Conveyed to Windsor in Special Trains—The Queen Drove Around the Grounds-Individual Members Presented-Discourtesy in London Fully Cancelled-Members of the House Think a Snub Has Been Administered-Queen Heard of Event Through Newspapers.

London, July 5 .- Four hundred and Cooking in Hot Weather fifty members of the house of commons accompanied by their wives and daughters, making a total of a thousand persons, went Windsor on Saturday to visit the queen, in response to the invitation extended members when they attended the speaker of the house to Buckingham palace to present a jubilee address to her. The party were conveyed in special trains at no cost to themselves, and were taken in carriages in which champagne, tea and strawberries were served to the visitors.

The queen, attended by princess Beatrice. both attired in black, drove slowly in a phaeton drawn by two grey ponies about the grounds, where her guests were assembled. The leaders of both political parties, Dangler Gas Stoves & Ranges Asquith, accompanied her majesty on foot. They summoned the individual members made obedience to the queen. Among those presented to her majesty were Messrs. Pickard and Abraham, labor leaders; Sir Charles Dilke, the radical leader, was also present. The discourtesy in London was fully cancelled by the graciousness of to-day's reception at Windsor.
