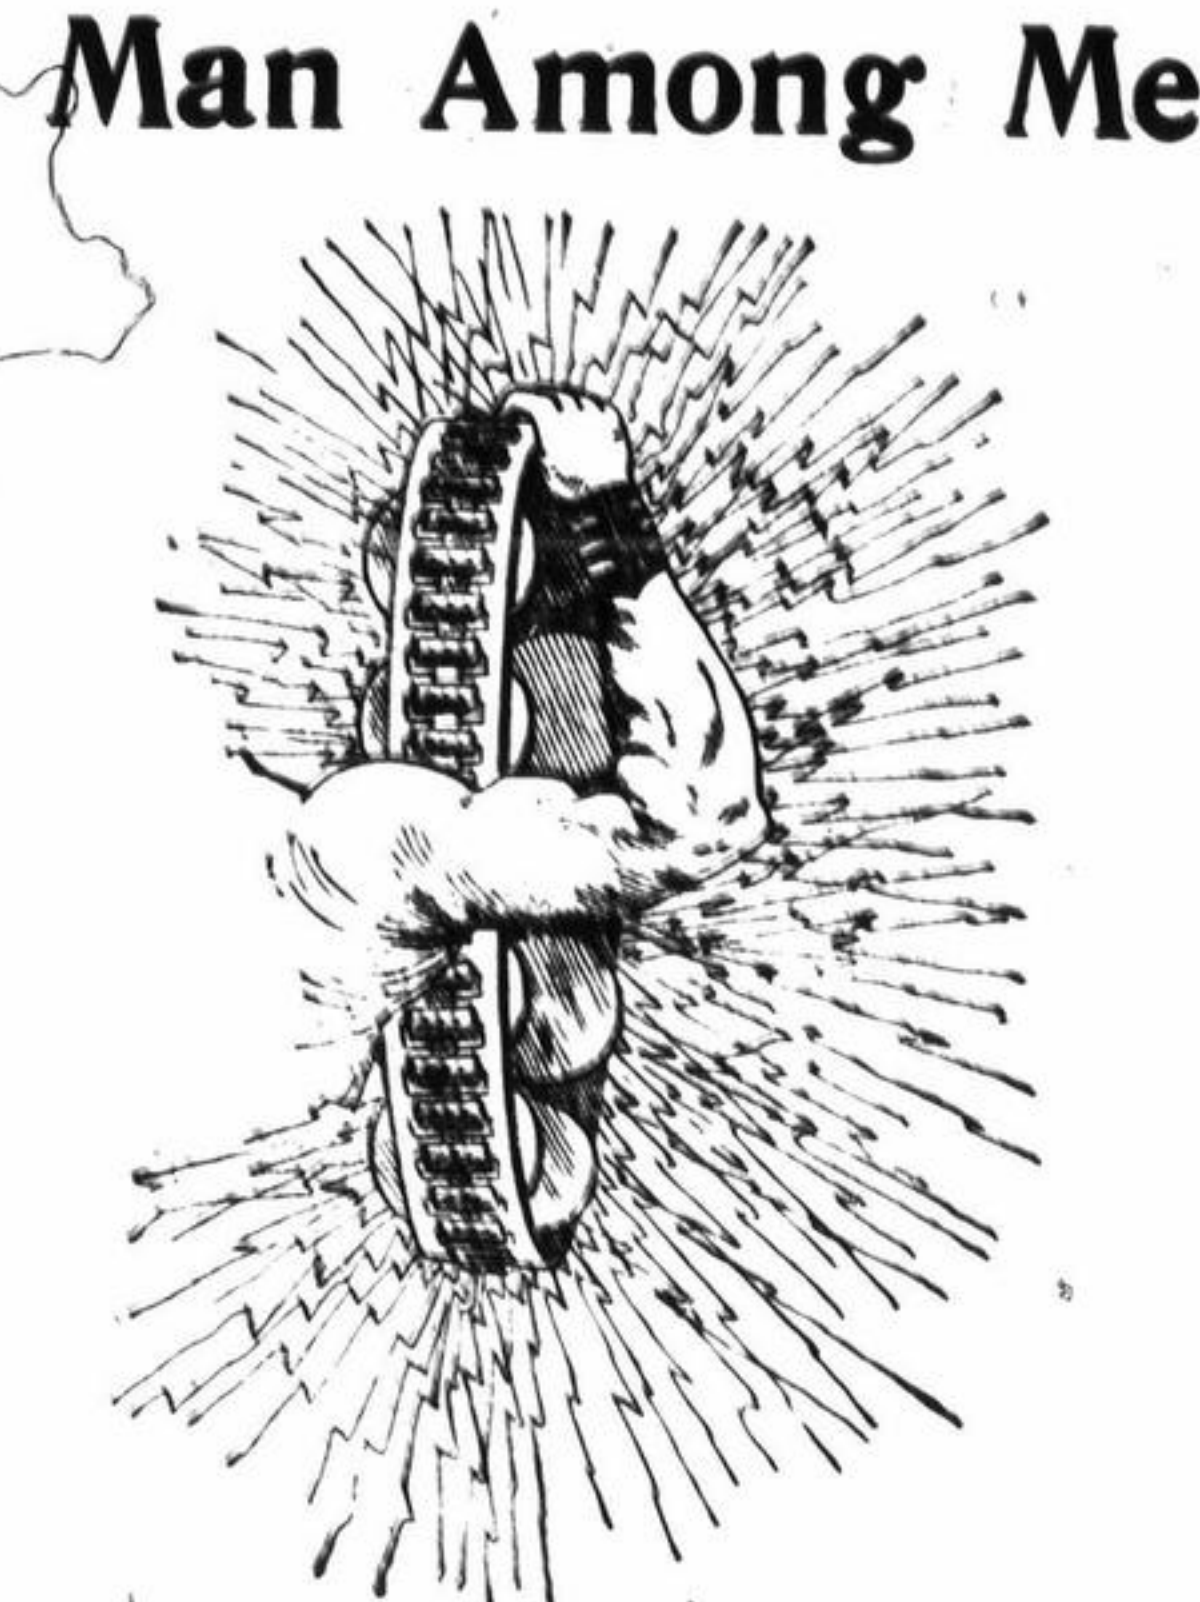

Napanee, Nov. 25.—The chief news item of the day was the giving of a statement by W. H. Holden in regard to the Napanee bank robbery. Holden, who was in the bank when the robbery was committed, gave a detailed account of what took place.

Holden's statement was given in a quiet, unassuming manner, and was fully corroborative of Pare's evidence in the Mackie case. He stated that he had seen Pare at the bank on the morning of the robbery, and that he had seen him enter the building after the robbery was committed.

rooms watching at the window. The constable left the station at about half-past four and about twenty minutes later Pare got into the bank. Holden was walking about and passed the door several times and wondered what was keeping Pare. Then he went back to Pare's rooms and insisted that the latter had better go down to the bank and see what was wrong. Pare thought it risky, but Holden walked about and passed chances.
