

Clear as a crystai and delightful in its invigoratling and aromatic odor is the effee that comes to you in pound and twopound in caus from the famous coffee importers,

Chase & Sanborn

its purity and its strength being guaranteed by their !seal.

Its supreme merit has been proved and is acknowledged by thousands of the most fastidious coffee consumers throughout the land. Grocers leverywhere sell it.

Substitution

the FRAUD of the day.

Son you get Carter's, Ask for Carter's.

Insist and demand

CARTER'S Little Liver Pills,

The only perfect Liver Pill

Take no other,

Even 11

Solicited to do so.

Beware of imitations of Same Color Wrapper,

RED.

YEARS' PROFITS ******

++++++++++++++

By Assuring Now In The

Canada Life Assurance Co'y. ESTABLISHED 1847.

Public attention is drawn to the interesting of the leading profit-paying life assurance | crowd.' I reluctantly consented. ccapany doing business in Canada, local or

Further information may be obtained from J. T. WHITE, W. J. B. WHITE, General Agent. Kingston Agent.

aJcket Bargains. We are anxious to clear the balance of our Ladies' Winter Jackels. Note ! the great reductions:

$3.75 and $1 Jackets, sale price, $2 50. $5 and $6 Jackets, sale price sudden violent outburst of hilarity. Evprice $4 50. $8 and $8.50 Jackets, sale price $5.50. $9.00 and $9.50 Jackets, sale price $6.25. $10 and $11 Jackets, sale price $7.50. $12 Jackets, sale price $8.50.

EXTRA SPECIAL!

A few Fawn, Beaver and Black Niggerhead Jackets in sizes 30, 32, 34 only, suitable for tall slender figures, former price $4.90 and $5, sale price $2. We guarantee a perfect fit and a genuine bargain.

JAMES McCAMMON, Livery, Boarding and Sale Stable,

Corner Brock and Bagot Sts.

Every Kind of Shveyance on Hand. SPECIAL ATTENTION TO WEDDINGS. careful drivers provided. Vans and Waggonette for Balls, Parties, etc. Drivers in Livery if required. Coupes and Carriages.
Fine Saddle Horses, well broken, for Gentle-

Telephone 209.

ALWAYS OPEN

AN UNEQUAL CONTEST

A CUR DOG AGAINST A BADGER IN A GREAT BATTLE.

The Kind of Fun. Imported From Texas, With Which the Conscienceless Inhabitants of New Mexico Amuse Themselves at Times.

"There is something which I have long been wishing to tell you," writes a young gentleman who is now at Eddy, N. M. "but somehow I never succeeded in trans- the lobster, tempted to enter by a bait can prove the remotest connection with een for their clerks. porting myself into the right humor to do hung from the center, finds it impossible the bride kisses her. so. This was a description of one of the to get out. The most common bait are principal and most enjoyable pastimes of codfish heads and fish which are too plenthe Eddy people. The folks here have various ways to beguile the monotony. They have dances, amateur theatricals, hunting parties and badger fights. Badger fights! Oh, what mortal anguish has been caused by these cruel, cruel badger fights! They are of Texan origin, but are now practiced all over the southwest.

"I had been here about a week when I Bets were given and taken. Some had seen | for. the badger, and all knew the dog which was to fight him. I do not like bloody spectacles and decided not to go, but heaven willed it otherwise.

ing about and betting on the badger fight. see it. One man was pointed out to me as having bet as much as $100 on the fight. High bets were transacted in my presence. I decided to see that fight. Two of my friends came to my room after supper and invited me to accompany them to the fight. When we got down stairs, I noticed the whole veranda of the hotel crowded with a boisterous, brawling, betting, disputing, turbulent multitude.

in their shirt sleeves to join the procession. In three blocks the procession behind me | sale of small ones. had doubled in volume. I began growing excited and believe I should have bet had some one offered to do so with me. When we arrived at the arena, a large crowd was already waiting. Betting now went on with feverish excitement. I had lost track of my friends in the uproar and therefore stood aside to contemplate the scene.

"The crowd had arranged itself in a circle with a large open space in the center. Within this space stood a box all closed up, a rope reaching from the interior extended diametrically across the open space. I was told by some one that the badger was in the box and the rope was tied to him. When the fight would begin, some one would jerk the badger by means of the long rope to about the center of the circle, and the dog would then attack

"The dog was now exhibited in the circle. My surprise was unspeakable when I saw that cur. Instead of a large, flerce animal it was a sickly looking puny water spaniel. My sincere sympathy was at once enlisted with the dog.

"Preparations were now made for the bloody event. The badger men insisted upon a careful examination of the dog. Some old sport waltzed up and examined the dog's teeth, legs, nose and fur to see if any pepper had been strewn into it so as to disable the badger. After a careful examination the dog was pronounced

"A person was now wanted to pull the badger. It was unanimously decided that for this purpose an unbiased person was necessary, a person who had not bet on the fight. The badger men refused to allow a dog man to pull the badger lest he should injure him by a too violent jerk. The dog men were equally vociferous in their refusal to allow a badger man to pull him, lest the badger man pull him into a position unfavorable for a successful attack by the dog. A clamorous haggling now ensued. It appeared to me that instead of a badger fight we might have a free for all fisticulf. Every one who volunteered to do the pulling was for some or another reason vociferously rejected. Finally a man walked through the crowd in quest of a person suitable for the purpose of fact that persons making application now to | pulling the badger. He questioned many, the Canada Life Assurance Co. for a full profit but always passed on. Finally he came to policy of life assurance will share in the pro- me. He asked me if I had bet. No. He. fits of two full years at the next division of asked me other questions to which ap- strels are specially skilled in executing is surplus, at 31st December, 1899. This means parently I gave satisfy I what is called the csardas, which begins that new assurers will share in the profits, was invited to pull. My heart throbbed, very slow, and indeed sentimentally, but Mrs. Graymare's husband. not only of the oldest, largest and most suc- as I did not wish the task. 'But by not by the cumning of the minstrels is worked bled at the thought that I might not do pendently, the woman facing the man. is."

one was anticipating. Slowly and dis- of the increasing whirl of the music they wife, and if it had not been for that key proceeded to deposit her eggs in those on tinetly the fellow counted 'One, two, seize one another round the waist and she would be a rich widow now. So if either side. She next closed tightly the three.' I gave a vicious jerk. Out of the | burst into a veritable whirl of dizzy swift- | you are hunting around for a latchkey you | box folled a nice white and clean porce- ness, which (and we are speaking without | will have to bring home some better story | lime cement. Having finished her work, lain badger, I wi' \say.

"It is needless be say that there was a low for its deterity. $8 75. $6.50 and $7 Jackets sale ery one of those wretches exerted his cach- of the exards Sometimes I have seen inatory powers to the utmost. It took me | the couples dancing with their backs to several seconds to that the whole each other and even whirling round and procedure was merely a joke, perpetrated | round in the same uncomfortable posiand solely for my benefit.

> could, I should undoubtedly have done so. | swiftness and case which two people would | I did the next best thing. I put my pipe | usually exhibit. - Good Words. into my mouth, thrust my hands into my pockets and looked as little sheepish as possible. Occasionally when I succeeded in swallowing a large lump which was troubling my throat I would utter a few guttural sounds. These were meant for a laugh. Since this event I am 'one of the boys.' A badger fight is a sort of 'shibboleth,' an 'open sesame' to the elite of western society. "Since then I have seen the same joke perpetrated on Mr. ---, a Chicago man. His sheepishness was uncontrollable. He stood for some minutes in the midst of the yelling, frantic crowd, with indescribable agony. He tried to smile, but his mouth assumed the shape of a poorly cut slit in a pumpkin. I had sympathy with him, but nevertheless enjoyed the fun."-Milwaukee Sentinel.

"N R G."

Aubrey de Vere, an Irish poet and gentleman, mentions in his "Recollections" that when 10 years old he had a tutor who constantly inculcated in him rectitude, purpose and energy. The tutor's praise of energy was ex pressed by the saying: "There are three letters of more value than all the rest in the alphabet-namely.

A school for the education of parjurers has been discovered in New York city-The leading men connected with the institution have been committed for trial bail being refused. A lawyer named

"LOBSTERIN."

A Profitable Industry, Though Difficult to Follow.

One of the most profitable industries down on the coast of Maine is "lobsterin." It is a laborious occupation, and those who follow it have to endure much hardship and exposure and many perils gree and lasts two hours. The bridetiful and unpopular to be salable in market. The pots are submerged in two or three fathoms of water with stone sinkers, and their location marked by short logs of wood fastened to them by ropes and allowed to float on the surface.

Twice a day, at sunrise and sunset, the pots are visited, and the lobsters are taken out and thrown into a chest in the boat, noticed one day all the factory hands with a lot of seaweed to keep them fresh grouping together and talking about a and give them "something to chaw on." magnificent badger that a cow puncher, as After the pots have all been emptied the night. A dog was to fight him to a finish. | transferred to a tank and kept until called

> Lobsterers who are convenient to towns sell most of their catch in the local marof holding from 10,000 to 15,000 lobsters. full drop in at Boston or New York and

> The life of the lobsterer is lonely as well a cabin on a rocky island, cooks his own

THE DOCTOR.

He Is Well Advertised, Although He Doenn't Advertise.

advertising ethics of the medical profes- by nurse and infant for the first time sion, but we seldom stop to think of the vast amount of advertising that every physician secures for himself, ethics or no | Even the poorest leave off their gold cap ethics. His ever attending medicine case, pins and headpieces for more than a year if he walks, or his distinctively "doctor's after the death of a parent.-London rig," if he drives, proclaims his profession | Globe. to all who are within seeing distance. He is a constant and persistent advertisement of himself. In whatever capacity he may live, move and have his being, he is per- | Clay Records of Business Transacmitted to prefix his advertising title to his name and be always and everywhere known as "Dr." On the street, at the club, in the lodgeroom, in society, he 20 feet below the surface some 730 clay never sinks to the level of plain "Mr."

If the physician buys a house or is elected a director of a corporation, it is always To strangers he is always introduced by his title, and his friends and acquaintances "Dr." him from morning until night. It is "Good morning, doctor!" "Fine day, doctor!" "Good evening, doctor!" "Howd'y, doctor!" or just plain "Hello, Joe!" day in and day out. Even handle and in company never fails to refer to him as "the doctor." any business man a small fortune. Even the newspaper, whose columns he does not indemnity of ten mana of silver." deign to use in a business way, always hin, hurdreds of dollars' worth of publicity without money and without price. It is as if he went through life wearing a big placard, "I am a physician." It is parties. impossible for any one to know him, meet him or hear of him without learning of his profession. - Printers' Ink.

A Famous Gypsy Dance. The great dance which the gypsy mincessful Canadian life assurance company, but | yielding I would disappoint the entire | up into a veritable bacchanalian orgy | lady answered. "When you have anything | which almost defies a scription. A solemn to tell, why don't you tell it?" "Immediately a storm of objections promenade on the part of the various cou- "Yes, dear. Well, Samuels was going just so and have a dozen or so six shooters | Now they approach each other coquettish-

This is but one of the countless varieties | Latchkey indeed!"-Pick Me Up. "I could not lick the whole gang. If I | whirling round and round with the same

> Bismarck Never Discourteous. Strange as it may appear in the "Man of roughing it." Blood and Iron," Bismarck, could not be Professor Lenbach, than whom perhaps | ed his soul to his wife on her return. nobody except Professor Schweninger me: "In all the years I have known Prince Bismarck I only remember him speaking harshly on one solitary occasion. | in the bed!"—London Ontbook. A manservant had shut the door with a bang. Bismarck rang the bell-and when he appeared told the man sharply that he was to leave at the end of his month. About a quarter of an hour afterward he rang the bell again, and said in a modified voice, 'You may stay.' That was all."--Sidney Whitman in Harper's.

A Deadly Weapon.

In an affidavit taken before a Mississippi justice of the peace, on which a conviction for assault and battery was sustained, the affiant declared that the accused "did willfully assault and strike him with a deadly weapon—to wit, 'a tobacco box' a pink coral city rising from the sea. -in pursuance of chapter 29 of the annotated code of 1892. Against the peace and dignity of state of Mississippi."-Case and Comment.

At the annual meeting of the shareholders of the Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg railway, held December 28th, postmaster and merchant of McDopald's the old board of directors were re-elected with the exception of Samuel Callaway. who took the place of Walter Webb, signed.

DUTCH WEDDING AN ORDEAL.

Other Curious Customs of This In-Big Business Houses Save Hundreds teresting Country.

A Dutch wedding is a portentous business. Smart Holland does its devotions in barnlike French Protestant churches. The wedding service is mournful to a defrom the sea. Lobsters are caught on rocky; groom in full evening dress and the bride bottom in "traps" or "pots," which are i in orthodox white satin sit upon chairs in ance companies, with big buildings of made of hickory saplings after the fashion front of the black robed minister. He deof a crockery crate. At the two small livers an extempore address fairly bristling graph corporation maintain at considerends holes are arranged with spikes of with personalities. Meanwhile relatives able expense kitchens, dining halls and a flexible wood running to a focus, so that sob in pews, until finally every one who staff of servants to provide a good lunch-> the friends of the bride to send her in the morning a bouquet or basket of white flowers plentifully ribboned. With numbers of these a very gay effect is produced, though the Dutch are iamentably behind the times in table decorations and posy making. With the advent of the "hors d'œuvre" come speeches. The bride's brother or other delegate first rings a small hand bell. Then amid a silence broken by the cheerful clicking of knives and glass with their own. After a score of lishman who found himself in a party conas dangerous. He generally lives alone in sisting almost entirely of assorted couples from each employee every day is enormous ventured to pay a few compliments and meals of fish and bacon and spends his | mild attentions to a charming young martraffic by imposing a heavy fine upon the awful rumors that, though duels are now very rare, he desired to challenge the offender, who wisely placed the sea between himself and his would be opponent.

Babies have a comfortable time enough in Holland, where the cramping swaddling pillow is replaced by English layettes. It is, however, expensive to know too many, We hear a good deal about the anti- for every woman who visits or is visited must give the former at least 5 shillings. Mourning is very long and very strict.

BOOKKEEPING B. C.

tions Temp. Darius II.

An American archæological expedition excavating at Nippur discovered in a room tablets, the business records of a rich firm He is never separated from his standing of merchants, Ulurashu Sons. These documents are dated in the reigns of Artaxerxes I (464-424 B. C.) and Darius II (123-105 B. C.). The tablets are of varias "Dr." Smith. If he is a deacon in the ous sizes, some resembling the ordinary church, nobody ever thinks of saying cake of soap of commerce. They are cov-'Deacon' Smith. He is "Dr." Smith ered with cunciform characters clear and even when he passes the bread and wine. distinct as when the bookkeeper of Ulurashtr inscribed them 2,500 years ago. Among them is this guarantee for 20 years that an emerald is so well set that it will not fall out: "Bel-ahiddina and Bel-shumu, sons of Bel, and Hatin, son of Bazuza, spoke unto Bel-nadinshumu, son of Morashu, as folhis wife addresses him by his professional lows: 'As concerns the gold ring set with an emerald, we guarantee that for 20 years the emerald will not fall out of the ring. Thus the physician gets for nothing a lift should fall out before the expiration quantity of advertising that would cost of 20 years, Bel-ahiddina (and the two others) shall pay to Bel-nadinshumu an

Then follow the names of seven witnesses mentions him as "Dr." Smith and gives and of an official who is described as "the scribe of the Concordance of Proper Names." The document concludes with the thumbnail marks of the contracting

There are also leases of various kinds and contracts for the sale of sun dried bricks and other merchandise, and for the loan of seed corn and oxen for plowing.-New York Commercial Advertiser.

Not Good Enough For Her. "Did you hear about Samuels?" asked

"No. I didn't hear about Samuels," the arose. This, however, was finally quieted ples begins it As the music accelerates home the other night when a footpad shot down, and I took the rope. I got careful its time the couples break into a sort of at him, and the ball hit a latchkey in instructions how to proceed. I was to pull | waltz | Then with the time still quicken- | Samuels' vest pocket, and his life was just so, on the count of 'three.' I trem- ing they leave each other and dance inde- saved. So you see what good a latchkey

"Indeed? If Samuels had been going leveled at my face in case I made a blun- ly; then they retreat backward with home at a reasonable hour, he wouldn't feigned aversion. This continues for have met any tootpad. Secondly, he car-"All noise had now subsided. Every i some time, till at last under the influence | ried $10,000 insurance, payable to his any exaggeration) the eye can scarcely fol- than that one. That's all. I'm going to she then doubtless went on her way, satis hed now, and out goes the gas in two ticks. fied all had been done for her offspring

Roughing It.

On one occasion Archbishop Temple was welcomed and entertained overnight cages, they can plainly see, through the upon poor unoffending me, got up wholely | tion | Sometimes I have witnessed three | by a clergy man during the absence of that | impenetrable glass walls, the bountiful dancers forming a sort of complicated leash, clergy man's wife. On leaving the host supply of food which was provided for politely expressed the hope that when next | their use. - Scientific American. his lord-hip honored the house Mrs. Temple would accompany him.

"No, thanks," the archbishop laconically replied; "Mrs. Temple doesn't like The elergyman's feelings were deeply discourteous to people-though others hurt, for the visit had meant some expense were not always as considerate to him. | and much anxiety to him. He unburden-"Why, my dear," she exclaimed, "you knew Bismarck so intimately, once told | didn't surely put the bishop in the pink | bedroom, did you? He did. "Oh, then, that's it' lint all the plate

Carefully Considered.

"What," inquired the psychological student, "do you regard as the chief end of

"Well," answered Mr. Blykins, "it depends on what you want the man for. If you want him to do brain work, it's his head, and if you want him to run errands it s his feet."

Jaipur is called "the Beautiful City of India" and is noted among travelers for the exquisite rose color which all of houses sport. It gives the impression of Four-fifths of all the garlie eaten in Europe is raised on the two African islands

Zanzibar and Pemba. The remains of William Locke, formerly Corners, were interred in the cemetery at A Christmas tree, in a German Episcopa McDonald's Corners Wednesday.

some time with cancer.

FREE LUNCHES FOR EMPLOYEES.

of Dollars Daily That Way. Many rich corporations in the down town business district find it cheaper to treat their employees to a substantial free meal in the middle of the day than to allow them to go out and spend their own money for it. Three of the larger insurtheir own, several banks and a great tele-

In the case of the telegraph company, Next follows a tremendous breakfast in | which feeds about 800 people a day, a French style. It is "de rigueur" for all nominal sum is charged, covering only the cost of the food. But with the insurance companies and the banks everything is furnished free. The only thing required of the employee is that he or she shall not leave the building during the luncheon time, and that the usual hour be shortened to one-half hour.

This arrangement is not prompted by motives of philanthropy by any means. The corporation makes money by it, in spite of the large expense involved. Where forks a health is proposed. Then comes a several hundred clerks are employed the cowboys are called here, had brought to lobsters are all taken to a large "float," | quaint postscript to this very ordinary | management of the working force becomes town. There was to be a badger fight that at some convenient spot, where they are ceremonial. Ladies and gentlemen must a complicated question. If allowed to go alike rise from their seats and, solemnly out for lunch, there are sure to be a great filing up to the person toasted, touch his | number of delinquents who do not get back within the allotted hour. The low speeches the thing gets monotonous, but | priced public restaurants are always overket. Those who are working at distant it is carried out to the bitter end. Any crowded at noon, and the excuse of many and isolated spots along the coast are vis- person litted would feel aggrieved. In of the clerks that they cannot get waited "On my way home from work every- ited every week or ten days by tugs fitted | Hellar it is the family before everything. | upon is a valid one. With many of the body on the streets appeared to be speak- up with large tanks or reservoirs, capable A leading barrister was recently compelled men the temptation to drink stimulants to throw up an important case in order to | when they go out for luncheon is also a People had come in from the country to These vessels patrol regularly up and attend the birthday party of an aged fa- matter for consideration, but the saving of down the coast, and when their tanks are ther who lived three hours distant by rail. the employees' time to the company dur-The Dutch are excellent husbands, but | ing working hours is the main factor quite preposterously jealous. An Eng- With the telegraph corporation, for instance, the total gain of one half hour

With the insurance companies the employees are not obliged to accept the com- store. days catching bait for his traps. Nearly ried woman. He even had the assurance pany luncheon, but there are very few of all of them have lobster 'farms,' where to include her in a general offering of them who do not take advantage of it. A the undersized lobsters and those with roses made to the company. The husband good course meal is served that would Books. "When we left, this entire multitude spawn are imprisoned in salt water ponds was furious. He canceled a previously cost the clerks far more than they could filed after us. Shopkeepers left their shops | to grow and breed. The law protects the given dinner invitation, and there were probably afford to spend out of the building. As the companies save from $200 to $300 worth of time each day they can afford to be liberal.

FALTERED FOR AN INSTANT.

But That One Instant Had Given Marlborough Victory.

At 5 o'clock Marlborough launched the Annuals great attack. Slowly at first, but gathering momentum as they advanced, the long lines of horsemen came on. The air | to $1. was full of the clangor of scabbard on stirrup. The squadrons were just stretching themselves out into a gallop as they reached the summit of the ridge when they were smitten by the fire of the French infantry and artillery. So deadly and close was the volley that the leading squadrons went down before it, and for a few wild minutes, under the canopy of whirling smoke, Marlborough's horsemen were in flerce confusion.

That was the moment for a counterstroke! Tallard saw it and gave the word to his cavalry to charge. They were more numerous than the British, yet they faltered. "I saw an instant," wrote the unfortunate Tallard afterward, "in which the battle was gained if"-his cavalry, in brief, had charged! But it failed to charge. The moment of possible victory vanished, and over the crest, with bent heads and wind blown crests, the gleam of a thousand swords and the thunder of innumerable galloping hoofs, came the British cavalry.

Tallard's center was broken as with the stroke of a thunderbolt! His infantry was swept into ruins, his cavalry hurled into disordered flight and his army fairly cut in twain. His left wing fell back, fighting desperately, but his right, the elite of his army, was hopelessly shut up in Blenheim itself. As night fell Marlborough drew his lines closely round the village. Webb, with the Queen's regi ment, blocked one avenue of escape, and a cavalry force—one regiment of which consisted of Scots grays-guarded the other. The French general in command of Blenheim, believing the situation to be desperate, ignobly abandoned his men and tried to swim his horse across the Danube and was very properly drowned in the attempt. - Cornhill.

A Wasp's Mistake.

It is generally supposed that instinct unerringly teaches birds and insects the best way in which to build their homes or nests and also to provide for their offspring. The following incident, recently under personal observation, will show that instinct is not always infallible:

A friend placed three small empty vials in an open box on a shelf in an upright position in close contact, and they were uncorked. A short time afterward it was a matter of surprise to find that these had been appropriated by a female mud wasp. She had placed a goodly number of spiders in the center vial, doubtless intended to serve as food for her future brood, then mouths of all the receptacles with a hard that a thoughtful mother could do. But just think of the sensations of those little wasps when they come into existence, for, while starving in their sealed

The Solemn Scotchman.

A Scottish parson was attending a funeral in his own churchyard, says a writer over, and dust given to dust, the green sod smoothed down over the narrow bed, the company departed. But a worthy man remained behind and approached the parserious talk.

"Din ye ken what I aye think at a fu neral?" Many serious -reflections have come to one there, and the clergyman expected some befitting thought.

"No. What is it you always think?"

"No. What is it you always think?"

The answer was, "I aye think I'm desperate gledd it's no me." The incumbent of that parish was mortified.

Wanted His Money's Worth.

ther of the bride. "Yes; the march that is played when the bridal procession moves down the aisle. Which one would you prefer-Mendelssohn's or the march from 'Lohen-

"Then play the one that's the longest." -Chicago Tribune.

"Any difference in the expense?"

A half million dollar fire occurred at Birmingham, Ala., on Christmas evening Mr. Methodist church, loaded with gifts and Locke died in Winnipeg, after suffering for lighted with a hundred candles, was the cause of the configgration.

Our Friends Steadily Increase

El Padre Cigar

NEVER WANES IN EXCELLENCE.

Why is a false kind like the letter P.

WOODS' FAIR.

One Week of Stock Clearing.

4444000

Quick selling prices prevail at every counter to clear the store of all surplus before stock-taking. The economical prices which are presented in this advertisement are intended only as examples of the many more which will be found in every department of our Cloth bound Books, all the best authors, 25c. and 35c. These Books are a little shop worn, and we will close them out at

Bibles. Big reductions in Bibles, Prayer and Hymn Book ..

Girls' Own Annuals roduced for this sale

Sleighs.

25c. Sleighs for 15c.

Silverware.

Hockey Sticks 13c.

Just enough of this Silverware left for one sale. Pie Knife, Gravey Spoon, Soup Baking Powder. Ladle, Cake Basket, Cream Pitcher, all our $1.50 pieces, for 75c. A ten years' guarantee goes with each piece.

Jardiniers.

$1.50 Jardinier for $1.25. $3 Jardinier and Pedeetal for $2

Crokinole Boards.

85c. Crokinole Boards for 65c.

Candy. (lum Drops, 9c. per lb ; Challenge Mix,

7c. per lb; Royal Mix, 10c. per lb; Victoria Creame, 15c. per lb.; Chocolate Creams, 15c. per lb; New York Gum Drops, 15c. per lb.

Matches. Eddy's Best Matches, only 8c. a box.

Starch.

1-lb. Box Lily White Laundry Starch,

For one hour only, from nine to ten o'clock on Saturday morning, we will sell

1.1b. Cans of Cream Baking Powder for 10c.

3 lb. Box White Laundry Starch, 19c.

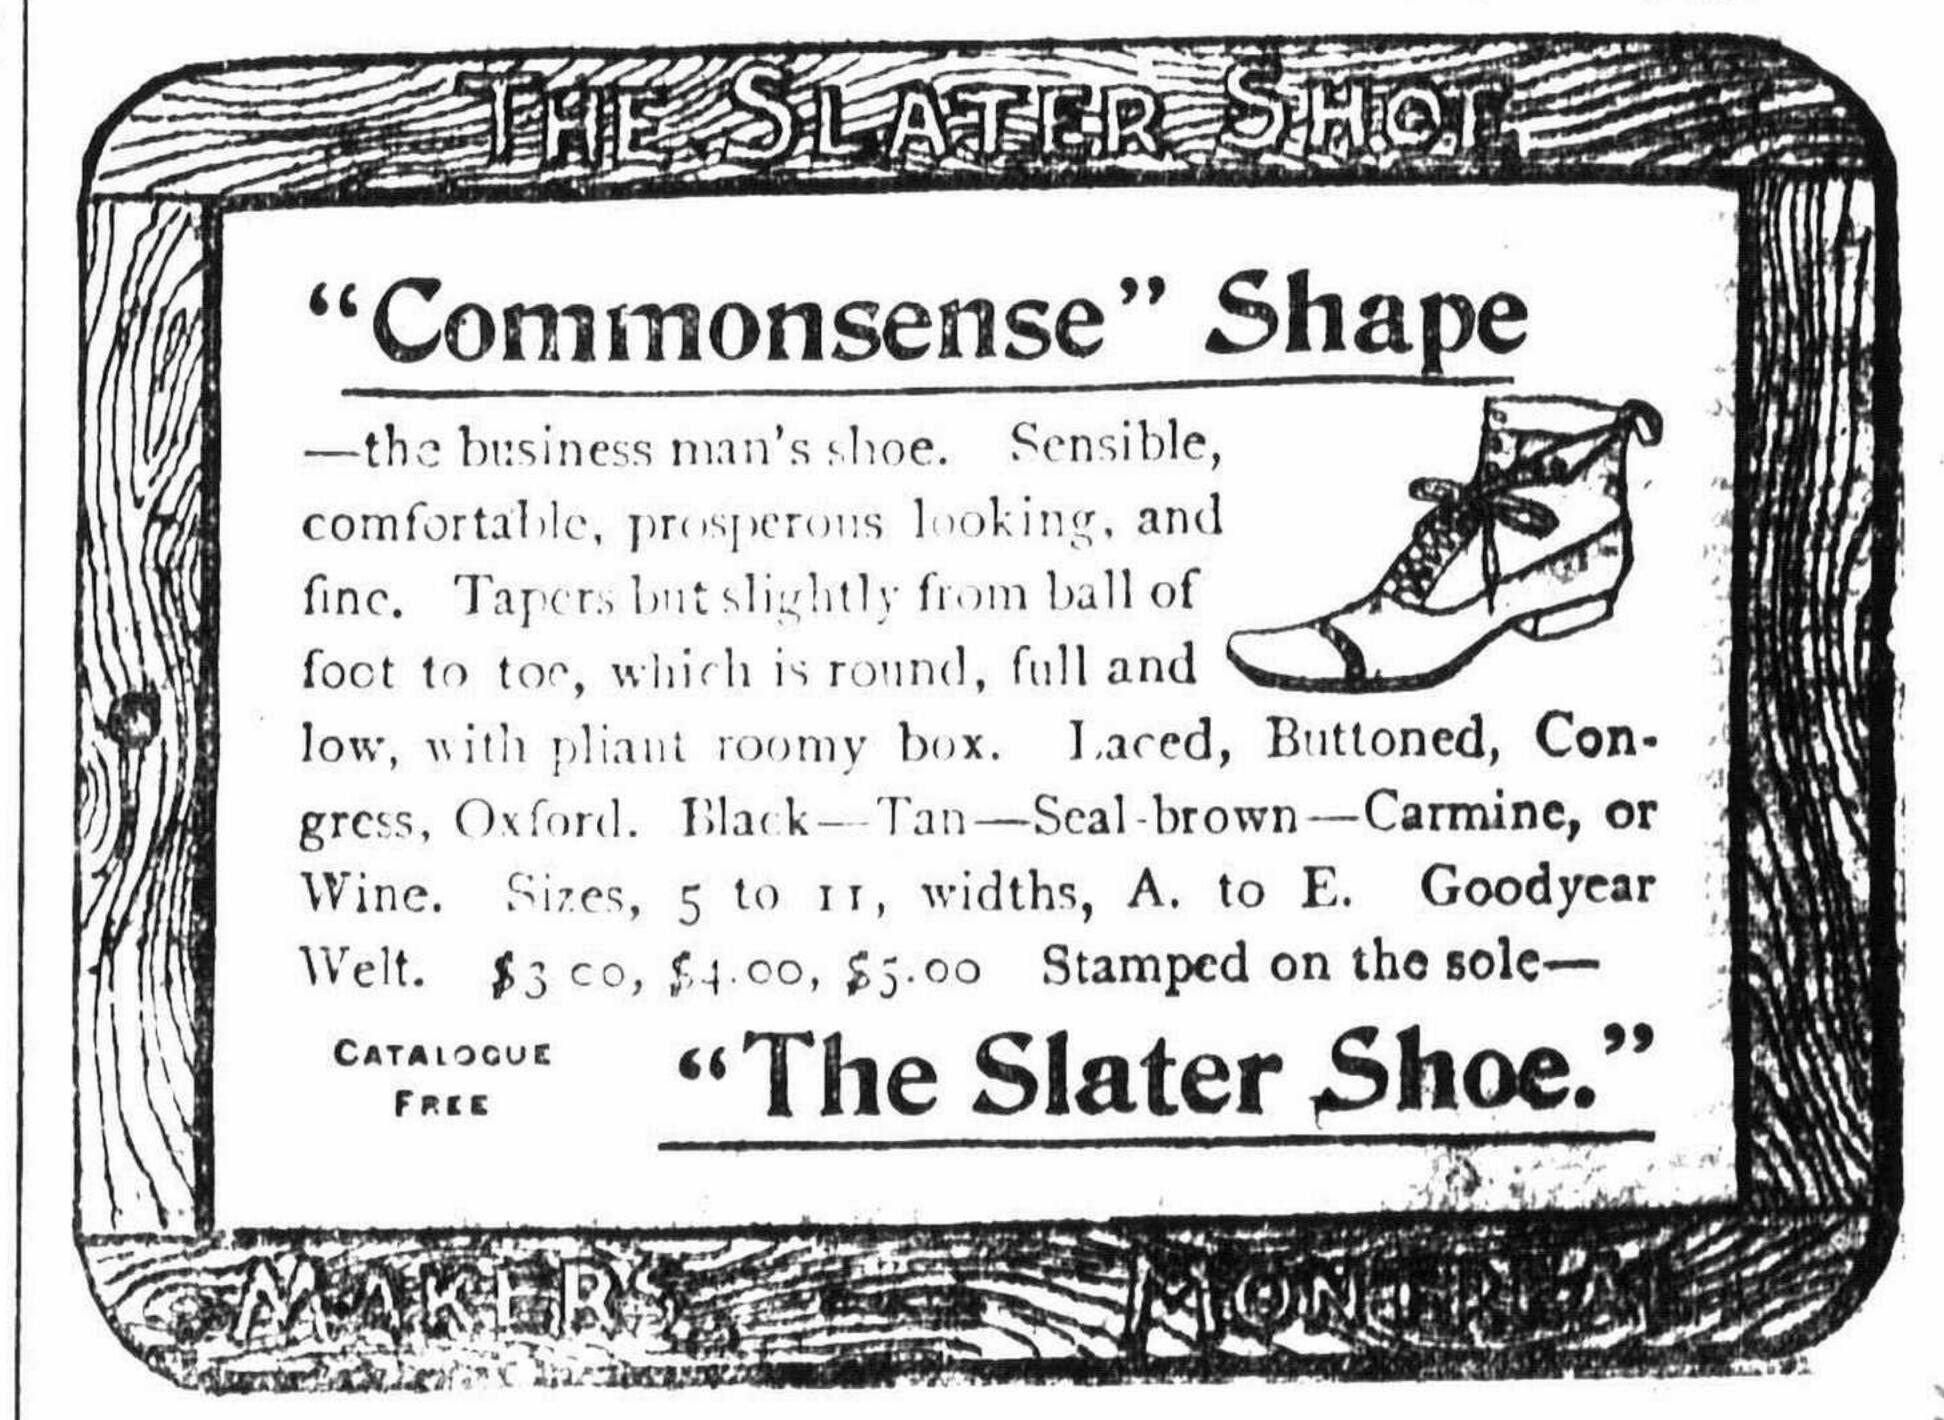

1.1b. Package Prepared Corn Starch, 7c.

per can.

Music. Three Sheets of Music for 10c. Come early Saturday morning, as many of these bargains we have only a small quantity of and they will not last long.

WOODS' FAIR.

Corner Princess and Wellington Streets.

HAINES & LOUKETT, - - SOLE LOCAL AGENTS.

We will offer special inducements on all Heating Stoves, new or second-hand, for the

In Longman's Magazine. The service balance of the season for Spot Cash. It is our intention to carry none over until next season son with a solemn face, as though for if specially low prices will sell them.

69 and 71 Brock Street.

march?" asked the church organist.
"The wedding march?" echoed the fa-

Office and Pocket Diaries for 1899. Peloubet's Notes on the Sunday School Lessons for 1899. Sunday School Reward Cards, Etc. Canadian Almanac, 1899.

Art Calendars 1899, at half price.

BECAUSE THE

Made and guaranteed by

8. DAVIS & SONS, MONTREAL, Largest Cigar Manufacturers in Canada.

Because, although always first in pity, he is always last in help. *****