

Breaking Down

Some people break down gradually and others go to pieces all at once. First there may be a cold or a cough. Some derangement of the stomach appears which impairs nutrition and weakens the vitality.

“What Shall I Buy?”

That ever recurring pleasant Christmas perplexity, “WHAT SHALL I GIVE,” is here again. It's so easy to give a present but so hard to select one.

Haines & Lockett's

MUST CLEAR THEM OUT! This is our decision. On Friday and Saturday next from 7 to 11 p.m. we will give a Straight Discount of 20 Per Cent. of all our Brass and Art Goods.

D. A. Weese & Co., 121 PRINCESS ST.

FIRE, FIRE, SALE! Our loss by the fire in the Opera House having been adjusted we are prepared to offer the whole of our large stock, consisting of Clothing, Gent's Furnishings and a lot of Dry Goods.

JOSEPH ABRAMSON, Next to Burat Opera House.

JACK FROST Flees before our Scranton Coal. It's too hot for him.

S. Anglin & Co., Lumber, Wood and Coal.

Hail, Merrie Christmas.

The season of joy and festivity, when good things abound and all hearts are merry. This is the full of the Christmas spirit and a veritable feast of Dainties and Edibles is displayed for your choosing.

CAKES. Nmas Fruit 25c and 25c per lb. Jelly Cakes 15c and 25c. Pies, all kinds, 15c, and all our usual Cakes at special holiday prices.

CONFECTIONS Put up in elegant boxes, baskets and dozens of novel forms. Bon-Bons, Chocolates, Creams, etc., the very finest makes.

CANDIES Of every description and kind. Mixtures from 7c to 75c per lb. Pure Candy in all the new varied shapes for children.

FRUIT. Oranges, Apples, Grapes, Bananas, Figs, Dates, etc. Also Harry Webb's Plum Pudding and Fancy Candies for Christmas trees.

TOYE'S, KING STREET.

ATTRACTIVE SALE

OF FURS

For Xmas Gifts. An Immense Stock to choose from.

STORE OPEN EVERY EVENING.

Cash customers have the choice of a Cash Discount, Cash Coupons or Trading Stamps.

Geo. Mills & Co. Manufacturing Furriers.

Rheumatism, though certainly relieved by the Caledonia Springs Waters, is better avoided by making these our constant beverage. Sold by best dealers everywhere.

THE WHIG--65th YEAR.

DAILY BRITISH WHIG published every evening at 306-310 King Street, at $6 per year, delivered in the city; $5 by mail, if paid in advance.

THE DAILY WHIG.

“Opifer per Orbem Dior.”

NOT THE FIRST EXPERIENCE.

The opposition journals have it that the International Conference is a failure. It may be so, and it will not be the first experience of the kind.

WORK OF THE PRESS.

The Archbishop of Montreal has addressed an open letter to the French journalists in which he draws attention to the possible injury that may be done to the morale of the people by an undue prominence being given in the press to criminal records.

Those whose names remain on the ballot are: First division—Thomas Hamilton, John Kane, and William Toner, Pittsburg; Henry J. Hughson and Daniel H. Toland, Storrington.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

Those whose names remain on the ballot are: First division—Thomas Hamilton, John Kane, and William Toner, Pittsburg; Henry J. Hughson and Daniel H. Toland, Storrington.

CHRISTMAS.

Greeting Of The Glad Season—The Balm Of Christmas Love.

The Christian Guardian. “Blow, bugles of battle, the marches of peace; East, west, north and south, let the long quartet cease: Sing of glory to God and good-will to angels began, Sing of glory to God and good-will to man!”

So sings the poet Whittier, and our ears with his music, and our hearts with his words, are stirred. As we greet the old season, and tender to you, our readers, the joys of the Christmas tide, may we not ask you to join us in the prayer that all “bugles of battle” shall play “marches of peace”; that quarrels, the jarring notes that mar the harmony of home, church and state, shall pass and die with the age's ignorance, blindness and bigotry; and that the angel's song, the spirit of Christ, the glory of God, shall fill our hearts, our homes and our world. Very many people are only playing at enjoying Christmas. Few of our social gatherings are wholly characterized by the spirit of Christ. The great majority of professed christians fail to apprehend the fulness, richness, and sweet mess that are in him. Few, oh, so few in earth's millions have received him seriously. In thousands of homes, if such they can be called, where Christ dwells not, his name is that of a stranger; the marts disown him; the halls, where this world's laws are made, hear of his wisdom in idle jest, and greed rides rampant on with power and guile, and blows a wild pipe, exalted in big try, and increased in gold. But, lo! a seer and prophet have spoken; the angels sing no false song, and Christ, the Maker of earth, freed shall be unmasked, pride, selfishness, bigotry and hate shall be exposed to the blaze of truth, and, bringing ask oblivion for her mantle of darkness and forgetfulness. Aye, thousands have enthroned him; a few millions nominally own his sway. The consciences of men are quickened; the slumbering wrongs of ages' growth are dragged to the tribunal of justice. Day demons are breaking on all shores, and through the evil sounds of discord, hate and bloodshed are still too often heard, the light of justice, the blessing of peace, the balm of christian love fill the earth as never before, and the sons of earth are waking to know and love and serve the Lord, their Lover, Saviour, King.

Threatened With Arrest. London Truth. The ex-empres Eugenie had an adventure in the gardens of the Tuileries a short time ago which at one moment threatened to end rather awkwardly, and which arose from the fact that some of the guards stationed in the gardens do not know her.

Fourth—John W. Bertram, William H. Reynolds, Lorenzo Rutan, of Portland; Matthew Trousdale, of Loughboro.

Fifth—No election; M. Avery and John E. Campbell returned.

Sixth—William Hunt, of Kenneboc; Alexander Munro, of Clarendon; William Miller, of Palmerston.

Graced By Beauty. Montreal Herald. Ottawa society this winter will be graced by three ladies of great beauty. Mrs. Huton, wife of the new commanding general, is a very beautiful and fascinating woman.

The Lord Henley. Neckwear is the new thing. Nothing ever before shown like it. No folding, beautiful in shape and design. To be seen only at Gallagher's. Same prices as ordinary goods. 88 Princess and 312 King.

No Proof Of Foul Play. Toronto News. Detective Rogers has returned from Paris, where he has been making an investigation into the mysterious death of the young Brockville, Donald Seal.

The Yule Log. Chicago Record. Bring the merry yule log, And while the sparkles fly, We'll have gay cheer and jolly mirth, As in the years gone by.

A New Car Fender. Toronto News. Some days ago Howarth C. Folger, Kingston, wrote to city engineer Rust, asking that he be permitted to show him a street car fender of which he has the rights. Mr. Rust replied that there was no necessity for Mr. Folger to come here, as the city at present had not the power to compel the street car company to adopt any kind of fender.

Emperor William's Greatness. New York Press. Emperor William II. is the genius of Europe. Beside him all other monarchs are weakness. He has more brains than all his critics combined. (This, you say is heavy.) Wait. If he lives ten years longer the world will acknowledge him.

The Big Tie Carnival. Thousands are attending Gallagher's tie carnival. A $2 gold watch given away Xmas eve to the lady or gent guessing nearest to the number of ties sold during the week. Don't fail to secure a few of these ties for Xmas. Gallagher, 88 Princess street, or 312 King street.

successor to Beecher in sight. Maclaren would suit, and Plymouth church would give him freedom from a condition of things in England that is not to his taste.

INCIDENTS OF THE DAY.

Paragraphs Picked Up By Our Busy and Enterprising Reporters.

The post office did a land office business today.

Christmas cheer! Who could develop it this sort of weather?

For a nice Xmas present get a ladies' long watch chain from $3 up at C. L. B. as Mrs. J. A. Cooper and child are in the city to spend Christmas with Dr. and Mrs. Massie.

A crisis is imminent over the expulsion of Danes from Schleswig. The people refused to yield to the governor's demand.

Robert F. Wall, a former member of the Shamrock lacrosse team, has been chosen captain of a hockey club in Brooklyn, N.Y.

The kindergarten closing at the Central school was a very happy event yesterday. Miss Jones is a very successful directress.

Dr. Knight will likely again be a candidate for public school honors in Ontario ward. All the old members whose terms expire this year will seek re-election.

Chief McGowan, Smith's Falls, has received a handsomely engraved pocket and chain as a Christmas present from the farmers interested in the late stealing case near Nantong, which the chief so cleverly traced to its source.

At the residence of Arthur Dales, G.T.R. engineer, Brockville, on Wednesday evening, his accomplished eldest daughter, Miss Elsie, was married to Robert Woods, a young farmer of Elizabethtown. Among the numerous presents were a silver cake basket and purse from the Wall street church choir, of which she was a member, an upright piano from the bride's father, a substantial cheque from the groom's parents, and a parlor lamp from the scholars of the Bradfield school, of which Mrs. Woods was teacher for the past two years.

Those whose names remain on the ballot are: First division—Thomas Hamilton, John Kane, and William Toner, Pittsburg; Henry J. Hughson and Daniel H. Toland, Storrington.

Second—Donald Grant, John Kinsley, Richard Moore, Roumain Moeier, James McEllynn, Richard Spooner, all of Wolfe Island.

Third—Robert H. Fair, Thomas Sproule, George A. Wright, of Kingston township.

Fourth—John W. Bertram, William H. Reynolds, Lorenzo Rutan, of Portland; Matthew Trousdale, of Loughboro.

Fifth—No election; M. Avery and John E. Campbell returned.

Sixth—William Hunt, of Kenneboc; Alexander Munro, of Clarendon; William Miller, of Palmerston.

Threatened With Arrest. London Truth. The ex-empres Eugenie had an adventure in the gardens of the Tuileries a short time ago which at one moment threatened to end rather awkwardly, and which arose from the fact that some of the guards stationed in the gardens do not know her.

Fourth—John W. Bertram, William H. Reynolds, Lorenzo Rutan, of Portland; Matthew Trousdale, of Loughboro.

Fifth—No election; M. Avery and John E. Campbell returned.

Sixth—William Hunt, of Kenneboc; Alexander Munro, of Clarendon; William Miller, of Palmerston.

Threatened With Arrest. London Truth. The ex-empres Eugenie had an adventure in the gardens of the Tuileries a short time ago which at one moment threatened to end rather awkwardly, and which arose from the fact that some of the guards stationed in the gardens do not know her.

Fourth—John W. Bertram, William H. Reynolds, Lorenzo Rutan, of Portland; Matthew Trousdale, of Loughboro.

Fifth—No election; M. Avery and John E. Campbell returned.

Sixth—William Hunt, of Kenneboc; Alexander Munro, of Clarendon; William Miller, of Palmerston.

Threatened With Arrest. London Truth. The ex-empres Eugenie had an adventure in the gardens of the Tuileries a short time ago which at one moment threatened to end rather awkwardly, and which arose from the fact that some of the guards stationed in the gardens do not know her.

Fourth—John W. Bertram, William H. Reynolds, Lorenzo Rutan, of Portland; Matthew Trousdale, of Loughboro.

Fifth—No election; M. Avery and John E. Campbell returned.

Sixth—William Hunt, of Kenneboc; Alexander Munro, of Clarendon; William Miller, of Palmerston.

Threatened With Arrest. London Truth. The ex-empres Eugenie had an adventure in the gardens of the Tuileries a short time ago which at one moment threatened to end rather awkwardly, and which arose from the fact that some of the guards stationed in the gardens do not know her.

Fourth—John W. Bertram, William H. Reynolds, Lorenzo Rutan, of Portland; Matthew Trousdale, of Loughboro.

Fifth—No election; M. Avery and John E. Campbell returned.

Sixth—William Hunt, of Kenneboc; Alexander Munro, of Clarendon; William Miller, of Palmerston.

Threatened With Arrest. London Truth. The ex-empres Eugenie had an adventure in the gardens of the Tuileries a short time ago which at one moment threatened to end rather awkwardly, and which arose from the fact that some of the guards stationed in the gardens do not know her.

Fourth—John W. Bertram, William H. Reynolds, Lorenzo Rutan, of Portland; Matthew Trousdale, of Loughboro.

Fifth—No election; M. Avery and John E. Campbell returned.

Sixth—William Hunt, of Kenneboc; Alexander Munro, of Clarendon; William Miller, of Palmerston.

Threatened With Arrest. London Truth. The ex-empres Eugenie had an adventure in the gardens of the Tuileries a short time ago which at one moment threatened to end rather awkwardly, and which arose from the fact that some of the guards stationed in the gardens do not know her.

Fourth—John W. Bertram, William H. Reynolds, Lorenzo Rutan, of Portland; Matthew Trousdale, of Loughboro.

Fifth—No election; M. Avery and John E. Campbell returned.

Sixth—William Hunt, of Kenneboc; Alexander Munro, of Clarendon; William Miller, of Palmerston.

Threatened With Arrest. London Truth. The ex-empres Eugenie had an adventure in the gardens of the Tuileries a short time ago which at one moment threatened to end rather awkwardly, and which arose from the fact that some of the guards stationed in the gardens do not know her.

Fourth—John W. Bertram, William H. Reynolds, Lorenzo Rutan, of Portland; Matthew Trousdale, of Loughboro.

Fifth—No election; M. Avery and John E. Campbell returned.

Sixth—William Hunt, of Kenneboc; Alexander Munro, of Clarendon; William Miller, of Palmerston.

Threatened With Arrest. London Truth. The ex-empres Eugenie had an adventure in the gardens of the Tuileries a short time ago which at one moment threatened to end rather awkwardly, and which arose from the fact that some of the guards stationed in the gardens do not know her.

Fourth—John W. Bertram, William H. Reynolds, Lorenzo Rutan, of Portland; Matthew Trousdale, of Loughboro.

Fifth—No election; M. Avery and John E. Campbell returned.

Sixth—William Hunt, of Kenneboc; Alexander Munro, of Clarendon; William Miller, of Palmerston.

Threatened With Arrest. London Truth. The ex-empres Eugenie had an adventure in the gardens of the Tuileries a short time ago which at one moment threatened to end rather awkwardly, and which arose from the fact that some of the guards stationed in the gardens do not know her.

Fourth—John W. Bertram, William H. Reynolds, Lorenzo Rutan, of Portland; Matthew Trousdale, of Loughboro.

Fifth—No election; M. Avery and John E. Campbell returned.

Sixth—William Hunt, of Kenneboc; Alexander Munro, of Clarendon; William Miller, of Palmerston.

Threatened With Arrest. London Truth. The ex-empres Eugenie had an adventure in the gardens of the Tuileries a short time ago which at one moment threatened to end rather awkwardly, and which arose from the fact that some of the guards stationed in the gardens do not know her.

Fourth—John W. Bertram, William H. Reynolds, Lorenzo Rutan, of Portland; Matthew Trousdale, of Loughboro.

Fifth—No election; M. Avery and John E. Campbell returned.

Sixth—William Hunt, of Kenneboc; Alexander Munro, of Clarendon; William Miller, of Palmerston.

Threatened With Arrest. London Truth. The ex-empres Eugenie had an adventure in the gardens of the Tuileries a short time ago which at one moment threatened to end rather awkwardly, and which arose from the fact that some of the guards stationed in the gardens do not know her.

Fourth—John W. Bertram, William H. Reynolds, Lorenzo Rutan, of Portland; Matthew Trousdale, of Loughboro.

Fifth—No election; M. Avery and John E. Campbell returned.

Sixth—William Hunt, of Kenneboc; Alexander Munro, of Clarendon; William Miller, of Palmerston.

Threatened With Arrest. London Truth. The ex-empres Eugenie had an adventure in the gardens of the Tuileries a short time ago which at one moment threatened to end rather awkwardly, and which arose from the fact that some of the guards stationed in the gardens do not know her.

Fourth—John W. Bertram, William H. Reynolds, Lorenzo Rutan, of Portland; Matthew Trousdale, of Loughboro.

Fifth—No election; M. Avery and John E. Campbell returned.

Sixth—William Hunt, of Kenneboc; Alexander Munro, of Clarendon; William Miller, of Palmerston.

Threatened With Arrest. London Truth. The ex-empres Eugenie had an adventure in the gardens of the Tuileries a short time ago which at one moment threatened to end rather awkwardly, and which arose from the fact that some of the guards stationed in the gardens do not know her.

Fourth—John W. Bertram, William H. Reynolds, Lorenzo Rutan, of Portland; Matthew Trousdale, of Loughboro.

Fifth—No election; M. Avery and John E. Campbell returned.

Sixth—William Hunt, of Kenneboc; Alexander Munro, of Clarendon; William Miller, of Palmerston.

Threatened With Arrest. London Truth. The ex-empres Eugenie had an adventure in the gardens of the Tuileries a short time ago which at one moment threatened to end rather awkwardly, and which arose from the fact that some of the guards stationed in the gardens do not know her.

Fourth—John W. Bertram, William H. Reynolds, Lorenzo Rutan, of Portland; Matthew Trousdale, of Loughboro.

Fifth—No election; M. Avery and John E. Campbell returned.

Sixth—William Hunt, of Kenneboc; Alexander Munro, of Clarendon; William Miller, of Palmerston.

“DRY ROYAL” CHAMPAGNE

Used largely by Lord Aberdeen during his residence in Canada.

Agents, J. M. DOUGLAS & CO., Montreal. ASK YOUR DEALER FOR IT

To be had from J. S. Henderson and W. R. McRae & Co.

Moccasins and Snowshoes!

Just the Thing for a Xmas Present.

We are Headquarters for HOLIDAY SLIPPERS and RUBBER BOOTS for the “Little Fellows.” See our swell stock of Ladies' Leggings.

J. H. SUTHERLAND & BRO

CHRISTMAS.

Greeting Of The Glad Season—The Balm Of Christmas Love.

The Christian Guardian. “Blow, bugles of battle, the marches of peace; East, west, north and south, let the long quartet cease: Sing of glory to God and good-will to angels began, Sing of glory to God and good-will to man!”

So sings the poet Whittier, and our ears with his music, and our hearts with his words, are stirred. As we greet the old season, and tender to you, our readers, the joys of the Christmas tide, may we not ask you to join us in the prayer that all “bugles of battle” shall play “marches of peace”; that quarrels, the jarring notes that mar the harmony of home, church and state, shall pass and die with the age's ignorance, blindness and bigotry; and that the angel's song, the spirit of Christ, the glory of God, shall fill our hearts, our homes and our world. Very many people are only playing at enjoying Christmas. Few of our social gatherings are wholly characterized by the spirit of Christ. The great majority of professed christians fail to apprehend the fulness, richness, and sweet mess that are in him. Few, oh, so few in earth's millions have received him seriously. In thousands of homes, if such they can be called, where Christ dwells not, his name is that of a stranger; the marts disown him; the halls, where this world's laws are made, hear of his wisdom in idle jest, and greed rides rampant on with power and guile, and blows a wild pipe, exalted in big try, and increased in gold. But, lo! a seer and prophet have spoken; the angels sing no false song, and Christ, the Maker of earth, freed shall be unmasked, pride, selfishness, bigotry and hate shall be exposed to the blaze of truth, and, bringing ask oblivion for her mantle of darkness and forgetfulness. Aye, thousands have enthroned him; a few millions nominally own his sway. The consciences of men are quickened; the slumbering wrongs of ages' growth are dragged to the tribunal of justice. Day demons are breaking on all shores, and through the evil sounds of discord, hate and bloodshed are still too often heard, the light of justice, the blessing of peace, the balm of christian love fill the earth as never before, and the sons of earth are waking to know and love and serve the Lord, their Lover, Saviour, King.

Threatened With Arrest. London Truth. The ex-empres Eugenie had an adventure in the gardens of the Tuileries a short time ago which at one moment threatened to end rather awkwardly, and which arose from the fact that some of the guards stationed in the gardens do not know her.

Fourth—John W. Bertram, William H. Reynolds, Lorenzo Rutan, of Portland; Matthew Trousdale, of Loughboro.

Fifth—No election; M. Avery and John E. Campbell returned.

Sixth—William Hunt, of Kenneboc; Alexander Munro, of Clarendon; William Miller, of Palmerston.

Threatened With Arrest. London Truth. The ex-empres Eugenie had an adventure in the gardens of the Tuileries a short time ago which at one moment threatened to end rather awkwardly, and which arose from the fact that some of the guards stationed in the gardens do not know her.

Fourth—John W. Bertram, William H. Reynolds, Lorenzo Rutan, of Portland; Matthew Trousdale, of Loughboro.

Fifth—No election; M. Avery and John E. Campbell returned.

Sixth—William Hunt, of Kenneboc; Alexander Munro, of Clarendon; William Miller, of Palmerston.

Threatened With Arrest. London Truth. The ex-empres Eugenie had an adventure in the gardens of the Tuileries a short time ago which at one moment threatened to end rather awkwardly, and which arose from the fact that some of the guards stationed in the gardens do not know her.

Fourth—John W. Bertram, William H. Reynolds, Lorenzo Rutan, of Portland; Matthew Trousdale, of Loughboro.

Fifth—No election; M. Avery and John E. Campbell returned.

Sixth—William Hunt, of Kenneboc; Alexander Munro, of Clarendon; William Miller, of Palmerston.

Threatened With Arrest. London Truth. The ex-empres Eugenie had an adventure in the gardens of the Tuileries a short time ago which at one moment threatened to end rather awkwardly, and which arose from the fact that some of the guards stationed in the gardens do not know her.

Fourth—John W. Bertram, William H. Reynolds, Lorenzo Rutan, of Portland; Matthew Trousdale, of Loughboro.

Fifth—No election; M. Avery and John E. Campbell returned.

Sixth—William Hunt, of Kenneboc; Alexander Munro, of Clarendon; William Miller, of Palmerston.

Threatened With Arrest. London Truth. The ex-empres Eugenie had an adventure in the gardens of the Tuileries a short time ago which at one moment threatened to end rather awkwardly, and which arose from the fact that some of the guards stationed in the gardens do not know her.

Fourth—John W. Bertram, William H. Reynolds, Lorenzo Rutan, of Portland; Matthew Trousdale, of Loughboro.

Fifth—No election; M. Avery and John E. Campbell returned.

Sixth—William Hunt, of Kenneboc; Alexander Munro, of Clarendon; William Miller, of Palmerston.

Threatened With Arrest. London Truth. The ex-empres Eugenie had an adventure in the gardens of the Tuileries a short time ago which at one moment threatened to end rather awkwardly, and which arose from the fact that some of the guards stationed in the gardens do not know her.

Fourth—John W. Bertram, William H. Reynolds, Lorenzo Rutan, of Portland; Matthew Trousdale, of Loughboro.

Fifth—No election; M. Avery and John E. Campbell returned.

Sixth—William Hunt, of Kenneboc; Alexander Munro, of Clarendon; William Miller, of Palmerston.

Threatened With Arrest. London Truth. The ex-empres Eugenie had an adventure in the gardens of the Tuileries a short time ago which at one moment threatened to end rather awkwardly, and which arose from the fact that some of the guards stationed in the gardens do not know her.

Fourth—John W. Bertram, William H. Reynolds, Lorenzo Rutan, of Portland; Matthew Trousdale, of Loughboro.

Fifth—No election; M. Avery and John E. Campbell returned.

Sixth—William Hunt, of Kenneboc; Alexander Munro, of Clarendon; William Miller, of Palmerston.

Threatened With Arrest. London Truth. The ex-empres Eugenie had an adventure in the gardens of the Tuileries a short time ago which at one moment threatened to end rather awkwardly, and which arose from the fact that some of the guards stationed in the gardens do not know her.

Fourth—John W. Bertram, William H. Reynolds, Lorenzo Rutan, of Portland; Matthew Trousdale, of Loughboro.

Fifth—No election; M. Avery and John E. Campbell returned.

Sixth—William Hunt, of Kenneboc; Alexander Munro, of Clarendon; William Miller, of Palmerston.

Threatened With Arrest. London Truth. The ex-empres Eugenie had an adventure in the gardens of the Tuileries a short time ago which at one moment threatened to end rather awkwardly, and which arose from the fact that some of the guards stationed in the gardens do not know her.

Fourth—John W. Bertram, William H. Reynolds, Lorenzo Rutan, of Portland; Matthew Trousdale, of Loughboro.

Fifth—No election; M. Avery and John E. Campbell returned.

Sixth—William Hunt, of Kenneboc; Alexander Munro, of Clarendon; William Miller, of Palmerston.

Threatened With Arrest. London Truth. The ex-empres Eugenie had an adventure in the gardens of the Tuileries a short time ago which at one moment threatened to end rather awkwardly, and which arose from the fact that some of the guards stationed in the gardens do not know her.

Fourth—John W. Bertram, William H. Reynolds, Lorenzo Rutan, of Portland; Matthew Trousdale, of Loughboro.

Fifth—No election; M. Avery and John E. Campbell returned.

Sixth—William Hunt, of Kenneboc; Alexander Munro, of Clarendon; William Miller, of Palmerston.

Threatened With Arrest. London Truth. The ex-empres Eugenie had an adventure in the gardens of the Tuileries a short time ago which at one moment threatened to end rather awkwardly, and which arose from the fact that some of the guards stationed in the gardens do not know her.

Fourth—John W. Bertram, William H. Reynolds, Lorenzo Rutan, of Portland; Matthew Trousdale, of Loughboro.