Sydenham, Dec. 19.—The concert given by Greenville Kleiser in behalf of the high school was one of the best of the season. The meeting in which it was attended shows that the principal has the sympathy of the public in his efforts to hold this school on a level with any in the province. The proceeds will be used in buying books for the library. A quiet, though not an unexpected event, occurred on November 29th, when H. Horning, Rev. Dr. Gaze, teacher at Newburgh high school, died. His widow, Mrs. Horning, who had removed to New York, is now residing in the village. The Rev. Mr. Rogers will preach to the children in the Sabbath school next Sunday in the Methodist church. Mr. McMillan is building a house for Dr. Lake, Bartlett. Another daughter of the home of James Chown, Mrs. F. H. Stinson, this week.

Tichborne Tidings

Tichborne, Dec. 19.—George H. Pearson is on the sick list. Miss Pound has resigned her position as teacher and will leave on Thursday for her home in Kingston. The trustees have secured the services of Miss McNealy, Carlton Place, as teacher for next term. Mr. Pearson left a brief absence on Friday. Mr. Batterson, Perth, is in our midst on insurance business. Miss May McMahon, Hindmarsh, spent Sunday at D. Height's.

Home and Effects Destroyed.

Tamworth, Dec. 20.—On Tuesday morning about daylight the villagers and people for miles around were thrown into a state of excitement and confusion, on hearing the sound of the fire bells. Everyone jumped, donned their robes, and went to lend a helping hand to put out the flames, which were then consuming the most beautiful residence in town that of W. D. Macé. The occupants barely escaped with their lives. The fire began to have originated in the furnace, the next house to Mr. Macé's was also burnt. Nothing was saved at W. Macé's, whose insurance amounted to $1000.

Great panic ensued. Great preparations in the Christmas entertainment in the Presbyterian church, E. H. Stiles arrived in town Monday evening at Miss Lockridge's, looking half dead, showing that the back country agrees with him. He expects to remain a few days visiting his parents and friends. Miss Emma Lockridge started on Monday for Vennelmoor to visit her sister, Mrs. F. H. Stinson.

Glendower Drawings.

Glendower, Dec. 19.—The iron mines are running full blast under foreman T. Bragg. The ore will be of good quality.
